In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful

"If the men of Hadith went on compiling the narrations for two hundred years, all of their traditions would be based mainly upon this composition, whose narrations I collected from among three hundred thousand traditions" Muslim Ibn Al-Hajjaj said.

Allah Almighty said: "It is Who hath sent among the unlettered ones a messenger of their own, to recite unto them His revelations and to make them grow, and to teach them the Scripture and Wisdom, though heretofore they were indeed in error manifest". (Friday "Al-Jumu'a" 2)

Introduction

Praise be to Allah, the Lord of all worlds, and the good end be for the righteous pious people. Allah's [illegible] and peace be upon Muhammad, the seal of The Prophets as well as upon all The Prophets and Messengers. Now and then: you, (Allah's mercy be upon you!) mentioned that you intended to investigate the [illegible] of knowledge granted to you by Allah, the entire traditions transmitted from The Prophet (Allah's blessing and peace be upon him) on the [illegible] and judgements, and what is concerned with reward and punishment (getting into the Garden as a result of the good deeds, and [illegible] into the Hellfire as a result of the evil deeds), as well as [illegible] various religious matters); how they have been transmitted, [illegible] narrations that became in circulation among the Muslim scholars.

No doubt, you wanted to be acquainted with all of those (traditions) as fully collected, and exactly composed (between two binders). (Perhaps) you might ask me to compose them entirely, with no repetition (of narrations). If you decided so, in order to satisfy your concerns of understanding them, and bringing about (the required judgements) from them, and (if you thought that) whatever you asked (me) for would have a valuable consequence and a good benefit, considering, while asking me, that I would work hard by doing so, then, you should know that in case I was given the power to do it, and achieve it to the full, I, in particular, before the others, would be the first to benefit from it, for many reasons, which are too much to mention.

But all what could be said in this case is that it is easier for one to edit and deal perfectly with a few quantity of this matter than to treat a greater quantity (which you might not be able to treat), particularly (when you come to deal) with (traditions that should be presented to) those ordinary people, who have no ability of distinguishing (what is right from what is

Introduction

Praise be to Allah, the Lord of all worlds, and the good end be for the righteous pious people. Allah's blessing and peace be upon Muhammad, the seal of The Prophets, as well as upon all The Prophets and Messengers. Now and then: you, "Allah's mercy be upon you" mentioned that you intended to investigate, by virtue of success granted to you by Allah, the entire traditions transmitted from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the religion's Sunna and judgements, and what is concerned with reward and punishment, promising (of the Garden as a result of the good deeds), and threatening (from the (Hell) fire as a result of the evil deeds), as well as with the other things (of religious matters): how they have been transmitted with their attributions and became in circulation among the Muslim scholars.

No doubt, you wanted to be acquainted with all of those (traditions) as fully collected, and exactly composed (between two binders). (Perhaps) you might ask me to compose them entirely, with no repetition (of narrations). If you decided so, in order to satisfy your concerns of understanding them, and bringing about (the required judgements) from them, and (if you thought that) whatever you asked (me) for would have a valuable consequence and a good benefit, considering, while asking me, that I would work hard by doing so, then, you should know that in case I was given the power to do it, and achieve it to the full, I, in particular, before the others, would be the first to benefit from it, for many reasons, which are too much to mention.

But, all what could be said in this issue is that it is easier for one to edit and deal perfectly with a few quantity of this matter than to treat a greater quantity (which you might not be able to treat), particularly (when you come to deal) with (traditions that should be presented to) those ordinary people, who have no ability of distinguishing (what is right from what is wrong) except by the help of others (who have this ability such as the scholars and specialists).

Such being the case, then what is little and rightly true is more beneficial than what is much and controversial. But in spite of that, an advantage might be in what is much of that work precisely for many people, who have been granted with some attentiveness to, and knowledge of its reasons and causes; and only this is, by Allah's will, the benefit of what has been brought and regarded as so much narrations and repetitions.

As for the ordinary people, who are different from those characteristic of attentiveness and knowledge, there would be no significance in giving them more narrations, since they are unable to go through the less.

On the other hand, we, Allah willing, are going to direct whatever (narrations) you asked me for, following a certain method, which we will explain to you. We are going to divide all of what we have of the traditions transmitted from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" into three parts, and three classes of people, with no repetition except in some cases, when it is incumbent to repeat a tradition, having an additional meaning or different attribution, for some reasons.

That is because the additional required meaning of a certain tradition might stand for a complete tradition. So, the tradition as such should be repeated for whatever addition it has, though the additional meaning it contains should be offered as brief as it could be. But, since, in most cases, it is difficult to abridge whatever additional meaning it has, it would be better to repeat it in full. Allah willing, we will not repeat in full any tradition, unless we find it necessary to do so.

In the first part (of the three parts into which we divided the traditions in value), we would mention only the narrations, which are much more valid and far from faults and defects, i.e. those narrations, whose transmitters are truly straight in their speech, and perfectly knowledgeable of what they transmitted; and their narrations should be as far as it could be from differences and confusion.

When the narrations of such good people are mentioned in full, they would be followed by those narrations, some of whose transmitters might not be described as standing on the same degree of keeping and perfection as those presented before them (in the first class). But, though they might be, as we described them, lesser in degree than those of the first class, they are under the protection of truthfulness and knowledge (of tradition) such as Ata Ibn As-Sa'ib, Yazid Ibn Abu Ziyad, Laith Ibn Abu Sulaim, and their fellows of the tradition holders and news transmitters.

Though they (the narrators of the second class), as we described them, were known for their being under the protection of knowledge (of tradition), in the sight of the scholars, those (of the first class), with their famous perfection and uprightness of narration are better in status and position than the former. That is because those of perfection and uprightness are considered by the scholars to be of a high degree and superior merit.

Do you not think that if you made a comparison between those three persons we mentioned above, i.e. Ata, Yazid and Laith from one side, and Mansur Ibn Al-Mu'tamir, Sulaiman Al-A'mash and Isma'il Ibn Abu Khalid from the other side, concerning their perfection and straightness of narrating the tradition, you would find the latter undoubtedly different, to a great extent, from the former, particularly in the sight of the scholars, for the news they learnt about the perfect keeping of the traditions of Mansur, Al-A'mash and Isma'il, to such a degree which had not been attained by Ata, Yazid and Laith?

On the other hand, if you made such a contrast as between Ibn Awn and Aiyub As-Sikhtiani, and Awf Ibn Abu Jamila and Ash'ath Al-Humrani, you would find them, though all were companions of both Al-Hasan and Ibn Sirin, distinctively different as regards the perfection of the virtue (of keeping the traditions) and the correctness of the transmission (of the narrations). Though both Awf and Ash'ath are considered to be true and honest in the sight of the scholars, the preferentiality, according to those scholars, is based upon the degree and position (of keeping and perfection).

We mentioned only those representatives, in order that they would be typical of the way of understanding the right way of classifying the men of knowledge (depending upon their degrees of understanding and perfection). In this way, one should not under-estimate the man of a high degree of knowledge, nor should he over-estimate the man of a lesser degree. But, on the contrary, he should give everyone his right of estimation and put him in the position, which he deserves.

In this context, A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" was reported to have said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to put everyone in his right position of which he is worthy, according to what has been declared by The Holy Quran: "but over all endued with knowledge is one, the All Knowing". (Yusuf 76)

كَانُوا فِيمَا وَصَفْنَا دُونَهُمْ، فَإِنَّ اسْمَ السِّتْرِ وَالصِّدْقِ وَتَعَاطِي الْعِلْمِ يَشْمَلُهُمْ: كَعَطَاءِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ، وَيَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي زِيَادٍ، وَلَيْثِ بْنِ أَبِي سُلَيْمٍ، وَأَضْرَابِهِمْ، مِنْ حُمَّالِ الآثَارِ وَنُقَّالِ الأَخْبَارِ.

أَلاَ تَرَى أَنَّكَ إِذَا وَازَنْتَ هٰؤُلاَءِ الثَّلاَثَةَ الَّذِينَ سَمَّيْنَاهُمْ: عَطَاءً، وَيَزِيدَ، وَلَيْثاً، بِمَنْصُورِ بْنِ الْمُعْتَمِرِ، وَسُلَيْمَانَ الأَعْمَشِ، وَإِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ أَبِي خَالِدٍ، فِي إِتْقَانِ الْحَدِيثِ وَالاسْتِقَامَةِ فِيهِ، وَجَدْتَهُمْ مُبَايِنِينَ لَهُمْ، لاَ يُدَانُونَهُمْ؟! لاَ شَكَّ عِنْدَ أَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ بِالْحَدِيثِ فِي ذٰلِكَ. لِلَّذِي اسْتَفَاضَ عِنْدَهُمْ مِنْ صِحَّةِ حِفْظِ مَنْصُورٍ وَالأَعْمَشِ وَإِسْمَاعِيلَ، وَإِتْقَانِهِمْ لِحَدِيثِهِمْ، وَأَنَّهُمْ لَمْ يَعْرِفُوا مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ مِنْ عَطَاءٍ وَيَزِيدَ وَلَيْثٍ.

وَإِنَّمَا مَثَّلْنَا هٰؤُلاَءِ فِي التَّسْمِيَةِ، لِيَكُونَ تَمْثِيلُهُمْ سِمَةً يَصْدُرُ عَنْ فَهْمِهَا مَنْ غَبِيَ عَلَيْهِ طَرِيقُ أَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ فِي تَرْتِيبِ أَهْلِهِ فِيهِ، فَلاَ يُقَصَّرُ بِالرَّجُلِ الْعَالِي الْقَدْرِ عَنْ دَرَجَتِهِ، وَلاَ يُرْفَعُ مُتَّضِعُ الْقَدْرِ فِي الْعِلْمِ فَوْقَ مَنْزِلَتِهِ، وَيُعْطَى كُلُّ ذِي حَقٍّ فِيهِ حَقَّهُ، وَيُنَزَّلُ مَنْزِلَتَهُ.

وَقَدْ ذُكِرَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَنْهَا أَنَّهَا قَالَتْ: أَمَرَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنْ نُنَزِّلَ النَّاسَ مَنَازِلَهُمْ مَعَ مَا نَطَقَ بِهِ الْقُرْآنُ مِنْ قَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: ﴿وَفَوْقَ كُلِّ ذِى عِلْمٍ عَلِيمٌ﴾ [يوسف: ٧٦].

According to those points I mentioned, we are going to compose (this book) which you asked me for, of the traditions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

As for those, who are, entirely or mostly doubtful, in the sight of the men of tradition, we would not be concerned with (mentioning and) directing their narrations, such as Abdullah Ibn Al-Miswar: Abu Ja'far Al-Mada'ini, Amr Ibn Khalid, Abd Al-Quddus Ash-Shami, Muhammad Ibn Sa'id Al-Masloob, Ghaiyyath Ibn Ibrahim, Sulaiman Ibn Amr: Abu Dawood An-Nakh'i, and their fellows, who have been accused of inventing the forged traditions and creating the false news.

Furthermore, we also would stop from transmitting those narrations containing what is faulty or unacceptable. The sign of the unacceptability is that whenever you review such a narration of a certain tradition to other narrations of those men of right knowledge with whose degree of perfection the scholars are satisfied, it would be different from, if not agree with them at all.

Such narrations should be abandoned, if not used at all. From among the narrators who are famous for such type of traditions, we can mention Abdullah Ibn Muharrar, Yahya Ibn Abu Unaisa, Al-Jarrah Ibn Al-Minhal: Abu Al-Utuf, Abbad Ibn Kathir, Husain Ibn Abdullah Ibn Dumaira, Umar Ibn Suhban, and their fellows, who were known to have narrated the unacceptable traditions. We would neither stop at their narrations, nor would we be concerned with them.

That is because the judgement of the scholars and their way of accepting a narration of a certain man, of which he is unique, depends upon the necessity of his agreement with the reliable narrators in some of their narrations. If he was as such, and then he added something, which was not mentioned by his companions of narrators, then his addition would be admitted.

But, as for those, who are concerned much more with such men as Az-Zuhri, famous for his respectability and the multitude of the perfect keepers of his traditions, or those of the others, or concerned with Hisham Ibn Urwa, who shares with him (Az-Zuhri) the prevalence of traditions among the people, from whom their companions of narrators transmitted their traditions, which came, at the most, in accordance (with that of the other reliable narrators), there might be narrated from them some traditions which none of their companions knew, by men, who have not shared with them (narrating) any of their true traditions. Those narrations of such people should not be admitted; and Allah Almighty knows best.

فَأَمَّا مَا كَانَ مِنْهَا عَنْ قَوْمٍ هُمْ عِنْدَ أَهْلِ الْحَدِيثِ مُتَّهَمُونَ، أَوْ عِنْدَ الأَكْثَرِ مِنْهُمْ، فَلَسْنَا نَتَشَاغَلُ بِتَخْرِيجِ حَدِيثِهِمْ، كَعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مِسْوَرٍ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ الْمَدَائِنِيِّ، وَعَمْرِو بْنِ خَالِدٍ، وَعَبْدِ الْقُدُّوسِ الشَّامِيِّ، وَمُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْمَصْلُوبِ، وَغِيَاثِ بْنِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، وَسُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ عَمْرٍو أَبِي دَاوُدَ النَّخَعِيِّ، وَأَشْبَاهِهِمْ مِمَّنِ اتُّهِمَ بِوَضْعِ الأَحَادِيثِ وَتَوْلِيدِ الأَخْبَارِ.

Thus, we explained from the ways of the people of tradition, some trends for those who wanted to understand and follow them. Allah willing, we would add more explanations and comments in some locations of this book, when we come to narrate the associated news, in their right places fitting for explanation of this book.

Now and then: May Allah's mercy be upon you! But for what we have seen of the bad conduct of those, who made of themselves transmitters of the traditions, putting the suspicious traditions and the unaccepted narrations (beside the true ones), abandoning (the process of) leaving out all but the true traditions, transmitted by the reliable people, famous for their truthfulness and honesty, though they (those transmitters) themselves acknowledge that most of what they raise to the indiscreet and ignorant people is unacceptable, and transmitted from unsatisfying people, the transmission from whom has been criticized by such grand imams as Malik Ibn Anas, Shu'ba Ibn Al-Hajjaj, Sufyan Ibn Uyaina, Yahya Ibn Sa'id Al-Qattan, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Mahdi and others, we would not feel it easy to achieve such composition and investigation (of traditions) as what you asked for. But, as we informed you, in view of spreading the rejected traditions, based upon chains of suspicious and unknown transmitters, and throwing them to the ordinary people who never know what they contain of faults and defects, we felt it comfortable to respond to you in achieving what you asked for.

وَبَعْدُ: يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ، فَلَوْلا الَّذِي رَأَيْنَا مِنْ سُوءِ صَنِيعِ كَثِيرٍ مِمَّنْ نَصَبَ نَفْسَهُ مُحَدِّثاً، فِيمَا يَلْزَمُهُمْ مِنْ طَرْحِ الأَحَادِيثِ الضَّعِيفَةِ، وَالرِّوَايَاتِ الْمُنْكَرَةِ، وَتَرْكِهِمُ الاقْتِصَارَ عَلَى الأَحَادِيثِ الصَّحِيحَةِ الْمَشْهُورَةِ، مِمَّا نَقَلَهُ الثِّقَاتُ الْمَعْرُوفُونَ بِالصِّدْقِ وَالأَمَانَةِ، بَعْدَ مَعْرِفَتِهِمْ وَإِقْرَارِهِمْ بِأَلْسِنَتِهِمْ، أَنَّ كَثِيراً مِمَّا يَقْذِفُونَ بِهِ إِلَى الأَغْبِيَاءِ مِنَ النَّاسِ هُوَ مُسْتَنْكَرٌ، وَمَنْقُولٌ عَنْ قَوْمٍ غَيْرِ مَرْضِيِّينَ، مِمَّنْ ذَمَّ الرِّوَايَةَ عَنْهُمْ أَئِمَّةُ أَهْلِ الْحَدِيثِ، مِثْلُ: مَالِكِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ، وَشُعْبَةَ بْنِ الْحَجَّاجِ، وَسُفْيَانَ بْنِ عُيَيْنَةَ، وَيَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ، وَعَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ مَهْدِيٍّ، وَغَيْرِهِمْ مِنَ الأَئِمَّةِ، لَمَا سَهُلَ عَلَيْنَا الانْتِصَابُ لِمَا سَأَلْتَ مِنَ التَّمْيِيزِ وَالتَّحْصِيلِ.

وَلَكِنْ مِنْ أَجْلِ مَا أَعْلَمْنَاكَ مِنْ نَشْرِ الْقَوْمِ الأَخْبَارَ الْمُنْكَرَةَ، بِالأَسَانِيدِ الضِّعَافِ الْمَجْهُولَةِ، وَقَذْفِهِمْ بِهَا إِلَى الْعَوَامِّ الَّذِينَ لاَ يَعْرِفُونَ عُيُوبَهَا، خَفَّ عَلَى قُلُوبِنَا إِجَابَتُكَ إِلَى مَا سَأَلْتَ.

[1] You should narrate only from the reliable people, and let the liars, and beware of telling lies about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"

You should know "May Allah grant you success" that it is incumbent upon everyone, who knows how to distinguish the right narrations from the false ones, as well as the reliable narrators from the doubtful ones, to narrate only whatever narrations which are thought to be correctly true, whose transmitters are known to be reliably truthful, and to abandon those narrations transmitted by those suspected people, known for their inventing (those lies and forged traditions).

The proof of the fact that what we mentioned, apart from any different opinion, is obligatory, is Allah Almighty's saying: "O ye who believe! If a wicked person comes to you with any news, ascertain the truth, lest ye harm people unwittingly, and afterwards become full of repentance for what ye have done". (The Chambers "Al-Hujurat" 6) He "Exalted be He," said: "Such as ye choose of witnesses". (The Heifer "Al-Baqara" 282)

He indicated with those Holy Verses we mentioned that the news of the wicked person is to be rejected, as well as the witness of the unjust person is to be cancelled. Though the meaning of the news might be different in some points from that of the witness, in most cases, their meaning could be compatible. However, the news brought by the wicked man is to be rejected, in the sight of the people of knowledge, as well as his witness should be cancelled, according to all of them.

On the other hand, the Sunna asserted the negation of narrating the unacceptable narrations, with the same emphasis of The Holy Quran upon rejecting the news of the wicked person, according to the famous tradition narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "He, who told a narration about me, which he thought to be a lie, is one of the liars".

This narration was confirmed by both of Samura Ibn Jundub and Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba, who told that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said so.

[2] The grievous punishment of attributing lies to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"

1-(1) Rib'i Ibn Hirash narrated that he heard Ali "Allah be pleased with him" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not attribute lies to me, for anyone who attributes lies to me will be doomed to enter into the (Hell) Fire".

وَاعْلَمْ وَفَّقَكَ اللَّهُ تَعالَى، أَنَّ الْوَاجِبَ عَلَى كُلِّ أَحَدٍ عَرَفَ التَّمْيِيزَ بَيْنَ صَحِيحِ الرِّوَايَاتِ وَسَقِيمِهَا، وَثِقَاتِ النَّاقِلِينَ لَهَا، مِنَ الْمُتَّهَمِينَ، أَنْ لَا يَرْوِيَ مِنْهَا إِلَّا مَا عَرَفَ صِحَّةَ مَخَارِجِهِ، وَالسِّتَارَةَ فِي نَاقِلِيهِ، وَأَنْ يَتَّقِيَ مِنْهَا مَا كَانَ مِنْهَا عَنْ أَهْلِ التُّهَمِ وَالْمُعَانِدِينَ، مِنْ أَهْلِ الْبِدَعِ.

وَالْخَبَرُ، وَإِنْ فَارَقَ مَعْنَاهُ مَعْنَى الشَّهَادَةِ فِي بَعْضِ الْوُجُوهِ، فَقَدْ يَجْتَمِعَانِ فِي أَعْظَمِ مَعَانِيهِمَا، إِذْ كَانَ خَبَرُ الْفَاسِقِ غَيْرَ مَقْبُولٍ عِنْدَ أَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ، كَمَا أَنَّ شَهَادَتَهُ مَرْدُودَةٌ عِنْدَ جَمِيعِهِمْ. وَدَلَّتِ السُّنَّةُ عَلَى نَفْيِ رِوَايَةِ الْمُنْكَرِ مِنَ الأَخْبَارِ، كَنَحْوِ دَلَالَةِ الْقُرْآنِ عَلَى نَفْيِ خَبَرِ الْفَاسِقِ. وَهُوَ الأَثَرُ الْمَشْهُورُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ حَدَّثَ عَنِّي بِحَدِيثٍ يُرَى أَنَّهُ كَذِبٌ فَهُوَ أَحَدُ الْكَاذِبِينَ».

حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ شُعْبَةَ، عَنِ الْحَكَمِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ أَبِي لَيْلَى، عَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدَبٍ.

(ح) وَحدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ أَيْضاً: حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ شُعْبَةَ وَسُفْيَانَ، عَنْ حَبِيبٍ، عَنْ مَيْمُونِ بْنِ أَبِي شَبِيبٍ، عَنِ الْمُغِيرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ؛ قَالَا: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ ذٰلِكَ.

2-(2) Abd Al-Aziz Ibn Suhaib told that Anas Ibn Malik had said: What prevents me from narrating to you much traditions is that I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who told lies about me intentionally, then let him occupy his seat in the (Hell) fire".

3-(3) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who told lies about me intentionally, let him occupy his seat in the (Hell) fire".

4-(4) Ali Ibn Rabie'a narrated: I entered into the mosque (of Kufa) at the time when Al-Mughira (Ibn Shu'ba) was the governor of Kufa. Al-Mughira said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Telling lies about me is (much more dangerous to the extent that it is) unlike telling lies about anyone (of people). So, he, who told lies about me, then let him occupy his seat in the (Hell) fire".

Narrated Ali Ibn Rabie'a Al-Azdi from Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba the same, except the first sentence: "Telling lies about me is (much more dangerous to the extent that it is) unlike telling lies about anyone".

[3] One should not narrate all he had heard

5-(5) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is enough for one to narrate all he had heard in order to become a liar".

Abu Uthman An-Nahdi narrated from Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him": "It is enough for one to narrate all he had heard in order to become a liar". (i.e. that narrating what one had heard is enough for him to make him tell lies, because some of what he heard might be lies).

Narrated Ibn Wahb: Malik (Ibn Anas) said to me: "One would not be free (from telling lies or committing mistakes) if he talked of all he had heard; and one would not be a (good) imam in case he told (the people) all he had learnt".

Narrated Abu Al-Ahwas from Abdullah: "It is enough for one to narrate all he had heard in order to become a liar".

Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Mahdi told: "One would not become an imam whom people (take as an example to) follow unless he stops from narrating some of what he had heard".

Narrated Sufyan Ibn Husain: Iyas Ibn Mu'awiya asked me: "I see you interested in the knowledge of The Holy Quran. Recite a Sura to me, and explain it so that I could consider it". I did accordingly. Then he said to me: "Understand from me what I'm going to say to you: beware of telling the unacceptable denied narrations. Indeed, there is no one, who has this characteristic, but that he would be humiliated and disbelieved by people".

Narrated Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utba that Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud had told: "You never tell some people a certain narration which they might not understand properly except that it would be for some of them a (source of) distress".

[4] One should not transmit traditions from the suspicious narrators, and he should be cautious of having it

6-(6) Abu Huraira narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Towards the last (generation) of my nation, there will be some people, who will tell you many traditions which neither you nor your forefathers knew; so beware of (responding to) them".

7-(7) Abu Huraira narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Towards the end of the time, there will appear many liars and fakers, who will bring you many traditions which neither you nor your forefathers learnt; so, beware of (responding to) them, and let them neither misguide, nor turn you away (from the right path)".

Narrated Amer Ibn Abda that Abdullah said: "(Sometimes) the Satan comes in a shape of a certain man and tells lies to the people who will disperse with some of them saying: "I heard a certain man whose face I know, though I do not recognize him, telling (us a certain tradition)".

Tawus narrated from Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Ass: "In the sea, there are many inhibited Satans, fascinated by (The Prophet) Solomon, which are about to come out and recite (false) Quran to the people".

Narrated Tawus that this (Bashir Ibn Ka'b) came to Ibn Abbas and went on telling him many narrations. Ibn Abbas said to him: "Repeat such-and-such a narration". He repeated it. Then he resumed telling him another narration, but Ibn Abbas said to him: "Repeat such-and-such a narration", which he repeated. Then, he (Bashir) said to him: "Indeed, I do not know whether you learn all of my narrations except that (which you told me to repeat many times), or you deny all of my narrations except that (which you asked me to repeat)". Upon this, Ibn Abbas said to him: "We used to tell the traditions about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when there was no one to tell lies about him. But, since (many) people went on telling false as well as true narrations about him, we gave up telling narrations about him".

إِسْحَاق، عَنْ أَبِي الأَحْوص، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ؛ قَالَ: بِحَسْبِ الْمَرْءِ مِنَ الْكَذِبِ أَنْ يُحدث بِكُلِّ مَا سَمِعَ.

وحدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنَ مَهْدِيٍّ يَقُولُ: لاَ يَكُونُ الرَّجُلُ إماماً يُقْتدى به حتَّى يُمسك عَنْ بَعْض ما سمِعَ.

وحدّثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى: أَخْبَرَنَا عُمَرُ بْنُ عَلِيِّ بْنِ مُقَدَّم، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ بْن حُسَيْن؛ قَالَ: سَأَلَنِي إِيَاسُ بْنُ مَعَاوية فقال: إِنِّي أَرَاكَ قَدْ كَلفت بعِلم الْقُرْآن، فاقرأْ عَلَيَّ سُورَةً وَفَسِّرْ، حتَّى أَنْظرَ فِيمَا عَلِمت. قَالَ فَفعَلْتُ، فَقَالَ لِي: احْفَظْ عَلَيَّ مَا أَقُولُ لَكَ: إِيَاكَ وَالشَّناعة فِي الْحَدِيث، فإنَّه قَلَّما حملها أحدٌ إلا ذلَّ فِي نَفْسِه، وكُذِّبَ فِي حَدِيثِه.

Tawus narrated from Ibn Abbas: "We used to keep and then tell narrations about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But, since you started to tell false as well as true narrations about him, then how far (your narrations are from being reliable)".

Narrated Mujahid: Bashir Al-Adawi came to Ibn Abbas and went on telling: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (so-and-so), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (so-and-so), while Ibn Abbas was paying no attention to his speech. Upon this he asked him: "Why am I seeing you O Ibn Abbas paying no attention to my speech, though I'm telling you about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" Ibn Abbas said commenting: "In the past, whenever a man told us a certain narration about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we would pay attention to him (when there was no one to tell lies about him). But, since (some) people started telling false as well as true narrations about him, we intended to take from them nothing other than what we know " (i.e. the reliable narration which we heard and consequently learnt as true).

Narrated Ibn Abu Mulaika: I wrote a letter to Ibn Abbas, asking him to write to me a book (of religious matters), in which he would choose (only what is true) and keep from me (what is false or suspicious). Ibn Abbas said: "Well, he (Ibn Abu Mulaika) is an intelligent man (since he asked for such a demand), for whom I would choose (only the true reliable matters), and keep from him (the false or suspicious ones)".

He ordered that the (book containing the) judgements of Ali should be brought to him, from which he wrote something. He used to comment, whenever anything doubtful (which he did not write) passed by him: "By Allah! Ali was not to judge as such except in case he was misguided".

Narrated Tawus: Ibn Abbas brought a book containing the judgements of Ali (Ibn Abu Talib), which he erased except for a little portion, as small as a cubit. (Sufyan Ibn Uyaina, the sub-narrator pointed with his arm to signify that it was very little).

Narrated Al-A'mash from Abu Ishaq: When those (religiously Secessionists) invented those unacceptable innovations after (the death of) Ali (in his judgements and religious verdicts), one of Ali's companions said commenting: "Might Allah curse them! What (a good and wonderful) knowledge they wasted (with their conduct)".

وحدّثني مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ: أَخْبَرَنَا مَعْمَرٌ، عَنِ ابْنِ طَاوُسٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ؛ قَالَ: إِنَّمَا كُنَّا نَحْفَظُ الْحَدِيثَ، وَالْحَدِيثُ يُحْفَظُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَأَمَّا إِذْ رَكِبْتُمْ كُلَّ صَعْبٍ وَذَلُولٍ، فَهَيْهَاتَ.

وحدّثني أَبُو أَيُّوبَ سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ الْغَيْلَانِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَامِرٍ ـ يَعْنِي الْعَقَدِيَّ ـ: حَدَّثَنَا رَبَاحٌ، عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ؛ قَالَ: جَاءَ بُشَيْرٌ الْعَدَوِيُّ إِلَى ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، فَجَعَلَ يُحَدِّثُ وَيَقُولُ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَجَعَلَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ لَا يَأْذَنُ لِحَدِيثِهِ وَلَا يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِ. فَقَالَ: يَا ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ، مَا لِي لَا أَرَاكَ تَسْمَعُ لِحَدِيثِي؟ أُحَدِّثُكَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَلَا تَسْمَعُ؟! فَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ: إِنَّا كُنَّا مَرَّةً إِذَا سَمِعْنَا رَجُلاً يَقُولُ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ ابْتَدَرَتْهُ أَبْصَارُنَا، وَأَصْغَيْنَا إِلَيْهِ بِآذَانِنَا، فَلَمَّا رَكِبَ النَّاسُ الصَّعْبَ وَالذَّلُولَ، لَمْ نَأْخُذْ مِنَ النَّاسِ إِلَّا مَا نَعْرِفُ.

حدّثنا عَمْرٌو النَّاقِدُ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ، عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ حُجَيْرٍ، عَنْ طَاوُسٍ؛ قَالَ: أُتِيَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ بِكِتَابٍ فِيهِ قَضَاءُ عَلِيٍّ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ فَمَحَاهُ، إِلَّا قَدْرَ، وَأَشَارَ سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ بِذِرَاعِهِ.

حدّثنا حَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ الْحُلْوَانِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ آدَمَ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ إِدْرِيسَ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ؛ قَالَ: لَمَّا أَحْدَثُوا تِلْكَ الأَشْيَاءَ بَعْدَ عَلِيٍّ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ؛ قَالَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ عَلِيٍّ: قَاتَلَهُمُ اللَّهُ، أَيَّ عِلْمٍ أَفْسَدُوا.

Narrated Al-Mughira: No one told true narrations about Ali except for the companions of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud".

[5] Explaining that the attribution (of narrations) is a part of religion, that the narration must be from only the reliable people, and that criticizing the narrators with whatever defects they have is permissible, if not obligatory, for it is not so much out of prohibited jealousy, as it is out of defending the dignified (Islamic) law

Narrated Hisham from Muhammad Ibn Sirin: "This discipline (of narrating traditions) is (a source of) religion, so, consider from whom you take your religion.

Narrated Asim Al-Ahwal from Ibn Sirin: "In the past, people used not to be concerned with the attribution (of the narrations). But, when they started to be befallen by distresses, they said: "Nominate to us your narrators". So, the people of true Sunna are to be considered in order to take the tradition from them, and the people of religious innovations are to be considered in order to abandon their narrations".

Narrated Sulaiman Ibn Musa: I met Tawus and said to him: "So-and-so told me such-and-such a narration". He commented: "If your narrator is reliable and perfect keeper of traditions, then you could take from him".

Narrated Sulaiman Ibn Musa: I told Tawus: "So-and-so told me such-and-such a narration". He commented: "If your narrator is reliable and perfect keeper of traditions, then you could take from him".

Narrated Ibn Abu Az-Zinad from his father: "I saw in Medina about a hundred men (of narrators), whenever it was narrated from any of whom, it would be said: "He is not (too reliable to be) from among the trustworthy men of tradition".

Narrated Sa'd Ibn Ibrahim: "One should not admit the narrations about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" except from the reliable trustworthy people".

Narrated Abdan Ibn Uthman: I heard Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak saying: "The attribution (of traditions to their narrators) is an essential part of religion. But for the attribution, everyone could say whatever he wanted".

Abdullah told: "What makes us accept from the people (their narrations) is the sides, i.e. the attribution". (he meant that the narration could not stand as true without its attribution, likely as the animal, which could not stand without its sides).

Narrated Abu Ishaq Ibrahim Ibn Isa: I said to Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! What about the Hadith: "It is out of loyalty after loyalty to offer the prayers (and grant their reward) to your parents, and observe fasts (and make their reward) to your parents, beside your own prayers and fasts"? he asked: "O Abu Abdullah! From whom did you take this narration?" I said: "From the narrations of Shihab Ibn Khirash". He said: "He is a trustworthy. From whom did he take it?" I said: "From Al-Hajjaj Ibn Dinar". He said: "He is a reliable narrator. From whom did he narrate it?" I said: "From The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

He said: "O Abu Abdullah! Between The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Al-Hajjaj Ibn Dinar, there is a great impassable (time and space)". (Though this narration is not to be taken as a proof for something) there is no difference as to the matter of charity" (He meant that whoever wanted to be loyal to his parents, he could give in charity on their behalf, and the reward would reach them).

Narrated Ali Ibn Shaqiq: I heard Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak saying publicly: "Do not take the narrations from Amr Ibn Thabit, for he used to insult the predecessors".

Narrated Abu Aqil: I was sitting with Al-Qasim Ibn Ubaidullah and Yahya Ibn Sa'id, when Yahya said to Al-Qasim: "O Abu Muhammad! It is greatly ugly that sometimes, whenever you were asked about some of the matters of this religion, you would have no knowledge or solution of them". Al-Qasim asked him: "Why is it (ugly)?" Yahya said: "Because you are a son of the two imams of guidance, i.e. Abu Bakr and Umar".

Al-Qasim commented: "What is more ugly is in the sight of him, who learns and understands well (what is right and what is wrong) that I should tell (about religion) anything, of which I have no knowledge, or take the narrations from unreliable narrators". He (Yahya) kept silent, and did not reply.

Narrated Sufyan Ibn Uyaina: I was told that Abu Aqil was once asked by some of Abdullah Ibn Umar's sons about something of which he had no knowledge. Yahya said to him: "It is greatly ugly that you are asked about something, of which you have no knowledge or solution though you are a son of the two imams of guidance, i.e. Abu Bakr and Umar".

He commented: "What is more ugly, by Allah, in Allah's sight, as well as in the sight of him, who learns and understands well (what is right and what is wrong) that I should tell (about religion) anything, of which I have no knowledge, or take the narrations from unreliable narrators". Abu Aqil: Yahya Ibn Al-Mutawakkil was present when they said so.

Narrated Yahya Ibn Sa'id: I asked Sufyan Ath-Thawri, Shu'ba, Ibn Uyaina and Malik about the unreliable narrator of traditions, of whom the people would come and ask me. All of them said to me: "Tell them that he is not reliable (concerning this matter of narrations)".

Narrated An-Nadr: Once, Ibn Awn was asked about a certain narration transmitted by Shahr, while he (Ibn Awn) was standing on the threshold of his door. He said: "Indeed, Shahr has been criticized (so that he became doubtful as to the matter of narration)".

Narrated Shababa: Shu'ba said: "Once I met Shahr, whom I did not regard as a trustworthy narrator (and did not take from him)".

Narrated Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak: I said to Sufyan Ath-Thawri: "Abbad Ibn Kathir is as you know. Whenever he narrated he would tell what is unacceptable. Do you not think that I should warn the people of taking from him?" he said: "You should do". After that, whenever I was in a gathering, in which Abbad was mentioned, I would to praise him concerning his religion, and say to people: "But, do not take from him".

Narrated Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak: I went to Shu'ba, who said: "This is (the state of) Abbad Ibn Kathir. Beware of taking from him".

Al-Fadl Ibn Sahl narrated: I asked Mu'alla Ar-Razi about Muhammad Ibn Sa'id, from whom Abbad had taken his narrations. He reported from Isa Ibn Yunus: I was at his door, while Sufyan was with him, whom I asked about him when he came out. He told me that he (Muhammad Ibn Sa'id) was a liar.

Narrated Muhammad Ibn Yahya Ibn Sa'id Al-Qattan from his father: "We did not know that the good people were more liars than they were in telling the narrations". Ibn Abu Attab said: I met Muhammad Ibn Yahya Ibn Sa'id Al-Qattan, whom I asked about this saying. He reported from his father: "We did not know that the people of goodness were more liars than they were in telling the narrations".

Muslim commented: the lies used to come out through their tongues, though unintentionally.

Narrated Khalifa Ibn Musa: I entered into Ghalib Ibn Ubaidullah who started to dictate to me: "Narrated Makhool, narrated Makhool". Then he stood up and went to pass urine. I looked at a notebook (which was in front of him), in which there was written: "Narrated Aban from Anas, and narrated Aban from so-and-so". So, I went out and left him.

Narrated Al-Hasan Ibn Ali Al-Halwani: I saw in a book belonging to Affan a narration transmitted by Hisham Abu Al-Miqdam, from Umar Ibn Abd Al-Aziz. Hisham said: Narrated a man called Yahya Ibn so-and-so, from Muhammad Ibn Ka'b". I said to Affan: "They (some narrators) say that Hisham heard it from Muhammad Ibn Ka'b". he replied: "Indeed, he was befallen (by distress) because of that narration. At first he said that he narrated it from Yahya who reported it from Muhammad. Then he claimed that he heard it (directly) from Muhammad".

Narrated Abdullah Ibn Uthman Ibn Jabala: I said to Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak: "From whom did you hear this narration of Abdullah Ibn Amr: "The day of the breaking fast is the day of rewards"?" he said: "Sulaiman Ibn Al-Hajjaj. Consider whatever you took from him".

Narrated Sufyan Ibn Abd Al-Malik: Abdullah (Ibn Al-Mubarak) said: I saw Rawh Ibn Ghatif, the narrator of (the tradition he transmitted from Abu Huraira) "The prayer should be repeated if one was befallen by the blood even though as little as equal to the Dirham" with whom I sat. then, I felt shy to be seen by my companions while sitting with him (in reference to his rejection of his narrations).

Narrated Wahb from Sufyan that Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak told: "Baqiyya is a true in his speech. But he used to take his narrations from reliable as well as doubtful narrators".

Narrated Mughira from Ash'sha'bi: It was narrated to me by Al-Harith Al-A'war Al-Hamadani, and he was a liar.

Narrated Mughira from Ash'sha'bi: It was narrated to me by Al-Harith Al-A'war (and he (Ash'sha'bi), according to the narrator, testified that he (Al-Harith) was from among the liars).

Narrated Jarir from Mughira from Ibrahim that Alqama said: "I learnt to recite The Holy Quran in two years". Al-Harith commented: "Reciting The Holy Quran is very easy in comparison with the revelation which is very hard task".

Narrated Za'ida from Al-A'mash from Ibrahim that Al-Harith said: "I learnt (how to recite) The Holy Quran in three years, and the revelation in two years" (or said "The revelation in three years and The Holy Quran in two years").

حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ، عَنْ مُغِيرَةَ، عَنِ الشَّعْبِيِّ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي الْحَارِثُ الأَعْوَرُ الْهَمْدَانِيُّ، وَكَانَ كَذَّاباً.

حدّثنا أَبُو عَامِرٍ، عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ بَرَّادٍ الأَشْعَرِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ، عَنْ مُفَضَّلٍ، عَنْ مُغِيرَةَ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ الشَّعْبِيَّ يَقُولُ: حَدَّثَنِي الْحَارِثُ الأَعْوَرُ، وَهُوَ يَشْهَدُ أَنَّهُ أَحَدُ الْكَاذِبِينَ.

حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ، عَنْ مُغِيرَةَ، عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، قَالَ: قَالَ عَلْقَمَةُ: قَرَأْتُ الْقُرْآنَ فِي سَنَتَيْنِ، فَقَالَ الْحَارِثُ: الْقُرْآنُ هَيِّنٌ، الْوَحْيُ أَشَدُّ.

Narrated Za'ida from Mansur and Mughira from Ibrahim that Al-Harith was accused (of telling lies).

Narrated Hamza Az-Zaiyyat that Murra Al-Hamadani heard from Al-Harith something (which he doubted). He ordered him to wait at the door of the house. Then he entered and took his sword. Felt the evil (of being killed), Al-Harith went out and left him.

Narrated Ibrahim Ibn Mahdi from Hammad Ibn Zaid from Ibn Awn that Ibrahim had said to us: "Beware of (taking narrations from) Al-Mughira Ibn Sa'id and Abu Abd Ar-Rahim, for they are liars".

Narrated Hammad Ibn Zaid from Asim: We used to come to Abd Ar-Rahman As-Sulami, while we were still young men. He used to say to us: "Do not sit with (and take from) the storytellers except Abu Al-Ahwas, and beware of (taking from) Shaqiq". (Shaqiq used to adopt the views and opinions of the religious Secessionists).

Narrated Jarir: I met Jaber Ibn Yazid Al-Ja'fi, from whom I took nothing. That is because he believed in what the rejecters said, i.e. that Ali Ibn Abu Talib exists in the cloud, and they would not set out to support anyone of his (Ali's) sons, unless he calls for them from the heaven to set out with him.

Narrated Mis'ar: It was narrated to us by Jaber Ibn Yazid (from whom we accepted) before he did what he did (i.e. adopted such a belief as we mentioned in the previous paragraph).

Narrated Al-Humaidi from Sufyan: "The people used to narrate from Jaber (Ibn Yazid) before he declared what he had declared (of such a belief). But, when he announced what he had announced, he was accused of telling false narrations". It was said to Sufyan: "What did he announce?" he replied: "His belief in the opinions adopted by the Rejecters".

Narrated Qabisa and his brother from Al-Jarrah Ibn Malih who said: I heard Jaber saying: "I have seventy thousand narrations transmitted to me by Abu Ja'far, who narrated all of them from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Narrated Ahmad Ibn Yunus from Zuhair: Jaber said, or I heard Jaber saying: "I have fifty thousand narrations, which I did not tell anyone". Once, he narrated a certain tradition of which he said: "It is from among the fifty thousand narrations (which I have)".

وحدّثنا أَبُو غَسَّانَ، مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو الرَّازِيُّ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ جَرِيراً يَقُولُ: لَقِيتُ جَابِرَ بْنَ يَزِيدَ الْجُعْفِيَّ، فَلَمْ أَكْتُبْ عَنْهُ. كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِالرَّجْعَةِ.

حدّثنا الْحَسَنُ الْحُلْوَانِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ آدَمَ: حَدَّثَنَا مِسْعَرٌ. قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا جَابِرُ بْنُ يَزِيد، قَبْلَ أَنْ يُحْدِثَ مَا أَحْدَثَ.

وحدّثنا حَسَنٌ الْحُلْوَانِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو يَحْيَىٰ الْحِمَّانِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا قَبِيصَةُ وَأَخُوهُ، أَنَّهُمَا سَمِعَا الْجَرَّاحَ بْنَ مَلِيحٍ يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ جَابِراً يَقُولُ: عِنْدِي سَبْعُونَ أَلْفَ حَدِيثٍ عَنْ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ كُلُّهَا.

وحدّثني حَجَّاجُ بْنُ الشَّاعِرِ: حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُونُس، قَالَ، سَمِعْتُ زُهَيْراً يَقُولُ: قَالَ جَابِرٌ: أَوْ سَمِعْتُ جَابِراً يَقُولُ: إِنَّ عِنْدِي لَخَمْسِينَ أَلْفَ حَدِيثٍ، مَا حَدَّثْتُ مِنْهَا بِشَيْءٍ، قَالَ ثُمَّ حَدَّثَ يَوْماً بِحَدِيثٍ فَقَالَ: هٰذَا مِنَ الْخَمْسِينَ أَلْفاً.

Narrated Salam Ibn Muti: I heard Jaber Ibn Yazid Al-Ja'fi saying: "I have fifty thousand traditions, transmitted to me from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Narrated Al-Humaidi from Sufyan: Once, a man came and asked Jaber about Allah Almighty's saying: "therefore will I not leave this land until my father permits me, or Allah commands me; and he is the best to command". Jaber said: "Nothing was narrated concerning the interpretation of this Verse". Sufyan said: "Indeed, he is a liar". We asked Sufyan: "What does he want (by this lie)?" Sufyan said: "(He adopted the opinions of the Rejecters); and the Rejecters believe that Ali (Ibn Abu Talib) exists in the cloud. Therefore, they claim that they would not set out to support anyone of his sons unless he (Ali) calls for them from above the cloud to set out with him. Jaber applies this Verse to that situation; and of course, he is a liar, because this Verse has been in connection with the brothers of (The Prophet) Joseph".

Narrated Al-Humaidi from Sufyan: I heard Jaber telling about thirty thousand narrations, and I find it illegal to mention to the people anyone of them even if I should have so-and-so, and so-and-so".

Narrated Muslim from Abu Ghassan Muhammad Ibn Amr Ar-Razi: I asked Jarir Ibn Abd Al-Hamid: "Did you meet Al-Harith Ibn Hasira?" he replied: "Yes. He was an old man, who used to keep silent for long periods, and insist upon (telling) what is dangerous (of lies)".

Narrated Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Mahdi from Hammad Ibn Zaid: Once, Aiyub mentioned a man (from among the narrators), of whom he said: "He was of no true speech". He mentioned another man, of whom he said: "He used to make many additions to the narrations".

Narrated Hammad Ibn Zaid: Once, Aiyub said: "I have a good neighbour", and he mentioned some of his good merits, but he said: "Therefore, if he bore testimony before me that those two dates are indeed (two dates), I would not think that his witness is permissible".

Narrated Abd Ar-Razzaq: "I have never seen Aiyub abusing anyone in his absence except for Abd Al-Karim". He meant Abu Umaiyya, whom he "Allah's mercy be upon him" mentioned and said: "He is unreliable. Once, he asked me about a certain tradition narrated by Ikrima. Then, in telling the people of it, he said that he himself heard it from Ikrima".

Narrated Hammam: Once, Abu Dawood Al-A'ma came and said to us: "Al-Bara told us (such-and-such a narration), and Zaid Ibn Arqam told us (such-and-such a narration)". We asked Quatada about that, and he said:

وحدّثني إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ الْيَشْكُرِيُّ، قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أَبَا الْوَلِيدِ يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ سَلاَّمَ بْنَ أَبِي مُطِيعٍ يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ جَابِراً الْجُعْفِيَّ يَقُولُ: عِنْدِي خَمْسُونَ أَلْفَ حَدِيثٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ.

وحدّثني سَلَمَةُ بْنُ شَبِيبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا الْحُمَيْدِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَجُلاً سَأَلَ جَابِراً عَنْ قَوْلِهِ عَزَّ وجَلَّ: ﴿فَلَنْ أَبْرَحَ ٱلْأَرْضَ حَتَّىٰ يَأْذَنَ لِىٓ أَبِىٓ أَوْ يَحْكُمَ ٱللَّهُ لِى وَهُوَ خَيْرُ ٱلْحَٰكِمِينَ﴾ [يوسف: ٨٠]. فَقَالَ جَابِرٌ: لَمْ يَجِىءْ تَأْوِيلُ هٰذِهِ. قَالَ سُفْيَانُ: وَكَذَبَ فَقُلْنَا لِسُفْيَانَ: وَمَا أَرَادَ بِهٰذَا؟ فَقَالَ: إِنَّ الرَّافِضَةَ تَقُولُ: إِنَّ عَلِيًّا فِي السَّحَابِ، فَلاَ نَخْرُجُ مَعَ مَنْ خَرَجَ مِنْ وَلَدِهِ، حَتَّى يُنَادِيَ مُنَادٍ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ، يُرِيدُ عَلِيًّا أَنَّهُ يُنَادِي اخْرُجُوا مَعَ فُلاَنٍ. يَقُولُ جَابِرٌ: فَذَا تَأْوِيلُ هٰذِهِ الآيَةِ، وَكَذَبَ. كَانَتْ فِي إِخْوَةِ يُوسُفَ ﷺ.

قَالَ مُسْلِمٌ: وَسَمِعْتُ أَبَا غَسَّانَ، مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ عَمْرٍو الرَّازِيَّ. قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ جَرِيرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ الْحَمِيدِ. فَقُلْتُ: الْحَارِثَ بْنَ حَصِيرَةَ لَقِيتَهُ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ، شَيْخٌ طَوِيلُ السُّكُوتِ، يُصِرُّ عَلَى أَمْرٍ عَظِيمٍ.

حدّثني حَجَّاجُ بْنُ الشَّاعِرِ: حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ. قَالَ: قَالَ أَيُّوبُ: إِنَّ لِي جَاراً - ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ - وَلَوْ شَهِدَ عِنْدِي عَلَى تَمْرَتَيْنِ مَا رَأَيْتُ شَهَادَتَهُ جَائِزَةً.

حدّثني الْفَضْلُ بْنُ سَهْلٍ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَفَّانُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ: حَدَّثَنَا هَمَّامٌ، قَالَ: قَدِمَ عَلَيْنَا أَبُو دَاوُدَ الأَعْمَى، فَجَعَلَ يَقُولُ: حَدَّثَنَا الْبَرَاءُ، قَالَ: وَحَدَّثَنَا زَيْدُ بْنُ أَرْقَمَ، فَذَكَرْنَا ذٰلِكَ لِقَتَادَةَ.

"He is a liar. He has never heard from them. He was a beggar at the time of the sweeping plague".

Narrated Hammam: Once, Abu Dawood entered into Quatada. When he left and went out, the people who were present said: "This (Abu Dawood) claims that he met eighteen men of those who took part in (the holy battle of) Badr". Quatada said: "(He is a liar.) He was a beggar before the coming of the sweeping plague. He neither had interest in Hadith, nor did he use to speak in it at all. By Allah! Neither Al-Hasan nor Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab (claimed that they) narrated from any of Badr participants orally, except from Sa'd Ibn Malik".

Narrated Raqaba that Abu Ja'far Al-Hashimi Al-Madani used to compose many narrations, which were correct in meaning and contained good wisdom, but they were not of the true traditions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", though he attributed them to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Narrated Abu Dawood At-Taialisi from Shu'ba from Yunus Ibn Ubaid that Amr Ibn Ubaid used to tell false narrations.

Narrated Amr Ibn Ali: Abu Hafs: I heard Mu'adh Ibn Mu'adh telling: I said to Awf Ibn Abu Jamila that Amr Ibn Ubaid narrated to us from Al-Hasan that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who carried the arms against us (the Muslims), is not from us (concerning faith and the right way of guidance)". Awf said: "Amr is a liar, by Allah! (not because the narration is untrue, but because of his attributing it to Al-Hasan, who did not narrate it, and Amr himself did not hear it from him, though it is, indeed, a true narration). However, Amr wanted (by this narration) to support his evil doctrine". (He meant the isolative doctrine, which pretends that committing a great sin would have the sinner come out from the (Muslim) nation. Though he is not described as an unbeliever, he, according to their opinion, is described as a wicked person, who would stay eternally in the (Hell) fire).

Narrated Hammad Ibn Zaid: A certain man used to stick to Aiyub and listen from him (the narrations and traditions). Sometime later, he was missed. Asked about him, Aiyub was informed that he sticked to Amr Ibn Ubaid. Once, while I was with Aiyub in the market, this man received Aiyub who greeted him. Aiyub asked him: "I was reported that you had sticked to this man (whom he called by name), Amr Ibn Ubaid". The man said: "Yes, O Abu Bakr! He (Amr) used to tell us many strange things".

فقَالَ: كَذَبَ، مَا سَمِعَ مِنْهُمْ، إِنَّمَا كَانَ ذٰلِكَ سَائِلاً يَتَكَفَّفُ النَّاسَ زَمَنَ طَاعُونِ الْجَارِفِ.

حدّثنا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ، عَنْ رَقَبَةَ، أَنَّ أَبَا جَعْفَرٍ الْهَاشِمِيَّ الْمَدَنِيَّ كَانَ يَضَعُ أَحَادِيثَ ـ كَلاَمَ حَقٍّ ـ وَلَيْسَتْ مِنْ أَحَادِيثِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ، وَكَانَ يَرْوِيهَا عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ.

وحدّثنا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ الْقَوَارِيرِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ، قَالَ: كَانَ رَجُلٌ قَدْ لَزِمَ أَيُّوبَ وَسَمِعَ مِنْهُ، فَفَقَدَهُ أَيُّوبُ، فَقَالُوا: يَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ إِنَّهُ قَدْ لَزِمَ عَمْرَو بْنَ عُبَيْدٍ. قَالَ حَمَّادٌ: فَبَيْنَا أَنَا يَوْماً مَعَ أَيُّوبَ وَقَدْ بَكَّرْنَا إِلَى السُّوقِ، فَاسْتَقْبَلَهُ الرَّجُلُ، فَسَلَّمَ عَلَيْهِ أَيُّوبُ وَسَأَلَهُ، ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُ أَيُّوبُ: بَلَغَنِي أَنَّكَ لَزِمْتَ ذَاكَ الرَّجُلَ. قَالَ حَمَّادٌ: سَمَّاهُ ـ يَعْنِي عَمْراً ـ قَالَ: نَعَمْ، يَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ إِنَّهُ يَجِيئُنَا بِأَشْيَاءَ غَرَائِبَ، قَالَ يَقُولُ لَهُ

Aiyub said to him: "Indeed, we should escape from (and not accept) those odd things".

Narrated Sulaiman Ibn Harb from Hammad Ibn Zaid: It was said to Aiyub that Amr Ibn Ubaid had narrated from Al-Hasan: "The intoxicated (person) would not be lashed because of drinking the wine". Aiyub replied: "He is a liar. I heard Al-Hasan saying: "The intoxicated (person) should be lashed because of drinking the wine"".

Narrated Sulaiman Ibn Harb from Salam Ibn Muti: Aiyub was informed that I used to visit (and sit with) Amr (Ibn Ubaid). He (Aiyub) came to me and said: "If you see a man who is untrustworthy to his religion, then how would you trust him concerning the tradition?"

Narrated Al-Humaidi from Sufyan: I heard Abu Musa saying: "It was narrated to us by Amr Ibn Ubaid (to whom we listened) before he did what he did (i.e. before he turned to be an isolative).

Narrated Ubai: I sent to Shu'ba, asking him about the status of Abu Shaiba, the judge of (the town of) Wasit (in order that I might accept narrations and write from him). He (Shu'ba) replied: "Do not (take or) write from him". Furthermore, he tore my letter to pieces.

Narrated Al-Halwani: I heard Affan saying: I told Hammad Ibn Salama about a narration transmitted by Salih Al-Murri from Thabit, and he (Hammad) said: "He (Salih) is a liar)". I also told Hammam about a certain narration transmitted by Salih Al-Murri, and he said: "He (Salih) told lies".

Narrated Abu Dawood: Shu'ba said to me: "Go to Jarir Ibn Hazim and said to him: "It is not fitting for you to transmit narrations from Al-Hasan Ibn Imara, for he used to tell lies". I asked Shu'ba about the reason, and he said: "He told us many narrations he claimed he transmitted from Al-Hakam, which I did not find them".

I asked Shu'ba: "What are those?" he replied: "Once, I asked Al-Hakam: "Did The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offer the prayers upon the killed people of (the holy battle of) Uhud?" he said: "No, he did not offer the prayers on them". Then, Al-Hasan Ibn Imara narrated to me (and he claimed he transmitted it) from Al-Hakam from Miqsam from Ibn Abbas that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the prayers on them, and then buried them.

Moreover, I asked Al-Hakam: "What do you see concerning the prayer upon the illegal children (when they die)?" he replied: "The prayers should be offered for them (when they die)". I asked him: "From whom was this Hadith narrated?" he said: "From Al-Hasan Al-Basri". But, Al-Hasan Ibn Imara said: It (this tradition) was narrated to us by Al-Hakam from Yahya Ibn Al-Jazzar from Ali".

Narrated Al-Hasan Al-Halwani: I heard Yazid Ibn Haroon, when Ziyad Ibn Maimun was mentioned, saying: "I took an oath not to narrate from him or from Khalid Ibn Mahdooq anything forever". He resumed: "Once, I met Ziyad Ibn Maimun, whom I asked about a certain tradition. He narrated it to me (and he claimed he transmitted it) from Abdullah Al-Muzani. Then I returned and asked him about the same tradition once again, and he narrated it to me (claiming to me that he transmitted it) from Mu'arraq. Then, I asked him for the third time about the same tradition, which he narrated to me from Al-Hasan". He (Yazid) used to describe them (i.e. Ziyad and Khalid) as liars.

Narrated Al-Halwani: I heard Abd As-Samad, when Ziyad Ibn Maimun was mentioned in his presence, describing him as a liar.

Narrated Mahmud Ibn Ghailan: I said to Abu Dawood At-Taialisi: "You took many narrations from Abbad Ibn Mansur. Then, why did you not take from him the narration of the she-perfumer, which was narrated to us by An-Nadr Ibn Shumail?" (i.e. the narration transmitted by Ziyad Ibn Maimun from Anas that a woman who was a perfumer in Medina, once entered into A'isha, and told her about the state of her husband. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reminded her of the virtue of the husband. It is a long and untrue tradition).

He said to me: "Keep silent! Once, I and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Mahdi met Ziyad Ibn Maimun and asked him: "What are those traditions which you narrate from Anas?" he replied: "Do you think that if a man committed a sin and then he repented, would Allah not accept his repentance?" we said: "Yes (Allah would accept his repentance)". He said: "Indeed, I have never heard from Anas more or less. If the people do not know, then you should know that I have never met (and seen) Anas at all"".

Abu Dawood resumed: "I and Abd Ar-Rahman (Ibn Mahdi) were informed that he (Ziyad) was still narrating traditions. We went to him (and asked him to stop from narrating and repent to Allah from telling those lies). He said: "I'm going to repent (to Allah)". But, he continued narrating. So, we left him".

Narrated Hasan Al-Halwani: I heard Shababa saying: Abd Al-Quddus narrated to us (from) Sowaid Ibn Aqla. He (Shababa) said: I heard Abd Al-Quddus saying: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be وحدّثنا الْحَسَنُ الْحُلْوَانِيُّ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ يَزِيدَ بْنَ هَارُونَ، وَذَكَرَ زِيَادَ بْنَ مَيْمُونٍ، فَقَالَ: حَلَفْتُ أَلا أَرْوِيَ عَنْهُ شَيْئاً، وَلا عَنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ مَحْدُوجٍ. وَقَالَ: لَقِيتُ زِيَادَ بْنَ مَيْمُونٍ. فَسَأَلْتُهُ عَنْ حَدِيثٍ فَحَدَّثَنِي بِهِ عَنْ بَكْرٍ الْمُزَنِيِّ، ثُمَّ عُدْتُ إِلَيْهِ فَحَدَّثَنِي بِهِ عَنْ مُوَرِّقٍ، ثُمَّ عُدْتُ إِلَيْهِ فَحَدَّثَنِي بِهِ عَنِ الْحَسَنِ، وَكَانَ يَنْسُبُهُمَا إِلَى الْكَذِبِ.

قَالَ الْحُلْوَانِيُّ: سَمِعْتُ عَبْدَ الصَّمَدِ، وَذَكَرْتُ عِنْدَهُ زِيَادَ بْنَ مَيْمُونٍ، فَنَسَبَهُ إِلَى الْكَذِبِ.

وحدّثنا مَحْمُودُ بْنُ غَيْلاَنَ، قَالَ: قُلْتُ لأَبِي دَاوُدَ الطَّيَالِسِيِّ: قَدْ أَكْثَرْتَ عَنْ عَبَّادِ بْنِ مَنْصُورٍ، فَمَالَكَ لَمْ تَسْمَعْ مِنْهُ حَدِيثَ الْعَطَّارَةِ الَّذِي رَوَى لَنَا النَّضْرُ بْنُ شُمَيْلٍ؟ قَالَ لِي: اسْكُتْ، فَأَنَا لَقِيتُ زِيَادَ بْنَ مَيْمُونٍ، وَعَبْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ مَهْدِيٍّ، فَسَأَلْنَاهُ فَقُلْنَا لَهُ: هٰذِهِ الأَحَادِيثُ الَّتِي تَرْوِيهَا عَنْ أَنَسٍ؟ فَقَالَ أَرَأَيْتُمَا رَجُلاً يُذْنِبُ فَيَتُوبُ، أَلَيْسَ يَتُوبُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ؟ قَالَ قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ، قَالَ: مَا سَمِعْتُ مِنْ أَنَسٍ، مِنْ ذَا قَلِيلاً وَلاَ كَثِيراً. إِنْ كَانَ لاَ يَعْلَمُ النَّاسُ، فَأَنْتُمَا لاَ تَعْلَمَانِ أَنِّي لَمْ أَلْقَ أَنَساً.

حدّثنا حَسَنٌ الْحُلْوَانِيُّ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ شَبَابَةَ، قَالَ: كَانَ عَبْدُ الْقُدُّوسِ يُحَدِّثُنَا فَيَقُولُ: سُوَيْدُ بْنُ عَقَلَةَ. قَالَ شَبَابَةُ: وَسَمِعْتُ عَبْدَ الْقُدُّوسِ يَقُولُ: نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنْ يُتَّخَذَ الرَّوْحُ عَرْضاً. قَالَ: فَقِيلَ لَهُ: أَيُّ شَيْءٍ هٰذَا؟ قَالَ: يَعْنِي تُتَّخَذُ كُوَّةٌ فِي حَائِطٍ لِيَدْخُلَ عَلَيْهِ الرَّوْحُ.

upon him" prevented making the living animal as a target (to be thrown with the arrows)".

Narrated Muslim: I heard Ubaidullah Ibn Umar Al-Qawariri saying: I heard Hammad Ibn Zaid saying to a certain man, some days after Mahdi Ibn Hilal sat (in gatherings to tell narrations): "What is this (weak narrator who is as bitter as the) salty well which stemmed beside you?" the man said affirmatively: "yes, O Abu Isma'il".

Narrated Al-Hasan Al-Halwani from Affan: I heard Abu Awana saying: "I never was reported of any tradition from Al-Hasan (and he was a liar because what he said meant that he used to narrate from Al-Hasan every tradition he was asked about) except that I would come and review it with Aban Ibn Abu Aiyyash".

Narrated Sowaid Ibn Sa'id: Ali Ibn Muzhir said: Hamza Az-Zaiyyat and I heard from Aban Ibn Abu Aiyyash about one thousand narrations. Ali said: "Once I met Hamza, who told me that he saw in a dream The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", to whom he offered what he had heard from Aban. But The Prophet recognized nothing except for a very little, nearly five or six narrations".

Narrated Zakariyya Ibn Udai: Abu Ishaq Al-Fazari said to me: "Write to me the remaining traditions he (Aban) transmitted from the well-known narrators, and do not write what he transmitted from the unknown narrators. But, do not write what Isma'il Ibn Aiyyash had transmitted from even the well-known narrators and from anyone".

Narrated Ishaq Ibn Ibrahim Al-Hanzali from one of Abdullah's companions: Ibn Al-Mubarak said: "What a good narrator Baqiyya was! But, whenever he narrated from a person known by his name, he would mention only his title, and whenever he narrated from a person known by his title, he would mention only his name. For sometime, he used to narrate to us from Abu Sa'id Al-Wuhazi. Then we came to know that he (Abu Sa'id) was Abd Al-Quddus".

Narrated Ahmad Ibn Yusuf Al-Azdi: I have never heard Ibn Al-Mubarak openly describing anyone as a liar except Abd Al-Quddus, whom he described as a liar.

Narrated Abdullah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ad-Darimi: When it was mentioned before him that Al-Mu'alla Ibn Urfan narrated from Abu Wa'il that Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud appeared to us following the battle of Siffin, Abu Nu'aim exclaimed: "Do you think he was resurrected after death?"

قَالَ مُسْلِمٌ: وَسَمِعْتُ عُبَيْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ الْقَوَارِيرِيَّ يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ حَمَّادَ بْنَ زَيْدٍ يَقُولُ لِرَجُلٍ، بَعْدَ مَا جَلَسَ مَهْدِيُّ بْنُ هِلالٍ بِأَيَّامٍ: مَا هٰذِهِ الْعَيْنُ الْمَالِحَةُ الَّتِي نَبَعَتْ قِبَلَكُمْ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ، يَا أَبَا إِسْمَاعِيلَ.

وحدّثنا الْحَسَنُ الْحُلْوَانِيُّ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عَفَّانَ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا عَوَانَةَ قَالَ: مَا بَلَغَنِي عَنِ الْحَسَنِ حَدِيثٌ، إِلاَّ أَتَيْتُ بِهِ أَبَانَ بْنَ أَبِي عَيَّاشٍ، فَقَرَأَهُ عَلَيَّ.

وحدّثنا سُوَيْدُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ مُسْهِرٍ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَنَا وَحَمْزَةُ الزَّيَّاتُ مِنْ أَبَانَ بْنِ أَبِي عَيَّاشٍ نَحْواً مِنْ أَلْفِ حَدِيثٍ.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَلَقِيتُ حَمْزَةَ فَأَخْبَرَنِي أَنَّهُ رَأَى النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فِي الْمَنَامِ، فَعَرَضَ عَلَيْهِ مَا سَمِعَ مِنْ أَبَانَ، فَمَا عَرَفَ مِنْهَا إِلاَّ شَيْئاً يَسِيراً، خَمْسَةً أَوْ سِتَّةً.

وحدّثني عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الدَّارِمِيُّ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا نُعَيْمٍ. وَذَكَرَ الْمُعَلَّى بْنَ عُرْفَانَ، فَقَالَ: قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو وَائِلٍ قَالَ: خَرَجَ عَلَيْنَا ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ بِصِفِّينَ، فَقَالَ أَبُو نُعَيْمٍ: أَتُرَاهُ بُعِثَ بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ؟

Narrated both Amr Ibn Ali and Hasan Al-Halwani from Affan Ibn Muslim: We were with Isma'il Ibn Ulaiyya, when a man narrated a tradition, which he claimed he transmitted from a certain man. I said: "This narrator is unreliable". The man said to me: "Do you mention him badly though he is absent?" Isma'il said: "He did not do. He only told that he was unreliable (concerning the narrations)".

Narrated Abu Ja'far Ad-Darimi from Bishr Ibn Umar: I asked Malik Ibn Anas about Muhammad Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman, who used to narrate from Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab, and Malik told me: "He is unreliable". I asked him about Salih, the freed slave of Taw'ama, and he said: "He is not trustworthy". I asked him about Abu Al-huwairith, and he said: "He is not dependable". I asked him about Shu'ba from whom Ibn Abu Dhi'b narrated, and he said: "He is unreliable". I asked him about Haram Ibn Uthman, and he said: "He is not reliable". Indeed, I asked Malik about all of those five narrators, and he described all of them as unreliable in narrating the traditions. I asked him about another narrator, whose name I forgot, and he asked me: "Did you see him in my books?" I replied: "No". He said: "Had he been reliable, you would have seen him in my books".

Narrated Al-Fadl Ibn Sahl from Yahya Ibn Ma'een from Hajjaj from Ibn Abu Dhi'b from Sharhabil Ibn Sa'd, and he was a suspect (i.e. accused of telling lies).

Narrated Muhammad Ibn Abdullah Ibn Qahzaz: I heard Abdullah At-Talqani saying: I heard Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak saying: "If I was given the choice to enter into Paradise or to meet Abdullah Ibn Al-Muharrar, I would choose to meet him and then enter into Paradise. But, when I met him, (I detested him so much that) a dung was better to me than him".

Narrated Al-Fadl Ibn Sahl from Al-Walid Ibn Salih: Ubaid Ibn Amr said: Zaid Ibn Abu Unaisa said: "Do not take narrations from my brother".

Narrated Ubaid Ibn Amr: "Yahya Ibn Abu Unaisa was a liar (in what he used to narrate)".

Narrated Sulaiman Ibn Harb from Hammad Ibn Zaid: Once, Farqad was mentioned in the presence of Aiyub, who commented: "Farqad is not the one from whom the tradition could be taken".

Narrated Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Bishr Al-Abdi: When Muhammad Ibn Abdullah Ibn Ubaid Ibn Umair Al-Laithi was mentioned before Yahya Ibn Sa'id Al-Qattan, he considered him as very doubtful (narrator). He was asked: "Is he more doubtful than Ya'qub Ibn Ata?" he answered in the وحدّثنا أَبُو جَعْفَرٍ الدَّارِمِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا بِشْرُ بْنُ عُمَرَ، قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ مَالِكَ بْنَ أَنَسٍ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الَّذِي يَرْوِي عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ؟ فَقَالَ: لَيْس بِثِقَةٍ. وَسَأَلْتُهُ عَنْ صَالِحٍ مَوْلَى التَّوْأَمَةِ؟ فَقَالَ: لَيْس بِثِقَةٍ. وَسَأَلْتُهُ عَنْ أَبِي الْحُوَيْرِثِ؟ فَقَالَ: لَيْس بِثِقَةٍ. وَسَأَلْتُهُ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ الَّذِي رَوَى عَنْهُ ابْنُ أَبِي ذِئْبٍ؟ فَقَالَ: لَيْس بِثِقَةٍ. وَسَأَلْتُهُ عَنْ حَرَامِ بْنِ عُثْمَانَ؟ فَقَالَ: لَيْس بِثِقَةٍ. وسَأَلْتُ مَالِكاً عَنْ هٰؤُلاَءِ الْخَمْسَةِ؟ فَقَالَ: لَيْسُوا بِثِقَةٍ فِي حَدِيثِهِمْ. وَسَأَلْتُهُ عَنْ رَجُلٍ آخَرَ نَسِيتُ اسْمَهُ؟ فَقَالَ: هَلْ رَأَيْتَهُ فِي كُتُبِي؟ قُلْتُ: لاَ. قَالَ: لَوْ كَانَ ثِقَةً لَرَأَيْتَهُ فِي كُتُبِي.

وحدّثني الْفَضْلُ بْنُ سَهْلٍ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ مَعِينٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَجَّاجٌ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ أَبِي ذِئْبٍ، عَنْ شُرَحْبِيلَ بْنِ سَعْدٍ، وَكَانَ مُتَّهَماً.

وحدّثني الْفَضْلُ بْنُ سَهْلٍ: حَدَّثَنَا وَلِيدُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ، قَالَ: قَالَ عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَمْرٍو، قَالَ زَيْدٌ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ أَبِي أُنَيْسَةَ ـ: لاَ تَأْخُذُوا عَنْ أَخِي.

حدّثني أَحْمَدُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ، عَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ، قَالَ: ذُكِرَ فَرْقَدٌ عِنْدَ أَيُّوبَ، فَقَالَ: إِنَّ فَرْقَداً لَيْسَ صَاحِبَ حَدِيثٍ.

وحدّثني عَبْدُ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ بِشْرٍ الْعَبْدِيُّ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ يَحْيَىٰ بْنَ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانَ، ذُكِرَ عِنْدَهُ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ اللَّيْثِيُّ، فَضَعَّفَهُ جِدّاً، فَقِيلَ لِيَحْيَىٰ:

affirmative and said: "No one should narrate from Muhammad Ibn Abdullah Ibn Ubaid (Al-Laithi)".

Narrated Bishr Ibn Al-Hakam: Yahya Ibn Sa'id Al-Qattan regarded both Hakim Ibn Jubair and Abd Al-A'la as doubtful narrators. He also regarded as doubtful Yahya Ibn Musa Ibn Dinar describing his narrations as (false as) the wind. He considered as suspicious Musa Ibn Dihqan, Isa Ibn Abu Isa Al-Madani. He said: I heard Al-Hasan Ibn Isa narrating from Ibn Al-Mubarak: "If you came to Jarir, write from him whatever knowledge he has, except his narrations from three transmitters: Ubaid Ibn Mu'tib, As-Sari Ibn Isma'il and Muhammad Ibn Salim".

Muslim said: There are as many suspects of telling false narrations as we mentioned. If we wanted to survey all of them, this composition would be too long to imply all of them. What we mentioned is very sufficient for the one, who would understand well the ways of the people (of narrations) as shown in their sayings and statements.

However, they (the men of narrations) abided by uncovering the defects of those (false) narrators, giving their opinions in this matter, whenever they were asked, in view of its serious importance and danger.

That is because all of the narrations (from The Prophet or the companions) should come within the terms of the religion in order to make lawful or unlawful a certain matter, to order (that something should be done) or prevent (something from being done), to promise (of entering into Paradise as a result of doing good things) and to threaten (of entering into the Hell fire because of doing evil things).

So, if the narrator of traditions is not trustworthy and honest (in his narrations), and the one who transmits from him and does not uncover his reality, though he clearly knows it, to the people, then, this transmitter would be considered as a sinner, and a cheater of the Muslims, for anyone who hears those (false) narrations could not be safe from applying them, or at least some of them, though most of them are false narrations and untrue baseless lies. At the same time, the true narrations transmitted from the reliable and trustworthy narrators are so much that one should not resort to transmit those false narrations and lies from the unreliable and doubtful narrators.

Indeed, I do not think that those people, who rely upon those weak doubtful narrations, as we described, and the unknown attributions, regarding as important narrating them, though they know very well their weakness and blameworthiness, except that they wanted only to raise to the people as much narrations as they could, so that it might be said: "How much narrations so-and-so introduced (in his composition)!"

But, whoever went on that way of such a knowledge (of the tradition), would have no good fortune in it, and he is more entitled to be described as an ignorant than to be described as knowledgeable.

Some of the people of false narrations in our time discussed the matter of how to consider as true or doubtful the attributions of the traditions, (in a very bad and wrong way that) it would be better and more appropriate not to mention what they had said. Verily, to leave mentioning such a bad saying is to help to cause it to pass away, and to cause the one who said it to be abandoned, as well as it is more fitting not to alarm the ignorant of it.

But, since we were afraid of whatever evil consequences might happen, and the admiration the ignorant people have of what is new and innovative, in addition to their hurry to believe in the mistakes of those wrongdoers, as well as in the suspicious sayings of the knowledge claimers, we thought that to uncover the invalidity of such a saying, and cease it with introducing the true opinion, would be much more advantageous to the people, and would have a praiseworthy consequence, Allah willing.

Let's start this speech by coming across the saying, and uncovering the invalid thought of the one (who claimed) that whenever a certain narration by somebody from another, who were supposed to have lived in the same time, and it might be possible that he narrated it from him orally, though we might have no proof or knowledge that they had met face-to-face once at least, or that the former had heard such a narration from the latter, then no proof should be established in favour of any narration that was transmitted in such a way, unless it is known that they met at least once or more, or that the transmitter took orally such a narration from the narrator, and unless there is a news item, showing that they gathered and met at least once or more. If there is no knowledge or true news item showing that this transmitter met that narrator once at least, or heard anything from him, then his transmission of such a narration would be, as we mentioned above, pointless. In this way, it would be, in his sight, regarded as a suspended narration, until he gets the same narration, or some of it, even more or less, through another chain of transmitters.

[6] The validity of regarding as true the Hadith narrated from one to one

This saying of criticizing such attributions "Allah's mercy upon you" is newly invented and unprecedented, as well as it is not supported by anyone of those of knowledge. That is because the opinion which is prevalent and agreed upon by the people of knowledge of narrations, whither in the past or at present, is that it is valid to accept the tradition narrated by every reliable transmitter from another reliable narrator, supposed to have lived in the same age and time, though there might not be any news showing that they met or gathered, or even talked to one another directly.

الْعَوَامِ، وَلأَنْ يُقَالَ: مَا أَكْثَرَ مَا جَمَعَ فُلاَنٌ مِنَ الْحَدِيثِ، وَأَلَّفَ مِنَ الْعَدَدِ.

٦ ـ بَابُ صِحَّةِ الاحْتِجَاجِ بِالْحَدِيثِ الْمُعَنْعَنِ

وَهٰذَا الْقَوْلُ ـ يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ ـ فِي الطَّعْنِ فِي الأَسَانِيدِ، قَوْلٌ مُخْتَرَعٌ مُسْتَحْدَثٌ

In this way, such a narration should be considered as true, and using it as a proof (of anything concerning the matters of religion) should be regarded as obligatory, unless there is a clear evidence that both of them (i.e. the narrator and the transmitter) did not meet and gather at all. But, since it is unclear as we showed, then the narration should be dependable (and regarded as true) until there appears such a clear evidence as we illustrated.

It might be said to the inventor of such an opinion, as well as to his supporter that you suggested, according to your opinion, that the tradition narrated by a certain transmitter from a certain narrator should be regarded as true and using it as a proof (of affirming or denying anything concerning the religious matters) should be considered as obligatory, but on the condition you put, i.e. that we should be informed that both of them (i.e. the narrator and the transmitter) met or gathered at least once or more. But, do you find that such a condition as you pretended, has been regarded as necessary by anyone? Then, where is your sign of that you claimed?

If he (the inventor of such a condition) claimed that anyone of the ancient religious scholars had suggested such a condition as a sign of affirming the narration, then he (the inventor) should be required to prove his claim, which he could find no way to prove it.

If he claimed that he has an evidence of his suggested condition, then he should be asked to introduce such an evidence. If he said that since I found that the narrators, in the past and at present, used to narrate the traditions, from one another without seeing or meeting, and since I saw them regarding as possible to narrate without this restriction the traditions in such a way, putting in consideration that the Hadith transmitted without this restriction, should not be taken as a religious proof, in the sight of the people of knowledge, there was a need for such a condition as I described, i.e. I sought for an evidence showing that a certain transmitter must have (met and) heard the Hadith from its narrator.

If that transmitter was proved to have (met and) heard from the narrator, even once at least, then all of the narrations he transmitted would be regarded as certain, in my view. But, if I was not able to verify of that, the Hadith would be, in my sight, suspended, and it should not be fitting to be used as a proof (of certain religious matters).

فَإِنِ ادَّعَى قَوْلَ أَحَدٍ مِنْ عُلَمَاءِ السَّلَفِ بِمَا زَعَمَ مِنْ إِدْخَالِ الشَّرِيطَةِ فِي تَثْبِيتِ الْخَبَرِ، طُولِبَ بِهِ. وَلَنْ يَجِدَ هُوَ وَلا غَيْرُهُ إِلَى إِيجَادِهِ سَبِيلاً. وَإِنْ هُوَ ادَّعَى فِيمَا زَعَمَ دَلِيلاً يَحْتَجُّ بِهِ، قِيلَ لَهُ: وَمَا ذَاكَ الدَّلِيلُ؟

فَإِنْ قَالَ: قُلْتُهُ لأَنِّي وَجَدْتُ رُوَاةَ الأَخْبَارِ قَدِيماً وَحَدِيثاً يَرْوِي أَحَدُهُمْ عَنِ الآخَرِ الْحَدِيثَ وَلَمَّا يُعَايِنْهُ، وَلا سَمِعَ مِنْهُ شَيْئاً قَطُّ، فَلَمَّا رَأَيْتُهُمْ اسْتَجَازُوا رِوَايَةَ الْحَدِيثِ بَيْنَهُمْ هٰكَذَا عَلَى الإِرْسَالِ مِنْ غَيْرِ سَمَاعٍ - وَالْمُرْسَلُ مِنَ الرِّوَايَاتِ فِي أَصْلِ قَوْلِنَا وَقَوْلِ أَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ بِالأَخْبَارِ لَيْسَ بِحُجَّةٍ -، احْتَجْتُ لِمَا وَصَفْتُ مِنَ الْعِلَّةِ، إِلَى الْبَحْثِ عَنْ سَمَاعِ رَاوِي كُلِّ خَبَرٍ عَنْ رَاوِيهِ، فَإِذَا أَنَا هَجَمْتُ عَلَى سَمَاعِهِ مِنْهُ لأَدْنَى شَيْءٍ، ثَبَتَ عنه عِنْدِي بِذٰلِكَ جَمِيعُ مَا يَرْوِي عَنْهُ بَعْدُ، فَإِنْ عَزَبَ عَنِّي مَعْرِفَةُ ذٰلِكَ،

However, it might be said in reply to him (i.e. the one who invented that opinion) that if the reason of regarding as doubtful a certain tradition and not using it as a religious proof is the possibility of its being narrated by one from another with no restriction (i.e. without stating that the transmitter heard it directly from the narrator from whom he transmitted it), then, the inevitable result would be that you should not affirm a certain attribution (of any Hadith) unless you verify that all the parties of the chain of transmitters heard it, one from another.

For example, when a certain tradition is narrated to us by Hisham Ibn Urwa, from his father, from A'isha, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we know, for certain, that Hisham heard it from his father, who heard it from A'isha, who heard it from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

In some cases, it would be possible that Hisham might not say, concerning a certain narration, that he heard it from his father, or that his father told him of it, or that there was a mediator between him and his father, who might have heard it from his father and then told Hisham of it, who might not have heard it directly from his father, particularly, when he wanted to narrate it with no restriction, i.e. without attributing it to such a mediator, from whom he heard it.

Since this is possible in the case of Hisham who narrated from his father, it also applies to his father who narrated from A'isha, and to every attribution of a certain tradition, in which the incident of hearing it directly is not mentioned.

It is true that each of them (the transmitters) was known to have heard so much narrations from one another. But, in some cases, it is possible that they could transmit certain traditions from mediators, who heard them directly from those narrators, to whom those traditions are attributed, and not attributed to those mediators from whom they (the transmitters) heard those traditions directly. But sometimes, the transmitter might mention the name of the mediator, from whom he transmitted the tradition directly, leaving the unrestricted way of transmission (in which the statement of the direct hearing-from the narrator is not mentioned).

There are as many examples of what we said, made by the reliable narrators and transmitters, as well as by the learnt people and men of tradition. We will mention some as representatives of their most narrations.

Narrated, for example, Aiyub As-Sikhtiani, Ibn Al-Mubarak, Waki Ibn Numair, as well as others, from Hisham Ibn Urwa from his father from

فَيُقَالُ لَهُ: فَإِنْ كَانَتِ الْعِلَّةُ فِي تَضْعِيفِكَ الْخَبَرَ وَتَرْكِكَ الاحْتِجَاجَ بِهِ إِمْكَانَ الإِرْسَالِ فِيهِ، لَزِمَكَ أَنْ لا تُثْبِتَ إِسْنَاداً مُعَنْعَناً حَتَّى تَرَى فِيهِ السَّمَاعَ مِنْ أَوَّلِهِ إِلَى آخِرِهِ.

وَكَمَا يُمْكِنُ ذٰلِكَ فِي هِشَامٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ، فَهُوَ أَيْضاً مُمْكِنٌ فِي أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ.

وَكَذٰلِكَ كُلُّ إِسْنَادٍ لِحَدِيثٍ لَيْسَ فِيهِ ذِكْرُ سَمَاعِ بَعْضِهِمْ مِنْ بَعْضٍ.

وَسَنَذْكُرُ مِنْ رِوَايَاتِهِمْ عَلَى الْجِهَةِ الَّتِي ذَكَرْنَا عَدَداً يُسْتَدَلُّ بِهَا عَلَى أَكْثَرَ مِنْهَا إِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالَى.

فَمِنْ ذٰلِكَ: أَنَّ أَيُّوبَ السَّخْتِيَانِيَّ، وَابْنَ الْمُبَارَكِ، وَوَكِيعاً، وَابْنَ نُمَيْرٍ وَجَمَاعَةً غَيْرَهُمْ رَوَوْا عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهَا؛ قَالَتْ: كُنْتُ

A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that she had said: "I used to perfume The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whenever he assumed Ihram as well as whenever he finished from his state of Ihram with the best scent I could find".

The same Hadith was narrated by Al-Laith Ibn Sa'd, Dawood Al-Attar, Humaid Ibn Al-Aswad, Wahib Ibn Khalid and Abu Usama from Hisham Ibn Urwa, who said: I was told by Uthman Ibn Urwa from Urwa from A'isha from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Narrated Hisham Ibn Urwa from his father from A'isha that she had said: "Whenever The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in the mosque, in a state of seclusion, he used to get his head (into my chamber to be) closer to me in order to comb it, while I was menstruating".

The same Hadith was narrated by Malik Ibn Anas from Az-Zuhri from Urwa from Amra from A'isha from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Narrated Az-Zuhri and Salih Ibn Abu Hassan from Abu Salama from A'isha that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to kiss (his wives) while he was fasting. Concerning this narration, Yahya Ibn Abu Kathir said: Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman told me that Umar Ibn Abd Al-Aziz told him that Urwa told him that A'isha told him that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to kiss her while he was fasting.

Narrated Ibn Uyaina from Amr Ibn Dinar and others that Jaber Ibn Abdullah said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" permitted us to eat the meat of the horses, and prohibited eating the meat of the donkeys".

The same Hadith was narrated by Hammad Ibn Zaid from Amr from Muhammad Ibn Ali from Jaber (Ibn Abdullah) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

However, there are so much narrations of this type; and what we mentioned is enough for those of understanding.

Thus, if, in the sight of the one whose opinion we described earlier, the reason of regarding as doubtful the Hadith, in which the incident of direct hearing (by the transmitter from the narrator) is not known clearly, is the possibility of unrestricted transmission, then, according to his opinion, he would not regard as true the Hadith , narrated by a transmitter, known to أُطَيِّبُ رَسُولَ اللهِ ﷺ لِحِلِّهِ وَلِحُرْمِهِ بِأَطْيَبِ مَا أَجِدُ.

فَرَوَى هٰذِهِ الرِّوَايَةَ بِعَيْنِهَا: اللَّيْثُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ، وَدَاوُدُ الْعَطَّارُ، وَحُمَيْدُ بْنُ الأَسْوَدِ، وَوُهَيْبُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ، وَأَبُو أُسَامَةَ عَنْ هِشَامٍ، قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي عُثْمَانُ بْنُ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ.

فَرَوَاهَا بِعَيْنِهَا مَالِكُ بْنُ أَنَسٍ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عَمْرَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ.

وَرَوَى ابْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ وَغَيْرُهُ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ، عَنْ جَابِرٍ؛ قَالَ: أَطْعَمَنَا رَسُولُ اللهِ ﷺ لُحُومَ الْخَيْلِ وَنَهَانَا عَنْ لُحُومِ الْحُمُرِ.

فَرَوَاهُ حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ، عَنْ عَمْرٍو، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ، عَنْ جَابِرٍ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ.

فَإِذَا كَانَتِ الْعِلَّةُ عِنْدَ مَنْ وَصَفْنَا قَوْلَهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ، فِي فَسَادِ الْحَدِيثِ وَتَوْهِينِهِ، إِذَا لَمْ يُعْلَمْ أَنَّ الرَّاوِيَ قَدْ سَمِعَ مِمَّنْ رَوَى عَنْهُ شَيْئاً، إِمْكَانَ الإِرْسَالِ فِيهِ، لَزِمَهُ تَرْكُ الاحْتِجَاجِ فِي قِيَادِ قَوْلِهِ بِرِوَايَةِ مَنْ يُعْلَمُ أَنَّهُ قَدْ سَمِعَ مِمَّنْ رَوَى عَنْهُ، إِلا فِي نَفْسِ الْخَبَرِ الَّذِي فِيهِ ذِكْرُ السَّمَاعِ، لِمَا بَيَّنَّا مِنْ قَبْلُ عَنِ الأَئِمَّةِ الَّذِينَ نَقَلُوا الأَخْبَارَ، أَنَّهُمْ كَانَتْ لَهُمْ تَارَاتٌ يُرْسِلُونَ فِيهَا الْحَدِيثَ إِرْسَالاً، وَلاَ يَذْكُرُونَ مَنْ سَمِعُوهُ مِنْهُ. وَتَارَاتٌ يَنْشَطُونَ فِيهَا فَيُسْنِدُونَ الْخَبَرَ عَلَى هَيْئَةِ مَا سَمِعُوا، فَيُخْبِرُونَ بِالنُّزُولِ فِيهِ إِنْ have met and heard from the narrator (other narrations), except for the Hadith in issue.

As we mentioned earlier, the great narrators of traditions and news would sometimes narrate their traditions unrestrictedly, i.e. without naming those mediators from whom they heard, (and instead, they would directly attribute the traditions to the narrators, from whom the mediators took them). It is true that sometimes, they would name them, and, in this way, narrate the traditions in the very way they were told of it.

Furthermore, we have never known that anyone of the great narrators, who used to scrutinize the news and traditions, in order to verify of their validity and certainty, such as Aiyub As-Sikhtiani, Ibn Awn, Malik Ibn Anas, Shu'ba Ibn Al-Hajjaj, Yahya Ibn Sa'id Al-Qattan, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Mahdi, and those who came after them, had investigated (and sought for) the incidents of direct hearing while driving their attributions, as claimed by the one (who invented such an opinion) as we described earlier.

But, as for those from among them, who inspected for the incidents of the direct hearing of the tradition by the transmitter from the narrator, they did so only with the transmitter, who was suspect, and was famous for telling lies. In this case, they used to investigate and verify of his direct hearing (of such a tradition from its narrator) in order to remove away the reasons of inventing the news. But, as for seeking for that, in case the transmitter was not accused of inventing false narrations, we have never learnt that this was made by anyone of those great narrators, whom we named or did not name.

For instance, although Abdullah Ibn Yazid Al-Ansari saw and met (and of course heard from) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he narrated from Hudhaifa and Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari a Hadith from each, which he attributed to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". This narration of him from both of them does not imply mentioning the incident of his hearing from them. Moreover, neither we have known that he heard directly from Hudhaifa and Abu Mas'ud even a single tradition, nor have we found out any mention made of his seeing both of them.

But, in spite of that, we have not heard that anyone of the great-learnt men and narrators, whether in the past or at present had criticized those two narrations transmitted by Abdullah Ibn Yazid from both of Hudhaifa and Abu Mas'ud. On the contrary, they, with the other narrations of their type, have been considered by whomever we met from among the learnt people and great narrators, as true and certain traditions, applicable to be نَزَلُوا، وبِالصُّعُودِ إِنْ صَعِدُوا، كَما شَرَحْنَا ذٰلِكَ عَنْهُمْ.

فَمَنِ ابْتَغَى ذٰلِكَ مِنْ غَيْرِ مُدَلِّسٍ، عَلَى الْوَجْهِ الَّذِي زَعَمَ مَنْ حَكَيْنَا قَوْلَهُ، فَمَا سَمِعْنَا ذٰلِكَ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِمَّنْ سَمَّيْنَا، وَلَمْ نُسَمِّ، مِنَ الأَئِمَّةِ.

فَمِنْ ذٰلِكَ أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ يَزِيدَ الأَنْصَارِيَّ، وَقَدْ رَأَى النَّبِيَّ ﷺ، قَدْ رَوَى عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ وَعَنْ أَبِي مَسْعُودٍ الأَنْصَارِيِّ وَعَنْ كُلٍّ وَاحِدٍ مِنْهُمَا حَدِيثاً يُسْنِدُهُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ ﷺ، وَلَيْسَ فِي رِوَايَتِهِ عَنْهُمَا ذِكْرُ السَّمَاعِ مِنْهُمَا، وَلا حَفِظْنَا فِي شَيْءٍ مِنَ الرِّوَايَاتِ أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ يَزِيدَ شَافَهَ حُذَيْفَةَ وَأَبَا مَسْعُودٍ بِحَدِيثٍ قَطُّ، وَلا وَجَدْنَا ذِكْرَ رُؤْيَتِهِ إِيَّاهُمَا فِي رِوَايَةٍ بِعَيْنِهَا.

used as proofs of certain religious matters, though they might be, according to the one whose opinion we described earlier, regarded as weak (if not doubtful), until the incident of the transmitter's direct hearing (of such a tradition) from the narrator is verified.

However, if we went on counting the true certain traditions, regarded as weak and doubtful by the inventor of such an opinion as we mentioned earlier, then we would be unable to survey all of them (in view of their being incalculable). But, we want to set many of them as examples of all.

For instance, both of Abu Uthman An-Nahdi and Abu Rafi As-Sa'igh, who lived during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, and then accompanied (after embracing Islam) the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", beginning from those who attended (the holy battle of) Badr and those who came after them, from whom they transmitted many traditions and news, as they transmitted from such people as Abu Huraira and Umar. Each of them (transmitted from, and) attributed to Ubai Ibn Ka'b a certain Hadith narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But, we did not learn that both of them had seen, met, or heard anything directly from Ubai.

Furthermore, each of Abu Amr Ash'shaibani, who lived in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, and he was mature when Islam appeared, and Abu Ma'mar Abdullah Ibn Sakhbara (transmitted from, and) attributed to Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari a certain Hadith narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Ubaid Ibn Umair transmitted a certain Hadith from Umm Salama, the wife of The Messenger of Allah, (who narrated it) from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Ubaid Ibn Umair was born during the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Qais Ibn Abu Hazim, who caught (a portion of) the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" transmitted from Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari three traditions (he narrated) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila, who kept so much traditions from Umar Ibn Al-Khattab, and accompanied Ali (Ibn Abu Talib), transmitted from Anas a single Hadith.

Rib'i Ibn Hirash transmitted two traditions from Imran Ibn Husain (which he narrated) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and a single Hadith from Abu Bakra (he narrated) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", though he (Rib'i was known to have) heard and transmitted many traditions from Ali Ibn Abu Talib.

بِمَا أَتَتْ مِنْ سُنَنٍ وَآثَارٍ.

وَأَسْنَدَ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ أَبِي لَيْلَى، وَقَدْ حَفِظَ عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ، وَصَحِبَ عَلِيًّا، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ حَدِيثاً.

وَأَسْنَدَ رِبْعِيُّ بْنُ حِرَاشٍ، عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ، حَدِيثَيْنِ، وَعَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ حَدِيثاً. وَقَدْ سَمِعَ رِبْعِيٌّ مِنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ، وَرَوَى عَنْهُ.

Nafi Ibn Jubair Ibn Mut'im transmitted a single Hadith from Abu Shuraih Al-Khuza'i (who narrated it) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

An-Nu'man Ibn Abu Aiyyash transmitted from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri three traditions (he narrated) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Ata Al-Laithi transmitted a single Hadith from Tamim Ad-Dari (he narrated) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Sulaiman Ibn Yasar transmitted a single Hadith from Rafi Ibn Khadij (he narrated) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Abu Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Himyari transmitted several traditions from Abu Huraira (which he narrated) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

All of those successors mentioned above, whose narrations from the companions we brought up, were neither reported to have heard any certain Hadith directly from them, nor were they known to have met them in (order to take) any Hadith. But, in spite of that, their narrations and attributions are considered as true and certain, by those learnt people and great scholars of Hadith, who did neither criticize nor make doubtful any of them, nor sought for verifying that a direct hearing from one another had happened, for the occurrence of direct hearing of anyone of them from the other is possible, since they lived in the same time and generation.

In this way, the result is that this opinion suggested by such an inventor as we described earlier, who would regard as weak and doubtful any tradition on the basis of the reason we illustrated, is to be undependable and pointless. That is because, it is an innovatively invented saying, and false opinion, which no one of the ancient learnt people had said, and all of the trustworthy men of knowledge who followed them denied.

So, we have no need to nullify it with more than we explained, since the opinion and its claimant are as insignificant as we showed; and Allah is The One, from Whom we seek for help, to push away him, who deviated from the right doctrine of the learnt people, and upon Whom, we rely.

(1) The Book Of Faith

[1] The (difference between the) faith, Islam and faithfulness, and to have faith, it is obligatory to affirm (and believe in) the Divine decree, and the proof of (the punishment of) the one who does not believe in the Divine decree

Abu Al-Husain: Muslim Ibn Al-Hajjaj Al-Qushairi said: "With the help of Allah, we are going to begin (our book), and with Whom alone, we are satisfied. Indeed, our success would be achieved only by the help of Allah, "Exalted be He"".

1-(8) Abdullah Ibn Buraida narrated from Yahya Ibn Ya'mur: The first man who argued about (and denied the matter of) the Divine Decree in Basra was Ma'bad Al-Juhani. I and Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Himyari were leaving for pilgrimage or Umra when we said: "Would that we meet one of the Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", so as to ask him about what has been said concerning the (matter of the) Divine decree".

Our presence coincided with Abdullah Ibn Umar Ibn Al-Khattab's entering into the mosque. My companion and I surrounded him. One of us (stood) on his right and the other stood on his left. I expected that my companion would allow me to speak. I said: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! Many people in our region came to recite the Holy Quran and seek for and collect knowledge". (He mentioned some of their affairs, their good qualities and great concern of religious knowledge.

Then he resumed) "They claim that there is no such a thing as Divine Decree and that the events are not predestined". He (Abdullah Ibn Umar) said: "When you meet them, inform them that I am free from (the sin of) them, as well as they are free from me, since they are not responsible for (the belief of) me. By Him (Allah), with Whom Abdullah Ibn Umar used to swear! If anyone of them had with him gold as much as equal to (the mountain of) Uhud which he spent (in the way of Allah), Allah would not accept it unless he believed in Divine Decree".

He added: My father, Umar Ibn Al-Khattab told me: One day we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", when appeared before us a man, wearing very white clothes, having very deep black hair, on whom, there were no traces of travel. Furthermore, none amongst us recognized him. He sat with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

قَالَ أَبُو الْحُسَيْنِ مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ الْقُشَيْرِيُّ رَحِمَهُ اللَّهُ: بِعَوْنِ اللَّهِ نَبْتَدِئ، وَإِيَّاهُ نَسْتَكْفِي، وَمَا تَوْفِيقُنَا إِلاَّ بِاللَّهِ جَلَّ جَلاَلُهُ.

ثُمَّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ، قَالَ: بَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ، إِذْ طَلَعَ عَلَيْنَا رَجُلٌ شَدِيدُ بَيَاضِ الثِّيَابِ، شَدِيدُ سَوَادِ الشَّعَرِ، لا يُرَى عَلَيْهِ أَثَرُ السَّفَرِ، وَلا يَعْرِفُهُ مِنَّا أَحَدٌ. حَتَّى جَلَسَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ ﷺ، فَأَسْنَدَ رُكْبَتَيْهِ إِلَى رُكْبَتَيْهِ،

He knelt in front of him, with his palms on his (the stranger's) thighs and said: "O Muhammad, tell me what is Islam". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Islam is to testify that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah, to establish the prayer, pay the obligatory charity, observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan, and perform pilgrimage to the House (i.e. Ka'ba) in case you are able to do".

He said: "You have told the truth". However, we were astonished that he raised the question and, at the same time, confirmed that it (the answer) was true. He said: "Tell me what is faith". He (The Prophet) answered: "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers, The Day of Judgment, and the Divine Decree about good and evil". He said: "You are true". Then, He said: "Tell me what is faithfulness". He (The Prophet) replied: "It is to worship Allah as if you see Him. However, though you don't see Him, He sees you".

He said: "Tell me about The Doomed hour". He (The Prophet) commented: "The one who was asked knows no more than the one who asked". He said: "Tell me some of its portents". He (The Prophet) answered: "(Some of its portents are): That the slave-girl will give birth to her mistress and master, that you will find barefooted, destitute goat herds (so much wealthy that they will be) competing one another in constructing the great huge buildings".

Then he (the stranger) went on his way and I stayed with him (The Prophet) for a long time, after which He said to me: "O Umar, do you know who this asker was?" I replied: "Allah and His Messenger know best". He commented: "He was (the angel) Gabriel, who came in order to teach you the matters of your religion".

2-(...) Abdullah Ibn Buraida narrated from Ibn Ya'mur: "When Ma'bad (Al-Juhani) argued about (and negated the matter of) the Divine decree, we rejected that (i.e. what he had said). Then, I and Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Himyari set out for pilgrimage" (and he mentioned the remaining of the narration, with little change in words).

3-(...) Abdullah Ibn Buraida narrated from Yahya Ibn Ya'mur and Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman that they said: "We met Abdullah Ibn Umar to whom we talked about the Divine Decree, and what they argued about it" (and he mentioned the Hadith narrated by Umar "Allah be pleased with him" from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", with some little change in it).

4-(...) Yahya Ibn Ya'mur narrated from Abdullah Ibn Umar from Umar from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same previous Hadith.

5-(9) Abu Huraira narrated: One day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appeared before the people, when a man came and asked him: "O Prophet of Allah! What is faith?" He (The Prophet) replied: "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, His meeting, His Messengers, and in the Resurrection of the hereafter".

He asked (once again): "O Messenger of Allah! What is Islam?" He (The Prophet) answered: "Islam is to worship Allah and not associate anything with Him, to establish the obligatory prayers, to pay the obligatory charity, and to observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan".

He asked: "O Messenger of Allah! What is faithfulness?" He (The Prophet) answered: "It is to worship Allah as if you see Him. Indeed, if you are unable to (feel that you) see Him, you should put in mind that He sees you". He asked: "O Messenger of Allah! When would the doomed hour be?" He (The Prophet) replied: "The one who was asked has no better knowledge of it than the inquirer. But, I'm going to tell you some of its portents: When the slave-girl would give birth to her owner, and when the naked, barefooted would become the chiefs of the people; and those are some of its portents. When the shepherds of the beasts would compete in (constructing the huge) buildings, this is one of its portents. (The Hour) is one of the five (unseen events) which no one knows but Allah". Then he (The Messenger of Allah) recited (Allah's saying): .

"Verily the knowledge of the Hour is with Allah (alone). It is He Who knows rain, and He Who knows what is in the wombs. Nor does any one know what it is that he will earn on the morrow: nor does any one know in what land he is to die. Verily with Allah is full knowledge and He is acquainted (with all things)". (Luqman 34)

He (Abu Huraira) said: Then the man turned back and went away. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bring that man back to me!" They (the Companions present in the gathering) went in his pursuit, but they failed to see him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "He was Gabriel, and he came to teach people their religion".

"He was Gabriel, and he wanted you to learn what you did not ask for (concerning the matters of religion)".

[2] What about the obligatory prayer, which is one of Islamic pillars

8-(11) Malik Ibn Anas narrated from Abu Suhail from his father that he heard Talha Ibn Ubaidullah saying: a man, with unkempt hair, from the people of Najd, came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The humming of his voice was heard, though what he had been saying was unclear. Then, he came close to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". It was then (clear) that he was asking about Islam.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Five prayers during the day and the night". He said: "Am I in need to offer more besides these (prayers)?" He (The Prophet) said: "No, except if you wanted to pray voluntarily. (You should also observe) the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan". The man asked: "Am I forced to observe more in addition to it?" He (The Prophet) said: "No, except if you wanted to do voluntarily". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told him about the obligatory charity. The man asked: "Have I to pay more than that?" He (The Prophet) said: "No, except if you wanted to pay voluntarily". The man turned back while he was saying: "I would neither add more to this, nor will I decrease anything from it". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "He will be successful, if he is true (to what he said)".

9-(...) Abu Suhail narrated from his father from Talha Ibn Ubaidullah a similar narration, with the difference that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "He, by his father, would be prosperous, if he was true (to what he said)" or "he, by his father, would enter into Paradise if he was true (to what he said)".

[3] Asking about the pillars of Islam

10-(12) Thabit narrated from Anas: We were prevented to ask The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" any questions (in case there was no necessity). So, we used to be pleased whenever an intelligent person from the Bedouins (i.e. dwellers of the desert) came and asked him (The Prophet), and we were to listen to that.

A man from the desert dwellers came (to The Prophet) and said: "O Muhammad! Your representative came to us and informed us that you have been sent by Allah (as a Messenger)". He (The Prophet) commented: "He told the truth". He (the Bedouin) said: "Who did create the heaven?"

He (The Prophet) said: "Allah". He (the Bedouin) asked: "Who did create the earth?" He (The Prophet) said: "Allah". He (the Bedouin) asked: "Who did set up these mountains, and create in them whatever is created?" He (The Prophet) said: "Allah". He (the Bedouin) said: "By Him Who created the heaven and created the earth and set up mountains, has Allah (really) sent you?" He (The Prophet) said: "Yes".

He (the Bedouin) said: "Your representative informed us that five prayers (had been made) obligatory for us during the day and the night". He (The Prophet) said: "He told the truth". He (the Bedouin) asked: "By Him Who has sent you, is it Allah Who ordered you of this (performing those prayers)?" He (The Prophet) answered: "Yes".

He (the Bedouin) said: "Your representative told us that Zakat (i.e. a payment of a portion of our wealth to the poor and needy) had been enjoined upon our wealthy people". He (The Prophet) said: "He told the truth". He (the Bedouin) said: "By Him Who has sent you (as a Messenger), is it Allah Who ordered you to do it?" He (The Prophet) replied: "Yes".

He (the Bedouin) said: "Your representative told us that observing fasts during the month of Ramadan every year had been enjoined upon us". He (The Prophet) said: "He has told the truth". He (the Bedouin) asked: "By Him Who has sent you (as a Messenger), is it Allah Who ordered you of it?" He (The Prophet) replied: "Yes".

He (the Bedouin) said: "Your representative informed us that pilgrimage (Hajj) to the House (of Ka'ba) had been enjoined upon the one, who could do". He (The Prophet) said: "Yes".

The narrator said: he (the Bedouin) set out in the end of this reply. While he was going out, he said: "By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I would neither add more to that, nor decrease anything from that". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "If he were true (to what he said) he would be admitted in Paradise".

11-(...) Thabit narrated: Anas said: "We were forbidden by The Holy Quran, to ask The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about anything (particularly when there was no crucial need)". (Then, he narrated the Hadith in full).

Bedouin appeared before him. He caught hold of the nose string of his she-camel and said: "O Messenger of Allah (or O Muhammad)! Tell me about that (good deed) which makes me close to Paradise and draws me away from the (Hell) Fire". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stopped for a while, casting a glance upon his companions.

Then he said: "He (this Bedouin) has got a good opportunity (or he has been well-guided)". He (The Prophet) said, addressing the Bedouin: (Repeat) what you asked for". He repeated it. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "The good deed which can get you close to Paradise and draw you away from the (Hell) fire is to worship Allah and associate none with Him, to establish prayers, to pay the obligatory charity, and to keep good relations with your kith and kin". "Let the nose string of the she-camel!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered the Bedouin.

He (The Prophet) said: "It is to worship Allah and associate none with Him, to establish prayers, to pay the obligatory charity, and to keep good relations with your kith and kin".

When he (the man) turned back, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said commenting: "If he sticked to what he was ordered to do (or, according to the narration of Abu Shaiba, a sub-narrator, "if he sticked to it"), he would be admitted in Paradise".

15-(14) Abu Huraira narrated: Once, a Bedouin came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Guide me to a good deed, which, if I did, I would be admitted in Paradise". He (The Prophet) said: "It is to worship Allah and associate none with Him, to establish the obligatory prayers, to pay the obligatory charity, and to observe fasts of (the month of) Ramadan".

The man said: "By Him, in Whose hands my soul is! I would not add more to this, nor would I cut anything from it". When he turned back, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He,

[5] The great fundaments and bases of Islam

19-(16) Ibn Umar narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Islam is based upon five (fundaments): (To believe in) the oneness of Allah, to establish the prayer, to pay the obligatory charity, to observe the fasts of Ramadan, and to perform the pilgrimage". A man said: "(Which of the two is first in the narration, i.e.) the pilgrimage and the fasting of Ramadan?" Ibn Umar replied: "The fasting of Ramadan and the pilgrimage. As such I heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

20-(...) Ibn Umar narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Islam is based upon five (fundaments): To worship Allah alone and disbelieve in anything other than Him, to establish the prayer, to pay the obligatory charity, to perform the pilgrimage to the House (of Ka'ba), and to observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan".

21-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Islam is based upon five (fundaments): To testify that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger, to establish the prayer, to pay the obligatory charity, to perform the pilgrimage to the House (of Ka'ba), and to observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan".

We cannot come to you except in the sacred months since there is the infidel tribe of Mudar intervening between you and us. So please order us to do something good (concerning religion) by which we may enter Paradise, and of which we may inform our people whom we have left behind".

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I order you to do four things and forbid you (to use) four things. I order you to believe in Allah Alone". He explained it for them: "To testify that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah and that Muhammad is Allah's Apostle; to offer prayers perfectly; to pay the obligatory charity; to observe fasts during the month of Ramadan; and to pay one fifth of the booty to be given for Allah's sake. Then I forbid you (to use) four things, namely dry gourds, green-coloured jars, hollowed stumps of palm-trees, and receptacles". (All of them are used as containers of wine. The Prophet used the names of the pots to designate the prohibited drinks brewed in them).

Khalaf Ibn Hisham added in his narration: "To testify that there is no god but Allah", and pointed out to the oneness of the Lord with his finger.

24-(…) Abu Jamra narrated: I was an interpreter between Ibn Abbas and the people when a woman came and asked about the wine pitcher. He replied: when the people (or delegate) of the tribe of Abd Al-Qais came to The Prophet, The Prophet asked them: "Who are the people (You)?" Or "who is the delegate?" They replied: "We are from the tribe of Rabie'a". Then The Prophet said to them: "Welcome! O people (or O delegate) of Abd Al-Qais! Neither will you have disgrace nor will you regret". They said: "O Allah's Apostle! We come to you through a long journey (or from a far distance). We cannot come to you except in the sacred months since

The Prophet ordered them to do four things and forbade them (to use) four things. He ordered them to believe in Allah Alone and asked them: "Do you know what is meant by believing in Allah Alone?" They replied: "Allah and His Apostle know best". Thereupon The Prophet said: "It means to testify that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah and that Muhammad is Allah's Apostle; to offer prayers perfectly; to pay the obligatory charity; to observe fast during the month of Ramadan; and to pay one fifth of the booty to be given for Allah's sake".

Then he forbade them (to use) dry gourds, green-coloured jars, receptacles (and hollowed stumps of palm-trees, according to Shu'ba, a sub-narrator). The Prophet further said (to them): "Memorize those (instructions) and convey them to the people whom you left behind".

Ibn Mu'adh added from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Al-Ashajj, i.e. Ashajj of the tribe of Abd Al-Qais: "You have two good qualities which Allah likes: intelligence and deliberateness.

26-(18) Quatada narrated from one who was involved in the delegate of Abd Al-Qais which came to meet The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", (Sa'id mentioned that Quatada named him as Abu Nadra), on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri: Once, the delegate of the tribe of Abd Al-Qais came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". It is a hollowed stump, in which you throw small fruits of dates, over which, you sprinkle water. When its ebullition subsides, you drink it (and become so intoxicated) that one of you or them would strike his cousin with the sword".

Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said to Abu Bakr: "Why would you fight against the people, since The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stated: "I have been ordered to fight the people until they say: There is no god but Allah; and he who uttered it, his property and life would be protected from being damaged except legally, and his reckoning (concerning his intention) would be with Allah"?"

Abu Bakr said: "By Allah, I would decisively fight the one who separated (in treatment) prayer from obligatory charity, for it (the latter) is a right (that should be taken from the people) of wealth. By Allah, I would fight them even if they withheld giving (as obligatory charity) the string (of hobbling the feet of a camel) which they used to give to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"".

Umar Ibn Al-Khattab commented: "By Allah, it was nothing but that Allah had expanded the heart of Abu Bakr for fighting (those who stopped from giving the obligatory charity) and I came to know that he was right".

39-(24) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated from his father (Al-Musaiyyab Ibn Huzn): When the time of the death of Abu Talib approached, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to him and found Abu Jahl Ibn Hisham and Abdullah Ibn Abu Umaiyya Ibn Al-Mughira by his side. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abu Talib: "O uncle! Say: There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, a sentence with which I shall be a witness (to argue) for you before Allah".

Abu Jahl and Abdullah Ibn Abu Umaiyya said: "O Abu Talib! Are you going to denounce the religion of Abd Al-Muttalib?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept on inviting Abu Talib to say it but they (Abu Jahl and Abdullah) kept on repeating their statement till Abu Talib said as his last statement that he was on the religion of Abd Al-Muttalib and refused to say: There is no god but Allah.

Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I will keep on asking Allah's forgiveness for you unless I am forbidden (by Allah) to do so". So Allah revealed (the verse) concerning him: "It is not fitting for The Prophet and those who believe that they should invoke (Allah) for forgiveness for pagans even though they be of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are companions of the fire". it". He (The Prophet) did so. He, who had wheat, came with his wheat, he, who had dates, came with his dates, (And, according to Mujahid, he who had stones of dates came with his stones. I (the sub-narrator) said: "What did they do with the stones of dates?" He said: "They used to suck them and then drink water over them").

Then, He (The Prophet) invoked (Allah's) blessings upon those (provisions). (The stocks increased so much that) the people refilled (the vessels of) their provisions. Then, he (The Prophet) said: "I testify that there is no god but Allah, and I am His messenger. Whoever meets Allah having no doubt in these (two testimonies) would be admitted in Paradise".

45-(...) Abu Salih narrated from Abu Huraira (or Abu Sa'id, Al-A'mash, a sub-narrator doubted): During the journey towards (the holy battle of) Tabuk, the (provisions) ran short and the men (of the army) were stricken by a difficult starvation. They said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would you give us permission to slaughter our camels, so that we might eat them and use their fat?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You could do".

Then Umar came and said: "O Messenger of Allah! If you did that (and they started to slaughter their camels), the mounts would run short. But you could send for them to come along with the remaining of their provisions. Then invoke Allah's blessings on those (left out provisions), and Allah is expected to bless them". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" approved.

He called for a leather sheet to be spread out as a tablecloth. Then he called people along with the remaining of their provisions. There was someone who came with handful of mote, another with a handful of dates, and a third with a fragment of bread, and so on till small quantities of these items were collected on the tablecloth. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked (Allah's) blessing (on them) and said (addressing the people): "Fill your utensils with these provisions".

Their utensils were filled with them to the brim, with none of the army (soldiers) left even with a single empty utensil. Though they ate their fill, there was still a surplus (food). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "I testify that there is no god but Allah and I am The Messenger of Allah. He, who meets his Lord having no doubt in these two (principles) would never be prevented from Paradise".

He said: "Do you know what Allah's right upon his slaves is?" I said: "Allah and His Apostle know best". He said: "Allah's right upon his slaves is that they should worship Him alone and not associate anything with him". He proceeded for a while and then said: "O Mu'adh Ibn Jabal!"

but found none. Seeing a brook flowing into the garden from a well outside, I joined the parts of my body together, like a fox, so tight that I could creep through it. I entered into The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

He said: "Are you Abu Huraira?" I replied: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah". He said: "What is the matter with you?" I replied: "You were amongst us and then you got up, went away and delayed for sometime. So, feeling afraid that you might be attacked by some enemy when you were alone, we became scared (and we got up). I was the first to be scared(and to get up). So when I came to this garden, I joined the parts of my body together as tight as a fox used to do, and these people are following me".

He called me, and gave me his sandals and said: "Take away these sandals of mine, and when you meet anyone outside this garden who testifies that there is no god but Allah, with certainty in his heart, rejoice him that he shall be admitted in Paradise".

The first one I met was Umar, who asked: "What are those sandals, O Abu Huraira?" I said: "Those are the sandals of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", with which he has sent me to rejoice anybody I meet who testifies that there is no god but Allah, with certainty in his heart, that he would be admitted in Paradise".

Umar struck me on my breast (so strong that) I fell on my back. He then said: "Go back, O Abu Huraira!" I returned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and was about to burst into tears. Umar followed me closely and there he was behind me. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What is the matter with you, O Abu Huraira?" I said: "I met Umar whom I told the message with which you sent me. He struck me on my breast (so violent that) I fell down on my back. He ordered me to return".

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What did lead you to do this, O Umar?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah, let my mother and father be sacrificed for you! Did you send Abu Huraira with your sandals to inform anyone he met who testified that there is no god but Allah, with certainty in his heart, that he would be admitted in Paradise?" He replied in the affirmative. Umar said: "Then, do not do, for I am afraid that people will rely only upon it (and leave doing the good deeds). So, let them go on doing (good) deeds". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Well, let them do".

فَخَرَجْتُ أَبْتَغِي رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ، حَتَّى أَتَيْتُ حَائِطاً لِلأَنْصَارِ لِبَنِي النَّجَّارِ، فَدُرْتُ بِهِ هَلْ أَجِدُ لَهُ بَاباً. فَلَمْ أَجِدْ، فَإِذَا رَبِيعٌ يَدْخُلُ فِي جَوْفِ حَائِطٍ مِنْ بِئْرٍ خَارِجَةٍ ـ وَالرَّبِيعُ الْجَدْوَلُ ـ فَاحْتَفَزْتُ كَمَا يَحْتَفِزُ الثَّعْلَبُ، فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَقَالَ «أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ؟» فَقُلْتُ: نَعَمْ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، قَالَ: «مَا شَأْنُكَ؟» قُلْتُ: كُنْتَ بَيْنَ أَظْهُرِنَا، فَقُمْتَ فَأَبْطَأْتَ عَلَيْنَا، فَخَشِينَا أَنْ تُقْتَطَعَ دُونَنَا، فَفَزِعْنَا، فَكُنْتُ أَوَّلَ مَنْ فَزِعَ، فَأَتَيْتُ هٰذَا الْحَائِطَ، فَاحْتَفَزْتُ كَمَا يَحْتَفِزُ الثَّعْلَبُ، وَهٰؤُلاَءِ النَّاسُ وَرَائِي. فَقَالَ: «يَا أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ» ـ وَأَعْطَانِي نَعْلَيْهِ ـ قَالَ: «اذْهَبْ بِنَعْلَيَّ هَاتَيْنِ، فَمَنْ لَقِيتَ مِنْ وَرَاءِ هٰذَا الْحَائِطِ يَشْهَدُ أَنْ لاَ إِلٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ، مُسْتَيْقِناً بِهَا قَلْبُهُ، فَبَشِّرْهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ»، فَكَانَ أَوَّلَ مَنْ لَقِيتُ عُمَرُ. فَقَالَ: مَا هَاتَانِ النَّعْلاَنِ يَا أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ؟ فَقُلْتُ: هَاتَانِ نَعْلاَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، بَعَثَنِي بِهِمَا، مَنْ لَقِيتُ يَشْهَدُ أَنْ لاَ إِلٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ مُسْتَيْقِناً بِهَا قَلْبُهُ، بَشَّرْتُهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ، فَضَرَبَ عُمَرُ بِيَدِهِ بَيْنَ ثَدْيَيَّ. فَخَرَرْتُ لاِسْتِي، فَقَالَ: ارْجِعْ يَا أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ، فَرَجَعْتُ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَأَجْهَشْتُ بُكَاءً. وَرَكِبَنِي عُمَرُ، فَإِذَا هُوَ عَلَى أَثَرِي، فَقَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَا لَكَ يَا أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ؟» قُلْتُ: لَقِيتُ عُمَرَ فَأَخْبَرْتُهُ بِالَّذِي بَعَثْتَنِي بِهِ، فَضَرَبَ بَيْنَ ثَدْيَيَّ ضَرْبَةً، خَرَرْتُ لاِسْتِي، قَالَ: ارْجِعْ. فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «يَا عُمَرُ مَا حَمَلَكَ عَلَى مَا فَعَلْتَ؟» فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، بِأَبِي أَنْتَ وَأُمِّي، أَبَعَثْتَ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ بِنَعْلَيْكَ، مَنْ لَقِيَ يَشْهَدُ أَنْ لاَ إِلٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ مُسْتَيْقِناً بِهَا قَلْبُهُ، بَشَّرَهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ؟ قَالَ: «نَعَمْ» قَالَ: فَلاَ تَفْعَلْ، فَإِنِّي أَخْشَى أَنْ يَتَّكِلَ النَّاسُ عَلَيْهَا فَخَلِّهِمْ يَعْمَلُونَ، قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «فَخَلِّهِمْ».

53-(32) Anas narrated from Mu'adh Ibn Jabal that while he was riding behind The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", The Messenger of Allah said to him: "O Mu'adh!" He replied: "Here I'm, responding to your call, O Allah's Apostle, all happiness be for you!" he said once again: "O Mu'adh!" He replied: "Here I'm, responding to your call, O Allah's Apostle, all happiness be for you!" he said (for the third time): "O Mu'adh!" He replied: "Here I'm, responding to your call, O Allah's Apostle, all happiness be for you!"

he said: "There is no slave, who testifies that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah, but that Allah would forbid him to (enter into) the (Hell) fire". He (Mu'adh) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would I not tell the people of it, so that they should be happy?" The Messenger of Allah replied: "No, (for fear that) they would depend only upon it (and leave doing the good deeds)". But, Mu'adh uttered it at the time of his death, in order to avoid being a sinful (in case he concealed something of religious knowledge he learnt from The Messenger of Allah, with the result that a great thing might miss the people after his death).

54-(33) Anas narrated from Mahmud Ibn Ar-Rabie that he came to Medina and met Itban Ibn Malik to whom he said: "There is a certain Hadith, which I was informed you are narrating". He said: "I was befallen in my eyesight. I sent for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (saying): "I have a great desire that you might come and offer prayer in (one corner of) my house, so that I should make it (that corner) a place of worship".

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came there, accompanied by whomever Allah willed of the companions. He entered and then performed prayer at my house. His Companions started to talk amongst themselves (and they were concerned precisely in their talks with the hypocrites). However, Malik Ibn Dukhshum, was made (in their talks) to take the lead (of such a hypocrisy), and they wished that he (The Prophet) should invoke evil against him, so that he (Malik) should die or be befallen by some calamity. At the same time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished his prayer and said: "Does Malik Ibn Dukhshum not testify that there is no god but Allah and that I am The Messenger of Allah?" They replied: "He utters it, though not from his heart". He (The Prophet) said: "He who testifies that there is no god but Allah and I am The Messenger of Allah would not enter into the (Hell) fire, or it would not consume him"". Anas said: I was astonished by this Hadith so much that I told my son to write it down, and he did so.

wisdom that it (modesty) implies clear-headedness and tranquility". Imran said: "I narrate to you (a Hadith) from The Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and you tell me about your books (of wisdom)!"

61-(...) Abu Quatada narrated: We were sitting with Imran Ibn Husain in a gathering of people, including Bushair Ibn Ka'b. Imran told us that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Modesty as a whole is a good merit", or said: "Modesty is fully good".

Bushair Ibn Ka'b said: "Indeed, we find in some books or (books of) wisdom that it has tranquility or clear-headedness for the sake of Allah and it implies also some weakness". Imran grew so much angry that his eyes turned red and he said: "I tell you the Hadith of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and you contradict it". Then, Imran narrated the Hadith. But, Bushair repeated (the same reply). Imran grew furious. We kept on saying (to Imran): "Verily Bushair is from us O Abu Nujaid! There is nothing wrong with him (Bushair)" (i.e. he is not of such hypocrites or religious innovators, as to contradict Islam and the people of uprightness, nor is he to argue in defense of them).

all of the Muslims are safe" (i.e. it is the one, who used not to hurt the Muslims with saying or acting).

65-(41) Jaber narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The (true) Muslim is the one, from whose tongue and hand all of the Muslims are safe".

66-(42) Abu Burda narrated from Abu Musa that he asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Which (type) of Muslims is better?" he said: "It is the one, from whose tongue and hand the Muslims are safe".

Buraid Ibn Abdullah narrated the same previous tradition, saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked: "Who among the Muslims is better?" (and he mentioned the narration).

[15] The characteristics, which if one has, he would get the sweetness of faith

67-(43) Abu Qilaba narrated from Anas from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Whoever possesses the following three qualities will have the sweetness of faith: The one to whom Allah and His Apostle become dearer than anything else. Who loves a person and he loves him only for Allah's sake. Who hates to revert to Atheism (disbelief) as he hates to be thrown into the fire".

68-(...) Thabit narrated from Anas from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same previous tradition, but with little change, according to which he said: "Who hates to revert to Judaism or Christianity" (instead of atheism).

[16] The obligation of loving The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" more than one's parents, children and all people, and the one who does not love him as such is regarded to have no faith

69-(44) Anas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Any slave (or man, according to the narration of Abd Al-Warith) would not be a (completely) believer unless I become dearer to him than his family, properties and all of the people".

70-(...) Anas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One would not be a (completely) believer unless I become dearer to him than his family, properties and all of the people".

[17] The proof that one of the characteristics of faith is that one should love for his (Muslim) brother whatever he loves for himself

71-(45) Anas narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "One should not be a (completely) believer unless he loves for his brother (or his neighbour) whatever he loves for himself".

72-(...) Anas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose hand my soul is! One would not be a (completely) believer unless he loves for his neighbour (or his brother) whatever he loves for himself".

[18] It is prohibited to hurt one's neighbour

73-(46) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One would not enter into Paradise unless his neighbour feels safe from his evil behaviour".

[19] The exhortation to treat generously one's neighbour and guest, and the obligation of one's keeping silent except in goodness, and regarding all of that as essential in one's faith

74-(47) Abu Huraira narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "He, who believes in Allah and The Day of Judgement, should say (nothing but) good or (otherwise) keep silent. He, who believes in Allah and The Day of Judgement, should treat his neighbour generously. He, who believes in Allah and The Day of Judgement, should treat his guest generously".

[20] Preventing (the people) from doing what is abominable is an essential part of faith, and one's faith could increase and decrease, and preventing (people) from doing what is abominable, and ordering (them) to do what is good are obligatory (for anyone)

78-(49) Tariq Ibn Shihab narrated: It was Marwan (Ibn Al-Hakam) who started (the practice of) delivering the sermon before the prayer on the Feast day. A man stood up and said: "Prayer should be delivered before the sermon". He (Marwan) said: "This (convention) has been given up".

Abu Sa'id said: "This man has done whatever (duty) is incumbent upon him. I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Whoever amongst you sees something abominable should set right it with his hand; if he has no enough power to do it, then he should do it with his tongue; and if he has no enough power to do it then he should (deny it) from his heart, and that is the least of faith".

79-(...) Tariq Ibn Shihab narrated the story of Marwan, and from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same Hadith narrated by Shu'ba and Sufyan.

80-(50) Abu Rafi narrated from Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There was no Prophet, sent before me by Allah to his nation, but that he had from among his nation many disciples and companions who followed his ways and obeyed his orders. Then there came following them their successors, who said whatever they did not do, and did whatever they were not ordered to do. Whoever strove against them with his hand was a believer; he who strove against them with his tongue was a believer; and he who strove against them with his heart was a believer; and beyond that there is no faith (even as little as) equal to a mustard seed".

Abu Rafi said: "I narrated this Hadith to Abdullah Ibn Umar, who denied it. (Sometime later), Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud came and stayed at Qanat (one of Medina's valleys). Abdullah Ibn Umar asked me to accompany him for visiting him (because he was ill),. So I went along with him. While being sitting, I asked Ibn Mas'ud about this Hadith. He related it in the same way as I narrated it to Ibn Umar".

(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Miswar Ibn Makhrama narrated from Abu Rafi, the freed slave of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There was no Prophet (before me) except that he had many disciples, who followed his ways and traditions, and abided by his conventions". (Then, he mentioned the narration in full.

[21] The preference of the believers to one another concerning their faith, and the superiority of the people of Yemen in this regard

81-(51) Abu Mas'ud narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pointed with his hand towards the direction of Yemen and said: "Verily, the (true) faith is there (at this direction), while harshness and heartlessness is prevalent among the owners of the camels who drive them from behind their tails (towards the direction) where there appear the two sides of the head of Satan. They are (the tribes of) Rabie'a and Mudar"

82-(52) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The people of Yemen came. They have much smoother hearts. Verily, the (true) belief is that of the Yemenites, the (understanding of) religious knowledge is that of the Yemenites; and the (real) wisdom is that of the Yemenites".

83-(...) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said the same.

84-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Yemenites came to you. Indeed, they are of smoother hearts and milder feelings. The (understanding of) religious knowledge is that of the Yemenites, as well as the wisdom is that of the Yemenites".

85-(...) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The peak of disbelief is towards the East. Both pride and haughtiness are prevalent among the owners of horses and camels who are harsh and lacking in manners, i.e. the dwellers of tents. Tranquility is prevalent among the owners of goats and sheep".

86-(...) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The (true) belief is that of the Yemenites. The disbelief is towards the East. Tranquility is prevalent among the owners of goats and sheep. Both pride and showing off are prevalent among the owners of horses and camels who are harsh and ill-mannered, i.e. the inhabitants of tents".

87-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Both pride and haughtiness are dominant among the harsh rude owners of camels, i.e. the people of tents, and tranquility is prevalent among the owners of goats and sheep".

٢٣ ـ بابُ بَيَانِ أَنَّ الدِّينَ النَّصِيحَةُ

٩٧ ـ (٥٦) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ نُمَيْرٍ وَأَبُو أُسَامَةَ، عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ أَبِي خَالِدٍ، عَنْ قَيْسٍ، عَنْ جَرِيرٍ، قَالَ: بَايَعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَى إِقَامِ الصَّلَاةِ، وَإِيتَاءِ الزَّكَاةِ، وَالنُّصْحِ لِكُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ.

[البخاري: كتاب الإيمان، باب قول النبي ﷺ: «الدين النصيحة...»، رقم: ٥٨].

٩٩ ـ (...) ـ حدّثنا سُرَيْجُ بْنُ يُونُسَ وَيَعْقُوبُ الدَّوْرَقِيُّ، قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ عَنْ سَيَّارٍ، عَنِ الشَّعْبِيِّ، عَنْ جَرِيرٍ، قَالَ: بَايَعْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ عَلَى السَّمْعِ وَالطَّاعَةِ، فَلَقَّنَنِي: «فِيمَا اسْتَطَعْتَ»، وَالنُّصْحِ لِكُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ.

قَالَ يَعْقُوبُ فِي رِوَايَتِهِ: قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا سَيَّارٌ.

[البخاري: كتاب الأحكام، باب كيف يبايع الإمام الناس، رقم: ٦٧٧٨].

٢٤ ـ بابُ بَيَانِ نُقْصَانِ الإيمانِ بالمعاصي وَنَفْيِهِ عن المُتَلَبِّسِ بالمَعْصِيَةِ على إرادة نَفْيِ كَمَالِهِ

١٠٠ ـ (٥٧) ـ حدّثني حَرْمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عِمْرَانَ التُّجِيبِيُّ: أَنْبَأَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ، قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا سَلَمَةَ بْنَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ

a believer at the time he steals. The drunk is not to be a believer at the time he drinks wine". (Abd Al-Malik Ibn Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Abu Bakr that Abu Huraira used to narrate to them this tradition, adding to it: "And the robber is not to be a believer at the time he robs a valuable thing, because of which the people raise their eyes to him").

101-(...) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The adulterer is not to be a (completely) believer ...". (and he narrated the whole tradition, and mentioned the robbery, but did not described the thing as valuable). Ibn Shihab said: Both of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab and Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Abu Huraira the same tradition of Abu Bakr, but without mentioning the robbery.

102-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab, Abu Salama, Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Hisham narrated from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same tradition narrated by Uqail from Az-Zuhri from Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman from Abu Huraira, and mentioned the robbery, without describing it as valuable.

103-(...) Ata Ibn Yasar, the freed slave of Maimuna and Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (the same). Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (the same).

(...) Al-Ala Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from his father from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same tradition of Az-Zuhri, but the narration of Safwan Ibn Sulaim and Al-Ala did not imply the phrase "because of which the people raise their eyes to him". Hammam added in his narration: "The believers raise their eyes to him, is not to be a (completely) believer at the time he robs". This narration has this addition: "And the one who misappropriates is not to be a (completely) believer at the time he misappropriates (something). So, beware (of doing such evil acts)".

104-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The adulterer is not to be a (completely) believer at the time he commits adultery. A thief is not to be a believer at the time he steals. The drunk is not to be a believer at the time he drinks wine. But the repentance might be acceptable after (giving up) such (evil acts)".

105-(...) Sufyan narrated from Al-A'mash from Dhakwan from Abu Huraira who traced (to The Prophet): "The adulterer is not to be a believer..." then he mentioned the same tradition of Shu'ba.

[25] The characteristics of the hypocrite

106-(58) Masruq narrated from Abdullah Ibn Amr: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone has those following four characteristics, he will be a clear hypocrite, and if he has anyone of them, he will have a characteristic of hypocrisy until he gives up it: If he talked (to anyone) he would tell a lie; if he made a treaty (with anyone) he would prove to be treacherous; if he made a promise, he would break it; and if he quarrelled (anyone), he would deviate from the truth".

107-(59) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The sign of a hypocrite is to have those following three characteristics: If he talked he would tell a lie; if he made a promise, he would break it; and if he was entrusted, he would prove to be treacherous".

108-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From amongst the signs of a hypocrite are three characteristics: If he talked he would tell a lie; if he made a promise, he would break it; and if he was entrusted, he would prove to be treacherous".

109-(...) Al-Ala Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated this tradition with the same chain of transmitters, (according to which The Messenger of Allah) said: "The sign of a hypocrite is to have those three characteristics... even if he offered the prayers, observed the fasts, and claimed to be a Muslim".

110-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated from Abu Huraira: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (the same tradition of Yahya Ibn Muhammad which he narrated from Al-Ala, in which he mentioned the phrase: "even if he offered the prayers, observed the fasts, and claimed to be a Muslim").

[26] The case of the belief of the one, who called his Muslim brother as unbeliever unbelief) would return (at least) to one of them: Either he (whom he called an unbeliever) would be so, or it (unbelief) would return to him (who called his brother as such)".

111-(60) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If a Muslim described his Muslim brother as an unbeliever, it would return to (at least) one of them".

[27] The case of the belief of him, who denied his father knowingly

112-(61) Yahya Ibn Ya'mur narrated that Al-Aswad told him that Abu Dharr reported that he heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "There is no one, who knowingly claims to (belong to) somebody other than his real father, but that he would do an (act of) unbelief. He, who claims something, which never belongs to him, is not from us, and furthermore, let him occupy his seat in the (Hell) fire. Whoever calls somebody as an unbeliever or an enemy of Allah though he (the latter) is not so, then it would return to him (the caller)".

113-(62) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not deny your fathers, for denying one's father is regarded as (an act of) infidelity".

114-(63) Abu Uthman narrated: When Ziyad was claimed (to belong to Abu Sufyan) I met Abu Bakra to whom I said: "What is that which you did? Verily, I heard Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas saying: my ears heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" his saying: "Whoever claimed in Islam to belong to somebody other than his (real) father, and he knows that he (whom he claimed) is not his (real) father, would be forbidden to enter Paradise". Abu Bakra asserted: "I also heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"".

115-(...) Abu Uthman narrated from Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas and Abu Bakra, each of them said: My ears heard and my mind kept that (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever claimed in Islam to belong to somebody other than his (real) father, and he knows that he (whom he claimed) is not his (real) father, would be forbidden to enter into Paradise".

[28] The saying of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Insulting a Muslim is wickedness and fighting him is unbelief 116-(64) Abu Wa'il narrated from Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Insulting a Muslim is wickedness, and fighting him is (an act of) unbelief". (Zubaid, (a sub-narrator) said : I asked Abu Wa'il: "Did you hear it from Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud narrating it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him?" he answered in the affirmative. But the Hadith of Shu'ba did not imply the saying of Zubaid to Abu Wa'il).

[32] The unbelief of the one who said: "We have got rain by the (help of the) rising of a particular star".

125-(71) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utba narrated from Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the Fajr prayer at Al-Hudaibiya after a rainy night. Following the prayer, he faced the people and said: "Do you know what your Lord has said (revealed)?" The people replied: "Allah and His Apostle know better". He said: "Allah has said: "In this morning some of my slaves remained as true believers and some became non-believers. Whoever said that the rain was due to the Blessings and the Mercy of Allah had belief in Me; and he disbelieved in the stars. Whoever said that it rained because of (the help of) a particular star had no belief in Me but believed in that star"".

wise man astray". She asked: "What is deficient in our brains and religion, O Messenger of Allah?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answered: "As for the deficiency of brains, it is that the two women's witness is considered to be equal only to one man's witness; and, that is the women's deficiency of brains. As for the deficiency of religion, the menstruating woman would spend many nights without offering even a single prayer, and she would not fast for many days in (the month of) Ramadan; and that is the shortage of religion".

This Hadith was narrated by Abu At-Tahir from Ibn Wahb from Bakr Ibn Mudar with the same chain of transmitters.

[35] Calling as unbeliever the one who gives up the prayer

133-(81) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whenever the son of Adam recites the Holy Verse of prostration and then falls down in prostration, Satan would turn in seclusion and weep saying: "Alas! (or, according to the narration of Abu Kuraib, Woe to me)! The son of Adam was ordered to fall down in prostration, and he prostrated. In this way, Paradise has been granted to him; and I was ordered to fall down in prostration, and I rejected. In this way, I have been doomed to (enter into) the (Hell) fire"".

Which deed is the best?" he replied: "To believe in Allah and practice Jihad in His way". I asked him: "Which slave whose emancipation is best?" he said: "The most valuable in the sight of his masters, whose price is the highest".

I asked again: "But, if I cannot afford for it, (what could I do)?" he said: "You can help an artisan,, or make anything for the unskillful (laborer)". I asked: "O Messenger of Allah! If I have no power to do some of such deeds (then, what could I do)?" he said: "Then, you could stop from doing evil to the people; indeed, this is a charity from you to yourself".

[37] The polytheism is the ugliest sin, and the greatest sin next to it

141-(86) Abdullah narrated: I asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "What is the greatest sin in the Sight of Allah?" He said: "That you set up a rival unto Allah though He Alone created you". I said: "That is indeed a great sin". Then I asked: "What is next?" He said: "To kill your son lest he should share your food with you". I asked: "What is next?" He said: "To commit adultery with the wife of your neighbour".

He said: "To commit adultery with the wife of your neighbour". Then Allah Almighty revealed the confirmation of that:

"Those who invoke not, with Allah, any other god, nor slay such life as Allah has made sacred, except for just cause, nor commit fornication; and any that does this (not only) meets punishment". (The Criterion 68)

[38] The major sins, and the greatest of them all

143-(87) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakra narrated from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would I not tell you of the greatest of the major sins? (They are three): to associate others with Allah (in worship), to be undutiful to one's parents (i.e. to disobey them, and severe the relation with them), and to bear false witness (or tell a false speech)". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was reclining (against something, and after he had said this) he sat and kept on repeating this so much that we said (to ourselves): "Would that he stopped".

polytheists. The two armies faced one another. There was a man among the army of polytheists who (was so darting that) whenever he intended to kill a man from among the Muslims, he would kill him. From amongst the Muslims, there was a man expecting for (an opportunity of) his (the polytheist's) heedlessness. We talked that he was Usama Ibn Zaid.

When he raised his sword, he (the polytheist) uttered: "There is no god but Allah" But he (Usama Ibn Zaid) killed him. When The glad tidings giver came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he asked him (about the battlefield), and he informed him of him (Usama) and what he had done. He (The Prophet) sent for him and asked him: "Why did you kill him?" He (Usama) said: "O Messenger of Allah! He struck the Muslims and killed so-and-so, and so-and-so. This is the narration of Sufyan. In the narration of Shu'ba The Prophet said: "Whoever took an oath by a religion other than Islam, in the state of being a liar, would become so, as he uttered. He who slew himself with a thing would be slain with that very thing on The Day of Judgement".

178-(111) Az-Zuhri narrated from Ibn Al-Musaiyyab from Abu Huraira: We took part in (the holy Battle of) Hunain with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (the Prophet) said about a man who claimed to be a Muslim that he was one of the dwellers of the (Hell) Fire. When we were overwhelmed by the fighting, that man fought to a great extent and was seriously wounded.

It was said: "O Messenger of Allah! The man whom you described sometime earlier as a dweller of the (Hell) Fire fought very much and died". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "He was doomed to the (Hell) Fire". Some men were on the verge of suspicion (about his fate). At the same time, it was said that he had not died, but he had been fatally wounded. In the night, he could not be patient for the (pain of his) injury. But, he killed himself. Being informed of that, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah is greater! I testify that I am the servant of Allah as well as His Messenger". Then, He ordered Bilal to announce to the people that none but a Muslim would enter Paradise. Verily Allah supports this religion (of Islam) even by a wicked person".

179-(112) Abu Hazim narrated from Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (accompanied by the Muslims) and the pagans faced each other and started fighting. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned (with the Muslims) to his camp and the pagans returned to their camp, somebody talked about a man amongst the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who would follow and kill with his sword any pagan going alone. They said: "None did his job (of fighting) today better than that man". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Indeed, he is amongst the people of the (Hell) Fire".

A man amongst the people said: "I shall accompany him (to observe what he does)". Thus he accompanied him, and wherever he stood, he would stand with him, and wherever he ran, he would run with him. Then the (brave) man got wounded seriously and he hastily decided to bring about his death quickly. He planted the blade of the sword in the ground directing its sharp end towards his chest between his two breasts. Then he leaned on the sword and killed himself.

The other man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I testify that you are Allah's Apostle". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "What is the matter?" He replied: "(Concerning) the man whom you had described as one of the people of the (Hell) Fire. The people were deeply surprised at what you said. I said: "I will find out his reality for you". So, I came out seeking him. He got seriously wounded, and hastened to die by planting

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A man might do what seems to people as if they were the deeds of people of Paradise while in fact he is from people of the (Hell) Fire. (On the contrary), another man may do what seems to people as if they were the deeds of people of (Hell) Fire, while in fact he is from people of Paradise".

180-(113) Shaiban narrated from Al-Hasan: A man from the people who preceded you suffered from a boil. When he felt pain because of it, he drew out an arrow from the quiver and pierced it. And the bleeding did not stop until he died. Your Lord said: "I forbade Paradise from him".

Then, he (Al-Hasan) stretched his hand towards the mosque and said: "By Allah! Jundub narrated This tradition to me from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in this mosque".

181-(...) Al-Hasan narrated: Jundub Ibn Abdullah Al-Bajali related to us (a certain tradition) in this mosque, and we did not forget (it), and we are certain that Jundub did not tell a lie about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (in such a narration). He said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A man from the people who preceded you had a boil" (Then he mentioned the same narration).

[48] The great prohibition of misappropriation, and none but the faithful believers would be admitted in Paradise

182-(114) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab narrated: When it was the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, a group of the companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came (and passed by some martyrs) and said: "So-and-so is a martyr. So-and-so is a martyr". They kept on repeating so (as they were passing by the martyrs) until they passed by a man, of whom they said: "So-and-so is a martyr".

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Nay! I saw him in the (Hell) fire, because of a Burda or garment he had misappropriated". Then he (The Prophet) said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! Go and announce publicly that none but the faithful believers would be admitted in Paradise". I went out and announced publicly: "Verily, none but the faithful believers would be admitted in Paradise".

us victory. We gained neither gold nor silver but we had got goods, corn and clothes. Then we bent our steps to a valley. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had a slave who was presented to him by Rifa'a Ibn Zaid, from the family of Judham, a tribe of Dubaib.

When we got down into the valley, the slave of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and began to unpack the saddlebag. Then, he was suddenly thrown by a (stray) arrow, which caused him to die. We said: "Congratulations to him O Messenger of Allah, since he is a martyr". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Nay, it is not so. By Him in Whose hand is the soul of Muhammad! The garment which he stole from the booty on the Day of Khaibar which did not (legally) fall in his lot is burning like the (Hell) Fire on him". The people became greatly anxious (because of hearing this). A man came there with a lace or two laces and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I got (it illegally) on the Day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar". He (the Prophet) said: "This is a lace (or two laces) of fire".

[49] The proof that suicide never causes the one who killed himself to become an unbeliever

184-(116) Jaber narrated: At-Tufail Ibn Amr Ad-Dawsi came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Do you want (to be supported by) a strong, fortified protection?" The tribe of Daws had a fort in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" refused this offer, since it (the honour of protecting The Prophet) had already been kept for the Ansar.

When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" emigrated to Medina, At-Tufail Ibn Amr also emigrated to it, accompanying with him a man of his tribe, whom, the climate of Medina did not suit, and he fell sick. He felt very hard. So he took hold of an iron head of an arrow and cut his finger-joints. The blood burst forth from his hands until he died.

At-Tufail Ibn Amr saw him in a dream. He was in a good state, and he saw him, with his hands wrapped up. He (At-Tufail) asked him: "What did your Lord do with you?" He replied: "Allah forgave me for my emigration to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"". He (At-Tufail) asked: "Why am I seeing you wrapping up your hands?" He replied: "I was informed (by Allah): "We would not set right whatever you damaged in yourself"". At-Tufail related this (dream) to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who supplicated: "O Allah! Forgive even his hands!"

١٨٤ ـ (١١٦) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَإِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، جَمِيعاً عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ، قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بن حَرْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ، عَنْ حَجَّاجٍ الصَّوَّافِ، عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ جَابِرٍ، أَنَّ الطُّفَيْلَ بْنَ عَمْرٍو الدَّوْسِيَّ أَتَى النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، هَلْ لَكَ فِي حِصْنٍ حَصِينٍ وَمَنَعَةٍ؟ - قَالَ: حِصْنٌ كَانَ لِدَوسٍ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ - فَأَبَى ذٰلِكَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ، لِلَّذِي ذَخَرَ اللَّهُ لِلأَنْصَارِ، فَلَمَّا هَاجَرَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ، هَاجَرَ إِلَيْهِ الطُّفَيْلُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو، وَهَاجَرَ مَعَهُ رَجُلٌ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ، فَاجْتَوَوُا الْمَدِينَةَ، فَمَرِضَ، فَجَزِعَ، فَأَخَذَ مَشَاقِصَ لَهُ، فَقَطَعَ بِهَا بَرَاجِمَهُ، فَشَخَبَتْ يَدَاهُ حَتَّى مَاتَ، فَرَآهُ الطُّفَيْلُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو فِي مَنَامِهِ، فَرَآهُ وَهَيْئَتُهُ حَسَنَةٌ، وَرَآهُ مُغَطِّياً يَدَيْهِ. فَقَالَ لَهُ: مَا صَنَعَ بِكَ رَبُّكَ؟ فَقَالَ: غَفَرَ لِي بِهِجْرَتِي إِلَى نَبِيِّهِ ﷺ. فَقَالَ: مَا لِي أَرَاكَ مُغَطِّياً يَدَيْكَ؟ قَالَ: قِيلَ لِي: لَنْ نُصْلِحَ مِنْكَ مَا أَفْسَدْتَ، فَقَصَّهَا الطُّفَيْلُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «اللَّهُمَّ وَلِيَدَيْهِ فَاغْفِرْ».

[50] The wind which would blow a short while earlier than The Day of Judgement, and which would kill everyone having in his heart whatever (little) portion of faith

185-(117) Abu Huraira narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, Allah would send a wind from (the direction of) Yemen, softer than the silk. It would not let anyone having in his heart faith equal to a weight of a grain (according to the narration of Abu Alqama) or an atom (according to the narration of Abd Al-Aziz) but that it would cause him to die".

[51] Exhortation to hasten towards doing (good) deeds before the emergence of afflictions

186-(118) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Be prompt to do good deeds (before you would be occupied from them) by afflictions which would be as the parts of the dark night, During which, a man would be a Muslim in the morning and an unbeliever in the evening, or he would be a believer in the evening and an unbeliever in the morning, and would sell his faith for world benefits".

[52] The believer's fear of the failure of his deeds

187-(119) Anas narrated: When it was revealed (Allah's saying): "O ye who believe! Raise not your voices above the voice of the Prophet, nor speak aloud to him in talk, as ye may speak aloud to one another, lest your deeds become vain and ye perceive not" (The Chambers "Al-Hujurat" 2), Thabit Ibn Qais confined himself in his house and said: "I am one of the dwellers of the (Hell) Fire".

He kept himself from coming to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh about him saying: "O Abu Amr! How is Thabit? Is he ill?" Sa'd said: "He is my neighbor, but I do not know anything of his illness". Sa'd visited him (Thabit), whom he told the message of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Thabit said: "This verse was revealed, and you know well that from among all of you, my voice is louder than that of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". For this reason, I am one of the inhabitants of the (Hell) Fire".

Sa'd told the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "(It is not so), but he is one of the inhabitants of Paradise".

٥٠ ـ بابٌ في الرِّيحِ التي تكُونُ قُرْبَ القيامَةِ تقْبِضُ مَنْ في قَلْبِهِ شيءٌ من الإيمانِ

٥١ ـ باب الحثّ على المُبادرةِ بالأعمالِ قبلَ تَظاهُرِ الفِتَنِ

٥٢ ـ باب مَخافَةِ المُؤْمِنِ أَنْ يَحْبَطَ عَمَلُهُ

١٨٧ ـ (١١٩) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ مُوسَى: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ ثَابِتٍ الْبُنَانِيِّ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بنِ مَالِكٍ: أَنَّهُ قَالَ: لَمَّا نَزَلَتْ هٰذِهِ الآيَةُ: ﴿يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُواْ لَا تَرْفَعُوٓاْ أَصْوَٰتَكُمْ فَوْقَ صَوْتِ ٱلنَّبِيِّ﴾ [الحجرات: ٢] إلى آخِرِ الآيَةِ. جَلَسَ ثَابِتُ بْنُ قَيْسٍ فِي بَيْتِهِ وَقَالَ: أَنَا مِنْ أَهْلِ النَّارِ. وَاحْتَبَسَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ، فَسَأَلَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ سَعْدَ بْنَ مُعَاذٍ فَقَالَ: «يَا أَبَا عَمْرٍو، مَا شَأْنُ ثَابِتٍ؟ أَشْتَكَى؟» قَالَ سَعْدٌ: إِنَّهُ لَجَارِي، وَمَا عَلِمْتُ لَهُ بِشَكْوَى، قَالَ: فَأَتَاهُ سَعْدٌ فَذَكَرَ لَهُ قَوْلَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَقَالَ ثَابِتٌ: أُنْزِلَتْ هٰذِهِ الآيَةُ، وَلَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمْ أَنِّي مِنْ أَرْفَعِكُمْ صَوْتاً عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَأَنَا مِنْ أَهْلِ النَّارِ، فَذَكَرَ ذٰلِكَ سَعْدٌ لِلنَّبِيِّ ﷺ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «بَلْ هُوَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ».

188-(...) Anas narrated: Thabit Ibn Qais Ibn Shammas, was the orator of the Ansar. When this Holy Verse was revealed (and he mentioned the same narration of Hammad, but his narration is void of mentioning Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh).

It was narrated by Anas who said: When Allah revealed: "O ye who believe! Raise not your voices above the voice of the Prophet, nor speak aloud to him in talk, as ye may speak aloud to one another, lest your deeds become vain and ye perceive not" (The Chambers "Al-Hujurat" 2) (and he mentioned the same, without mentioning Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh).

(...) Thabit narrated from Anas: When Allah revealed this Verse (and he mentioned the narration in full, and did not mention Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh. But, he added: "We used to see him walking amongst us, i.e. a man of the inhabitants of Paradise".

[53] Would one be blamed (and accounted) for the acts of the pre-Islamic period of ignorance?

189-(120) Abu Wa'il narrated from Abdullah: Some people said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Would we be blamed (and accounted) for what we had done in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance?" he said: "Whoever amongst you did well in Islam would not be blamed (and accounted) for them; and whoever did evil would be blamed (and accounted) for his (bad) deeds in both the pre-Islamic period of ignorance as well as in Islam".

190-(...) Abu Wa'il narrated from Abdullah: We said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would we be blamed (and accounted) for what we had done in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance?" he said: "Whoever amongst you did well in Islam would not be blamed (and accounted) for what he had done in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance; and whoever did evil would be blamed (and accounted) for his earlier as well as his later (bad) deeds".

191-(...) Ali Ibn Muzhir narrated from Al-A'mash the same tradition with this chain of transmitters.

[54] Islam, as well as both migration and Hajj always efface whatever previous sins

192-(121) Ibn Shumasa Al-Mahri narrated: We were attending when Amr Ibn Al-Ass was in his last breaths. He wept for a long time before he directed his face towards the wall. His son said to him: "O my father! Did not The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" give you the glad tidings of such-and-such a thing? Did not The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" give you the glad tidings of such-and-such a thing?"

He turned his face (towards us) and said: "The best thing which we can depend upon is the testimony that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah. Indeed, I passed through three states. (The first one was that, in which) I found myself disliking no one more than I was disliking The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and I had no desire stronger than my desire to overpower and kill him. Had I died in this state, I would have been definitely one of the dwellers of Fire.

When Allah put the love of Islam in my heart, I came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Stretch out your right hand so that I would give you the pledge of allegiance". But, when he stretched out his right hand, I withdrew mine. He said: "What is the matter with you, O Amr?" I replied: "I want to put a certain condition". He asked: "What condition do you want to put?" I said: "It is that I should be granted forgiveness". He said: "Do you not know that Islam effaces all the (previous) misdeeds, And so migration effaces all the (previous) misdeeds, as well as Hajj effaces all the (previous) misdeeds?" Then no one became dearer to me than The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and no one grew more respectable in my eyes than him, to the extent that I could not have the courage to catch a full glimpse of his face, because of its splendour. So if I am required to describe him, I cannot do so, for I have not eyed him fully. Had I died in this state, I would have had every reason to hope to bee from the dwellers of Paradise.

Then we were made to be responsible for certain things, for which, I do not know what my position would be. When I die, let neither female mourner nor fire accompany me. When you bury me, fill my grave well with earth, then stand around it for a time sufficient for a camel to be slaughtered and its meat to be distributed so that I may rest assured by your closeness, and consider what answer I can give to The Messengers (angels) of Allah".

193-(122) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated from Ibn Abbas that some persons amongst the pagans had committed a great number of murders and perpetrated lots of fornication crimes. Then they came to (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Whatever you declare and whatever you call to is really good. But if you tell us that there is expiation for what we had done (of previous misdeeds we would embrace Islam)". Then Allah Almighty revealed:

الْمَهْرِيِّ، قَالَ: حَضَرْنَا عَمْرَو بْنَ الْعَاصِ وَهُوَ فِي سِيَاقَةِ الْمَوْتِ، فَبَكَىٰ طَوِيلاً وَحَوَّلَ وَجْهَهُ إِلَى الْجِدَارِ، فَجَعَلَ ابْنُهُ يَقُولُ: يَا أَبَتَاهُ أَمَا بَشَّرَكَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِكَذَا؟ أَمَا بَشَّرَكَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِكَذَا؟ قَالَ: فَأَقْبَلَ بِوَجْهِهِ فَقَالَ: إِنَّ أَفْضَلَ مَا نُعِدُّ شَهَادَةُ أَنْ لا إِلَهَ إِلا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ، إِنِّي قَدْ كُنْتُ عَلَى أَطْبَاقٍ ثَلاثٍ. لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنِي وَمَا أَحَدٌ أَشَدَّ بُغْضاً لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِنِّي، وَلا أَحَبَّ إِلَيَّ أَنْ أَكُونَ قَد اسْتَمْكَنْتُ مِنْهُ فَقَتَلْتُهُ، فَلَوْ مُتُّ عَلَى تِلْكَ الْحَالِ لَكُنْتُ مِنْ أَهْلِ النَّارِ، فَلَمَّا جَعَلَ اللَّهُ الإِسْلامَ فِي قَلْبِي أَتَيْتُ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ فَقُلْتُ: ابْسُطْ يَمِينَكَ فَلأُبَايِعْكَ، فَبَسَطَ يَمِينَهُ. قَالَ: فَقَبَضْتُ يَدِي. قَالَ: «مَالَكَ يَا عَمْرُو؟» قَالَ: قُلْتُ: أَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَشْتَرِطَ. قَالَ: «تَشْتَرِطُ بِمَاذَا؟» قُلْتُ: أَنْ يُغْفَرَ لِي. قَالَ: «أَمَا عَلِمْتَ أَنَّ الإِسْلامَ يَهْدِمُ مَا كَانَ قَبْلَهُ؟ وَأَنَّ الْهِجْرَةَ تَهْدِمُ مَا كَانَ قَبْلَهَا؟ وَأَنَّ الْحَجَّ يَهْدِمُ مَا كَانَ قَبْلَهُ؟» وَمَا كَانَ أَحَدٌ أَحَبَّ إِلَيَّ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَلا أَجَلَّ فِي عَيْنِي مِنْهُ، وَمَا كُنْتُ أُطِيقُ أَنْ أَمْلأَ عَيْنَيَّ مِنْهُ إِجْلالاً لَهُ. وَلَوْ سُئِلْتُ أَنْ أَصِفَهُ مَا أَطَقْتُ، لأَنِّي لَمْ أَكُنْ أَمْلأُ عَيْنَيَّ مِنْهُ، وَلَوْ مُتُّ عَلَى تِلْكَ الْحَالِ لَرَجَوْتُ أَنْ أَكُونَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ. ثُمَّ وَلِينَا أَشْيَاءَ مَا أَدْرِي مَا حَالِي فِيهَا، فَإِذَا أَنَا مُتُّ، فَلاَ تَصْحَبْنِي نَائِحَةٌ وَلاَ نَارٌ، فَإِذَا دَفَنْتُمُونِي فَشُنُّوا عَلَيَّ التُّرابَ شَنّاً، ثُمَّ أَقِيمُوا حَوْلَ قَبْرِي قَدْرَ مَا تُنْحَرُ جَزُورٌ، وَيُقسَمُ لَحْمُهَا، حَتَّى أَسْتَأْنِسَ بِكُمْ، وَأَنْظُرَ مَاذَا أُرَاجِعُ بِهِ رُسُلَ رَبِّي.

"Those who invoke not, with Allah, any other god, nor slay such life as Allah has made sacred, except for just cause, nor commit fornication; and any that does this (not only) meets punishment". (Al-Furqan 68) he also said: "Say: O my Servants who have transgressed against their souls. Despair not of the Mercy of Allah: for Allah forgives all sins: for He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful". (Az-Zumar 53)

[55] The status of the (good) deed of a previously unbeliever when he embraces Islam

194-(123) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated: Hakim Ibn Hezam told him that he asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "During the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, I used to do good deeds for religious purification. Do you think that I would have anything (of the reward) for those deeds?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "You became Muslim with all those good deeds (Without losing anything of their reward)".

195-(...) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated: Hakim Ibn Hezam told him that he asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! During the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, I used to do good deeds for religious purification such as giving in charity, manumitting slaves and keeping good relation with my kith and kin,. Do you think that I would be rewarded for those deeds?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "You became Muslim with all those good deeds (Without losing anything of their reward)".

(...) Ma'mar narrated from Az-Zuhri the same with the same chain of transmitters. On the other hand, Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from Hakim Ibn Hezam that he said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! (Would I be rewarded for) good deeds I used to do (i.e. acts of piety, according to the interpretation of Hisham) during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "You became Muslim with all those good deeds (Without losing anything of their reward)". I said: "By Allah! I would let nothing (of good deeds) I used to do during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance except that I shall do in Islam the like of it".

196-(...) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that Hakim Ibn Hezam manumitted one hundred slaves and presented one hundred mounts for the sake of Allah, during the pre-Islamic time of ignorance. Then, he manumitted one hundred slaves and presented one hundred mounts for the sake of Allah after his embracing Islam. He came to The Messenger of

[56] The authenticity and sincerity of faith

197-(124) Alqama narrated from Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud): When the following Verse was revealed: " It is those who believe and confuse not their beliefs with wrong that are (truly) in security, for they are on (right) guidance" (The Cattle "Al-An'am" 82), the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Who is amongst us who had not done wrong?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not as you said. But it is as Luqman said to his son: " join not in worship (others) with Allah: for false worship is indeed the highest wrong doing"". (Luqman 13)

Abu Kuraib narrated from Ibn Idris that he said: This narration was related to me first by my father from Aban Ibn Taghlib from Al-A'mash, then I heard it from him directly.

[57] On no soul doth Allah place a burden greater than it can bear

199-(125) Al-Ala narrated from his father from Abu Huraira: When Allah Almighty revealed: "To Allah belongeth all that is in the heavens and on earth. Whether ye show what is in your minds or conceal it, Allah calleth you to account for it. He forgiveth whom he pleaseth, and punisheth whom he pleaseth. For Allah hath power over all things" (Heifer "Al-Baqara" 284), the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt it hard. They went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and knelt down. They said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! We have been order to do the deeds, which are within our capacity, such as performing the prayer, observing fast, practicing Jihad and giving in charity. Then, this Verse has been revealed to you, which we cannot bear". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to them): "Do you want to say the same as those of the two Scriptures (i.e. Jews and Christians)said: "We hear and disobey"? no! you should say: "We hear, and we obey: (we seek) Thy forgiveness, our Lord, and to Thee is the end of all journeys"".

Accordingly, they said: "We hear, and we obey: (we seek) Thy forgiveness, our Lord, and to Thee is the end of all journeys". When they recited it, and it flowed smoothly on their tongues, Allah Almighty

"We make no distinction (they say) between one and another of His Messengers". And they say: "We hear, and we obey: (we seek) Thy forgiveness, our Lord, and to Thee is the end of all journeys"". (Heifer 285)

When they did so, Allah Almighty annulled it by the following Holy Verse: "On no soul doth Allah place a burden greater than it can bear. It gets every good that it earns, and it suffers every ill that it earns. (pray:) our Lord! condemn us not if we forget or fall into error; (The Prophet said: "Yes") our Lord! lay not on us a burden like that which thou didst lay on those before us; (The Prophet said: "Yes") our Lord! lay not on us a burden greater than we have strength to bear. (The Prophet said: "Yes") Blot out our sins, and grant us forgiveness. Have mercy on us. Thou art our protector; help us against those who stand against Faith" (The Prophet said: "Yes"). (Heifer 286)

Whether ye show what is in your minds or conceal it, Allah calleth you to account for it. He forgiveth whom he pleaseth, and punisheth whom he pleaseth. For Allah hath power over all things" (Heifer 284), they felt in their hearts something (of fear) as they had never felt before.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them: "You should say: "We hear, then we obey and surrender (to Allah)"". (When they did) Allah installed faith in their hearts. Then, He Almighty revealed His saying: "On no soul doth Allah place a burden greater than it can bear. It gets every good that it earns, and it suffers every ill that it earns. (pray:) our Lord! condemn us not if we forget or fall into error; (The Lord said: "I did") our Lord! lay not on us a burden like that which thou didst lay on those before us; (The Lord said: "I did") our Lord! lay not on us a burden greater than we have strength to bear. deed; and if he did not do it, then you should record it as a good deed for him. Indeed, he did not do it for My sake".

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you did well in Islam, then every good deed he does would be recorded as ten to seven hundred times the like of it, and every evil deed he does would be recorded as a single evil deed until he meets Allah".

206-(130) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one intended to do a good deed, and he did not do it, it would be written as a good deed in his record; and if he really did it, it would be written down for him as ten to seven hundred times like it. If he intended to do an evil deed, and he did not do it, it would not be recorded; and if he did it, it would be written down as only a single evil deed in his record".

207-(131) Ibn Abbas narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who related from (Allah) The Lord "Exalted be He": "Verily, Allah has written down (the record of) both good deeds and evil deeds, and then explained that: If one intended to do a good deed, and he did not do it, Allah would write it as a full good deed in his record; and if he really did it, He would write it for him as ten to seven hundred to much more times like it. If he intended to do an evil deed, and he did not do it, Allah would record it as a full good deed; and if he did it, He would write it as only a single evil deed in his record".

208-(...) This tradition was narrated from Al-Ja'd Abu Uthman and he added in this narration: "And He would efface all of them (i.e. the evil deeds); and no one but the loser would be destroyed by Allah" (and doomed to the fire since He put on his way all this abundance of good deeds and effaced the evil deeds to such an extent as mentioned above).

[60] The premonition of one concerning faith, and what would be said in case it occurred

209-(132) Abu Huraira narrated: some of the Companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to him and said: "Verily we find in our minds that which everyone of us regards too severe to utter". He (The Prophet) said: "Do you really find it?" They answered in the affirmative. He commented: "That is the (sign of the) pure faith".

210-(...) Abu Salih narrated the same Hadith from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

211-(133) Alqama narrated from Abdullah that once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about one's premonition (concerning faith). He said: "It (i.e. such a premonition) is the (sign of the) clear faith".

212-(134) Hisham narrated from his father from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The people would keep on asking (about creation) until it would be said: "Allah has created the creatures; then, who has created Allah?" so, if anyone felt something of that in himself, he should (turn away from such a false premonition, take refuge to Allah and) say: "I believe in Allah"".

213-(...) It was narrated by Mahmud Ibn Ghailan through another chain of transmitters that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan would come to anyone of you, whispering to him: "Who has created the heaven? Who has created the earth?" it would be said: "Allah". (Then, he mentioned the same previous narration, and added "(Who has created Allah) and His Messengers?"

214-(...) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan comes to anyone of you and whispers to him: "Who has created such-and-such a thing, and such-and-such a thing?" he would keep on whispering to him as such until he says to him: "Who has created your Lord?" if anyone reached such a point, he should seek refuge with Allah (from Satan) and stop" (from raising such questions, through occupying himself by a different thing other than the whispers of Satan).

(...)Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan comes to anyone of you and whispers to him: "Who has created such-and-such a thing, and such-and-such a thing?" (Then, he mentioned the same narration of the nephew of Ibn Shihab).

215-(135) Muhammad Ibn Sirin narrated from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "People would continue asking you about the knowledge (of religion) until they would say: "This is Allah Who has created us, then, who has created Allah?""

he (the narrator) said, while catching hold of the hand of a certain man: "Allah and His Messenger are true. Two men asked me as such, and this is the third, (or a man asked me as such and this is the second)".

This tradition was narrated by Zuhair Ibn Harb and Ya'qub Ad-Dawraqi who said: We were told by Isma'il (Ibn Ulaiyya) from Aiyub from

220-(138) Abu Wa'il narrated from Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever took a false oath in order to have a Muslim's property (unlawfully) and he was a liar (in that oath) will meet Allah while Allah will be angry with him". Allah revealed the following verse to confirm that: "As for those who sell the Faith they own to Allah and their own plighted word for a small price, they shall have no portion in the Hereafter: nor will Allah (deign to) speak to them or look at them on the day of judgment, nor will he cleanse them (of sin): they shall have a grievous penalty". (Al Imran 77)

Al-Ash'ath Ibn Qais came to us and asked: "What was Abu Abd Ar-Rahman telling you?" We related the story to him. On that he said: "Abu Abd Ar-Rahman has told the truth. This was revealed about me. I had a dispute with another man regarding a (piece of) land in Yemen and we took the case before Allah's Apostle. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to me): "Do you have an evidence (to support your claim)?" I said: "No". He said: "Then, he should take an oath (to refute your claim)". I said: "The defendant would not mind to take a false oath". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "Whoever took a false oath in order to get a Muslim's property, and he was a liar (in such an oath) will meet Allah, who will be angry with him". Allah then revealed: "As for those who sell the Faith they own to Allah and their own plighted word for a small price, they shall have no portion in the Hereafter: nor will Allah (deign to) speak to them or look at them on the day of judgment, nor will he cleanse them (of sin): they shall have a grievous penalty". 221-(...) Abu Wa'il narrated from Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever took a false oath in order to have a Muslim's property (unlawfully) and he was a liar (in such an oath) will meet Allah while Allah will be angry with him".

(He mentioned the same narration of Al-A'mash but here he added: (When Al-Ash'ath Ibn Qais came he said) "There was a dispute between me and somebody over a well and we put the case before The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said (to me): "Bring your two witnesses (to support your claim) or let him (the defendant) take an oath (to refute the claim)".

223-(139) Alqama Ibn Wa'il narrated from his father: Two men, one from Hadramaut and the other from Kinda came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to present their case before him). The man from Hadramaut said: "O Messenger of Allah! This (man of Kinda) took by force a land of mine, which was owned by my father". The other man (from Kinda) said: "This is my land, which is in my possession, and which I'm cultivating".

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to the man of Hadramaut: "Do you have an evidence (to support your claim)?" he said: "No". he said to him: "Then let him take an oath (to refute your claim)". He said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man is a liar, who is careless to take an oath, whatever false it might be, and he has no regard to do anything". He (The Prophet) said: "You can take from him nothing other than that". The man went to take an oath (to refute the claim against him). When he turned his back, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If he took an oath to usurp the property of him (the man of Hadramaut) unlawfully, then he would meet Allah while He is turning away from him".

224-(...) Alqama Ibn Wa'il narrated from Wa'il: I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when two foes came to him, having a dispute over a (piece of) land. The first said: "He usurped my land since the pre-Islamic period of ignorance". (He was Imru Al-Qais Ibn Abis Al-Kindi, and his foe was Rabie'a Ibn Ibdan).

He (The Prophet) said (to him): "Bring your evidence (to support your claim)". He said: "I have no evidence". He (The Prophet) said: "Then, let him take an oath (to refute the claim)". The man said: "Then he would surely usurp it (depending upon his false oath)". He said: "You can get (from him) nothing other that". When he got up to swear, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever usurped a (piece of) land (unlawfully) would meet Allah while He is angry with him". [64] Taking away honesty and faith from some hearts, and offering the affliction to some of them

230-(143) Hudhaifa narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told us two narrations, one of which I have seen (happening) and I am waiting for the other. He told that honesty was preserved in the roots of the hearts of men (in the beginning). Then, The Holy Quran was revealed, and they learnt it (honesty) from the Quran, and then they learnt it from the (Prophets) Sunna. He also told us about its disappearance, saying: "A man will go to sleep whereupon honesty will be taken away from his heart, and only its trace will remain, resembling a faint mark. He then will sleep again whereupon the remainder of the honesty will also be taken away (from his heart) with its trace resembling a blister, as if you rolled down an ember on your foot, and it was vesicle; and in fact, you would see it as swelling, though it does not contain anything". (He (The Prophet) then picked up a pebble, which he rolled down over his foot) "So there will come a day when people will deal in business with each other but there will hardly be any trustworthy persons among them. Then it will be said that in such-and-such a tribe there is such-and-such a person who is honest. Though a man will be admired for his intelligence, good manners and strength, he, in fact, will not have belief equal to a mustard seed in his heart".

[65] The fact that Islam started as (something) strange and would return (to its old state) as (something) strange, just as it started, and it would go back between the two mosques

231-(144) Hudhaifa narrated: We were sitting with Umar when he asked: "Who amongst you heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioning the distresses?" some said: "We heard him". He said: "You might mean (his mentioning) one's distress in his family and neighbour". They answered in the affirmative. He said: "Such (a distress) is expiated by one's performing prayer, observing fasts, and giving in charity. But, who amongst you heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioning the distresses which are heaving up and down like the waves of the sea?" the people kept silent. I (Hudhaifa) said: "I heard him". He (Umar) said: "You! What a blessing of Allah be upon your father! Tell me of it". I said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The distresses would attach to the hearts as a straw mat stick by stick. The heart, which drank (the taint of) any of them, then a black point would be set in it, and the heart, which denied any of them, then a white point would be set in it. The result is that there would be two types of hearts (concerning such distresses): A heart which is likely as white (because of strong full faith it has) as (the mountain of) Safa, which no distress would befall it so long as both heavens and earth survive, and a heart, which is likely as black (because of its powerful faithlessness it has) as the overturned mace, which neither accepts any favour, nor does it deny any evil, except for what it was mixed up with it from its desires".

Hudhaifa further said: I told him that there was a closed door between you and it, which was about to be broken. Umar said: "Would it be broken, no father be for you? For, if it was to be opened, it might be made to close once again". I said to him: "No, it would be broken". I told him that such a door was a man, who would be killed or would die. (I told him) a true narration, which was not forged.

238-(151) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman and Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated from Abu Huraira: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We are more apt to be in doubt than Abraham when he said: "Behold! Abraham said: my Lord! Show me how thou givest life to the dead. He said: dost thou not then believe? He said: yea! But to satisfy my own understanding". (The Heifer "Al-Baqara" 260) (Moreover), may Allah send His Mercy on Lut! He wished to have a powerful support. If I were to stay in prison for such a long time as (The Prophet) Joseph did I would have accepted the offer (of freedom without insisting on having my guiltless case declared)".

(...)Malik narrated from Az-Zuhri from Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab and Abu Ubaid from Abu Huraira from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same narration of Yunus from Az-Zuhri. According to the narration of Malik, (Abraham said): "But to satisfy my own understanding". Then, he (The Prophet) recited the Verse until he finished it.

Abd Ibn Humaid narrated from Ya'qub, (Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Sa'd), from Abu Uwais from Az-Zuhri a narration like the one narrated by Malik with the same chain of transmitters and said: He (The Prophet) recited the Verse until he completed it.

[70] The obligation of believing in the message of our Prophet Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to all mankind, and abrogating all previous religions with his (The Prophet's) religion

239-(152) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From amongst The Prophets, there was no Prophet, but that he was given signs (of Prophethood) according to which the people (to whom he was sent) believed; and (the sign) which I was given is a Divine revelation inspired to me by Allah, because of which, I hope I would have more followers on The Day of Judgement".

240-(153) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose hand the soul of Muhammad is! No one from amongst those people, Jew or Christian, heard of me (as a Prophet sent to all mankind), then he died and did not believe in me, but that he would be from the dwellers of the (Hell) fire".

241-(154) Salih Ibn Salih Al-Hamadani narrated that a man from Khurasan said to Ash'sha'bi: "O Abu Amr! There are some from among our people of Khurasan who say that if a man manumitted his slave-girl and then married her, he would be as the one who rode his mount". Ash'sha'bi said: Abu Burda Ibn Abu Musa narrated to me from Abu Musa that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Three persons will have a double reward: A Person from the people of the scriptures who believed in his prophet (Jesus or Moses) and then believed in The Prophet Muhammad will have a double reward; A slave who discharges his duties to Allah and his master will have a double reward; and a master of a slave-woman who teaches her good manners and educates her in the best possible way (the religion), then he manumits and marries her will have a double reward". Then, Ash'sha'bi said to the man of Khurasan: Take (and keep) this narration undoubtedly, for one used to travel to Medina to take (and keep) less than that.

This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Salih Ibn Salih through different chain of transmitters.

[71] The coming down of (The Prophet) Jesus, son of Mary as a ruler according to the law of our Prophet Muhammad

242-(155) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated that he heard Abu Huraira telling: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose Hands my soul is, son of Mary (Jesus) is about to descend amongst you people (Muslims) as a just ruler. He will break the Cross, kill the pig and abolish the tribute. Then there will be abundance of money and there will be nobody to accept charitable gifts".

This tradition was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri with the same chain of transmitters. According to the narration of Sufyan Ibn Uyaina: "as a right imam and a just ruler". According to the narration of Yunus: "as a just ruler" and he did not mention (the phrase): "as a right imam". According to the narration of Salih: "as a right ruler" as mentioned by Al-Laith, with the addition: "until the single prostration would be better than this world and whatever is in it". Abu Huraira said: Recite, if you want, Allah's saying: "And there is no one of the People of the Book but must believe in him before his death; and on the day of judgment he will be a witness against them". good will it do to a soul to believe in them then, if it believed not before nor earned righteousness through its Faith"". (Cattle "Al-An'am" 158)

The same Hadith of Al-Ala was narrated on the authority of Abu Huraira through different chain of transmitters.

249-(158) Abu Hazim narrated from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If (the following) three things appeared, then "no good will it do to a soul to believe in them then, if it believed not before nor earned righteousness through its Faith": The sunrise from its setting place, (the appearance of) the Charlatan "Ad-Dajjal", and (the emergence of) the earth beast".

250-(159) Abu Dharr narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" once asked (his companions): "Do you know where this sun goes?" they replied: "Allah and His Messenger know best". He said: "This (sun) runs until it reaches its fixed place underneath the Throne (of Allah), where it prostrates itself. It remains as such until it is said to it: "Go up, and return whence you came. It returns and rises in the morning from its rising place. Then, it runs until it reaches its fixed place underneath the Throne (of Allah), where it prostrates itself. It remains as such until it is said to it: "Go up, and return whence you came. It returns and rises in the morning from its rising place. Then, it runs as usual, and the people do not see anything strange in it, until it reaches its fixed place underneath the Throne (of Allah). Then, it will be said to it: "Go up, and rise in the morning from your setting place". Then, it will rise in the morning from its setting place".

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you know when this will happen? This will be at the time when "no good will it do to a soul to believe in them then, if it believed not before nor earned righteousness through its Faith". (Cattle "Al-An'am" 158)

(...) it was narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said one day (to his companions): "Do you know where this sun goes?" (and he mentioned a narration like that of Ibn Ulaiyya).

(...)Ibrahim At-Taimi narrated from his father: Abu Dharr told: I entered the mosque where The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting. When the sun set, he asked me: "O Abu Dharr! Do you know where this (sun) goes (at the time of sunset)?" I replied: "Allah and His Apostle know better". He said: "It goes (Travelling) till it takes the permission to prostrate itself (underneath the Throne); and it is given permission. "Go back from where you came". This is why it will rise from the West". Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited: "And the sun Runs its fixed course for a term (decreed)" (Ya Sin 38) according to Abdullah's recitation.

251-(...) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about (the meaning of Allah's saying): "And the Sun runs to its fixed resting place: that is the decree of (Him), The Exalted in Might, the All knowing". (Ya Sin 38) He said: "Its fixed resting place is underneath Allah's Throne".

[73] The beginning of the revelation to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"

252-(160) A'isha, The Mother of Believers narrated: The commencement of the revelation to Allah's Apostle was in the form of good dreams which came true like bright day light. Then the love of seclusion was bestowed upon him. He used to go in seclusion in the cave of Hira where he worshiped (Allah alone) continuously for many days (especially the odd ones) before his desire to see his family. He used to take with him the journey food for the stay and then come back to Khadija to be supplied likewise again until suddenly the Truth came down upon him while he was in the cave of Hira. The angel came and asked him to read. The Prophet replied: "I do not know how to read".

The Prophet added: "The angel caught me (violently) and pressed me so hard that I could not bear it any more. He then released me and again asked me to read and I replied: "I do not know how to read". Thereupon he caught me again and pressed me a second time until I could not bear it any more. He then released me and again asked me to read but again I replied: "I do not know how to read (or what shall I read)". Thereupon he caught me for the third time and pressed me, and then released me and said: "Proclaim! (or Read!) In the name of thy Lord and Cherisher, who created; Created man, out of a (mere) leech-like clot of congealed blood: Proclaim! And thy Lord is Most Bountiful". (Al-Alaq 1:3) Then Allah's Apostle returned having the Inspiration, with his heart beating severely. He went to Khadija Bint Khuwailid and said: "Cover me! Cover me!" They covered him until his fear was over. He told her everything that had happened and said: "I fear that something may happen to me". Khadija replied: "Never! By Allah, Allah will never disgrace you. You keep good relations with your Kith and kin, help the poor and the destitute, entertain your guests generously and assist the deserving calamity-afflicted ones".

Khadija then accompanied him to her cousin Waraqa Ibn Nawfal Ibn Asad Ibn Abd Al-Uzza, who, during the pre Islamic Period, became a Christian and used to write the scriptures with Arabic letters. He wrote from the Gospel in Arabic as much as Allah wished him to write. He was an old man and had lost his eyesight. Khadija said to Waraqa: "Listen to the story of your nephew, O my cousin!" Waraqa asked: "O my nephew! What have you seen?" Allah's Apostle described what he had seen. Waraqa said: "He is the angel Gabriel, who keeps the secrets, whom Allah had sent to Moses. I wish I were young and could live up to the time when your people drive you out". Allah's Apostle asked: "Will they drive me out?" Waraqa replied: "Yes". He added: "Anyone who came with something similar to what you have brought was treated with hostility; and if I remained Alive till the day when you will be driven out then I would support you strongly".

253-(...) Az-Zuhri narrated that Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair told him that A'isha said: The commencement of the revelation to Allah's Apostle (was in the form of good dreams) (and he mentioned a narration like that of Yunus, but here, he mentioned that Khadija said: "By Allah! Allah would never grieve you". She also said (to Waraqa): "O my paternal cousin! Listen from (Muhammad) the son of your brother".

254-(...) Urwa narrated that A'isha, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The Prophet) returned to Khadija, with his heart trembling". (He mentioned the same narration of Yunus and Ma'mar, and he did not narrate the beginning of this tradition, i.e. the saying of A'isha: The commencement of the revelation to Allah's Apostle was in the form of good dreams. He followed the narration of Yunus in the phrase (of Khadija): "By Allah! Allah would never disgrace you". He also mentioned her statement (to Waraqa): "O my paternal cousin! Listen from the son of your brother".

255-(161) Jaber Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari, who was one of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated, while talking about the period of pause in revelation, reporting the speech of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "While I was walking, suddenly I heard a voice from the sky. I looked up and saw the same angel who had visited me at the cave of Hira sitting on a chair between the sky and the earth. I got afraid of him and came back home and said: "wrap me (in a mantle)". Then Allah revealed the following Holy Verses (of Quran): "O thou wrapped up (in a mantle)! Arise and deliver thy warning! And thy Lord do thou magnify! And thy

[74] The night journey of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to the heaven, and enjoining the prayer

259-(162) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Buraq was brought to me (a white and long animal, bigger than a donkey but smaller than a mule, placing his hoof as far as the range of its sight). I mounted it and came to Jerusalem then fascinated it to the ring used by the prophets. I entered the mosque wherein I offered a two-rak'a prayer. Then I came out and Gabriel brought me a vessel of wine and a vessel of milk. I chose the milk. Upon this, Gabriel said: "You have chosen the (sign of) true religion (of Islam)".

Then he took me to heaven. Gabriel "Peace be upon him" then asked (the gate of the heaven) to be opened. He was asked: "Who is you?" He replied: "Gabriel". He was asked: "Who is with you"? He said: "Muhammad". He was asked: "Has he been revealed to"? Gabriel replied: "Verily, he has been revealed to". Then, it (the gate) was opened for us. There, we saw Adam. He welcomed me and invoked good upon me.

Then we ascended to the second heaven. Gabriel "Peace be upon him" then asked (the gate of the heaven) to be opened. He was asked: "Who is you?" He replied: "Gabriel". He was asked: "Who is with you"? He said: "Muhammad". He was asked: "Has he been revealed to"? Gabriel replied: "Verily, he has been revealed to". Then, it (the gate of the heaven) was opened for us. There, I found the two maternal cousins: Jesus, son of Mary, and John the Baptist son of Zakariyya "peace be upon them". They welcomed me and invoked good upon me.

Then I was taken to the third heaven. Gabriel "Peace be upon him" then asked (the gate of the heaven) to be opened. He was asked: "Who is you?" He replied: "Gabriel". He was asked: "Who is with you"? He said: "Muhammad". He was asked: "Has he been revealed to"? Gabriel replied: "Verily, he has been revealed to". Then, it (the gate of the heaven) was opened for us. I saw Joseph "peace be upon him" who was given half of the beauty (of all the world). He welcomed me and invoked good upon me.

Then we were taken up to the fourth heaven. Gabriel "Peace be upon him" then asked (the gate of the heaven) to be opened. He was asked: "Who is you?" He replied: "Gabriel". He was asked: "Who is with you"? He said: "Muhammad". He was asked: "Has he been revealed to"? Gabriel replied: "Verily, he has been revealed to". Then, it (the gate of the heaven) was opened for us. Lo! Enoch "Idris" was there. He welcomed me and Then I was taken to The Furthest Lote, whose leaves were like elephant ears and its fruits like big earthenware vessels. When it was given a cover by the Command of Allah, it changed to the extent that none among the creatures could be able to describe its beauty.

Then Allah inspired to me a revelation and enjoined upon me fifty Prayers every day and night (i.e. every twenty-four hours). Then I went down to Moses "peace be upon him" who asked: "What has your Lord enjoined upon your (Muslim) nation?" I said: "Fifty Prayers (a day)". He said: "Return to your Lord and ask (Him) for reduction (in number), for your people will not be able to bear this burden. Indeed, I treated with and tried the Children of Israel (and they proved to be too weak to bear such a heavy burden)". He (the Prophet) said: "I returned to my Lord and said: "O My Lord! make it lighter for my nation". He (Allah) cut five Prayers for me. ثُمَّ عَرَجَ بِنَا إِلَى السَّمَاءِ الْخَامِسَةِ، فَاسْتَفْتَحَ جِبْرِيلُ، قِيلَ: مَنْ هَٰذَا؟ قَالَ: جِبْرِيلُ. قِيلَ: وَمَنْ مَعَكَ؟ قَالَ: مُحَمَّدٌ، قِيلَ: وَقَدْ بُعِثَ إِلَيهِ؟ قَالَ: قَدْ بُعِثَ إِلَيْهِ، فَفُتِحَ لَنَا، فَإِذَا أَنَا بِهَارُونَ ﷺ، فَرَحَّبَ وَدَعَا لِي بِخَيْرٍ، ثُمَّ عَرَجَ بِنَا إِلَى السَّمَاءِ السَّادِسَةِ، فَاسْتَفْتَحَ جبْرِيلُ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ، قِيلَ: مَنْ هَٰذَا؟ قَالَ: جِبْرِيلُ، قِيلَ: وَمَنْ مَعَكَ؟ قَالَ: مُحَمَّدٌ، قِيلَ: وَقَدْ بُعِثَ إِلَيْهِ؟ قَالَ: قَدْ بُعِثَ إِلَيْهِ، فَفُتِحَ لَنَا فَإِذَا أَنَا بِمُوسَىٰ ﷺ، فَرَحَّبَ وَدَعَا لِي بِخَيْرٍ.

me". He said: "Indeed, your nation will have no power to bear this burden; go back to your Lord and ask Him to make it lighter".

I kept going back and forth between my Lord "Blessed and Exalted be He" and Moses, until He said: "O Muhammad! There are five Prayers every day and night, each of which is recorded as ten (in reward). so this makes fifty Prayers (a day). He who intends to do a good deed and does not do it will have a good deed recorded for him; and if he does it, it will be recorded as ten for him; and he who intends to do an evil deed and does not do it, it will not be recorded for him; and if he does it, only one evil deed will be recorded (for him)".

I then came down, and when I reached Moses and informed him, he said: "Return to your Lord and ask Him to make it lighter". Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "I returned to my Lord (and asked Him for reduction so much) until I felt shy before Him".

260-(...) Anas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I was brought (by the angels) and they went with me to the water of (the well of) Zamzam, where my breast was split open and washed up by the water of Zamzam. Then, I was left".

261-(...) Anas Ibn Malik narrated that Gabriel "Peace be upon him" came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was (still a child) playing with the children. He took him and made him lie (on the ground). Then, he split open (his breast) to (see) his heart, which he took out and from which he took a blood-clot and said: "This (blood-clot) is only the portion which Satan had from you". Then he washed it (the heart) in a golden vessel by the water of Zamzam. Then, it was joined together and restored to its natural place.

The boys came running to his foster mother and said: "Verily Muhammad has been murdered". They all rushed to him. (Though he was well) His color changed. Anas said: I saw the effect of needle on his breast.

262-(...) Anas Ibn Malik narrated, while talking about the Night journey of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", from the mosque of Ka'ba: "Three angels came to him in the mosque of Ka'ba, while he was sleeping in the sacred mosque before it (the order of Night Journey and Ascension to the heaven) was revealed to him". (Then, he mentioned the tradition, which is like that of Thabit Al-Banani. However, some incidents were placed before the others, and some incidents were placed after the others; and some were added and others were deleted).

263-(163) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Abu Dharr said to people: The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "While I was at Mecca the roof of my house was opened and Gabriel descended, opened my chest, and washed it with Zamzam water. Then he brought a golden tray full of wisdom and faith. Having poured its contents into my chest, he closed it. Then he took my hand and ascended with me to the nearest heaven. When I reached it, Gabriel said to the gatekeeper of the heaven: Open (the gate). The gatekeeper asked: Who is it? Gabriel answered: Gabriel. He asked: Is there anyone with you? Gabriel replied: Yes, Muhammad is with me. He asked: Has he been revealed to? Gabriel said: Yes. Therefore, the gate was opened and we went over the nearest heaven where we saw a man sitting with some people on his right and some on his left. When he looked towards his right, he laughed and when he looked towards his left, he wept. Then he said: Welcome! O pious Prophet and pious son. I asked Gabriel: Who is he? He replied: He is Adam and the people on his right and left are the souls of his offspring. Those on his right are the people of Paradise and those on his left are the people of Hell. When he looks towards his right he laughs and when he looks towards his left he weeps. Then he ascended with me until he reached the second heaven and he (Gabriel) said to its gatekeeper: Open (the gate). The gatekeeper said to him the same as the gatekeeper of the first heaven had said and he opened the gate”.

Anas said: "Abu Dharr added that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met Adam, Idris, Moses, Jesus and Abraham. But he (Abu Dharr) did not mention in which heaven they were. But he mentioned that he (The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") met Adam in the nearest heaven and Abraham “Peace be upon him” in the sixth”.

Anas said: "When Gabriel along with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed by Idris, the latter said: Welcome! O pious Prophet and pious brother. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: Who is he? Gabriel replied: He is Idris”.

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" added: "I passed by Moses who said: Welcome! O pious Prophet and pious brother. I asked Gabriel: Who is he? Gabriel replied: He is Moses. Then I passed by Jesus who said: Welcome! O pious brother and pious Prophet. I asked: Who is he? Gabriel replied: He is Jesus, son of Mary.

Then I passed by Abraham who said: Welcome! O pious Prophet and pious son. I asked Gabriel: Who is he? Gabriel replied: He is Abraham “Peace be upon him””.

قَالَ: فَلَمَّا مَرَّ جِبْرِيلُ وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِإِدْرِيسَ صَلَوَاتُ ٱللهِ عَلَيْهِ قَالَ: مَرْحَباً بِالنَّبِيِّ الصَّالِحِ وَالأَخِ الصَّالِحِ، قَالَ: ثُمَّ مَرَّ فَقُلْتُ: مَنْ هَٰذَا؟ فَقَالَ: هَٰذَا إِدْرِيسُ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ مَرَرْتُ بِمُوسَىٰ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ. فَقَالَ: مَرْحَباً بِالنَّبِيِّ الصَّالِحِ وَالأَخِ الصَّالِحِ، قَالَ: قُلْتُ: مَنْ هَٰذَا؟ قَالَ: هَٰذَا مُوسَىٰ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ مَرَرْتُ بِعِيسَىٰ. فَقَالَ: مَرْحَباً بِالنَّبِيِّ الصَّالِحِ وَالْأَخِ الصَّالِحِ. قُلْتُ: مَنْ هَٰذَا؟ قَالَ: هَٰذَا عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ، قَالَ: ثُمَّ مَرَرْتُ بِإِبْرَاهِيمَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ، فَقَالَ: مَرْحَباً بِالنَّبِيِّ الصَّالِحِ وَالابْنِ الصَّالِحِ، قَالَ: قُلْتُ: مَنْ هَٰذَا؟ قَالَ: هَٰذَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ.

On the other hand, Ibn Abbas reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" added: "Then Gabriel ascended with me to a place where I heard the creaking of the pens".

Anas Ibn Malik added: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then Allah enjoined fifty prayers on my followers. When I returned with this order of Allah, I passed by Moses who asked me: what has Allah enjoined on your followers? I replied: He has enjoined fifty prayers on them. Moses said: Go back to your Lord (and appeal for reduction) for your followers will not be able to bear it. Therefore, I went back to Allah and requested for reduction. He cut it to half. When I passed by Moses again and informed him about it, he said: Go back to your Lord, as your followers will not be able to bear it. So, I returned to Allah and requested for further reduction. (A further reduction was made) and He said: These are five prayers and they are all (equal to) fifty (in reward) for My Word does not change. I returned to Moses and he told me to go back once again. I replied: Now I feel shy of asking my Lord again.

Then Gabriel took me until we reached The Furthest Lote, which was shrouded in colours, indescribable. Then I was made to enter into Paradise where I found small (tents or) walls of pearls and its earth was of musk".

264-(164) Anas Ibn Malik narrated from Malik Ibn Sa'sa'a: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "While I was at the House in a state midway between sleep and wakefulness, (an angel recognized me) as the man lying between two men. He took me with him. A golden tray full of wisdom and belief was brought to me. My body was cut open to such-and-such a part". Quatada said: I asked the man who was with me (i.e. the narrator): "What did he mean by (the phrase) "to such-and-such a part"?" he said: "to the lower part of the Abdomen".

(The Prophet resumed): "Then, my heart was taken out and was washed with Zamzam water. Being restored to its natural location, it was filled with wisdom and belief. The Buraq (derived from lightning in speed), a white animal, smaller than a mule and bigger than a donkey, whose steps are as long as the furthest point its sight can reach, was brought to me and I was carried on it.

I set out with Gabriel. When I reached the nearest heaven, Gabriel said to the heaven gatekeeper: "Open the gate". The gatekeeper asked: "Who is it?" He said: "Gabriel". The gatekeeper asked: "Who is with you?" Gabriel said: "Muhammad". The gatekeeper asked: "Has he been called?" Gabriel said: "Yes". Then it was said: "He is welcomed. What a wonderful visit his is!" Then I met Adam "Peace be upon him".

قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ: وَأَخْبَرَنِي ابْنُ حَزْمٍ أَنَّ ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ وَأَبَا حَبَّةَ الأَنْصَارِيَّ كَانَا يَقُولانِ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «ثُمَّ عَرَجَ بِي حَتَّى ظَهَرْتُ لِمُسْتَوًى أَسْمَعُ فِيهِ صَرِيفَ الأَقْلَامِ».

قَالَ ابْنُ حَزْمٍ وَأَنَسُ بنُ مَالِكٍ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «فَفَرَضَ اللَّهُ عَلَى أُمَّتِي خَمْسِينَ صَلاَةً، قَالَ: فَرَجَعْتُ بِذٰلِكَ حَتَّى أَمُرَّ بِمُوسَىٰ فَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ: مَاذَا فَرَضَ رَبُّكَ عَلَى أُمَّتِكَ؟ قَالَ قُلْتُ: فَرَضَ عَلَيْهِمْ خَمْسِينَ صَلاَةً. قَالَ لِي مُوسَىٰ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ: فَرَاجِعْ رَبَّكَ، فَإِنَّ أُمَّتَكَ لا تُطِيقُ ذٰلِكَ. قَالَ: فَرَاجَعْتُ رَبِّي فَوَضَعَ شَطْرَهَا. قَالَ: فَرَجَعْتُ إِلَى مُوسَىٰ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ فَأَخْبَرْتُهُ، قَالَ: رَاجِعْ رَبَّكَ، فَإِنَّ أُمَّتَكَ لا تُطِيقُ ذٰلِكَ، قَالَ: فَرَاجَعْتُ رَبِّي، فَقَالَ: هِيَ خَمْسٌ وَهِيَ خَمْسُونَ، لا يُبَدَّلُ الْقَوْلُ لَدَيَّ. قَالَ: فَرَجَعْتُ إِلَى مُوسَىٰ، فَقَالَ: رَاجِعْ رَبَّكَ، فَقُلْتُ: قَدِ اسْتَحْيَيْتُ مِنْ رَبِّي. قَالَ: ثُمَّ انْطَلَقَ بِي جِبْرِيلُ حَتَّى نَأْتِيَ سِدْرَةَ الْمُنْتَهَىٰ، فَغَشِيَهَا أَلْوَانٌ لا أَدْرِي مَا هِيَ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ أُدْخِلْتُ الْجَنَّةَ، فَإِذَا فِيهَا جَنَابِذُ اللُّؤْلُؤِ، وَإِذَا تُرَابُهَا الْمِسْكُ».

(Then, he mentioned the narration in full, and mentioned that he met in the second heaven both Jesus and John "Peace be upon them", and Joseph in the third, Idris in the fourth, Aaron "Peace be upon him" in the fifth).

(The Prophet resumed): "Then we ascended to the sixth heaven, where I met and greeted Moses who said: "You are welcomed O brother and a Prophet". When I proceeded on, he started weeping. Being asked why he was weeping, he said: "O Lord! Followers of this youth who was sent after me will enter Paradise in greater number than my followers". Then we ascended to the seventh heaven. There I met and greeted Abraham".

The narrator said that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told that he saw four rivers, which stem from the furthest Lote: two visible rivers and two hidden rivers. I (The Prophet) said: "O Gabriel! What are those rivers?" He replied: "The two hidden rivers are those of Paradise, and the two visible ones are the Nile and the Euphrates". Then the Sacred Populous House was raised up to me. I said: "O Gabriel! What is this?" He replied: "It is the Sacred Populous House, into which Seventy thousand angels enter daily and after they come out, they never return".

Two vessels were then brought to me. The first one contained wine and the other contained milk, and both of them were placed before me. I chose milk. It was said: "You have been rightly guided. Allah will guide through you your (Muslim) nation to the true faith". Then fifty prayers daily were enjoined upon me". (And he narrated the rest of the Hadith to the end).

265-(...) Anas Ibn Malik narrated from Malik Ibn Sa'sa'a that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (and he mentioned the same Hadith, and added here: "A golden tray full of wisdom and belief was brought to me. My body was cut open from the throat to the lower part of the Abdomen and then my Abdomen was washed with Zamzam water and (my heart was) filled with wisdom and belief").

266-(165) Quatada narrated that he heard Abu Al-aliya saying that the cousin of your Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", i.e. Ibn Abbas, told him: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, while talking about his night journey: "Moses "Peace be upon him" is a brown-complexioned man, of a high stature as if he was of the people of Shanu'a (tribe), and Jesus is a well-built man, of a medium height". He also mentioned Malik, the guardian of Hell, and Ad-Dajjal.

٢٧٣ ـ (١٦٩) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ، قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَى مَالِكٍ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «أَرَانِي لَيْلَةً عِنْدَ الْكَعْبَةِ، فَرَأَيْتُ

the brown-coloured men, having a lock of hair, the best one can ever see among the locks, which he combed. His hair was lank and water was dribbling from his head. He was placing his hands on two men (or on the shoulders of two men) while circumambulating the Ka'ba. I asked: "Who is this?" They replied: "This is the Christ, son of Mary". Behind him I saw a stout man who had very curly hair and was blind in the right eye, as if his eye was a bulging out grape. I asked: "Who is this?" They replied: "Ad-Dajjal".

274-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned the Charlatan of Bulging out eye "Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal" in front of the people saying: "Allah is not one-eyed while The Charlatan of bulging out eye "Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal" is blind in the right eye; and his eye looks like a bulging out grape".

Ibn Umar further said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: " While sleeping near the Ka'ba last night, I saw in my dream a man of brown colour the best one can ever see amongst brown-coloured men, and his hair was so long that it fell between his shoulders. His hair was lank and water was dribbling from his head. He was placing his hands on the shoulders of two men while circumambulating the Ka'ba. I asked: "Who is this?" They replied: "This is Jesus, son of Mary". Behind him I saw a man who had very curly hair and was blind in the right eye, resembling Ibn Qatan (An infidel) in appearance. He was placing his hands on the shoulder of a person while compassing round Ka'ba. I asked: "Who is this?" They replied: "Ad-Dajjal".

275-(...) Ibn Umar narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: " While sleeping near the Ka'ba last night, I saw in my dream a brown-complexioned man, of lank hair, with water dribbling from his head. He was placing his hands on the shoulders of two men (while circumambulating the Ka'ba). I asked: "Who is this?" They replied: "This is Jesus, son of Mary" (or "This is the Christ, son of Marry", we don't know which of those two sentences he (The Prophet) uttered). Behind him I saw a man who had very curly hair and was blind in the right eye, and the nearest to him in resemblance was Ibn Qatan (An infidel). I asked: "Who is this?" They replied: "Ad-Dajjal".

276-(170) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Jaber Ibn Abdullah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When Quraish did not trust me (concerning my night journey to Jerusalem), I stood in Al-Hijr and Allah displayed to me Jerusalem, which I started to describe to them, as I was looking at it".

رَجُلاً آدَمَ كَأَحْسَنِ مَا أَنْتَ رَاءٍ مِنْ أُدْمِ الرِّجَالِ، لَهُ لِمَّةٌ كَأَحْسَنِ مَا أَنْتَ رَاءٍ مِنَ اللِّمَمِ، قَدْ رَجَّلَهَا فَهِيَ تَقْطُرُ مَاءً، مُتَّكِئاً عَلَى رَجُلَيْنِ أَوْ عَلَى عَوَاتِقِ رَجُلَيْنِ، يَطُوفُ بِالْبَيْتِ، فَسَأَلْتُ: مَنْ هٰذَا؟ فَقِيلَ: هٰذَا الْمَسِيحُ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ، ثُمَّ إِذَا أَنَا بِرَجُلٍ جَعْدٍ قَطَطٍ، أَعْوَرِ الْعَيْنِ الْيُمْنَى، كَأَنَّهَا عِنَبَةٌ طَافِيَةٌ، فَسَأَلْتُ: مَنْ هٰذَا؟ فَقِيلَ: هٰذَا الْمَسِيحُ الدَّجَّالُ».

277-(171) Salim Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar Ibn Al-Khattab narrated from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "While I was asleep circumambulating the Ka'ba (in my dream), suddenly I saw a man of brown complexion and lank hair, walking between two men, with water dropping from his head. I asked: "Who is this?" The people said: "He is the son of Mary". Then I looked behind and I saw a red-complexioned, fat, curly-haired man, blind in the right eye, which looked like a bulging out grape. I asked: "Who is this?" They replied: "He is The Charlatan (Ad-Dajjal)". The one who resembled him most from amongst the people was Ibn Qatan". (A pagan who died in the Pre-Islamic period of ignorance)

278-(172) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I was in Al-Hijr (of Ka'ba) when the people of Quraish started to ask me about my night journey. I was asked about things in connection with Jerusalem, which I could not memorize. I was troubled so much as I had never been before. Then Allah raised it (Jerusalem) before my sight. I looked at it, and told them whatever they asked me about.

I also saw myself among the group of Prophets. I saw Moses standing for the prayer and he was a well-built man as if he was a man of (the tribe of) Shanu'a. I saw Jesus son of Mary "Peace be upon him" standing for the prayer. From among all of men, the nearest to him in resemblance is Urwa Ibn Mas'ud Ath'thaqafi. I saw Ibrahim "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" standing for the prayer, and the closest to him in resemblance is your companion (meaning himself).

When the due time of prayer came I led them. Having finished from the prayer, someone said: "Here is Malik, the guardian of the (Hell) fire; greet him". I turned to him, but he hastened to greet me".

[76] Mentioning the Furthest Lote

279-(173) Abdullah narrated that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was taken to the Night journey, he was made to ascend to the Furthest Lote, which is situated on the sixth heaven, where there terminates everything that comes up from the earth and is held there, as well as there terminates everything that comes down from above it and is held there. Allah said (pointing to that): " Behold, the Lote tree was shrouded (in mystery unspeakable!)". (Star "An-Najm" 16) He (the narrator) said (explaining): i.e. gold moths. He (the narrator) added: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was given three (things): five prayers (everyday), the last verses of The Sura of the Heifer "Al-Baqara", and a forgiveness (by erasing) the destructive sins for those of his (Muslim) nation, who associate nothing (in worship) with Allah.

280-(174) Ash'shaibani narrated: I asked Zirr Ibn Hubaish about Allah's saying: "And was at a distance of but two bow lengths or (even) nearer". (The Star 9) he said: Ibn Mas'ud told me that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw Gabriel (on his night journey) having six hundred wings.

281-(...) Ash'shaibani narrated from Zirr Ibn Hubaish that Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud said, concerning Allah's saying: "The (Prophet's mind and) heart in no way falsified that which he saw" (The Star 11): He (The Prophet) saw Gabriel "Peace be upon him" having six hundred wings.

282-(...) Zirr Ibn Hubaish narrated from Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud, commenting on Allah's saying: "For truly did he see, of the Signs of his Lord, the Greatest!" (The Star 18): He (The Prophet) saw Gabriel in his real shape, having six hundred wings.

[77] The meaning of Allah's saying: "For indeed he saw him at a second descent" (The Star 13), and did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" really see his Lord (on his night journey)?

283-(175) Abu Huraira narrated, concerning the Verse: "For indeed he saw him at a second descent" (The Star 13): He (The Prophet) saw Gabriel.

284-(176) Ibn Abbas narrated (concerning the previous Verse): He (The Prophet) saw Him (his Lord but) with his heart.

285-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated, concerning Allah's saying: "The (Prophet's mind and) heart in no way falsified that which he saw" (The Star 11) and: "For indeed he saw him at a second descent" (The Star 13): He (The Prophet) saw Him (his Lord) with his heart twice.

286-(...) This tradition was narrated by Abu Bakr Ibn Abu Shaiba from Hafs Ibn Ghaiyyath from Al-A'mash from Abu Jahma.

287-(177) Masruq narrated: I was resting (at the house of) A'isha when she said: "O Abu A'isha! There are three things, whoever affirmed anyone of which would be regarded to fabricate the greatest lie against Allah". I asked: "What are they?" She said: "He who pretended that Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" really saw his Lord (with his sight) would be considered to fabricate the greatest lie against Allah".

I was reclining but (when I heard that) I sat up and said: "O Mother of the Believers! Wait for a while, and be not in a hurry with me. Has not Allah "Exalted be He" said: " And truly he saw him on the clear horizon " And " He saw Him in a second descent "?" She said: "I was the first of this (Muslim) nation to asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it. And he said: "No doubt, he is Gabriel. I have never seen him in his real shape in which he was created except on those two occasions (to which those two verses refer):

I saw him descending from the heaven and filling (the space) from the sky to the earth with the greatness of his bodily structure". She (addressing me) asked: "Have you not heard Allah saying: " Eyes comprehend Him not, but He comprehends (all) visions, and He is Subtle, and All-Aware "? (Cattle "Al-An'am" 103) Have you not heard Allah's saying: "And it is not vouchsafed to a human being that Allah should speak unto him other than by revelation, or from behind a veil, or that He sendeth a messenger (angel), so that he revealeth whatsoever He wills. Verily He is Exalted, Wise "? (Consultation "Ash'shura" 51)

She added: "Whoever pretended that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" concealed anything from the Book of Allah would be regarded to fabricate the greatest lie against Allah, since Allah says: " O Messenger! ٨١ ـ باب مَعْرِفَةِ طَرِيقِ الرُّؤْيَةِ said: "Do you have any difficulty or doubt in seeing the sun when there are no clouds?" They replied: "No, O Allah's Apostle!" He said: "You will see Allah (your Lord) in the same way. On the Day of Judgement, people will be gathered and He will order the people to follow what they used to worship. So some of them will follow the sun, some will follow the moon, and some will follow other deities; and only this nation (of Muslims) will be left with its hypocrites.

Allah will come to them in a shape, different from that they know, and will say: "I am Your Lord". They will say: "We seek refuge to Allah from you! We shall stay in this place till our Lord comes to us. When our Lord comes, we will recognize Him". Then Allah comes to them again in His shape they know and say: "I am your Lord". They will say: "you are our Lord". Then, they will follow Him, and The Bridge will be laid across Hell and I (Muhammad) will be the first to cross it with my followers. Nobody except the Apostles will then be able to speak. Their speech will be: "O Allah! Save us. O Allah! Save us".

There will be hooks like the thorns of Sa'dan In Hell. (The Prophet asked them): Have you seen the thorns of Sa'dan?" The people said: "Yes". He said: "These hooks will be like the thorns of Sa'dan. But nobody except Allah knows their hugeness in size. These will entangle the people according to their deeds: The believers from amongst them would escape by their (good) deeds, and some would be punished (according to their misdeeds) till they get salvation. When Allah finishes His judgements among the slaves, He decides, out of mercy, to take out of Hell such people as He wants. He will order the angels to take out of Hell, by His mercy, those who worshipped none but Him alone, i.e. those upon whom Allah wants to bestow His mercy, who used to say: "There is no god but Allah". The angels will recognize them by the traces of prostrations (Sujud), for the fire never eats away those traces of prostration. Indeed, Allah has forbidden the (Hell) fire to eat away those traces. At that time they will come out of the Fire as mere skeletons. The Water of Life will be poured on them and as a result they will grow like the seeds growing on the bank of the torrent.

Then when Allah achieves the Judgments amongst his creations, one man will be left between Hell and Paradise and he will be the last man from the people of Hell to enter paradise. He will be facing Hell, and will say: "O Allah! Turn my face from the fire as its wind has dried me and its steam has burnt me". He will keep on invoking Allah as much as Allah wishes. Then, Allah will ask him: "Will you ask for anything more in case this favour is granted to you?" He will say: "No by Your Power!" And he will give to his

ثُمَّ يَفْرُغُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى مِنَ الْقَضَاءِ بَيْنَ الْعِبَادِ، وَيَبْقَى رَجُلٌ مُقْبِلٌ بِوَجْهِهِ عَلَى النَّارِ، وَهُوَ آخِرُ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ دُخُولاً الْجَنَّةَ. فَيَقُولُ: أَيْ رَبِّ، اصْرِفْ وَجْهِي عَنِ النَّارِ، فَإِنَّهُ قَدْ قَشَبَنِي رِيحُهَا وَأَحْرَقَنِي ذَكَاؤُهَا، فَيَدْعُو اللَّهَ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَدْعُوَهُ، ثُمَّ يَقُولُ اللَّهُ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى: هَلْ عَسَيْتَ إِنْ فَعَلْتُ ذَلِكَ بِكَ أَنْ تَسْأَلَ غَيْرَهُ؟ فَيَقُولُ: لَا أَسْأَلُكَ

Lord (Allah) what he wishes of the pledges and the covenants. Allah will then turn his face from the Fire.

When he will face Paradise and will see its charm, he will remain quiet as long as Allah wills. He then will say: "O my Lord! Let me go to the gate of Paradise". Allah will ask him: "Didn't you give pledges and make covenants that you would not ask for anything more than what you requested at first? Allah's mercy be upon you, O son of Adam! What a treacherous you are!" He will say: "O my Lord!" he will keep invoking Allah until Allah will say: "If this request is granted, will you then ask for anything else?" He will say: "No! By Your Power! I shall not ask for anything else". Then he will give to his Lord what He wills of pledges and covenants. Allah will then let him go to the gate of Paradise.

When he reaches there, it will be opened to him, and on seeing its life, charm, and pleasure, he will remain quiet as long as Allah wills and then will say: "O my Lord! Let me enter Paradise". Allah will say: "Haven't you made covenants and given pledges that you will not ask for anything more than what you have been given? May Allah be merciful unto you, O son of Adam! How treacherous you are!" He will say: "O my Lord! Do not make me the most miserable amongst your creatures". He will keep invoking Allah until Allah laughs and allows him to enter Paradise.

When he enters into Paradise, He will ask him to request as much as he likes. He will do so and Allah will remind him (to ask) of such-and-such a thing, and such-and-such a thing. When all his desires and wishes are fulfilled, Allah will say: "All of this is granted to you and the like of it"".

Ata Ibn Yazid said: Abu Sa'id (Al-Khudri) was sitting with Abu Huraira while narrating this Hadith, without objecting to anything in his narration, until he (Abu Huraira) reached (the point) that Allah said to this man: "All of this is granted to you and the like of it". Then, Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri said to Abu Huraira: (Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah said): "That is for you and ten times more like it"." Abu Huraira said: I do not remember from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" except (his saying): "All of this is granted to you and a similar amount besides". Abu Sa'id said: I testify that he said: (Allah will say): "That is for you and ten times more like it". Abu Huraira commented: "This man will be the last to enter into Paradise".

300-(...) Both of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab and Ata Ibn Yazid Al-Laithi narrated that Abu Huraira told them: The people asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah!

Would we really see our Lord on The Day of Judgement?" (Then, he mentioned the narration, which is like that of Ibrahim Ibn Sa'd).

301-(...) Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated: These are what Abu Huraira narrated to us from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (He mentioned some traditions including the following): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It will be said to anyone of you, who will have the least place in Paradise: "Ask (to be given as much as you like)". When he requests (whatever he wants and likes), it will be said to him: "You will have whatever you asked for and the like of it besides".

302-(183) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: During the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" some people said: "O Allah's Apostle! Shall we see our Lord on the Day of Judgement?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes. Do you have any difficulty in seeing the sun at midday when it is bright and there is no cloud in the sky? Do you have any difficulty in seeing the moon at a full moon night when it is bright and there is no cloud in the sky?" They replied: "No". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Then) you will have no difficulty in seeing Allah on the Day of Judgement as you have no difficulty in seeing both of them.

On the Day of Judgement, a call-maker will announce: "Let every nation follow that which they used to worship". Every nation, which used to worship anything other than Allah such idles, will fall into the (Hell) fire. There will remain none but those who used to worship Allah, whether they were obedient (Good) or disobedient (evil) and the remaining party of the people of the Scripture.

Then the Jews will be called upon and it will be said to them: "Whom did you use to worship?" They will say: "We used to worship Ezra, the son of Allah". It will be said to them: "You are liars, for Allah has never taken anyone as a wife or a son. What do you want now?" They will say: "O our Lord! We are thirsty, and we want to drink". They will be directed and addressed thus: "wouldn't you drink?" whereupon they will be mustered into The Hell, which will be like a mirage, with each part destroying the other. Then, they will fall into the (Hell) fire.

Afterwards the Christians will be called upon and it will be said to them: "Whom did you use to worship?" They will say: "We used to worship Jesus, the son of Allah". It will be said to them: "You are liars, for Allah has never taken anyone as a wife or a son". Then it will be said to them: "What do you want?" They will say: "O Lord! We are thirsty, and We want to drink". They will be directed and addressed: "wouldn't you drink?" they will be gathered into the Hell, which will be like a mirage, with each part destroying the other. Then they will fall into The (Hell) fire.

ثُمَّ يُدْعَى النَّصَارَى فَيُقَالُ لَهُمْ: مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْبُدُونَ؟ قَالُوا: كُنَّا نَعْبُدُ الْمَسِيحَ ابْنَ اللَّهِ، فَيُقَالُ لَهُمْ: كَذَبْتُمْ. مَا اتَّخَذَ اللَّهُ مِنْ صَاحِبَةٍ وَلاَ وَلَدٍ، فَيُقَالُ لَهُمْ: مَاذَا تَبْغُونَ؟

Then, when there remain (in the gathering) none but those who used to worship Allah whether they were obedient or disobedient, The Lord of all the worlds "Exalted be He" will come to them in a shape, different from that they saw (at first), and he will say to them: "What are you waiting for? Every nation has followed what they used to worship". They will reply: "We left the people in the world when we were in great need of them and we did not take them as friends. Now we are waiting for our Lord Whom we used to worship". He will say: "I am your Lord". They will say: "We seek refuge from you! We never associate anything with Allah". (They will say so twice or thrice), to the extent that some of them will be about to revert.

Then it will be said to them: "Do you know any sign by which you can recognize Him?" They will say: "yes (It is The Shin)". Allah will then uncover the Shin whereupon every believer, who used to prostrate to Allah out of faith will be allowed to prostrate before Him, but there is no one, who used to prostrate before Him just for showing off and getting good reputation but that Allah will make his back as a vertebra. The more he will try to prostrate the more (his back will be as rigid as a piece of wood so that) he will fall on his back.

When they will raise up their heads (after the prostration), There, he will change into the shape they saw at the first time. He will say (to them): "I'm your Lord". They will confirm: "Indeed, You are our Lord" Then the bridge will be laid across Hell; and the intercession will be permitted, and they will say: "O Allah, save us! O Allah, save us!""

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked: "O Allah's Apostle! What is the bridge?" He said: "It is a slippery (bridge) on which there are clamps and (Hooks like) thorny seeds, which are wide at one side and narrow at the other, having thorns with bent ends. Such thorny seeds are found in Najd and are called Sa'dan. Some of the believers will cross the bridge as quick as the wink of an eye, some others as quick as lightning, (others as fast as) a strong wind, (others as quick as) birds, fast horses or she-camels. Moreover, some will be safe without any harm; some will be safe after receiving some scratches, and some will fall down into Hell (Fire).

قِيلَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، وَمَا الْجِسْرُ؟ قَالَ: «دَحْضٌ مَزِلَّةٌ: فِيهِ خَطَاطِيفُ وَكَلاَلِيبُ وَحَسَكٌ. تَكُونُ بِنَجْدٍ فِيهَا شُوَيْكَةٌ يُقَالُ لَهَا السَّعْدَانُ، فَيَمُرُّ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ: كَطَرْفِ الْعَيْنِ، وَكَالْبَرْقِ، وَكَالرِّيحِ، وَكَالطَّيْرِ، وَكَأَجَاوِيدِ الْخَيْلِ وَالرِّكَابِ، فَنَاجٍ مُسَلَّمٌ، وَمَخْدُوشٌ مُرْسَلٌ، وَمَكْدُوسٌ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ. حَتَّى إِذَا خَلَصَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ مِنَ النَّارِ.

By Him, in Whose hand my soul is! There will be no one of you (Muslims) more pressing in claiming a right that has been clearly proved to be yours than the believers in intercession with Allah for their (Muslim) brothers on The Day of Judgement, when they see themselves safe. They will say: "O Allah! (Save) our brothers (for they) used to pray with us, fast with us and also perform pilgrimage with us". Allah will say (to them): "Go and take out whomever you recognize". The fire will be forbidden to burn their (the sinners') faces. They will go and take out from the fire a lot of creatures, some of whom, the fire will burn up to the half of their legs, some up to their knees. Then, they will say (to Allah): "O our Lord! There remains no one of those whom You ordered to take out". Allah will say: "Go back and take out (of Hell) anyone in whose heart you find goodness equal to the weight of a Dinar". They will go and take out a lot of creatures. They will say (to Allah): "O our Lord! We no longer recognize anyone remaining of those whom You ordered us to take out (of the fire)". Allah will say: "Go and take out (of Hell) anyone in whose heart you find goodness equal to the weight of half a Dinar". They will take out a lot of creatures. Then they will say (to Allah): "O our Lord! We no longer find anyone remaining of those whom You ordered us to take out". Allah will say: "Go and take out (of Hell) anyone in whose heart you find goodness equal to the weight of an atom (or a smallest ant)". They will take out a lot of creatures. Then, they will say (to Allah): "O our Lord! We no longer find any (creature having) goodness"".

Abu Sa'id said: If you do not believe me then you can recite: "Allah is never unjust in the least degree: if there is any good (done), he doubleth it, and giveth from his own presence a great reward". (Women 40)

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "Allah Almighty will say: "The Prophets, the Angels, and the believers interceded, and there remains only (the Intercession of) The Most Merciful". He will hold a handful of the Fire from which He will take out some people who did never do good (in this world), whose bodies have been burnt. They will be thrown into a river at the entrance of Paradise, called the water of life. They will grow on its banks, as a seed carried by the torrent grows. Perhaps you observed how it grows beside a rock or beside a tree, and how the side facing the sun is usually green, while the side facing the shade is white".

The companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Messenger of Allah! It seemed as if you used to shepherd the cattle and sheep in the desert". (Then The Prophet resumed): "Those people will come out (of the River of Life) like pearls, wearing necklaces. Then they will enter into Paradise whereupon the people of Paradise will say: "Those are the people set free by The Most Gracious. He has admitted them into Paradise though they did no good deeds nor did they sent forth any good (for themselves)". Then it will be said to them: "All of what you have seen is For you, in addition to an amount equal to it as well".

They will say: "O our Lord! You have given us what you have not given anyone of the worlds". Allah will reply: "There remains better than that with me to give you". They will ask: "O our Lord! Which thing is better than that?" he will say: "My pleasure (with you), after which, I would never be angry with you".

This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Isa Ibn Hammad from Al-Laith Ibn Sa'd, that Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri reported: We said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would we see our Lord (on The Day of Judgement)?" he said: "Do you have any difficulty in seeing the sun on a bright and not cloudy day?" we said: "No". (Then he mentioned the narration, which is like that of Hafs Ibn Maisara).

Abu Sa'id said: "I came to know that the bridge will be thinner than a single hair, and sharper than a sword". On the other hand, the Hadith of Al-Laith is void of the phrase: They will say: "O our Lord! You have given us what you have not given anyone of the worlds" and what is next to it, though this was confirmed by Isa Ibn Hammad.

303-(...) Zaid Ibn Aslam narrated this tradition, which is like that of Hafs Ibn Maisara, and he added something (in certain locations) and omitted something (in certain locations).

[82] Affirming the intercession, and taking out the monotheists from the (Hell) fire

304-(184) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When people of Paradise are admitted by Allah in Paradise, and people of Hell go to the (Hell) fire, Allah will order that those who have faith equal to the weight of a grain of mustard seed should be taken out from Hell. Therefore, they will be taken out but they will be blackened (charred). Then they will be put in the river of life, and they will revive like a grain that grows near the bank of a torrent. Don't you see that it comes out yellow and twisted?"

305-(...) This tradition was narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Yahya, with the same chain of transmission, according to which he (The Prophet) said: "They would be thrown in a river called The Life". According to the narration of Khalid, he said: "like a seed that grows near the bank of a torrent". According to the narration of Wuhaib, he said: "like a grain that grows in a black soil, or near the bank of a torrent".

306-(185) Abu Sa'id narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for the people of the (Hell) fire, who are its denizens, they neither die nor revive in it. But, (there are) people, whom the fire will burn according to their sins (they committed in the world), and as a result, He (Allah) will cause them to die to a certain extent. When they will turn into coal, the intercession will be permitted. They will be brought in groups and distributed on the different rivers of Paradise. It will be said to the people of Paradise: "O people of Paradise! Provide them (with water)". Then, they will revive as a grain grows on the bank of a torrent". Somebody said: "It seemed that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lived in the desert".

[83] The last one of the people of the (Hell) fire to come out

308-(186) Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I know the last one from the denizens of the (Hell) fire to come out of the (Hell) Fire, (who will be) the last one to enter Paradise. He will be a man, coming out of the (Hell) Fire crawling, to whom Allah will say: "Go and enter Paradise". He will go to it, but he will imagine that it is full. Then he will return and say: "O Lord! I have found it full". Allah will say to him: "Go and enter Paradise". He will go to it, but he will imagine that it is full. Then he will return and say: "O Lord! I have found it full". Allah will say to him: "Go and enter Paradise, and you will have as much as the like of the world and ten times more (or, you will have as much as ten times the like of the world)". Then the man will say: "Do you mock (or laugh) at me though You are the King?" (The narrator said): I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (while saying that) smiling so much that his premolar teeth became visible. It is said that this will be the lowest in degree of the people of Paradise.

will find that the people have taken the positions (and high degrees). It will be said to him: "Do you remember the time in which you lived (in the world)?" he will answer in the affirmative. It will be said to him: "Ask for whatever you want". He will request (whatever he want). Then it will be said to him: "You will have whatever you asked for, and as much as ten times the world more". Then the man will say: "Do you mock at me though You are the King?" (The narrator said): I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (while narrating this) smiling so much that his premolar teeth became visible.

310-(187) Thabit narrated from Anas from Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The last one to come out of the (Hell) fire will be a man, who will come out walking once, stumbling once, and being burnt by the fire once. Having crossed it, he will say: "Blessed and Exalted be He, who rescued me from you (O fire), and gave me something He did not give to anyone of the earlier and later people".

Then, a certain tree will be raised to him. He will say: "O my Lord! Get me closer to this tree, so that I could take refuge to its shade and drink from its water". Allah will say to him: "O son of Adam! If I gave you such a request then you would ask me for something else". He will say: "No O my Lord!" then, he will give him a covenant that he will not ask him for anything else. Indeed, his Lord (Allah) excuses him, for he sees what he could not help desiring for. He would bring him closer to it, so as to take shelter in its shade and drink from its water.

Then, another tree, better than the first, will be raised to him. He will say: "O my Lord! Get me closer to this tree, so that I could drink from its water and take refuge to its shade, and I will not ask You for something else". Allah will say to him: "O son of Adam! Did not you give me a covenant that you would not ask me for anything else? If I gave you such a request then you would ask me for something else". So, he will give him a covenant that he will not ask him for anything else. Indeed, his Lord (Allah) excuses him, for he sees what he could not help desiring for. He will bring him closer to it, so as to take shelter in its shade and drink from its water.

Then, a third tree at the gate of Paradise, better than the previous two, will be raised to him. He will say: "O my Lord! Get me closer to this tree, so that I could take shelter in its shade and drink from its water, and I will not ask You for anything else". Allah will say to him: "O son of Adam! Did not you give me a covenant that you would not ask me for anything else?" he will say: "Yes, O my Lord! But as for this, I would not ask You for anything else". Indeed, his Lord (Allah) excuses him, for he sees what he could not help desiring for.

But, When He brings him closer to it, he will hear the voices of the people of Paradise. Upon this, he will say: "O my Lord! Admit me in it (Paradise)". Allah will say: "O son of Adam! What shall (satisfy you and) end your requests from me? Wouldn't you pleased that I give you as much as this world and the like of it besides?" he will say: "O Lord! Are You mocking at me and You are The Lord of the worlds?"

Ibn Mas'ud laughed and asked (those present with him): "Wouldn't you ask me why I'm laughing?" they asked: "Why are you laughing?" he said: "As such The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughed. Being asked about the reason, he said: "Because of the laugh of The Lord of the worlds, when such a man said to Him: "Are you mocking at me, and You are The Lord of the worlds?" Allah will say to him: "I'm not mocking at you, but I have power to do whatever I want"".

[84] The least in degree and position among the people of Paradise

311-(188) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The least one in degree and position amongst the people of Paradise will be a man, whose face Allah would turn away from the (Hell) fire and direct towards Paradise, where there will be a tree of shade. Upon this, such a man will say: "O Lord! Bring me forward to this tree so as to take shelter in its shade"".

(Then, he mentioned the Hadith, which is like that of Ibn Mas'ud, but he did not mention (Allah's saying): "O son of Adam! What shall (satisfy you and) end your requests from me?" to the end of the Hadith. But, he added here: "Allah will remind him to ask from such-and-such a thing, and such-and-such a thing. When his desires are fulfilled, Allah will say to him: "All of this is granted to you, and ten times its like more".

When he enters into his house (in Paradise), his two wives of the women of big lustrious eyes will enter into him and say: "Praise be to Allah that He caused you to revive for us, and caused us to live for you". He will say: "Verily, no one was given the like of what I was given").

312-(189) Ash'sha'bi narrated that Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba related, while being on the pulpit, to the people, attributing to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": Moses asked his Lord: "Who from amongst the dwellers of Paradise is the least in position?" He said: "He is the last to be admitted in Paradise among the inhabitants of Paradise. It would be said to him: "Enter Paradise". He would say: "O my Lord! how (would I enter) since the people got their positions and took their shares?" It would be said to him: "Would you be pleased to have as much as the kingdom of a world king?" He would say: "I am pleased O my Lord". He (Allah) would say: "That is for you, (in addition to what is) like that, like that, like that, and like that". He would say at the fifth: "I am pleased O My Lord". He (Allah) would say: "Then, that is for you and ten times like it more, and whatever your self desires and your eye enjoys is also for you". He would say: "I am pleased O my Lord".

He (Moses) asked: "What about the highest (in degree) of them (i.e. the inhabitants of Paradise)?" He (Allah) said: "They are those whom I select. I establish with My own hand their honour over which I set a seal (and what I prepare and establish for them of blessings is) what no eye has seen, no ear has heard and no human mind has perceived". This is confirmed by Allah's Book: "Now no person knows what delights of the eye are kept hidden (in reserve) for them as a reward for their (good) Deeds". (The Prostration 17)

313-(...) Ash'sha'bi narrated: I heard Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba talking while being on the pulpit that once Moses asked his Lord about the least one in position and degree among the people of Paradise. (Then he mentioned the same narration).

314-(190) Abu Dharr narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, I know the last one of the people of Paradise to enter into Paradise, (who is) the last one of the dwellers of the (Hell) fire to come out of it. He is a man, who will be brought on The Day of Judgement, and it will be said: "Show him his lesser sins, and remove away from him his major sins". His lesser sins will be shown to him. It will be said to him: "On such-and-such a day and on such-and-such a day, you did such-and-such a thing, and such-and-such a thing". He will answer in the affirmative, and he could not deny any of them. But, he will be afraid that his major sins might be shown to him. Then, it will be said to him: "You will have a good deed instead of every evil deed". He will say: "O my Lord! I did other (evil) things, which I do not find here (in my record)". (The narrator commented): Verily, I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughing until his premolar teeth became visible.

315-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash through another chain of transmitters.

316-(191) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that Jaber Ibn Abdullah was asked about the Advent (of people on The Day of Judgement). He said: We (Muslims) would be mustered on The Day of Judgement on such-and-such (a hill), and the other (nations) on such-and-such (a hill), and we will be superior to all the people. Then the people would be invited in the company of their idols, which they used to worship, one after another. Then our Lord would come to us and say: "Whom are you waiting for?" They would say: "We are waiting for our Lord". He would say: "I am your Lord". They would say: "(We are not certain) until we gaze at You". He would show Himself to them smilingly, and would go along with them and they would follow Him.

every person, a hypocrite or a believer he might be, would be given a light. There would be spikes and hooks on the bridge of Hell, which would catch hold of whomever Allah willed. Then the light of the hypocrites would be extinguished, and the believers would get salvation. The first group to fulfill salvation would consist of seventy thousand men whose faces would be as bright as a full moon, and they would not be called to account. Then those succeeding them would have their faces as (luminous as) the brightest stars in the heaven. This is the way (the groups would follow one after another).

Then the intercession would be permitted, and they (who are allowed to intercede) would intercede, till he who testified that "There is no god but Allah" and had in his heart goodness equal to the weight of a barley grain would come out of the Fire. They would be brought in the courtyard of Paradise and the inhabitants of Paradise would begin to sprinkle water over them till they would grow as a thing grows in a torrent, and their burns would disappear. They would ask their Lord until they would be granted as much as this world and ten times the like of it more.

320-(...) Yazid Al-Faqir said: A certain opinion adopted by the religious Dissenters (i.e. those who commit major sins would be eternally doomed to Hell) had appealed to me. We set out in a large group with the intention of performing the major pilgrimage and then going to the people (for proclaiming the opinions of the religious Dissenters).

We passed by Medina where we found Jaber Ibn Abdullah sitting beside a column relating to the people (some narrations) from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When he mentioned the dwellers of Hell, I said: "O companion of The Messenger of Allah! what is that which you are narrating, and Allah says: "Our Lord any whom thou dost admit to fire, truly thou coverest with shame, and never will wrongdoers find any helpers", and: "As to those who are rebellious and wicked, their abode will be the Fire: every time they wish to get away therefrom, they will be forced there into, and it will be said to them: Taste ye the Penalty of the Fire, The which ye were wont to reject as false". (The Prostration 20) So what is that which you say?"

He said: "Do you read (and keep by heart) The Quran?" I answered in the affirmative. He said: "Did you hear about the station of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", i.e. to which Allah would raise, him?" I answered in the affirmative. He said: "Indeed, it is the exalted station of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and it is that, by which Allah would take out (of fire) whomever He wills to take out".

He then described the Bridge and the passing of the people over it. He (the sub-narrator) said: "I am afraid that I could not remember that (i.e. what Jaber said concerning the bridge), but he (Jaber) pretended that people would come out of the Hell after having gone into it, and he said: "They would come out of it as if they were the wood of the ebony tree. They would enter one of the rivers of Paradise, so as to take bath in it, and then come out as if they were (as white as) paper".

We then returned and said: "Woe to you! How can this old man tell a lie about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" We reverted (from such opinions adopted by the religious Dissenters). By Allah! All of us abandoned this (pact of those religious dissenters) except for a man. (This is similar to the statement made by Abu Nu'aim).

321-(192) Anas narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Four persons would be taken out of the (Hell) fire and would be brought before Allah. One of them would turn and and praise Allah with an invocation He will teach me, and then I will intercede. Allah will fix a limit to me to intercede for, whom I will take out of (Hell) fire and admit into Paradise".

(The narrator said: I do not know whether in the third or the fourth time The Prophet will say): "None remains in Hell but those whom the Quran has imprisoned wherein they have been destined to stay eternally".

323-(...) Anas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The believers would assemble on The Day of Judgement, and they would be concerned with that (and inspired by Allah to ask for intercession). (Then, he mentioned the tradition, which is like that of Abu Awana. In the end of this narration, The Prophet said: "Then, in the fourth time, I would come back (to Him) and say: "O my Lord! None remains in Hell but those whom the Quran has imprisoned (wherein they have been destined to stay eternally)").

324-(...) Anas narrated: The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The believers would be gathered by Allah on The Day of Judgement, and they would be concerned with that (and inspired by Allah to ask for intercession). (Then, he mentioned the same tradition. In the end of this narration, The Prophet said: "Then, in the fourth time, I would come back (to Him) and say: "O my Lord! None remains in Hell but those whom the Quran has imprisoned (in the Hell fire) wherein they have been destined to stay eternally").

325-(...) Anas narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who testified that there is no god but Allah, and even in whose heart there was goodness equal to the weight of a parley grain, would be taken out of the (Hell) fire; and he, who testified that there is no god but Allah, and even in whose heart there was goodness equal to the weight of a wheat grain, would be taken out of the (Hell) fire; and he, who testified that there is no god but Allah, and even in whose heart there was goodness equal to the weight of an atom, would be taken out of the (Hell) fire".

Ibn Minhal added (those words) in his narration: Yazid said: I met Shu'ba to whom I narrated this Hadith. Shu'ba said: Quatada transmitted to us this Hadith from Anas Ibn Malik who heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" substituting the word grain for atom. Yazid said: Abu Bistam changed it.

behalf. Behold, Anas was in his palace. We just arrived at the time he was performing Duha prayer. Thabit asked permission for us to enter and we were admitted. He seated Thabit beside him on his bed. Thabit said: "O Abu Hamza! There are your brethren from Basra coming to ask you about the Hadith of Intercession".

Anas said: (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "On the Day of Judgement the people will surge with each other like waves, and then they will come to Adam and say: "Please intercede for us with your Lord". He will say: "I am not fitting for that but it is better for you to go to Abraham, since he is the bosom friend of Allah, The Most Gracious". They will go to Abraham who will say: "I am not fitting for that. It is better for you to go to Moses since he is the one to whom Allah spoke directly". So they will go to Moses who will say: "I am not fitting for that. It is better for you to go to Jesus, who is a soul created by Allah, in addition to being His Word ("Be" And really it was)". they will go to Jesus who will say: "I am not fitting for that. It is better for you to go to Muhammad".

They would come to me; and I will say: "I am (fitting) for that". Then I will ask for my Lord's permission, which will be given. Then He will inspire me to praise Him with such praises, as I do not know now. So I will praise Him with those praises and will fall down in prostration before Him. Then it will be said: "O Muhammad! Raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted". I will say: "O Lord, my followers! My followers!" Then it will be said: "Go and take out of Hell all those who have faith in their hearts, equal to the weight of a barley grain".

I will go and do so and return to praise Him with the same praises, and fall down in prostration before Him. Then it will be said: "O Muhammad! Raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted". I will say: "O Lord! My followers! My followers!" It will be said: "Go and take out of it (The Hell) all those who have faith in their hearts equal to the weight of a mustard seed".

I will go and do so, and then return to praise Him with the same praises, and fall down in prostration before Him. It will be said: "O Muhammad! Raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted". I will say: "O Lord! My followers! faith equal to the weight of even the lightest, lightest, lightest mustard seed". I will go and do so".

(Ma'bad said): This is the Hadith, which Anas narrated to us. When we left Anas, and reached the upper part of the graveyard, We said: "Let's pass by Al-Hasan to greet him. He was hiding himself in the house of Abu Khalifa". So we went and greeted him. He admitted us. We said to him: "O Abu Sa'id! We came to you from your brother Anas Ibn Malik who related to us a Hadith about the intercession the like of which we have never heard". He said: "What is that?" We told him the Hadith. He said: "What then?" We said: "He did add nothing to that". He said: "Anas related the Hadith to us twenty years ago when he was younger, stronger and healthier. I don't know whether he forgot or he did not like to let you depend on what he might have said". We said: "O Abu Sa'id ! Relate that to us". He smiled and said: "Man was created hasty. I did not mention it but that of which I wanted to inform you.

Anas told me the same as he told you and said that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further added: "I then will return for the fourth time, praise Him similarly, and prostrate myself before Him. It will be said to me the same as it had been said: "O Muhammad! Raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted". I will say: "O Lord! Allow me to intercede for him, who said: "There is no god (to be worshiped) but Allah"". Then Allah will say: "That is not for you. But, by my Power, by my Majesty, by My Supremacy, and by My Greatness! I will take out of Hell whoever said: "There is no god but Allah"".

327-(194) Abu Huraira narrated: Some (cooked) meat was brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the meat of a forearm was presented to him as he used to like it. He ate a morsel of it and said: "I will be the chief of all the people on the Day of Judgement. Do you know the reason for it? Allah will gather all the human beings of early as well as late generations on one plain so that the announcer will be able to make them all hear his voice and the watcher will be able to see all of them. The sun will come so close to the people that they will suffer such distress and trouble to the extent that they will not be able to bear or stand.

Then the people will say: "Don't you see what state you have reached? Won't you look for someone who can intercede for you with your Lord?" Some people will say to others: "Go to Adam". So they will go to Adam and say to him: "You are the father of mankind; Allah created you with His Own Hand, and breathed into you from His Spirit; and ordered the angels

to prostrate before you; so (please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don't you see in what state we are? Don't you see what condition we have reached?" Adam will say: "Today my Lord has become angry as He has never become before, nor will ever become thereafter. He forbade me (to eat of the fruit of) the tree, but I disobeyed Him. Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Noah".

So they will go to Noah and say (to him): "O Noah! You are the first Messenger sent by Allah to the people of the earth, and Allah has named you a thankful slave; (please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don't you see in what state we are? don't you see what condition we have reached?" He will say: "Today my Lord has become angry as He has never become before, nor will ever become thereafter. I had (in the world) the right to make one definitely accepted invocation, and I made it against my nation. Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Abraham".

They will go to Abraham and say: "O Abraham! You are Allah's Apostle and His bosom friend from among the people of the earth; so (please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don't you see in what state we are? don't you see what condition we have reached?" He will say to them: "My Lord has today become angry as He has never become before, nor will ever become thereafter. I had told three lies (in the world). Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Moses".

The people will then go to Moses and say: "O Moses! You are Allah's Apostle and Allah gave you superiority above the others with this message and with His direct Talk to you; (please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don't you see in what state we are? don't you see what condition we have reached?" Moses will say: "My Lord has today become angry as He has never become before, nor will ever become thereafter. I killed a person whom I had not been ordered to kill. Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Jesus".

So they will go to Jesus and say: "O Jesus! You are Allah's Apostle and His Word, which He sent to Mary, and a superior soul created by Him, and you talked to the people while still young in the cradle. (Please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don't you see in what state we are? don't you see what condition we have reached?" Jesus will say: "My Lord has today become angry as He has never become before nor will ever become thereafter". Jesus will not mention any sin, but will say: "Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Muhammad".

فَيَأْتُونَ عِيسَىٰ فَيَقُولُونَ: يَا عِيسَىٰ، أَنْتَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ، وَكَلَّمْتَ النَّاسَ فِي الْمَهْدِ، وَكَلِمَةٌ مِنْهُ أَلْقَاهَا إِلَى مَرْيَمَ، وَرُوحٌ مِنْهُ، فَاشْفَعْ لَنَا إِلَى رَبِّكَ. أَلاَ تَرَى مَا نَحْنُ فِيهِ؟ أَلاَ تَرَى مَا قَدْ بَلَغَنَا؟ فَيَقُولُ لَهُمْ عِيسَى ﷺ: إِنَّ رَبِّي قَدْ غَضِبَ الْيَوْمَ غَضَباً لَمْ يَغْضَبْ قَبْلَهُ مِثْلَهُ وَلَنْ يَغْضَبَ بَعْدَهُ مِثْلَهُ. وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ لَهُ ذَنْباً. نَفْسِي. نَفْسِي. اذْهَبُوا إِلَى غَيْرِي. اذْهَبُوا إِلَى مُحَمَّدٍ ﷺ.

So they will come to me and say: "O Muhammad! You are Allah's Apostle and the last of The Prophets, and Allah forgave your earlier and later sins. (Please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don't you see in what state we are? don't you see what condition we have reached?""

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" added: "Then I will go beneath Allah's Throne and fall in prostration before my Lord. Then Allah will guide me to such praises and glorifications to Him as He has never guided anybody else before me. Then it will be said: "O Muhammad! Raise your head. Ask, and you will be granted. Intercede and it (your intercession) will be accepted". So I will raise my head and Say: "My followers, O my Lord! My followers, O my Lord!" It will be said: "O Muhammad! Let those of your followers who have no accounts, enter through that gate of those of Paradise which lies on the right; and they will share the other gates with the people"".

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is, the distance between every two gate-posts of Paradise is as long as the distance between Mecca and Hajar (of Bahrain or Busra of Sham)".

328-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: A dish containing porridge and meat was presented to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who took the forearm, the part of the sheep which was the most favorite to him. He ate a morsel of it and said: "I will be the chief of all the people on the Day of Judgement". He ate another morsel of it and said: "I will be the chief of all the people on the Day of Judgement". When he saw that his companions did not ask him about the reason, he said to them: "Wouldn't you ask me how (this would be)?" they asked him: "Then, how (would this be) O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "(On such a day) the people would stand before The Lord of the worlds" (and he mentioned the narration which is like that of Abu Haiyyan. He added in the story of Abraham: "He related (to them) his saying concerning the planet, and his saying about their gods: "It is this (god which is the) biggest of them, which did it" (i.e. destroyed all the idles). and his saying: "I'm faint"". Then he (The Prophet) said: "By Him, in Whose hand is the soul of Muhammad! The distance between every two gate-posts from their sides is as long as the distance between Mecca and Hajar" (of Yemen, or between Hajar and Mecca, I (the narrator) do not know which of the two he (The Prophet) uttered).

329-(195) Both of Abu Huraira and Hudhaifa narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The people would be gathered by Allah "Blessed and Exalted be He". The believers would stand till the Paradise would be brought close to them. They would come to Adam and say: "O our father, open Paradise for us". He would say: "was not it the sin of your father Adam which drove you out from Paradise? I am not appropriate to do that. You'd better go to my son Ibrahim, the bosom Friend of Allah".

٣٢٩ ـ (١٩٥) ـ حدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ طَرِيفِ بْنِ خَلِيفَةَ الْبَجَلِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ فُضَيْلٍ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مَالِكٍ الأَشْجَعِيُّ، عَنْ أَبِي حَازِمٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ. وَأَبُو مَالِكٍ، عَنْ رِبْعِيٍّ، عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ؛ قَالاَ: قَالَ: رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «يَجْمَعُ اللَّهُ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى

(When they go to Abraham) he would say: "I am not appropriate to do that. Verily I had been the bosom Friend (of Allah) from beyond, beyond. You'd better go to Moses "Peace be upon him" whom Allah talked directly". They would come to Moses "Peace be upon him", who would say: "I am not appropriate to do that; you'd better go to Jesus, Allah's Word and Spirit". (When they come to Jesus) Jesus "Peace be upon him" would say: "I am not appropriate to do that".

So they would come to (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who would stand (and proceed to do that). He would be given the permission (to open the gate of Paradise). Honesty and kinship would be sent out, and they would stand on the right and left sides of the Path. The first of you would pass (as fast) as lightning".

He (the narrator) said: I said: "O you, who is dearer to me than my father and my mother! which thing is like the passing of lightning?" He said: "Did you not see lightning, how it passes and returns within an eye twinkle? Then (those of the second group who are lesser than the first in deeds would pass) like the passing of the wind, then like the passing of a bird; and the fastness of persons would be according to their deeds.

your Prophet (Muhammad) would be standing on the Path saying: "Save us, O my Lord! Save us!" (The people would keep passing) till the deeds of the slaves would be so much unable (to support their holders) that a man would come and find it hard to cross (that Path) but as crawling".

He (the narrator) said: On the sides of the Path there would be hanged hooks, ready to catch whomever they would be ordered (to catch). There would be some, who would succeed in crossing that Path and some who would be piled up in Hell. By Him in Whose Hand the soul of Abu Huraira is ! It would take one seventy years to go through the depth of Hell.

[85] The saying of The Prophet "I would be the first to intercede in Paradise; and from among the Prophets, I would have the greatest number of followers"

٣٣٠ ـ (١٩٦) ـ حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ وَإِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، قَالَ قُتَيْبَةُ: حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ، عَنِ الْمُخْتَارِ بْنِ فُلْفُلٍ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَنَا أَوَّلُ

Paradise; and from among the Prophets, I would have the greatest number of followers (on The Day of Judgement)".

331-(...) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: " From among the Prophets, I would have the greatest number of followers on The Day of Judgement; and I would be the first to knock at (and open) the door of Paradise".

332-(...) Anas narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I would be the first interceder (in Paradise) on The Day of Judgement. (Furthermore) no Prophet has been trusted (by greater number of followers) as I have been trusted. There would be, from among the Prophets a Prophet who has been trusted by only a follower from among his nation".

333-(197) Anas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(On The Day of Judgement) I would come to the gate of Paradise, and ask its keeper to open it. The keeper would ask: "Who is you?" I would answer: "Muhammad". He would say: "I have been ordered not to open it but for you, and not for anyone before you".

[86] The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" preserves his invocation to intercede for his nation

334-(198) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Abu Huraira that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet has a private invocation (responded to by Allah), and I intend to keep my invocation to intercede for my nation on The Day of Judgement".

335-(...) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Abu Huraira that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet has a private invocation (responded to by Allah), and, Allah willing, I intend to keep my invocation to intercede for my nation on The Day of Judgement".

336-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abu Huraira.

337-(...) Amr Ibn Abu Sufyan Ibn Asid Ibn Jariya Ath'thaqafi narrated that Abu Huraira told Ka'b Al-Ahbar that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet has a private invocation (responded to by Allah), with which he supplicates (Allah), and, Allah willing, I intend to keep my invocation to intercede for my nation on The Day of Judgement". Ka'b asked Abu Huraira: "Did you hear that from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" Abu Huraira replied in the affirmative.

338-(199) Abu Salih narrated from Abu Huraira that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet had a private invocation responded to (by Allah). However, every Prophet was hasty in using his own invocation (in this world), but, I kept my invocation to intercede for my nation on The Day of Judgement. It would, Allah willing, involve everyone of my (Muslim) nation, who died and did not associate anything with Allah (in worship)".

339-(...) Abu Huraira narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet has a private invocation responded to (by Allah), with which he supplicates Allah, and, as a result, it would be responded to and granted to him (by Allah). But, I kept my invocation to intercede for my nation on The Day of Judgement".

340-(...) Abu Huraira narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet had a private invocation responded to (by Allah), with which he supplicated Allah for his nation, and, as a result, it was responded to by Allah. But, I intend to postpone my invocation to intercede for my nation on The Day of Judgement".

341-(200) Anas narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet had a private invocation responded to (by Allah), with which he supplicated (Allah) for his nation. But, I preserved my invocation to intercede for my nation on The Day of Judgement".

342-(...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba from Quatada with the same chain of transmission.

343-(...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Quatada, with the same chain of transmission. But in the narration of Waki, he said: "he was endowed" and in the narration of Abu Usama he said: It is reported from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

344-(...) Al-Mu'tamir narrated from his father from Anas from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same Hadith narrated by Quatada from Anas.

345-(201) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet had a private invocation responded to (by Allah), with which he supplicated Allah for his nation. But, I preserved my invocation to intercede for my nation on The Day of Judgement".

[87] The invocation of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for his nation, and his weeping out of pity for them

346-(202) Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Ass narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited Allah's saying on Abraham's tongue: "O my Lord they have indeed led astray many among mankind; he then who follows my (ways) is of me, and he that disobeys me, but thou art indeed Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful". (Abraham 36)

(He then recited) the saying of Jesus(in The Holy Quran): "If Thou dost punish them, they are Thy servants: if Thou dost forgive them, Thou are the Exalted in power, the Wise". (The Repast 118)

He (The Prophet) raised his hands and start weeping and said: "O Allah! (save) my nation! (Save) my nation!" Allah Almighty said to Gabriel: "O Gabriel! Go to Muhammad –and your Lord knows best- and ask him about the reason of his weeping". Gabriel "Peace be upon him" came to Muhammad and asked him (about the reason of his weeping). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told him about what He (Allah) said, and He (Allah) knows best. Then, Allah said : "O Gabriel! Go to Muhammad and tell him: "O Muhammad! We would satisfy you concerning your nation, and We would not grieve you"".

[88] Whoever died as an unbeliever would be doomed to the (Hell) fire, with neither intercession nor kinship to benefit him

347-(203) Anas narrated that once a man asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Where is my father?" He (The Prophet) said: "In the (Hell) fire". When the man turned his back, he (The Prophet) called him and said: "No doubt, my father and your father are in the (Hell) fire".

[89] Allah's saying: "And admonish thy nearest Kinsmen"

348-(204) Abu Huraira narrated: When the following Verse was revealed: "And admonish thy nearest Kinsmen" (The Poets 214), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invited (the people of) Quraish, and addressed them generally and namely saying: "O sons of Ka'b Ibn Lu'ai! Save yourselves from the (Hell) fire! O sons of Murra Ibn Ka'b! save yourselves from the (Hell) fire! O sons of Abd Shams! Save yourselves from the (Hell) fire! O sons of Abd Manaf! cannot protect you from Allah (if He wanted to punish you). But you have relation with me, which I would keep (and support)".

349-(...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Umair with the same chain of transmission, but the narration of Jarir is more complete and comprehensive.

350-(205) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from A'isha: When the following Verse was revealed: "And admonish thy nearest Kinsmen" (The Poets 214), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came up (the mountain of) Safa and said: "O Fatima Bint Muhammad! O Safiyya Bint Abd Al-Muttalib! O sons of Abd Al-Muttalib! I have no power to protect you from Allah (in case he wanted to punish you). Ask me for whatever you wanted from my own property".

351-(206) Abu Huraira narrated: When the following Verse was revealed: "And admonish thy nearest Kinsmen" (The Poets 214), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O community of Quraish! Buy yourselves from Allah! I could not benefit you against Allah. O sons of Abd Al-Muttalib! I could not benefit you against Allah. O Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib! I could not benefit you against Allah. O Safiyya, the paternal aunt of The Messenger of Allah! I could not benefit you against Allah. O Fatima, daughter of The Messenger of Allah! Ask me for whatever you wanted (in this world), because I could not benefit you against Allah (in the hereafter)".

352-(...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abu Huraira, through another chain of transmitters.

353-(207) Qabisa Ibn Mukhariq and Zuhair Ibn Amr narrated: When the following verse was revealed: "And admonish thy nearest Kinsmen" (The Poets 214), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out towards a hill rock and came up the highest rock and proclaimed: "O sons of Abd Manaf! I am a warner; The example of me and you is like a man who saw the enemy and went to reconnoiter for his people. But, since he feared they might get there before him, he shouted: Be on the alert!"

354-(...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Zuhair Ibn Amr and Qabisa Ibn Mukhariq, and another chain of transmitters.

355-(208) Ibn Abbas narrated: When Allah revealed: "And admonish thy nearest Kinsmen" (The Poets 214) and the selected persons among your clan, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out, came up Safa mountain, and shouted: "Be on your guard!"

[94] The proof that many groups of Muslims would be admitted in Paradise with neither reckoning nor torment

367-(216) Abu Huraira narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From among my (Muslim) nation, seventy thousand would be admitted in Paradise with no reckoning". A man stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Invoke Allah for me to be one of them". The Messenger of Allah said: "O Allah! Make him one of them". Another man stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Supplicate Allah for me to be one of them". The Messenger of Allah said: "Ukasha preceded you in such an issue".

368-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying (the same Hadith narrated by Ar-Rabie).

Abu Huraira narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "From among my followers, about seventy thousand will enter Paradise without reckoning, whose faces will be shining like the moon". Ukasha Ibn Muhsin Al-Asadi got up, lifting his covering sheet and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Invoke Allah for me to be one of them". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! Make him one of them". Then another man from The Ansar got up and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Invoke Allah for me to be one of them". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Ukasha anticipated you".

370-(217) Abu Huraira narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "From among my followers, about seventy thousand will enter Paradise as one group (in a time), the faces of many of whom will be as shining as the moon".

371-(218) Imran Ibn Husain narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From amongst my nation, seventy thousand shall enter Paradise without reckoning". The people asked: "Who are they O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "They are those, who do not get themselves cauterized, nor do they treat themselves by practising charm. But they put their trust (only) in their Lord". On that Ukasha Ibn Muhsin said: "Invoke Allah for me to be one of them". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You would be one of them". Then another person got up and said: "Invoke Allah for me to be one of them". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Ukasha has anticipated you".

372-(...) Imran Ibn Husain narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From amongst my nation, seventy thousand shall enter Paradise without reckoning". The people asked: "Who are they O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "They are those, who do not get themselves cauterized, nor do they believe in bad or good omen (from birds etc.), nor do they treat themselves by practising charm. But they put their trust (only) in their Lord".

373-(219) Abu Hazim narrated from Sahl Ibn Sa'd that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, seventy thousand (or seven hundred thousand, Abu Hazim doubted which of the two he uttered) from amongst my nation would be admitted in Paradise, holding one another, the first of whom would not enter before the last would enter (at the same time), whose faces would be as bright as a full moon".

374-(220) Husain Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated: I was sitting with Sa'id Ibn Jubair when he asked: "Who of you saw the star which fell down yester day?" I answered: "I (saw it)". Then I said: "No doubt, I was not in a prayer, but I was stung (by a poisonous insect)". He asked: "Then, what did you do?" I answered: "I practiced charm". He asked: "What did lead you to do so?" I said: "A Hadith narrated to us by Ash'sha'bi". He said: "What did Ash'sha'bi narrate to you?" I said: "He narrated to us from Buraida Ibn Husaib Al-Aslami that he said: "There is no (practicing) charm except for preventing the (effects of the) evil eye or the poison".

Sa'id Ibn Jubair said: "He did well, who acted upon what he heard (from The Prophet). But, Ibn Abbas narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Nations were displayed before me; I saw a Prophet passing by with a few followers; a Prophet passing by with a man or two (of his followers); and a Prophet passing by with nobody. Then a big crowd of people passed in front of me whom I thought to be my followers. It was said: "No. It is Moses "Peace be upon him" and his followers. but, look at the horizon". Behold! There was a multitude of people (filling the horizon). Then it was said to me: "Look there and there about the stretching sky!" Behold! There was a multitude of people (filling the horizon). It was said to me: "This is your nation out of whom seventy thousand shall enter Paradise with neither reckoning nor torture"".

Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered his house without telling his companions who they (the 70,000) were. So the people started talking about the issue. Some of them said: "They might be those, who (believed in and) accompanied The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"". Others said: "They might be those, who have been born in the Islamic era, and have not associated anything with Allah (in worship)". They mentioned other things.

Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out and asked them: "What is that about which you are talking?" they told him. Upon this he said: "They are those who do not treat themselves by practising charm, or asking others to practice it, nor do they believe in bad or good omen (from birds etc.). But they put their trust (only) in their Lord". On that, Ukasha Ibn Muhsin got up and said: "Invoke Allah for me to be one of them". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You would be one of them". Then another person got up and said: "Invoke Allah for me to be one of them". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Ukasha has anticipated you".

375-(...) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated that Ibn Abbas told him: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The nations were displayed before me" (and he mentioned the narration, which is like that of Hushaim, but he did not mentioned the beginning of it).

[95] This (Muslim) nation would constitute half the people of Paradise

376-(221) Amr Ibn Maimun narrated from Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "Aren't you satisfied that you would constitute one-fourth the people of Paradise?" we magnified Allah. Then he said: "Aren't you pleased that you would constitute one-third the people of Paradise?" we magnified Allah. Then, he said: "I expect that you would constitute half the people of Paradise. I'm going to tell you about that. The Muslims compared (in number) with the unbelievers are like a white hair in the skin of a black ox, or like a black hair in the skin of a white ox".

377-(...) Amr Ibn Maimun narrated from Abdullah: We were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a tent, and we were about forty, when he said to us: "Aren't you satisfied that you would constitute one-fourth the people of Paradise?" we said: "Yes (we are satisfied)". Then he said: "Aren't you pleased that you would constitute one-third the people of Paradise?" we said: "Yes (we are pleased)". Then, he said: "By Him, in Whose hand my soul is! I hope that you would constitute half the people of Paradise. That is because non but a Muslim would be admitted in Paradise. Moreover, you (Muslims) among the unbelievers are like a white hair in the skin of a black ox, or like a black hair in the skin of a red ox".

[96] The saying (of The Prophet): "Allah would say to Adam: "Bring out the people of the (Hell) fire: from every one thousand, nine hundred and ninety-nine"

379-(222) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah will say (on the Day of Judgement): "O Adam!" Adam will reply: "Yes, I am responding to your call, and all goodness be in Your Hand". Allah will say: "Bring out the people of the fire". Adam will say: "O Allah! How many are the people of the Fire?" Allah will reply: "From every one thousand, take out nine-hundred-and ninety-nine". At that time children will become hoary-headed, every pregnant female will have a miscarriage, and one will see mankind as drunken, yet they will not be drunken, but dreadful will be the Wrath of Allah". (Pilgrimage "Al-Hajj" 2) The companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "O Allah's Apostle! Who is that (excluded) one?" He said: "Rejoice with glad tidings; one person will be (selected to enter Paradise) from you and one-thousand will be (selected to enter the Hell fire) from Gog and Magog".

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "By Him, in Whose Hands my life is, I hope that you will be one-fourth of the people of Paradise". We praised and magnified Allah. He added: "By Him, in Whose hand my life is! I hope that you will be one-third of the people of Paradise". We praised and magnified Allah. He said: "By Him, in Whose hand my life is! I hope that you will be half the people of Paradise". We praised and magnified Allah. He further said: "The example of you (Muslims compared in number) with the other nations (of non-Muslims) is like a white hair in the skin of a black ox, or like a round hairless spot on the foreleg of a donkey".

He did not mention "or like a round hairless spot in the foreleg of a donkey".

(2) The Book Of Purification

[1] The merit of ablution

1-(223) Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The purification constitutes half of the faith, (the phrase) "Praise be to Allah" fills one's balance of acts, (the phrases) "Glory be to Allah" and "Praise be to Allah" fill what is between the sky and the earth, the prayer is a light (which guides one to goodness and favour, and prevents him from doing evil), the charity is an evidence (of one's good faith), the patience is a luminosity and The Holy Quran is a proof, whither for you (in case you kept reciting it and acting upon its principles) or against you (in case you abandoned it and ignored its principles). Everyone of the people goes in the morning (and seeks for deeds), and sells himself in such a way as either to emancipate it (from torture if he sold it to Allah), or to destroy it (if he sold it to Satan)".

[2] The obligation of one's purification for performing the prayer

(224) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd narrated: Once, Abdullah visited Ibn Amer in order to inquire about his health. He said to him: "Wouldn't you invoke Allah for me O Ibn Umar?" he replied: No doubt, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "One's prayer would not be accepted without purification, and no charity would be accepted in case it was gained from misappropriation". And you (O Ibn Amer) acted as a governor of Basra".

(...) A similar tradition was narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the authority of Simak Ibn Harb, with the same chain of transmitters.

2-(225) Hammam Ibn Munabbih, the brother of Wahb Ibn Munabbih narrated: This is what Abu Huraira narrated to us from Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (He mentioned some traditions including the following): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The prayer of anyone of you would not be accepted if he broke his ablution until he performs ablution".

[3] How one performs ablution and what about its validity

3-(226) Ata Ibn Yazid Al-Laithi narrated that Humran, Uthman's freed slave reported: Uthman Ibn Affan "Allah be pleased with him" asked for some water to perform ablution. He poured water over his hands and washed them thrice. Then he rinsed his mouth, washed his

[4] The merit of performing ablution and then offering prayer after it

5-(227) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from Humran, the freed slave of Uthman: Uthman was at the courtyard of the mosque when the caller announced the call for Asr prayer. He asked for a tumbler of water to perform ablution. Then he said: "I am going to tell you a tradition which I would not have told you, had I not been compelled by a certain Holy Verse. I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "There is no Muslim person, who performs ablution perfectly and then offers the prayer, except that Allah will forgive his sins committed between that (current prayer) and the (next) prayer".

7-(228) Amr Ibn Sa'id Ibn Al-Ass narrated: I was with Uthman when he asked for water to perform ablution. Then he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "There is no Muslim person, who, at the due time of a prescribed compulsory prayer, performs ablution perfectly, and then offers such a prayer very well with humility and bowing, except that it will be expiation for his past sins, so long as he has not committed a major sin; and this is applicable for all the time".

8-(229) Humran, the freed slave of Uthman, narrated: I brought water to Uthman in order to perform ablution. When he performed ablution he said: "No doubt, there are some people, who used to tell narrations from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and indeed, I do not know what those narrations are. but, all what I know is that I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performing ablution in such a way as that of mine. Then he said: "Whoever performed ablution like that, then all his previous sins would be forgiven, and his prayer and walking to the mosque would have an extra reward".

According to the narration of Ibn Abda (Humran said): I came to Uthman and he performed ablution.

9-(230) Abu Anas narrated that Uthman performed ablution at Maqa'id (a place near the mosque) and said: "Would I not show you the ablution The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had performed?" Then, he washed (the different parts of his body) thrice. Qutaiba added in his narration: With him (Uthman) there were some Companions of Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

according to Mis'ar, a sub-narrator) prayer The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said addressing us: "I do not know whether to tell you a thing or keep silent". We said: "O Messenger of Allah! If it is good, you might tell us, otherwise, Allah and His Messenger know better". Upon this he said: "There is no Muslim, who purifies (himself) and completes purification enjoined upon him by Allah and then offers those five (compulsory) prayers, but that they will be expiations for whatever (sins committed) between them".

11-(...) Jami Ibn Shaddad narrated: I heard Humran, the freed slave of Uthman, telling Abu Burda in this mosque, during the governorship of Bishr, that Uthman said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one performed ablution as perfectly as enjoined by Allah, (and then offered the prayers), then, the compulsory prayers would be expiations for whatever (sins committed) between them".

This is the narration of Ibn Mu'adh. But as for the narration of Ghundur, it did not imply "during the governorship of Bishr", and it did not imply also the word "compulsory" for the prayers.

12-(232) Humran, the freed slave of Uthman, narrated: Once, Uthman performed ablution perfectly and then said: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performing ablution as perfect as it could be. Then he said: "He, who performed ablution as such, and then went out to the mosque, with nothing motivating him (to go out) except the prayer, then, his past sins would be forgiven for him".

13-(...) Humran, the freed slave of Uthman, narrated from Uthman Ibn Affan that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who performed ablution perfectly for the prayer and (went out and) walked to offer the obligatory prayer, and then prayed it with the people, or with a congregation or in the mosque, all his sins would be forgiven for him by Allah".

[5] The five (obligatory) prayers, (the prayer of) Friday to the next Friday, (the fasting of) Ramadan to Ramadan (of the coming year) are expiations for whatever (sins committed in the intervals) between them, so long as the major sins are not committed

14-(233) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The five (daily obligatory) prayers, and the (prayer of) Friday to the next Friday are expiations for whatever (sins committed in the intervals) between them, so long as the major sins are not committed".

[6] The preferred celebration (of Allah) one could say after ablution

17-(234) Uqba Ibn Amer narrated: We used to take care of camels by turns. On my turn, after grazing them in the pastures, and returning them in the evening, I came back and saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" standing and addressing the people. I heard from his saying: "There is no Muslim, who performs ablution perfectly, then stands and offers two Rak'as, receiving them with his heart as well as his face, but that Paradise would be obligatory to him". I said: "What a good (statement or glad news or worship) this is!"

behold! There was a man standing in front of me, saying: "the first is better". I cast a glance and saw that he (the speaker) was Umar who said: "I saw that you have just come. Indeed, he said: "There is no one from amongst you, who performs ablution perfectly, and then testifies that there is no god but Allah, and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah, but that the eight gates of Paradise would be opened for him, from whichever gate he wishes of them he would enter".

(...) The same tradition was narrated on the authority of Uqba Ibn Amer Al-Juhani from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But in this narration he (The Prophet) said: "He, who performs ablution and then says: I testify that there is no god but Allah Alone, with Whom there is no partner, and that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger".

Abdullah Ibn Zaid asked for water. He poured from it on his hands and washed them thrice, then he put his hand in the pot and took it

(...) The same was transmitted on the authority of Amr Ibn Yahya, with little change. Here he said: he rinsed his mouth and snuffed water into his nostrils and then blew it out thrice. He did not say: using one palm. After the saying: "bringing them to the front and returning with them to the back": "he started from the front of his head, to its back up to the nape of his neck and then returned with them to the very place from which he started. Then, he washed his feet".

The same was narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Yahya, with the same chain of transmission, but he said here: "He rinsed his mouth and snuffed (water into his nostrils) and cleaned his nose using three handfuls (of water)". He also said: "He passed his wet hands over his head, bringing them to the front and returning with them to the back only once".

Bahz said: Wuhaib narrated this Hadith to me. Wuhaib said: Amr Ibn Yahya narrated it to me twice.

19-(236) Abdullah Ibn Zaid Ibn Asim Al-Mazini reported that he saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performing ablution as follows: he rinsed his mouth, snuffed water into his nostrils and blew it out, and washed his face thrice. Then he washed his right hand (to the elbow) thrice, and washed his other (i.e. his left) hand (to the elbow) thrice. Then, he passed his wet hands over his head, using water other than the remaining of that with which he washed his hands. Then, he washed his feet until he cleaned them.

When we passed by (a well of) water on the way, some people were hasty to offer Asr prayer (which was overdue). They performed ablution hastily. We reached them and their heels were appearing with no water touching them. Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Save your heels from the fire! Perform ablution perfectly".

(…) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmission, but the narration of Shu'ba is void of the phrase "Perform ablution perfectly".

[11] Washing out one's sins with the ablution water

32-(244) Abu Huraira narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the Muslim (or the faithful believer) slave performs ablution: If he washed his face, then all sins he committed with his sight would be effaced from his face with the water (or with the last drop of water); if he washed his hand, then all sins he committed with his hand would be removed away from his hand with the water (or with the last water drop); if he washed his feet, then all sins to which his feet walked would be washed away from his feet with the water (or with the last water drop), until he would become pure of sins".

33-(245) Humran narrated from Uthman Ibn Affan that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who performed ablution well and perfectly, his sins would be effaced from (the different parts of) his body until they come out from beneath his nails".

[12] In performing ablution, it is desirable to imply one's forehead in washing the face, elbow and ankles in washing hands and feet

34-(246) Nu'aim Ibn Abdullah Al-Mujmir narrated: I saw Abu Huraira performing ablution. He washed his face perfectly. Then he washed his right hand and a part of the arm. Then he washed his left hand and a part of the arm. He passed his wet hands over his head. Then he washed his right foot and a portion of the leg, then his left foot and a portion of the leg. Then he commented: "This is the way I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performing ablution". Then he narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You would have your faces (including foreheads), hands and feet bright on The Day of Judgement because of the perfection of your ablution. So, whoever could, let him increase the brightness of his forehead, hand and feet (by perfecting his ablution as possible as he can)".

35-(...) Nu'aim Ibn Abdullah Al-Mujmir narrated that he saw Abu Huraira performing ablution. He washed his face and then his hands (up to his arms) until he was about to reach his shoulders. So, he, who could do, let him increase the brightness of his face, hand and feet".

36-(247) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(On The Day of Judgement) my fount would be wider than the distance between Aila and Aden, (its water)

٣٤ ـ (٢٤٦) ـ حدّثني أَبُو كُرَيْبٍ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ وَالْقَاسِمُ بْنُ زَكَرِيَّاءَ بْنِ دِينَارٍ وَعَبْدُ بْنُ حُمَيْدٍ، قَالُوا: حَدَّثَنَا خَالِدُ بْنُ مَخْلَدٍ، عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ بلال: حَدَّثَنِي عُمَارَةُ بْنُ غَزِيَّةَ الأَنْصَارِيُّ، عَنْ نُعَيْمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْمُجْمِرِ؛ قَالَ: رَأَيْتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَتَوَضَّأُ، فَغَسَلَ وَجْهَهُ فَأَسْبَغَ الْوُضُوءَ، ثُمَّ غَسَلَ يَدَهُ الْيُمْنَى حَتَّى أَشْرَعَ فِي الْعَضُدِ، ثُمَّ يَدَهُ الْيُسْرَى حَتَّى أَشْرَعَ فِي الْعَضُدِ، ثُمَّ مَسَحَ رَأْسَهُ، ثُمَّ غَسَلَ رِجْلَهُ الْيُمْنَى حَتَّى أَشْرَعَ فِي السَّاقِ، ثُمَّ غَسَلَ رِجْلَهُ الْيُسْرَى حَتَّى أَشْرَعَ فِي السَّاقِ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: هَكَذَا رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَتَوَضَّأُ. وَقَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَنْتُمُ الْغُرُّ الْمُحَجَّلُونَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مِنْ إِسْبَاغِ الْوُضُوءِ، فَمَنِ اسْتَطَاعَ مِنْكُمْ فَلْيُطِلْ غُرَّتَهُ وَتَحْجِيلَهُ».

I would (be standing at it to) prevent the (non-Muslim) people from it as well as one prevents the camels of other people from his own fount". They (the companions) asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Would you recognize us?" he replied: "Yes. Indeed, you would have certain marks, which the people of the other nations would not have. You would come to me, with your faces, hands and feet bright because of the marks of the ablution".

37-(...) Abu Hazim narrated from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(On The Day of Judgement) my nation would come to me at my fount, while I would be standing, driving away the (non-Muslim) people from it as well as one drives away the camels of another person from his own fount". They (the companions) asked: "O Prophet of Allah! Would you recognize us?" he replied: "Yes. Indeed, you would have certain signs, which the people of the other nations would not have. You would come to me, with your faces, hands and feet bright because of the marks of the ablution. But, some of you would be prevented from reaching me. I would say: "O my Lord! They are of my companions". An angel would reply to me: "Do you know what they have done after you?""

38-(248) Rib'i Ibn Hirash narrated from Hudhaifa that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(On The Day of Judgement) my fount would be much wider than the distance between Aila and Aden. By Him, in Whose hand my life is! I would be standing, driving away the people (of other nations) from it as well as one drives away the strange camels (of other men) from his own fount". They (the companions) asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Would you recognize us?" he replied: "Yes. Indeed, you would come to me, with your faces, hands and feet bright because of the marks of the ablution, i.e. a certain sign, which the people of the other nations would not have".

39-(249) Al-Ala narrated from his father from Abu Huraira: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to the graveyard and said: "Peace be upon you! The abode of the believing people and we, Allah willing, are about to join you. Would that I could see my brothers". They (the companions) asked: "Are we not your brothers, O Messenger of Allah?" He said: "You are my Companions, and our brothers are those who have not yet come into the world".

They asked: "O Messenger of Allah! How would you recognize those persons of your nation who have not yet come?" He said: "Suppose that a

He said: "They (our brothers) would come with bright faces, arms and legs because of the marks of ablution. I would be ahead of them at the Fountain. Some people would be driven away from my fount as well as a stray camel is driven away. I would address them saying: "Come! Come!" Then it would be said (to me): "Indeed, they deviated after you". I would say: "Be off! Be off!"

[13] An adornment would reach the places where ablution reaches

40-(250) Abu Hazim narrated: I was behind Abu Huraira while he was performing ablution. He used to stretch his hand until the water would reach his armpit. I said to him: "O Abu Huraira! What is this ablution?" upon this, Abu Huraira said: "Are you here o son of (the tribe of) Farukh? Had I learnt that you were here, I would not have performed such an ablution. No doubt, I heard my friend (The Messenger of Allah) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "An adornment (i.e. the light on The Day of Judgement) would reach from a believer's body the places where the ablution reaches".

[14] Performing ablution perfectly, no matter harmful it might be

41-(251) Al-Ala narrated from his father from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to his companions): "Wouldn't I guide you to that, with which Allah obliterates the sins and raises the ranks (of people)?" they said: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah". He said: "It is to perform ablution perfectly, no matter harmful it might be, to increase paces (i.e. going so much) to the mosque, and to wait the coming prayer after offering the current one; and that is the (certain) halter (of the desired obedience)".

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Al-Ala Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman, with the same chain of transmission. But, in the narration of Shu'ba, the word "halter" was not mentioned, while it was mentioned twice in the narration of Malik.

[15] The teeth cleanser stick (Siwak)

42-(252) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had I not found it hard for the believers (or my nation, according to the narration of Zuhair), I would have ordered them to use the teeth cleanser stick at every (obligatory) prayer".

43-(253) Al-Miqdam Ibn Shuraih narrated from his father: I asked A'isha: "What was the first thing The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do whenever he would enter his house?" She replied: " (It was to clean his teeth) with the teeth cleanser stick".

44-(...) Al-Miqdam Ibn Shuraih narrated from his father from A'isha that whenever The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered his house, the first thing he used to do was (to clean his teeth with) the teeth cleanser stick.

45-(254) Abu Burda narrated from Abu Musa: Once, I entered into The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", while the stick end of the teeth cleanser was on his tongue.

46-(255) Abu Wa'il narrated from Hudhaifa: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up for the night prayers, he would brush his teeth with the teeth cleanser stick.

47-(...) Abu Wa'il narrated from Hudhaifa: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up in the night, he would brush his teeth with the teeth cleanser stick.

48-(256) Ibn Abbas narrated that once he spent the night in the house of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". At the last portion of the night, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" awoke up, went out, looked up to the sky, and then recited the following Verses of the Sura of Al Imran: "Behold in the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the alternation of night and day, there are indeed Signs for men of understanding, Men who celebrate the praises of Allah, standing, sitting, and lying down on their sides, and contemplate the (wonders of) creation in the heavens and the earth, (with the thought): our Lord not for naught hast thou created (all) this glory to thee give us salvation from the penalty of the fire". (190:191)

Then, he returned home, brushed his teeth with the teeth cleanser stick, performed ablution and stood for the (night) prayers. Then he lay down (for sometime), after which he got up, went out, looked up to the sky, and recited the previous Verses. Then, he returned home, brushed his teeth with the teeth cleanser stick, performed ablution and stood and offered the (remaining of the night) prayers.

[16] The characteristics of the true tradition (of the creation)

49-(257) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated from Abu Huraira: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The characteristics of the true tradition (of creation or of Prophets) are five (or there are five characteristics of the true tradition): circumcision, shaving the pubic region, clipping the nails, depilating the armpits hair, and cutting the moustaches short".

50-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated from Abu Huraira: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The characteristics of the true tradition (of creation or of Prophets) are five: circumcision, shaving the pubic region, cutting the moustaches short, clipping the nails, and depilating the armpits hair".

51-(258) Abu Imran Al-Jawni narrated that Anas Ibn Malik said: "We have been licensed to leave cutting the mustaches short, clipping the nails, depilating the hair of the armpits and shaving the (hair of the) pubic area for no more than forty days".

52-(259) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Trim the moustaches, and let the beards grow (no more than a fist length)".

53-(...) Ibn Umar narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered to trim closely the moustaches and let the beards grow (no more than a fist length).

54-(...) Ibn Umar narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Oppose the non-believers, i.e. cut short the moustaches and let the beards grow".

55-(260) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Trim closely the moustaches and let the beards grow, i.e. oppose the Magians".

56-(261) Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair narrated from A'isha that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are ten (characteristics) of the true tradition: cutting short the moustache, letting the beard grow (no more than a fist length), (brushing the teeth with) the teeth cleanser stick, snuffing the water in the nose, clipping the nails, washing the finger joints, depilating the (hair of the) armpits, shaving the (hair of the) pubic area, and washing the privates with the water (after answering the call of nature)". [17] Cleansing oneself after answering the call of nature

57-(262) Salman narrated that it was said to him: "Your Prophet teaches you everything, even excrement". He said: "Yes. He has prevented us from facing the Qibla at the time of excretion or urination, as well as from cleansing with right hand, or with less than three pebbles, or with dung or bone".

(...) Salman narrated that (one from amongst) the unbelievers said to him: "Indeed, your companion (The Prophet) teaches you everything, to the extent that he even teaches you (how to do concerning) the excrement". He (Salman) said: "Yes. Verily, he forbade that none of us should clean his privates (after answering the call of nature) with his right hand, nor should he face the Qibla (while excreting). He also prevented using dung and bones (in cleaning one's privates), and said: "None of you should clean his private parts with less than three pebbles"".

58-(263) Jaber narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade to clean one's privates (after answering the call of nature) with bones or dung.

59-(264) Yahya Ibn Yahya narrated: I said to Sufyan Ibn Uyaina: "Did you hear Yazid Ibn Ata Al-Laithi narrating from Abu Aiyub Al-Ansari that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you goes to an open space for answering the call of nature he should neither face nor turn his back towards the Qibla; he should face either the east or the west". Abu Aiyub said: Later, we came to Sham and found there many lavatories built facing the Qibla. We turned our faces away from them and asked for Allah's pardon"? He said: Yes.

60-(265) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you sat to answer the call of nature, he should neither face, nor turn his back towards the Qibla".

61-(266) Ibn Umar said: People say: "Whenever you sit for answering the call of nature, you should not face the Qibla or Jerusalem". I told them: "Once I went up the roof of our house and I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sitting on two bricks, answering the call of nature while facing Jerusalem".

70-(271) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to enter into the privy, and I and another boy like me used to carry a pot of water and a headed stick (or short spear) for him. But, he used to cleanse his privates (after answering the call of nature) with the water.

71-(...) Anas narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (entered into the privy and) excreted, I would bring the water to him, with which he would clean his privates.

[22] Passing wet hands over the leather socks

72-(272) Hammam narrated: Once, Jarir urinated. Then he performed ablution and passed his wet hands over his leather socks. It was said to him: "Do you do so (i.e. pass wet hands over your socks instead of washing your feet)?" he said: "I saw that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" urinated, and then performed ablution, he would pass his wet hands over his leather socks".

Al-A'mash told: Ibrahim said: "This Hadith used to surprise the people, because Jarir's conversion into Islam was after the revealing of the Sura of The Repast "Al-Ma'ida"".

(...) A Hadith like that of Abu Mu'awiya was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash through another chain of transmission. But, in the narration of Isa and Sufyan it was mentioned: "The companions of Abdullah used to be astonished by this Hadith because Jarir's conversion into Islam was after revealing the Sura of The Repast "Al-Ma'ida"".

73-(273) Hudhaifa narrated: Once I went with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to the dumps of some people where he urinated while standing. I turned away, but he beckoned to me to approach him. I approached till I stood behind him. Then, he performed ablution and passed his wet hands over his socks.

74-(...) Abu Wa'il narrated that Abu Musa was extremely rigorous concerning the matter of urination. He used to urinate in a bottle, and used to say: "If the skin of anyone of the children of Israel was touched by the urine, he would file that piece of skin". Upon this, Hudhaifa said: I wished that your companion (Abu Musa) would not be rigorous to such an extreme point concerning the matter of urination. Once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I walked till we reached the dumps of some people. He stood, as any one of you stands, behind a wall and urinated. I went away, but he beckoned me to come. So I approached him and stood behind him till he finished".

75-(274) The son of Al-Mughira narrated from his father Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba that once The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out (to the open space) to answer the call of nature. Al-Mughira followed him with a pot of water. When he (The Messenger) finished, Al-Mughira poured water for him, and he (The Prophet) performed ablution and passed his wet hands over his leather socks.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id. But he (the narrator) said in this narration: He (The Prophet) washed his face, his hands, then he wiped his head and his leather socks.

76-(...) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba narrated: One night, I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he went (to the open space) and answered the call of nature. When he came back, I poured (water) for him from a pot, which was with me. He performed ablution and wiped over his leather socks.

77-(...) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba narrated: Once I was travelling with The Prophet and he said: "O Mughira! Take this container of water". I took it and Allah's Apostle went far away till he disappeared. He answered the call of nature. Then, he came back and he was wearing a Syrian cloak of tight sleeves. He tried to take out his hands from its sleeves but it was very tight. So he took out his hands from under it. I poured water for him to perform ablution for prayer. He passed his wet hands over his leather socks and then prayed.

78-(...) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out to answer the call of nature. When he returned, I received him with the container of water, from which I poured for him. He washed his face, then his hands. He tried to wash his arms, but the cloak was very tight. So, he tried to wash them from under the cloak. He washed them, wiped his head and passed his wet hands over his leather socks. Then he led us in the prayer.

79-(...) Urwa Ibn Al-Mughira narrated from his father: One night, I was in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey, when he asked me: "Do you have water?" I answered in the affirmative. He dismounted and walked until he disappeared in the darkness of the night. Then he came back and I poured water from the pot for him. He washed his face, and could not take out his arms since he was wearing a (tight) woollen cloak. So, he took them out from under it. He washed his arms, wiped his head. Then, I bent down to take off his leather socks, but he said to me: "Let them since I put on them

He performed ablution and passed his hands over his leather socks. Being asked about that by Al-Mughira, he (The Prophet) replied: "No doubt, I put on them while my feet were clean (i.e. after performing ablution)".

[23] Wiping over one's forelock and turban

81-(275) Urwa Ibn Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba narrated from his father: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" remained behind the people (during a certain journey to answer the call of nature) and I was in his company. Having relieved himself, he asked me: "Do you have water?" I brought a jug of water to him from which he washed his face and hands. When he wanted to uncover his arms (to wash them) the sleeves of his cloak were tight. So, he brought out his hands from under the cloak, and put the cloak over his shoulders. Then, he washed his arms, and wiped over his forelock, turban and leather socks.

Then, he rode his mount, and so did I. When we reached the people, they were standing for the prayer, led by Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf, who had offered the first Rak'a. When he felt the coming of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he started to return back (to enable The Prophet to lead them), but The Prophet beckoned to him (to remain in his position and continue leading the prayer). When he (Abd Ar-Rahman) finished the prayer, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I stood and prayed the Rak'a which we missed.

82-(...) Ibn Al-Mughira narrated from his father that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed his wet hands over his socks, forelock and turban.

83-(...) Ibn Al-Mughira narrated from his father that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed ablution, in which he wiped over his forelock, turban and leather socks.

84-(276) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila narrated from Ka'b Ibn Ujra from Bilal that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wiped over his leather socks and turban.

وَمَسَحَ بِرأْسِهِ، ثُمَّ أَهْوَيْتُ لأنْزِعَ خُفَّيْهِ فَقَالَ: «دَعْهُمَا، فَإِنِّي أَدْخَلْتُهُمَا طَاهِرَتَيْنِ» وَمَسَحَ عَلَيْهِمَا.

The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, in which he (the narrator) said: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and completed the narration).

[24] The period within which the wiping over the socks is allowed

85-(276) Shuraih Ibn Hani narrated: I came and asked A'isha about wiping over the leather socks. She said: "Go and ask Ali Ibn Abu Talib. Indeed, he used to accompany The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey". We asked him and he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave a three-night allowance for the traveller and a day and a night-allowance for the resident (during which he could wipe over the leather socks in performing ablution)".

(...) The like of this Hadith was narrated on the authority of Al-Hakam, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...) Shuraih Ibn Hani narrated: I came and asked A'isha about wiping over the leather socks. She said: "Go and ask Ali Ibn Abu Talib, for he knows (about that matter) better than me". Then Ali narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (the same Hadith).

[25] It is permissible to offer all the (daily obligatory) prayers with one ablution

86-(277) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father that on the day of the conquest (of Mecca), The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered all the (obligatory) prayers with one ablution. He also wiped over his socks (in ablution). Upon this Umar said to him: "Today, you made something which you have never done before". He (The Prophet) commented: "Verily, I did it intentionally O Umar" (so that the people would know that it is permissible).

[26] It is unfavorable for the ablution performer or anyone else to dip in the vessel his hand, which might probably be impure, before washing it thrice

87-(278) Abu Huraira narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone among you wakes up from sleep, he should not dip his hand in the utensil till he has washed it thrice, for he does not know where his hand was during the night".

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abu Salih from Abu Huraira. But, in the narration of Abu Mu'awiya, he said: The Messenger of

[28] It is forbidden to urinate in the stagnant water

94-(281) Jaber narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prevented urinating in the stagnant water.

95-(282) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you should urinate in the stagnant water and then wash himself from it".

96-(...) Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated: This is what Abu Huraira narrated to us from Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (He mentioned many narration, from among which is the following): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not urinate in the stagnant water and then wash yourself in it".

[29] It is forbidden to take bath in the stagnant water

97-(283) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you should take bath in the stagnant water, while being in the state of ceremonial impurity". It was said: "Then, what one should do O Abu Huraira?" upon this he said: "One should take from it (and pour over himself)".

[30] The obligation of washing off the urine or other impurities in case they existed in the mosque, and the land would be purified with the water, with no need to dig it

98-(284) Anas narrated: A Bedouin came and passed urine in (one corner of) the mosque. The people got up (and started to hurt him), but the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered them to let him (continue) and not to interrupt him. When he finished urinating, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that a bucket of water should be brought and then spilled over that place.

100-(285) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While we were in the mosque with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a Bedouin came and passed urine in one corner of the mosque. The people shouted at him, but the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered them to let him (continue) and not to disturb him. When he finished urinating, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called him and addressed him saying: "Verily, these mosques are not fitting for such urine and filthy impure things. They are made only for celebrating Allah Almighty, offering the prayers, and reciting The Holy Quran" or as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (in the same meaning). Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered a man to bring a bucket of water, which he spilled over that place (where the Bedouin urinated).

[31] What about the infant's urine (on one's garment) and how would it be washed off

101-(286) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from A'isha, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that the people used to bring their children to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in order to bless them, and put in their mouths chewed dates mixed with his (The Prophet's) saliva. Once, a child was brought and then he urinated in the lap of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Some water was brought to him, which he splashed over the traces of the urine, and he did not wash the whole garment.

Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked for water, which he sprayed over (the trace of the urine), and he did not wash the whole garment.

[32] What about the seamen

105-(288) Alqama reported that a person stayed in the house of A'isha and in the morning, he began to wash his garment. A'isha said: In case you saw it (i.e. drop of seamen), it would have served the purpose (of purifying the garment) if you had simply washed that spot; and in case you did not see it, it would have been enough to sprinkle water around it, for when I saw that on the garment of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I simply scrubbed it off and he offered the Prayer, while putting that garment on.

108-(289) Amr Ibn Maimun narrated: I asked Sulaiman Ibn Yasar about the seamen drops, which could be found in one's garment: Would he wash it off (the garment) or wash the (whole) garment? He said: A'isha told me that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to wash the seamen drops off (the garment) and then come out to offer the prayer, while putting on that garment; and the traces of the washing could be visible on it.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Maimun. As for the narration of Ibn Abu Za'ida, according to Ibn Bishr, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to wash the seamen drops off (the garment). According to the narration of Ibn Al-Mubarak and Abd Al-Wahid, she (A'isha) said: I used to wash the seamen drops off the garment of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

109-(290) Abdullah Ibn Shihab Al-Khawlani narrated: I was staying in the house of A'isha when I had a wet dream whose traces I observed on my garment. In the morning, I put my two garments in the water (to wash and purify them). A slave-girl of A'isha saw me and told A'isha, who sent to me and said: "What did lead you to do what you did in your garments?" I said: "I saw what a sleeping person sees in his dream". She asked: "Did you observe any trace (of the fluid) on them?" I answered in the negative. She said: "Had you seen any trace (of the fluid), you would have washed it. Indeed, whenever I found it (the seamen traces) dried up on the garment of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I would scrape it with my nail".

[33] The impurity of the menses, and the way of washing it off

He (the Prophet) replied: "She should scrub it ,then rub it with water, then pour water over it and then perform the Prayer in it".

(...) The same, which is like that of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, was narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwa, with the same chain of transmitters.

[34] The proof of the impurity of the urine, and the obligation of getting rid of it

111-(292) Ibn Abbas narrated: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed by two graves and said: "These two persons are being tortured not for a great sin. Indeed, one of them used to go about with calumny (to make enmity between friends), while the other never saved himself from being soiled with his urine". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then asked for a green leaf of a date-palm tree, which he broke into two pieces and put one on each grave. Then, he said: "I hope that their torture might be lessened, so long as these never get dried".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, but he said here "the other never purified himself from the urine.

(3) The Book Of Menstruation

[1] Approaching the menstruating woman above the waist-sheet

1-(293) Al-Aswad narrated from A'isha: If anyone of us (i.e. the wives of The Prophet) got her menses, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would order her to wear a waist-sheet, above which he could approach her.

2-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Aswad narrated from his father that A'isha said: If anyone of us (i.e. the wives of The Prophet) was menstruating, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would order her, though at the time the blood of the menses was flowing abundantly, to wear a waist-sheet, then (above which) he could approach her. But, who among you could have control over his desires as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had control over his desires!

3-(294) Maimuna narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to approach his wives (sexually) while they were menstruating.

[2] Lying with the menstruating woman under a single quilt

4-(295) Maimuna, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to lie with me while I was menstruating, with a mantle between me and him.

5-(296) Zainab Bint Abu Salama narrated that Umm Salama told her: While I was lying with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" under a single woollen sheet, I got the menses. I slipped away and put on the clothes for menses. He said: "Have you got menses?" I replied: "Yes". He then called me and made me lie with him under the same sheet.

She (Umm Salama) further said that she and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take their bath (to purify themselves) from ceremonial impurity from the same container of water.

[3] It is permissible for the menstruating woman to wash and comb the head of her husband, and her leftover is clean, and it is permissible for him to recline in her lap and recite the Quran

6-(297) Amra narrated that A'isha said: Whenever The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in the mosque in seclusion, he would approach his head to me so that I could comb it. On the other hand, he used

Moreover, I would eat flesh from a bone while I was in a state of menstruation, then I would give it to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who would put his mouth where mine had been. Zuhair made no mention of (the Prophet's) drinking.

15-(301) A'isha narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recline on my lap while I was in a state of menstruation, and recite The Holy Quran.

16-(302) Thabit narrated from Anas: Among the Jews, when a woman menstruated, they did neither have food, nor did they live with them in their houses. So the Companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and Allah, the Exalted revealed: "They ask thee concerning women's courses. Say: they are a hurt and pollution, so keep away from women in their courses, and do not approach them until they are clean. But when they have purified themselves, ye may approach them in any manner, time, or place ordained for you by Allah. For Allah loves those who turn to him constantly and he loves those who keep themselves pure and clean". (The Heifer "Al-Baqara" 222)

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do everything except sexual intercourse". Learnt that, The Jews said: "This man wants to leave nothing we do but that he would oppose us in it". Usaid Ibn Hudair and Abbad Ibn Bishr came and said: "O Messenger of Allah! The Jews say such-and-such a thing, and such-and-such a thing. Shouldn't we approach them (in contradiction to what the Jews do)?" The face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed so much that we thought he became angry with them. But when they went out, they received a gift of milk sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (The Prophet) invited and had them drink. In this way, we knew that he was not angry with them.

[4] What about the urethral discharge

17-(303) Ali Ibn Abu Talib told: I used to get the pre-seamen urethral discharge frequently. I used to feel ashamed to ask The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in view of (my being the husband of) his daughter. So I requested Al-Miqdad Ibn Al-Aswad to ask The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it. Al-Miqdad asked him and he replied: "One has to wash his penis and then perform ablution (after it)".

ثُمَّ أُنَاوِلُهُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ، فَيَضَعُ فَاهُ عَلَى مَوْضِعِ فِيَّ، فَيَشْرَبُ، وَأَتَعَرَّقُ الْعَرْقَ وَأَنَا حَائِضٌ، ثُمَّ أُنَاوِلُهُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ، فَيَضَعُ فَاهُ عَلَى مَوْضِعِ فِيَّ.

18-(...) Ali narrated: I felt shy to ask The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the pre-seamen urethral fluid in view of the position of Fatima (The Prophet's daughter) from me (as being my wife). So, I requested Al-Miqdad to ask him. He asked him, and The Prophet said: "One should perform ablution after it".

19-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated: Ali Ibn Abu Talib said: We sent Al-Miqdad Ibn Al-Aswad to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to ask him about the pre-seamen urethral fluid: "What should one do with it?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "You should perform ablution, and wash your penis".

[5] Washing one's face and hands after waking up from sleep

20-(304) Ibn Abbas narrated that once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" awoke up from his sleep in the night. He answered the call of nature, washed his face and hands, and then slept once again.

[6] It is permissible to sleep while being in a state of ceremonial impurity, and it is favorable (for such a person) to perform ablution and wash his penis, if he wanted to eat, drink, sleep or have sexual intercourse (with his wife)

21-(305) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from A'isha that Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wanted to sleep while being in a state of ceremonial impurity, he would perform ablution (like that offered) for the prayer before sleeping.

22-(...) Al-Aswad narrated that A'isha said: If The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in a state of ceremonial impurity and wanted to eat or sleep, he would perform ablution (like that offered) for the prayer.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters.

23-(306) Ibn Umar narrated that Umar asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Could one sleep while being in a state of ceremonial impurity?" he (The Prophet) replied: "Yes, if he performed ablution (before sleeping)".

24-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that Umar asked for the religious verdict of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", saying: "Could anyone of us sleep while being in a state of ceremonial impurity?" he (The Prophet) replied: "Yes, but, let him perform ablution and then sleep until he takes a bath whenever he likes".

[7] It is obligatory for the woman to take a bath in case she experienced orgasm or a wet dream

29-(310) Anas narrated: Umm Sulaim (the grandmother of Ishaq) came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and A'isha was with him. She (Umm Sulaim) said: "O Messenger of Allah! A woman could see in a dream what man sees in a dream, and could experience what he experiences (concerning orgasm) (Then, what should she do)?" upon this A'isha said to her: "O Umm Sulaim! You have scandalized women, may your right hand be covered with dust!" he (The Prophet) said (to A'isha): "It is you, whose right hand might be covered with dust!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "Let her! Does the resemblance (between the children and their parents) come except from such a thing? If the woman's reproductive substance (genes and chromosomes) prevailed that of the man, the child would resemble his maternal uncles; and if the man's reproductive substance (genes and chromosomes) prevailed that of the woman, the child would resemble his paternal uncles".

[8] The constitution of the reproductive substance of both man and woman, and the fact that the child is created from them

34-(315) Thawban, the freed slave of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: I was standing beside the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a Jewish rabbi came and said: "Peace be upon you O Muhammad". I pushed him so violently that I was about to knock him down. He asked me: "Why did you push me?" I said to him: "Wouldn't you call (The Prophet): O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "I call him with the name his family named him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "My name is Muhammad, which is the name my family named me with". The Jew said: "I came to ask you (about something)". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If I talked to you (with what you wanted) would it benefit you?" He said: "Let me (first) hear with my ear (so as to decide whether it would benefit me)".

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" scraped a stick he had (in the land) and said: "Ask about whatever you liked". The Jew asked: "Where would the people be on the day when the earth would be changed with another earth and so would be the heavens?" he (The Prophet) said: "They would be in the darkness, before the bridge". He asked: "Who of the people would cross first?" he (The Prophet) said: "The poor people of the Emigrants".

The Jew asked: "What would they be gifted (to eat) just after they enter into Paradise?" he (The Prophet) replied: "The extra lope of a fish's liver". He asked: "Then, what would their food (or lunch) be following that?" he said: "An ox of Paradise, which used to eat from its quarters, would be slaughtered for them". He (the Jew) asked: "What would their drink on it be?" he (The Prophet) said: "They would drink from a well in it (Paradise) called Salsabil". He (the Jew) commented: "You have told the truth".

(He resumed) "Furthermore, I came to ask you about something, which none of the people of the earth knows except for a Prophet, or a man or two men". He (The Prophet) said: "If I told you (what you wanted) would it benefit you?" he (the Jew) said: "I came to ask you about the child: (from which thing it is created)". He (The Prophet) said: "A man's reproductive substance is white, while that of a woman (i.e. the ovum central part) is yellow. When both come together (after sexual intercourse): then, if the reproductive substance (genes and chromosomes) of a man prevailed over that of a woman, it (the child) would be a male (Allah willing); and if the reproductive substance of a woman prevailed over that of a man, it would be female (Allah willing)".

Upon this, the Jew said: "You have told the truth; and verily, you are a Prophet". Then, he went away. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "This (man) asked me about such-and-such a thing which he asked me about, of which I had no knowledge, until Allah inspired me".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Mu'awiya Ibn Salam, with the same chain of transmitters. But here, the narrator said: I was sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". And he (The Prophet) said, according to that narration: "The caudate lope of a fish's liver".

[9] The way of taking bath from the ceremonial impurity

35-(316) A'isha narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a bath to get rid of the state of ceremonial impurity (as a result of sexual intercourse), he would first wash his hands: he would then pour water with his right hand on his left hand and wash his private parts. He then would perform ablution like that offered for the Prayer. He would then take some water and put his fingers and move them through the roots of his hair. Whenever he found that they had been fully moistened, he would pour three handfuls (of water) on his head, then pour water over his body and then wash his feet.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters, but there is no mention of washing the feet in their narrations.

36-(...) Hisham narrated from his father from A'isha that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a bath (to get rid) of the state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse). He started with washing his hands thrice. (Then, he mentioned the same Hadith of Abu Mu'awiya, and he did not mentioned washing the feet).

(...) Hisham narrated that Urwa told him that A'isha reported that whenever The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to take a bath (to purify himself) from the state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse), he would start with washing his hands thrice before dipping them in the vessel. Then, he would perform ablution like that offered for the prayer.

37-(317) Ibn Abbas narrated: My aunt Maimuna told me: I placed water near the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to take a bath (to get rid) of the state of ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse). He washed both palms twice or thrice and then put his hand in the basin, poured water over his private parts and washed them with his left hand. He then struck his hand against the earth and rubbed it powerfully. Then he performed ablution (like that offered) for the Prayer and then poured three handfuls of water on his head and then washed his whole body. Then, he moved aside from that place and washed his feet. I brought a towel (so as to dry his body), but he returned it.

(...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Waki and Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters. But, in their narration, there is no mention of "Pouring three handfuls of water on the head". In the narration of Waki, he described the ablution in detail, implying both rinsing and snuffing. In the narration of Abu Mu'awiya, there is no mention of the towel.

38-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated from Maimuna that once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was given a towel (so as to wipe his body), which he did not touch. But, he pointed with the water "As such" i.e. shaking (the water) off it.

39-(318) A'isha narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took the bath of ceremonial impurity he would ask for a vessel, from which he would take a handful (of water) and (first) wash the right side of his head and then the left side of it. Then, he would take a handful (of water) and pour it over his head.

[10] The quantity of water preferred for taking the bath of ceremonial impurity, and the fact that the man and his wife could take bath (of ceremonial impurity) from one basin at the same time, and that one of them could take bath with the remaining water of the other

40-(319) A'isha reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take bath of ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse) from a single pot called Faraq (equal to three Sa's).

41-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take a bath from a vessel (of water) called Faraq (equal to three Sa's). he and I used to take bath in (or from, according to the narration of Sufyan) a single pot. Sufyan said that a Faraq is equal to three Sa's.

42-(320) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated: I went to A'isha along with her foster-brother who asked her about the bath of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse). She called for a vessel equal to a Sa and took a bath, with a curtain between her and us. She poured water on her head thrice. He (the narrator) said: The wives of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take from (the hair of) their heads until it reached up to their earlobes.

43-(321) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that A'isha said: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a bath to get rid of the state of ceremonial impurity (as a result of sexual intercourse), he would start with his right hand, which he would wash. Then, he would pour water with his right hand on his privates, which he would wash with his left hand. When he finished, he would pour water on his head. A'isha further said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I used to take bath from a single pot (of water) while we were in the state of ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse).

44-(...) Hafsa Bint Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr (who was the wife of Al-Mundher Ibn Az-Zubair) reported that A'isha told her that she and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take bath in a single basin, equal to three Mudds (a Mudd is equal to two pounds) or similar to that 45-(...) Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad narrated that A'isha said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I used to take bath (to get rid) of the state of ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse) from a single basin, with our hands moving in it.

46-(...) A'isha narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I used to take bath (and they were in the state of ceremonial impurity because of sexual intercourse) from a single basin between us. He would precede me (in washing himself) to the extent that I would say to him: "Let (some water) for me! Let (some water) for me!"

56-(328) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated that once the delegate of Thaqif asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about bathing: "Our land is of cold atmosphere, then, how could we take bath?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for me, I always pour three (handfuls of water) on my head".

Ibn Salim added in his narration that the delegate of Thaqif said: "O Messenger of Allah!"

57-(329) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a bath (to get rid) of ceremonial impurity, he would pour three handfuls of water on his head.

Al-Hasan Ibn Muhammad said to him: But, I have much hair. Jaber replied: Verily The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had much more and better hair than you.

[12] What about the braids of the one who is bathing

58-(330) Umm Salama narrated: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I always braid my hair, would I unloose them whenever I wanted to take a bath of ceremonial impurity?" he (The Prophet) replied: "No! but, it is sufficient for you to put three handfuls (of water) on your head, and then pour the water on your body so as to become clean".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Aiyub Ibn Musa, with the same chain of transmission. In the narration of Abd Ar-Razzaq, she said: "Would I unloose it (to take bath and have myself clean) from both menses and ceremonial impurity?" he (The Prophet) said: "No!" (and then he mentioned the Hadith, which is like that of Ibn Uyaina).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Aiyub Ibn Musa, with the same chain of transmitters, and here she (Umm Salama) said: "Would I unloose it so as to wash it (while taking bath to get clean) from the ceremonial impurity?" he did not mention the menses.

59-(331) Ubaid Ibn Umair narrated that A'isha was informed that Abdullah Ibn Amr ordered the women to undo their (braids of hair on their) heads whenever they intended to take bath. So she exclaimed: How strange Ibn Amr is that he orders the women to undo the braids of their heads while taking bath. Why doesn't he order them also to get their heads shaved? I and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take bath from one pot. I used to do no more than pouring three handfuls of water over my head.

[13] It is desirable for the one bathing from menses to apply a piece of cotton (or clothing) with musk to the trace of the blood

60-(332) A'isha narrated: A woman asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" how to wash herself from menses. She mentioned that he taught her how to take bath and then told her to take a piece of cotton (or clothing) with musk and purify herself.

She asked: "How should I purify myself with that?" He (the Prophet) said: "purify yourself with it. Glory be to Allah!" Then, he turned his face away. (Sufyan Ibn Uyaina gestured to us by covering his face, the same as the Prophet had done). A'isha resumed: I drew her to me, since I understood what the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended. Then, I said to her: "Apply this piece of cotton (or clothing) with musk to the trace of blood".

(...) A'isha narrated that a woman asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "How would I take a bath to get clean (from menses)?" he said: "Take a piece of cotton (or clothing) with musk and purify yourself with it". (Then, he mentioned the Hadith, which is like that narrated by Sufyan).

61-(...) A'isha narrated: Asma (daughter of Shakal) asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" how to take a bath to get clean from menses. He said: "Let anyone of you use water mixed with (the leaves of) the lote tree and purify herself well. Then she should pour water on her head and rub it strongly till it reaches the roots of the hair. Then she should pour water on it. She should take a piece of cotton (or clothing) with musk and purify herself with it".

Asma asked: "How should she purify herself with it?" He (The Prophet) said: "Glory be to Allah! She should purify herself". A'isha said in a low tone that she should apply it to the trace of blood. She (Asma) then further asked about bathing from ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse). He (The Prophet) said: "She should take water and purify herself well or complete the ablution. Then (she should pour water) on her head and rub it till it reaches the roots of the hair. Then she should pour water on her". A'isha said: "What good women those of Ansar are that their shyness does not prevent them from getting religious knowledge".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmission, and said (that The Prophet had said): "Glory be to Allah! Purify yourself with it" and then he covered his face (because of shyness).

[14] What about the woman of persistent bleeding from uterus, concerning her bathing and prayer

62-(333) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from A'isha: Fatima Bint "daughter of" Abu Hubaish came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I get persistent bleeding from the uterus and do not become clean. Shall I give up my prayers?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "No, because it is from a blood vessel and not the menses. So when your real menses begins give up your prayers and when it finishes wash the blood off yourself (by taking a bath) and offer your prayers".

(…) The same Hadith with its chain of transmitters was narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwa, which is like that of Waki. But, in the narration of Qutaiba from Jarir, she (A'isha) said: Fatima Bint Abu Hubaish Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Asad, a woman from us, came. In the narration of Hammad Ibn Zaid, there is an addition, which we gave up mentioning it. (It is his (The Prophet's) saying: "and perform ablution" after his saying: "wash the blood off yourself". It seemed that Muslim did not mention it because it was narrated by Hammad solely).

63-(334) Urwa narrated that A'isha told: Once, Umm Habiba Bint Jahsh asked for the religious verdict of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I get persistent bleeding from the uterus and do not become clean. (What would I do concerning the prayers?)" upon this, The Messenger of Allah said: "It is from a blood vessel and not the menses. So, you should take a bath and then perform the prayers". She used to take a bath at the time of every (obligatory) prayer.

Al-Laith Ibn Sa'd commented: Ibn Shihab did not mention that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had ordered Umm Habiba to take a bath at the time of every (obligatory) prayer. But, it was something she did optionally and voluntarily. Ibn Rumh said in his narration: Bint Jahsh, and did not say Umm Habiba.

A'isha asked her: "Are you from (the village of) Harura? Anyone of us would get her menses during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but did he order us to compensate for them (the prayers missed during the menses)?" Muhammad Ibn Ja'far (a sub-narrator) said: She meant to perform them.

69-(...) Mu'adha narrated: I asked A'isha: "Why does a woman observe the fasts (abandoned during the period of menses) and does not offer the prayers (she missed during such a period)?" A'isha asked her: "Are you from Harura?" she said: "No, I'm not from Harura. But I just inquire (about the matter)". Upon this A'isha said: "We used to get menses, and we used to be ordered to observe the fasts (missed during the period of menses) and not to offer the prayers (abandoned during such a period)".

Itban asked: "O Messenger of Allah! What would a man do if he became in a hurry (and departed from his wife) and did not emit seamen?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, the water (of bathing) is obligatory for orgasm".

81-(...) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, the water (of bathing) is obligatory for orgasm".

82-(344) Abu Al-ala Ibn Ash-Shikhkhir narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used (sometimes) to abrogate some of his narrations, one by another, as well as The Holy Quran abrogated a part of it by another.

83-(345) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed by (the house of) a man from Ansar, for whom he sent. The man came out (so hastily that) sweat was dribbling from his head. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Perhaps we put you to haste (to the extent that you departed from your wife hurriedly before orgasm)?" the man answered in the affirmative. Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you were put to haste or seamen was not emitted, then there would be no bathing obligatory for you, but you have to perform ablution".

84-(346) Ubai Ibn Ka'b narrated: I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the man, who (sometimes) has sexual intercourse with his wife but without emitting seamen. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He should wash the secretion he got from the woman and then perform ablution and offer the prayer".

85-(...) Ubai Ibn Ka'b narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" concerning the man who has sexual intercourse with his wife but without emitting seamen: "He should wash his penis and then perform ablution".

86-(347) Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani narrated that he asked Uthman: "What would a man do if he had sexual intercourse with his wife and did not emit semen?" he said: "He should perform ablution like that offered for the prayer, and wash his penis". Uthman resumed: "I heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"".

[22] Abrogating (the prophet's saying) "The water (of bathing) is obligatory only for orgasm" and the fact that bathing is obligatory in case the two male and female organs contact each other

87-(348) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If he sat between her four parts (and had sexual intercourse with her), bathing would be obligatory for both (even if seamen was not emitted", as in the narration of Matar).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba from Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters. But in the narration of Shu'ba he said: "and had sexual intercourse with her" and he did not mention "even if seamen was not emitted".

88-(349) Abu Burda narrated from Abu Musa: Some people from the Emigrants and the Ansar differed about this matter (of the obligation of bathing because of sexual intercourse even without orgasm). The Ansar said: "Bathing is not obligatory unless there is ejaculation or orgasm". But the Emigrants said: "Bathing is obligatory even if the two male and female organs contact each other". Abu Musa said: "I would satisfy you concerning this matter". I got up and asked permission to enter into A'isha, and I was admitted. I said to her: "O mother! (or O Mother of The Believers)! I want to ask you about something because of which I feel shy before you". She said: "Do not feel shy to ask me about anything about which you would ask your mother who begot you, for I'm your mother".

Upon this, I said: "What would cause bathing to be obligatory?" she said: "You happened to find such an expert (as me who knows well the matter). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If he sat between her four parts and he entered his male organ into hers, then bathing would become obligatory (for both even if seamen was not emitted)".

89-(350) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated from Umm Kolthoom from A'isha that once a man asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If a man had sexual intercourse with his wife and did not emit seamen, would bathing be obligatory for both?" A'isha was sitting when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "(Sometimes) I and this (lady) do that, after which we both take bath".

He said: "I'm performing ablution because of (the traces of) some pieces of dried butter I ate, for I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Performing ablution is necessary when eating something touched (and cooked) with fire".

(353) Ibn Shihab narrated that Sa'id Ibn Khalid Ibn Amr Ibn Uthman told me, while I was relating this Hadith to him, that he asked Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair about the obligation of performing ablution because of eating anything cooked with fire, and Urwa said that he heard A'isha, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", saying that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Perform ablution after eating anything touched (and cooked) with fire".

(356) Maimuna, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated that once The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ate in her house a (cooked meat of a) shoulder (of a goat), and did not repeat the ablution (when he offered the prayer).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Maimuna.

94-(357) Abu Rafi narrated: I testify that I (sometimes) used to roast a goat's liver and contents to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from which he ate and did not repeat the ablution (when he offered the prayer).

95-(358) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah narrated from Ibn Abbas that once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" drank some milk, and then he asked for water with which he rinsed his mouth and said: "Indeed, it (the milk) has fat".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab with the transmission of Uqail from Az-Zuhri.

96-(359) Ibn Abbas narrated that once The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" put on his garment and then went out for the prayer. Then, he was given a gift containing bread and meat, from which he took three morsels. Then, he led the people in the prayer, without (repeating the ablution and even) touching the water.

Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Ata reported: I was with Ibn Abbas (and mentioned the narration which is like that of Ibn Halhala, according to which, he said that Ibn Abbas witnessed that act from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (Ibn Abbas) also said in this narration that he (The Prophet) "offered the prayer", and did not mention the phrase "with the people").

[25] Performing ablution after eating the meat of camels

97-(360) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated that a man asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Should I perform ablution after eating the meat of goats?" The Messenger of Allah said: "If you wanted, you could perform ablution, and if you wanted, you would not perform ablution". He asked once again: "Should I perform ablution after eating the meat of camels?" he (The Prophet) replied: "Yes, you should perform ablution after eating the meat of camels". The man asked: "Could I offer the prayer in the folds of sheep?" he (The Prophet) said: "Yes, you could do". The man asked again: "Could I offer the prayer in the kneeling places of camels?" he (The Prophet) said: "No, you could not do".

٢٨ ـ باب التيمم

١٠٨ ـ (٣٦٧) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ، قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَى مَالِكٍ: عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ الْقَاسِمِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، أَنَّهَا قَالَتْ: خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي بَعْضِ أَسْفَارِهِ، حَتَّى إِذَا كُنَّا بِالْبَيْدَاءِ أَوْ بِذَاتِ الْجَيْشِ انْقَطَعَ عِقْدٌ لِي، فَأَقَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَى الْتِمَاسِهِ، وَأَقَامَ النَّاسُ مَعَهُ وَلَيْسُوا عَلَى مَاءٍ، وَلَيْسَ مَعَهُمْ مَاءٌ، فَأَتَى النَّاسُ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ فَقَالُوا: أَلا تَرَى إِلَى مَا صَنَعَتْ عَائِشَةُ؟ أَقَامَتْ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَبِالنَّاسِ مَعَهُ، وَلَيْسُوا عَلَى مَاءٍ، وَلَيْسَ

water with them". Abu Bakr came while Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sleeping with his head on my thigh. He said to me: "You have detained Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the people where there is no water and they have no water with them".

A'isha further added: So he admonished me, said what Allah wished him to say, and hit me on my flank with his hand. Nothing prevented me from moving (as a result of pain) but the position of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on my thigh. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up when dawn broke and there was no water. So Allah revealed the Divine Verse of Tayammum. Accordingly, they all performed Tayammum. Usaid Ibn Hudair said: "O the family of Abu Bakr! This is not the first blessing of yours". A'isha further said: Then the camel on which I was riding was caused to move from its place and the necklace was found beneath it.

109-(...) A'isha narrated: I borrowed a necklace from Asma and it was lost. So Allah's Apostle sent some men in search for it. Then the time of the prayer became due when there was no water. They prayed (without ablution) and complained to Allah's Apostle of it. So the verse of Tayammum was revealed". Usaid Ibn Hudair said to A'isha: "May Allah reward you! By Allah, whenever anything happened which you disliked, Allah brought in it good for you and for the Muslims".

110-(368) Shaqiq Ibn Salama narrated: I was sitting down with Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) and Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari when the latter asked the former: "If a person becomes in the state of ceremonial impurity and does not find water for one month, can he perform Tayammum and offer his prayer? "He replied in the negative. Abu Musa said: "What do you say about this verse from The Sura of Al-Ma'ida: "But if ye are ill, or on a journey, or one of you cometh from offices of nature, or ye have been in contact with women, and ye find no water, then take for yourselves clean sands or earth, and rub therewith your faces and hands. Allah doth not wish to place you in a difficulty, but to make you clean, and to complete his favour to you, that ye may be grateful" (Al-Ma'ida 6)? Abdullah replied: "If we allowed it, then they would probably perform Tayammum with clean earth, even though water was available but cold".

Abu Musa said: "Haven't you heard the statement of Ammar? He said: I was sent out by Allah's Apostle for some job and I became in the state of ritual impurity. I could not find water so I rolled myself over the dust (clean earth) like an animal does. When I told the Prophet of that he said: "Like this would have been sufficient. " The Prophet (while saying so) lightly struck the earth with his hand once, then passed his (left) hand over the back of his right hand and then wiped his palms and face". So Abdullah said to Abu Musa: "Don't you know that Umar was not satisfied with Ammar's statement?"

111-(...) Shaqiq Ibn Salama narrated: Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari said to Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud (and he mentioned the Hadith in full, which is like that narrated by Abu Mu'awiya. But he said in this narration that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Like this would have been sufficient". The Prophet (while saying so) lightly struck the earth with his hand once and blew it off, then he wiped his face and hands).

112-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abza reported: A man came to Umar Ibn Al-Khattab and said: "I became in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse); and I had no water (to take a bath and perform ablution)". Umar said to him: "Then do not offer the prayer (until you find water to take a bath and perform ablution)". Upon this, Ammar Ibn Yaser said to Umar Ibn Al-Khattab: "Do you remember, O Commander of The Believers, that you and I were together on a journey and we became in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse) and we had no water; and you didn't pray but I rolled myself on the ground and prayed? Then (when I informed The Prophet) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It would have been sufficient for you to strike the earth with your hand once and blow it off, then wipe your face and hands"?" Umar said to Ammar: "Fear Allah O Ammar (and keep silent for perhaps you forgot because I was with you and did hear nothing of it)". Ammar replied: "If you like, I would not tell anyone of it".

The same was narrated by Al-Hakam, with the same chain of transmitters, but here he (Umar) said in the end: "We would make you responsible for what you said".

113-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abza narrated from his father that once a man came to Umar and said to him: "I became in a state of ceremonial impurity and had no water (to take bath or perform ablution) (and he mentioned the remaining of the Hadith, and told in the end that Ammar had said: "O Commander of The Believers! If you like, for the right Allah Almighty has made for you upon me, I would tell no one of it").

peace be upon him" came from the direction of Bir-Jamal. A man met him as greeting. But he did not reply till he went to a (mud) wall and smeared his hands and face with its dust (as performing Tayammum) and then returned back the greeting.

115-(370) Nafi, the freed slave of Ibn Umar, narrated from Ibn Umar that once, a man passed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was urinating. The man greeted him, but he (The Prophet) did not return back the greeting.

[29] The proof that the Muslim never becomes impure

(371) Abu Huraira narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came beside me in one of the streets of Medina and at that time I was in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse). So I slipped away from him and went to take a bath. Sometime later, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked for me and did not find me. (On my return) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abu Huraira! Where have you been?" I replied: "I was in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse), so I disliked to sit in your company". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Glory be to Allah! A Muslim never gets impure".

116-(372) Abu Wa'il narrated from Hudhaifa that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met him while he (Hudhaifa) was in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse). So, he turned away from him and went and took a bath. When he returned he said (to The Prophet): "I was in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse)". Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "Verily, a Muslim never gets impure".

[30] Celebrating Allah Almighty while being in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse) or in any state else

117-(373) Urwa narrated from A'isha that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to celebrate Allah at any time (and in any state he was).

[31] It is permissible for the one who broke his ablution to eat without performing ablution, since there is no revulsion in it, and it is not obligatory for him to perform ablution immediately (after breaking it)

118-(374) Ibn Abbas narrated that once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out of a privy and then food was brought to him. When they (the companions) mentioned ablution to him, he said: "Would I intend to offer the prayer now so that I would perform ablution?"

119-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated: We were in the house of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who came out of a privy and then food was brought to him. They (the companions) said to him: "Shouldn't you perform ablution?" He said: "Why? Am I going to offer the prayer now so that I would perform ablution?"

120-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abbas narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to a privy (to answer the call of nature). When he returned, food was brought to him. They (the companions) said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Shouldn't you perform ablution?" He said: "Why? Am I going to offer the prayer now to perform ablution?"

121-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated that once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answered the call of nature, then the food was served to him, from which he ate without (performing ablution and even) touching water. Amr Ibn Dinar added from Sa'id Ibn Huwairith that he (The Prophet) was asked: "Wouldn't you perform ablution?" he replied: "I don't intend to pray now to perform ablution".

[32] What one says if he intends to enter into the privy

122-(375) Anas narrated that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to enter the privy (or the lavatory, according to the narration of Hushaim), he used to say: "O Allah! I seek refuge with you from devils and evil spirits".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Aziz, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he (The Prophet) said: "I seek refuge with Allah from devils and evil spirits".

[33] The proof that one's dozing while sitting does not break ablution

123-(376) Anas narrated: Once, the prayer was established while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was speaking privately to somebody until the people slumbered (while sitting).

124-(...) Anas narrated: Once, the prayer was established while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was speaking privately to somebody. He kept talking to him privately until his companions slumbered (while sitting). Then, (after finishing the talk) he came and led them in the prayer.

(4) The Book Of Prayer

[1] The beginning of (the emergence of) the call for prayer

1-(377) Nafi, the freed slave of Ibn Umar, narrated that Abdullah Ibn Umar said: When the Muslims arrived in Medina, they used to assemble for the prayer (i.e. they used to guess the time for it). During those days, the practice of Adhan for the prayers had not been introduced yet. Once they discussed this problem regarding the call for prayer. Some people suggested using a bell like the Christians, others proposed a trumpet like the horn used by the Jews, but Umar was the first to suggest: "Might not you order a man to call for the prayer!" so Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Bilal! Get up and call for the prayer".

[2] The order to repeat the wording of the call for prayer (Adhan) twice, and recite the call for prayer establishment (Iqama) once

2-(378) Anas narrated: Bilal was ordered (by The Prophet) to repeat the wording of the call for prayer (Adhan) twice, and pronounce the wording of the call for prayer establishment (Iqama) once.

Yahya added: I (the narrator) mentioned this to Abu Aiyub, who commented: "Except for the phrase: "The prayer has been established"" (which is to be repeated twice).

3-(...) Anas narrated: They (the Muslims) talked about (the possibility of) discriminating the prayer times with something they know. They talked about (the possibility of) setting fire or ringing a bill. However, Bilal was ordered to repeat the wording of the Adhan for prayers twice, and to pronounce the wording of establishing prayer (Iqama) once.

4-(...) The same was narrated by Khalid Al-Hadhdha with the same chain of transmitters, with the beginning: When they (the Muslims) grew more, they discussed the possibility of discriminating (the time of the prayer) (and mentioned the remaining of the narration).

5-(...) Anas narrated: Bilal was ordered (by The Prophet) to repeat the wording of the call for prayer (Adhan) twice, and pronounce the wording of the call for prayer establishment (Iqama) once.

[3] The way of pronouncing the Adhan

6-(379) Abdullah Ibn Muhairiz narrated from Abu Mahdhura that The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" taught him (the wording of) Adhan as follows: "Allah is greater! Allah is greater! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I

I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that Muhammad Is The Messenger of Allah! I testify that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah! Come to the prayer! (twice) Come to success! (twice). (Ishaq added): Allah is greater! Allah is greater! there is no god but Allah".

[4] It is desirable to have two callers of the prayer for a mosque

7-(380) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had two callers for the prayer: Bilal and (Abdullah) Ibn Umm Maktum, the blind.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-Qasim from A'isha.

[5] It is permissible for a blind man to pronounce the call for the prayer in case he has a sighted person with him

8-(381) Hisham narrated from his father from A'isha: Ibn Umm Maktum, and he was blind, used to pronounce the call of the prayers for The Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters.

[6] Refraining from attacking the people in the homeland of unbelief on hearing the Adhan from them

9-(382) Anas Ibn Malik reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to attack the enemy at the time of dawn. He used to listen to Adhan: If he heard an Adhan, he would stop, otherwise he would attack it. Once on hearing a man saying: "Allah is greater! Allah is greater!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "He is following the true religion (of Islam)". Then on hearing him saying: "I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that there is no god but Allah!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You came out of the (Hell) Fire". Looked at him, they found that he was a goat shepherd.

[7] It is desirable to repeat whatever the Mu'adhdhin says, on hearing him, and then invoke for Allah's blessing and peace upon The Prophet, and ask Allah to give him the access (of intercession)

10-(383) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you heard the call (for prayer) you should say what the Mu'adhdhin says".

نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَّمَهُ هٰذَا الأَذَانَ: «اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ. أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لا إِلَٰهَ إِلا اللَّهُ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لا إِلَٰهَ إِلا اللَّهُ. أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ». ثُمَّ يَعُودُ فَيَقُولُ: أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لا إِلَٰهَ إِلا اللَّهُ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لا إِلَٰهَ إِلا اللَّهُ. أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ. حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلاةِ، مَرَّتَيْنِ، حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلاحِ، مَرَّتَيْنِ. زَادَ إِسْحَاقُ «اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، لا إِلَٰهَ إِلا اللَّهُ».

[البخاري: كتاب الأذان، باب ما يقول إذا سمع المنادي، رقم: ٦١١].

11-(384) Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Ass narrated that he heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If you heard the call (for prayer) then you should say what the Mu'adhdhin says, and then invoke for Allah's blessing and peace upon me. Indeed, he, who invoked for Allah's blessing and peace upon me once, Allah would bless him ten times. Then, you should ask Allah to give me the access (of intercession). Verily, it is a (high) position in Paradise, which none except one of Allah's slaves would get, and I hope I would be that slave. He, who asked Allah to give me the access of intercession, then my intercession would be obligatory for him".

12-(385) Hafs Ibn Asim Ibn Umar Ibn Al-Khattab narrated from his father from his grandfather Umar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the Mu'adhdhin said: "Allah is greater, Allah is greater" and anyone of you responded to him saying: "Allah is greater, Allah is greater" then he (the Mu'adhdhin) said: "I testify that there is no god but Allah", and he responded to him saying: "I testify that there is no god but Allah", then he (the Mu'adhdhin) said: "I testify that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah", and he responded to him saying: "I testify that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah", then he (the Mu'adhdhin) said: "Come to the prayer", and he responded to him saying: "There is neither might nor power except with Allah", and he (the Mu'adhdhin) said: "Come to success", and he responded to him saying: "There is neither might nor power except with Allah", then he (the Mu'adhdhin) said: "Allah is greater, Allah is greater", and he responded to him saying: "Allah is greater, Allah is greater", and then he (the Mu'adhdhin) said: "There is no god but Allah", and he responded to him saying: "There is no god but Allah", (and in all of that he responded to the Mu'adhdhin) from his heart, he would be admitted in Paradise".

13-(386) Amer Ibn Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas narrated from his father Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who said, on hearing the Mu'adhdhin: "I testify that there is no god but Allah, The One and Only, with Whom there is no partner, and that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger; I accepted Allah as (my) Lord, Muhammad as (my) Prophet, and Islam as (my) religion", then all his sins would be forgiven for him".

Ibn Rumh said in his narration: "And I testify", but Qutaiba did not mention "and I" in his narration.

[8] The merit of the call for prayer, and Satan's flight on hearing it

14-(387) Yahya narrated from his uncle that he was sitting with Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan, when the Mu'adhdhin called for the prayer. Mu'awiya said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The callers for prayers would have the longest necks on The Day of Judgement". (i.e. they would be the most looking forward to the mercy of Allah Almighty in view of the abundance of His rewards they would see; or, according to another interpretation, when the sweat reaches up to the ears of the people, their necks would prolong so that such distress and sweat would not befall them).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Isa Ibn Talha, who said: I heard Mu'awiya saying (the same).

15-(388) Jaber narrated: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If Satan heard the call for prayer, he would flee away (as long as the distance from Medina) to (the place of) Rawha". (Sulaiman, a sub-narrator, said: I asked him about Rawha, and he replied: It is thirty-six miles from Medina).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters.

16-(389) Abu Huraira narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the Adhan is pronounced Satan turns on his heels and passes wind with noise during his flight in order not to hear the Adhan. When the Adhan reaches its end he comes back and distracts (the minds of those in prayer). When the prayer establishment (Iqama) is pronounced he turns on his heels in order not to hear its sounding. (After its completion) he returns and distracts (the minds of those in prayer)".

17-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the Adhan is pronounced, Satan turns on his heels excitedly".

18-(...) Suhail narrated that his father sent him to Banu Haritha with a boy or a man. Somebody called him by his name from an enclosure. He (the narrator) said: The person with me looked towards the enclosure, but saw nothing. I mentioned that to my father who said: had I known that you would meet such a situation, I would have never sent you (there). However, whenever you hear such a call (from the devil), pronounce the Adhan, for I heard Abu Huraira saying that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whenever Adhan is proclaimed, Satan turns back excitedly (breaking wind)".

٨ - بابُ فَضْلِ الأَذانِ، وهَرَبِ الشَّيْطانِ عند سَماعِهِ

19-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the Adhan is pronounced, Satan turns on his heels and passes wind with noise during his flight in order not to hear the Adhan. When the Adhan reaches its end he comes back and again turns on his heels when the prayer establishment (Iqama) is pronounced. After its completion he returns again till he whispers into the heart of the person (to divert his attention from his prayer) saying to him: "Remember such-and-such a thing, and such-and-such a thing", making him remember things, which he has not recalled to his mind before the prayer to the extent that he would forget how much he has prayed".

20-(...) Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same, but he said in the end: "to the extent that he would forget how he has prayed".

[9] It is desirable to raise one's hands up to the level of the shoulders, at the (Ihram)magnification of starting the prayer, as well as at bowing, and at raising from bowing, but not from prostration

21-(390) Salim narrated from his father: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raising his hands up to the level of his shoulders, whenever he started the prayer, before he bowed, and whenever he raised his head from bowing; but not between the two prostrations.

22-(...) Salim Ibn Abdullah narrated from Ibn Umar: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up (and started) the prayer, he used to raise his hands up to the level of his shoulders and then magnify Allah. He used to do the same whenever he intended to bow, and whenever he raised his head from bowing he used to do the same too. But he would not do whenever he raised his head from prostration.

23-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters. Ibn Juraij said in his narration: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up for the prayer, he would raise his hands up to the level of his shoulders, and then magnify Allah.

24-(391) Abu Qilaba narrated that he saw Malik Ibn Al-Huwairith, whenever he intended to pray, he would magnify Allah and then raise his hands, whenever he intended to bow, he would raise his hands, and whenever he raised his head from bowing, he would also raise his hands. He (Malik) told that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do the same.

25-(...) Nasr Ibn Asim narrated from Malik Ibn Al-Huwairith that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" magnified Allah (at the beginning of the prayer), he would raise his hands up to the level of his ears, and whenever he intended to bow, he would raise his hands up to the level of his ears, and whenever he raised his head from bowing and said: "Allah hears him, who sends praises to Him", he would do the same.

26-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Quatada, with the same chain of narrators, and he said (that the narrator told that) he saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raising his hands up until he reached them at the level of his ears.

[10] Affirming the magnification of Allah at every moving down or up in the prayer, except at raising from bowing, in which one should say: "Allah hears him, who sends praises to Him"

27-(392) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that once Abu Huraira led the people in the prayer. He would magnify Allah whenever he lowered or raised (his head). After he had finished he said: "By Allah! I'm the nearest of you to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the (way of) prayer".

28-(...) Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that he heard Abu Huraira saying: "If The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up for the prayer, he would magnify Allah whenever he stood up, then would magnify Allah whenever he bowed, then would say: "Allah hears him, who sends praises to Him" whenever he raised his head from bowing, then would say: "O our Lord! All praises be to You!" while standing, then would magnify Allah whenever he fell in prostration, then would magnify Allah whenever he raised his head from prostration, then would magnify Allah whenever he prostrated once again, and would magnify Allah whenever he raised his head from prostration. He used to do the same in his prayer until he finished it. He also used to magnify Allah whenever he stood up after the second Rak'a and sitting (for reciting half the declaration)". Abu Huraira said: "I'm the nearest of you to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the (way of) prayer".

29-(...) Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Harith narrated that he heard Abu Huraira saying: "If The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up for the prayer" (and he mentioned the same Hadith of Ibn Juraij, but without the commenting phrase of Abu Huraira:

Whoever recited only The Mother of The Book "Al-Fatiha", that would be sufficient for him, and whoever recited more than it, it would be better".

45-(397) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the mosque and a person also entered therein and offered the Prayer, and then came and paid salutation to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned his salutation and said: "Go back and pray, for you have not offered the Prayer". He again prayed as he had prayed before, and came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and saluted him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned the salutation and said: "Go back and perform the Prayer, for you have not offered the Prayer". [14] The proof of the one who claimed that (the Verse) "In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful" is an essential Verse in the beginning of any Sura except that of the Disavowal

53-(400) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: One day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting among us when he slumbered (for a while) after which he then raised his head while smiling. We asked: "What does cause you to smile, O Messenger of Allah?" He said: "A Sura has just been revealed to me. He then recited: "In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Verily We have given you the Fount of Abundance. Therefore turn to thy Lord for the Prayer and offer sacrifice, and surely thy enemy is cut off (from goodness".

Then he (the Prophet) asked: "Do you know what the Fount of Abundance is?" We said: "Allah and His Messenger know best". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is a river, my Lord "Exalted and Glorified be He" has promised me, in which there is an abundance of goodness. It is a fount, to which my followers would come on the Day of Judgement. Its utensils would be as numerous as the stars. A certain slave (of my followers) would be turned away from it, and I would say: "O My Lord! He is one of my followers!" He (Allah) would reply: "You don't know what he innovated (of bad things in religion) after you"".

[15] Putting one's right hand over the left hand under the chest and over the umbilicus, just after the magnification of assuming the prayer, and putting both hands on the ground at the level of the shoulders in prostration

54-(401) Wa'il Ibn Hajar narrated that he saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having raised his hands when he assumed the prayer and magnified Allah, up to the level of his ears (according to Hammam's description). Then, he wrapped himself in his garment, putting his right hand on his left hand. When he intended to kneel down in bowing, he took out his hands from the (sleeves of the) garment and raised them and magnified Allah. Then, he knelt down in bowing. When he said: "Allah hears him, who praises Him", he raised his hands. When he fell down in prostration, he prostrated (putting his head) between his palms.

[16] The testification "Tashahhud" in the prayer

55-(402) Abu Wa'il narrated from Abdullah: Whenever we prayed behind The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" we used to recite (in sitting): "Peace be on Allah, peace be on so-and-so and so-and-so". Once Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked back at us and said: "Allah Himself is the Peace, and if anyone of you prays then he should say: "All the compliments, prayers and good things are due to Allah; peace and Allah's mercy and blessings are on you, O Prophet. Peace be on us an on the pious slaves of Allah. (At-tahiyyatu lillah, was-salawatu wat-taiyyibat. As-Salamu alayka aiyuhan-nabiyu warahmatollahi wabarakatuh. ١٧ ـ بابُ الصلاةِ على النَّبِيِّ ﷺ بعد التشهد

67-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-Hakam, with the same chain of transmitters, and in the narration of Mis'ar, there is no mention of: "Wouldn't I give you a present?"

68-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-Hakam, with the same chain of transmitters. But here he said: "Send Your blessings upon Muhammad" and did not mention "O Allah".

69-(407) Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi narrated: We said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should we invoke for Allah's blessing upon you?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Say: "O Allah! Send Your prayer upon Muhammad, his wives and offspring, as You've sent Your prayer upon Abraham. O Allah! Send Your Blessings upon Muhammad, his wives and offspring, as You sent Your Blessings upon the family of Abraham, indeed, You are Praiseworthy and Glorious"".

70-(408) Al-Ala narrated from his father from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever invoked for Allah's prayer and blessing upon me once, Allah would bless him ten times".

[18] Saying: "Allah listens to him who praises Him", "O our Lord! All praises be to You", and "Amen"

71-(409) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the imam said: "Allah listens to him who praises Him", you should reply: "O our Lord! All praises be to You", for if the saying of anyone of you coincided with the saying of the angels, his previous sins would be forgiven for him".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

72-(410) Both of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab and Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the imam said "amen" you should say "amen" for if the "amen" of anyone of you coincided with the "amen" of the angels, his previous sins would be forgiven for him".

(Ibn Shihab, a sub-narrator, said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say "amen").

73-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying (the same narration of Malik, and he did not mention in this Hadith the comment of Ibn Shihab).

٦٨ ـ (...) ـ حدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَكَّارٍ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ زَكَرِيَّاءَ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، وَعَنْ مِسْعَرٍ، وَعَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ مِغْوَلٍ، كُلُّهُمْ عَنِ الْحَكَمِ، بِهَٰذَا الإِسْنَادِ... مِثْلَهُ. غَيْرَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: «وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ» وَلَمْ يَقُلِ: «اللَّهُمَّ».

٦٩ ـ (٤٠٧) ـ حدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ نُمَيْرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا رَوْحٌ وَعَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ نَافِعٍ. (ح) وَحَدَّثَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ـ وَاللَّفْظُ لَهُ ـ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنَا رَوْحٌ، عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ سُلَيْمٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي أَبُو حُمَيْدٍ السَّاعِدِيُّ؛ أَنَّهُمْ قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، كَيْفَ نُصَلِّي عَلَيْكَ؟ قَالَ: «قُولُوا: اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى أَزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ، كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى أَزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ. كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ».

١٨ ـ بابُ التَّسْمِيعِ والتَّحْمِيدِ والتَّأمِينِ

(...) ـ حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا يَعْقُوبُ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ ـ عَنْ سُهَيْلٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ... بِمَعْنَىٰ حَدِيثِ سُمَيٍّ.

٧٢ ـ (٤١٠) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ، قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَى مَالِكٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ وَأَبِي سَلَمَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ: أَنَّهُمَا أَخْبَرَاهُ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «إِذَا أَمَّنَ الإِمَامُ فَأَمِّنُوا، فَإِنَّهُ مَنْ وَافَقَ تَأْمِينُهُ تَأْمِينَ الْمَلائِكَةِ، غُفِرَ لَهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهِ». قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «آمِينَ».

[البخاري: كتاب الأذان، باب جهر الإمام بالتأمين، رقم: ٧٨٠].

٧٣ ـ (...) ـ حدّثني حَرْمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ. أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ، عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي ابْنُ الْمُسَيَّبِ وَأَبُو سَلَمَةَ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ: أَنَّ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ... بِمِثْلِ حَدِيثِ مَالِكٍ. وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ قَوْلَ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ.

74-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you said "amen" in the prayer, at the time the angels said in the heaven "amen", and the "amen" of both coincided with one another, his previous sins would be forgiven for him".

75-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you said "amen" in the prayer, at the time the angels said in the heaven "amen", and then they coincided with one another, his previous sins would be forgiven for him".

(...) Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (the same).

76-(...) Suhail narrated from his father from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the reciter (i.e. the imam in the prayer) said: "And not of those, upon whom wrath falls, nor those who are perverse", and the one (who is praying) behind him said "amen", and his saying coincided with the saying of the inhabitants of the heaven, his previous sins would be forgiven for him".

[19] The one led in the prayer should follow the imam

77-(411) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Once Allah's Apostle fell down from a horse and the right side (of his body) was injured. We visited him in order to inquire about his health. Then, the time of the prayer was due, and he offered the prayer while sitting and we also prayed behind him sitting. When he completed the prayer, he said: "The Imam is to be followed. Magnify Allah if he magnifies Allah, fall down in prostration if he falls down in prostration, and rise when he rises; and if he says: Allah hears him who sends praises to him, say then: O our lord! All praises be to you. Pray sitting if he prays sitting".

78-(...) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Once Allah's Apostle fell down from a horse and he was injured. (When we came to visit him) he led us in the prayer as sitting, (and mentioned the same).

79-(...) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Once Allah's Apostle fell down from a horse and the right side (of his body) was injured. (Then, he mentioned the same narration and added: "And pray standing if he prays standing").

80-(...) Anas narrated: Once Allah's Apostle rode a horse and fell down and the right side (of his body) was injured. (Then, he mentioned the same narration and added: "And pray standing if he prays standing").

٨٠ ـ (...) ـ حدّثنا ابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ: حَدَّثَنَا مَعْنُ بْنُ عِيسَىٰ، عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ؛ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ رَكِبَ فَرَساً فَصُرِعَ عَنْهُ، فَجُحِشَ شِقُّهُ الأَيْمَنُ بِنَحْوِ حَدِيثِهِمْ. وَفِيهِ: «إِذَا صَلَّى قَائِماً، فَصَلُّوا قِيَاماً».

81-(...) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Once Allah's Apostle fell down from a horse and the right side (of his body) was injured. (Then, he mentioned the same narration without the addition of Malik and Yunus).

82-(412) A'isha narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became ill, whereas some people entered into him to visit him (and inquire about his health). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the prayer as sitting, and they prayed behind him as standing. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" beckoned to them to sit down. Following the prayer, he said: "The Imam is to be followed: bow when he bows, raise up your heads when he raises his head, and If he prays sitting then pray sitting".

83-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwa, with the same chain of transmitters.

84-(413) Jaber narrated: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became ill, he led the prayer while he was sitting, and we offered the prayer behind him. Abu Bakr was magnifying loudly so that the people (praying behind The Prophet) would listen. When he (The Prophet) turned to us, he saw us standing. He beckoned to us (to pray as sitting) and we sat and prayed following him while sitting. When he finished with the end salutation, he said: "A while ago, you were about to do the same as the Persians and the Romans used to do: i.e. to stand for their kings who were sitting. So, do not do that, and follow your imams. If he (your imam) prayed standing, then you should pray standing; and if he prayed sitting, then you should pray sitting".

85-(...) Jaber narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the prayer (while he was sitting), and Abu Bakr was behind him. Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" magnified Allah, Abu Bakr would magnify Allah loudly so that the people would listen. (and the remaining is like the Hadith of Al-Laith).

86-(414) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Imam is to be followed, so do not be at variance with him. Recite Takbir when he recites it; bow when he bows and when he says: "Allah listens to him who send praises to Him", say: "O Allah, our Lord, to You be all the Praises". Prostrate when he prostrates; and if he offers Prayer sitting you all should offer it sitting".

(...) Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same.

[20] It is forbidden to take the initiative of saying the Takbir or doing anything (in the prayer) before the imam

87-(415) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to instruct us saying: "Do not take the initiative (of anything in the prayer) before the imam: When he says Takbir, then say Takbir, and when he says: "And not those who are perverse" say: "amen". When he bows, then bow, and when he says: "Allah listens to him, who praises Him", then say (in reply): "O Allah, our Lord! To You be all the praises"".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" except for the words: "When he says: "And not those who are perverse", then say: "amen". But, he added in this narration: "And do not raise yourselves before he does".

88-(416) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The imam is a shield: If he prayed sitting then you should pray sitting. If he said: "Allah listens to him, who send praises to Him", you should say: "O Allah, our Lord! To You be all the praises". Indeed, if such a saying of the people of the earth coincided with the saying of the inhabitants of the heaven, then all the previous sins of the one (who replied as such to the imam) would be forgiven for him".

89-(417) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Imam is to be followed. Recite Takbir when he recites it; bow when he bows and when he says: "Allah listens to him who send praises to Him", say: "O Allah, our Lord, to You be all the Praises". If he offered the prayer standing, you should offer the prayer standing, and if he offers the Prayer sitting you all should offer the prayer sitting".

[21] The imam is permitted to appoint one as his deputy if he has such excuses as illness or journey etc., and if an imam leads the prayer sitting as he cannot offer it standing, his followers should offer the prayer standing on condition they can do it in view of the abrogation of offering the prayer sitting when the imam offers the prayer sitting

90-(418) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utba narrated: I visited A'isha whom I asked to tell me about the illness of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". She agreed and said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became fatally ill and he asked whether the people had prayed. We said: "No, they are waiting for you, O Messenger of Allah". He said: "Put some water in the tub for me". We did accordingly and he took a bath. When he was about to move with difficulty, he fell unconscious. When he recovered, he again asked: "Did the people perform the Prayer?" We said: "No, they are waiting for you, O Messenger of Allah". He said: "Put some water for me in the tub". We did accordingly and he took a bath. When he was about to move with difficulty, he fell unconscious. When he recovered, he asked: "Did the people offer the prayer?" We said: "No, they are waiting for you, O Messenger of Allah". He said: "Put some water for me in the tub". We did accordingly and he took a bath. When he was about to move with difficulty he fell unconscious. When he came to senses, he asked: "Did the people offer the Prayer?" We said: "No, they are waiting for you, O Messenger of Allah".

However, The people were staying in the mosque and waiting for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to lead the last (Isha) Prayer. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent to Abu Bakr to lead the people in the Prayer. When the envoy came, he said to him (Abu Bakr): "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" orders you to lead the people in the Prayer". Abu Bakr, a man of smooth feelings, asked Umar to lead the Prayer. Umar said: "You have more right to do that".

Abu Bakr led the Prayers during those days. Sometime later, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt some relief and, consequently, he went out, supported by two men, one of them was Al-Abbas, to the Noon (Dhuhr) Prayer. Abu Bakr was leading the people in the Prayer. Saw him, Abu Bakr began to return back, but the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" beckoned to him not to return. He told his two (companions) to seat him down beside him (Abu Bakr). He was seated beside Abu Bakr.

Abu Bakr offered the Prayer standing while following the Prayer of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the people performed the Prayer as standing, following the Prayer of Abu Bakr. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting.

Ubaidullah resumed: I entered into Abdullah Ibn Abbas and said to him: "Would I relate to you what A'isha told me about the illness of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he replied in the affirmative. I told him the narration of A'isha, of which he denied nothing, but he asked me: "Did she named to you the other man who was with Abbas?" I answered in the negative. He said: "He was Ali".

95-(...) A'isha narrated: When Allah's Apostle became seriously ill, Bilal came to him for the prayer. He said: "Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in the prayer". I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Abu Bakr is a softhearted man and if he stands in your place, he would not be able to make the people hear him. Would you order Umar (to lead the prayer)?" The Prophet said: "Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in the prayer". Then I said to Hafsa: "Tell him that Abu Bakr is a softhearted man and if he stands in his place, he would not be able to make the people hear him. Would you order Umar to lead the prayer? " Hafsa did so. The Prophet said: "Verily you are (behaving like) the women who were around Joseph. Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in the prayer".

So Abu Bakr stood for the prayer. In the meantime Allah's Apostle felt better a little, and came out with the help of two persons with both of his legs dragging on the ground till he entered the mosque. When Abu Bakr heard him coming, he tried to retreat but Allah's Apostle gestured to him to carry on. The Prophet sat on his left side. Abu Bakr was praying while standing and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was leading the prayer while sitting. Abu Bakr was following the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the people were following Abu Bakr (in the prayer).

Allah to lead the prayer. But The Messenger of Allah gestured to him to keep in his place. The Messenger of Allah sat on Abu Bakr's side. Abu Bakr was following the prayer of The Messenger of Allah, while people were following Abu Bakr's prayer.

98-(419) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Abu Bakr used to lead the people in prayer during the fatal illness of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" till it was Monday. When the people aligned (in rows) for the prayer, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lifted the curtain of his house and started looking at us as he was standing at that time. His face was (glittering) like a page of the Quran and he smiled cheerfully. We were about to be put to trial for the pleasure of seeing The Prophet. Abu Bakr retreated to join the row as he thought that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would lead the prayer. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gestured to us to complete the prayer and he let the curtain fall. On the same day he died.

99-(...) Anas narrated: The last time I looked at The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on Monday, when he lifted the curtain (and he mentioned the previous story, but the narration of Salih is more complete and comprehensive).

(...) Az-Zuhri narrated: Anas Ibn Malik told me: When it was Monday, (and he mentioned the like of the previous narration).

100-(...) Anas narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not come out for three days. The people stood for the prayer and Abu Bakr went ahead to lead the prayer. (At the same time) the Prophet caught hold of the curtain and lifted it. When the face of the Prophet appeared we had never seen a scene more pleasing than the face of the Prophet as it appeared then. The Prophet gestured to Abu Bakr to lead the people in the prayer and then let the curtain fall. We did not see him (again) till he died.

101-(420) Abu Burda narrated from Abu Musa: When Allah's Apostle became seriously ill, and his illness was aggravated, he said: "Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in the prayer". A'isha said: "O Allah's Apostle! Abu Bakr is a softhearted man and if he stands in your place, he would not be able to make the people hear him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in the prayer; you (women) are (behaving like) the females who were around Joseph". So, Abu Bakr led the people in the prayer until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died.

[22] The group (of praying people) is to present the one who would lead them in the prayer in case the original imam delayed, particularly when there is no fear of such an act

102-(421) Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi reported: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to make reconciliation among Banu Amr Ibn Awf. In the meantime the time of prayer was due and the Mu'adhdhin went to Abu Bakr and said: "Will you lead the prayer, so that I may pronounce the establishment?" Abu Bakr replied: "Well". He led the prayer. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came while the people were still praying and he entered the rows of the praying people till he stood in the (first) row. The people clapped their hands. Abu Bakr never glanced sideways in his prayer but when the people continued clapping, Abu Bakr looked and saw Allah's Apostle.

Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" beckoned to him to stay at his place. Abu Bakr raised his hands and thanked Allah for that order of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then he retreated till he reached the first row. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went forward and resumed leading the prayer. When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer, he said: "O Abu Bakr! What did prevent you from staying when I ordered you to do so?" Abu Bakr replied: "How can Ibn Abu Quhafa dare to lead the prayer in the presence of Allah's Apostle?" Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (addressing people): "Why did you clap so much? If something doubtful happens to anyone during his prayer he should say: "Glory be to Allah". If he says so he will be responded to, because clapping is for women".

103-(...) Abu Hazim narrated from Sahl Ibn Sa'd the same narration of Malik, but here, he said: "Abu Bakr raised his hands and praised Allah. Then, he retreated until he joined the (first) row".

104-(...) Abu Hazim narrated from Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to make reconciliation among Banu Amr Ibn Awf. Abu Bakr retreated back (to join the row))".

blessing and peace be upon him" went to the privy to answer the call of nature and I went with him, carrying a pot of water, and that was before the dawn prayer. When he returned to me (after relieving himself), I started pouring water on him. He washed his hands thrice, and then washed his face. When he wanted to uncover his arms (to wash them) the sleeves of his cloak were tight. So, he brought out his hands from under the cloak, and washed them and wiped over his leather socks.

Then, he came (to the people) and so did I. When we reached the people, we found them standing for the prayer, having Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf lead them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" caught one of the two Rak'as (of the Fajr prayer). He offered the last Rak'a with the people. When Abd Ar-Rahman finished the prayer, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood and completed his prayer. That troubled the people who went on glorifying Allah. So, when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer, he turned to the people and said: "You have done well". Or he said joyfully: "You have done the right thing when you offered the prayer in its due time".

[23] A man's glorification of Allah, and a woman's clapping, in case something doubtful happens in the prayer

106-(422) Both of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab and Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that they heard Abu Huraira saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Glorification of Allah is for men and clapping of hands is for women (in case something doubtful happens in the Prayer)".

107-(...) The like of it was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, from Abu Salih from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

(...) Hammam narrated from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same, and added "in the prayer".

[24] Perfecting and completing the prayer submissively

108-(423) Abu Huraira narrated: One day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the Prayer. Then he turned (towards his Companions) and asked: "O so-and-so! Why do you not offer your Prayer perfectly? Shouldn't the performer of the Prayer see how he is performing it? He only performs the Prayer for himself. By Allah! I see (you) behind me as I see in front of me".

109-(424) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you see my Qibla here? By Allah! Neither your bowings nor your prostrations are hidden from my sight. Verily, I see you (from) behind my back".

110-(425) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Establish your bowings and prostrations (well in the prayer). By Allah! Verily, I would see you from behind me (or perhaps he said from behind my back) whenever you bowed or prostrated".

111-(...) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Complete your bowings and prostrations (i.e. perform them well in the prayer). By Allah! Verily, I would see you from behind my back whenever you bowed or prostrated".

[25] It is forbidden to bow or prostrate before the imam

112-(426) Anas narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the prayer. When he finished, he turned towards us and said: "O people! I'm your imam. So, do not precede me neither with bowing nor with prostration, neither with standing nor with finishing (the prayer with the end salutation). Indeed, I see you in front of me and from behind me". Then he resumed: "By Him, in Whose hand the life of Muhammad is! Had you seen what I saw, you would have laughed little and wept so much". They asked: "What did you see O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "I saw both Paradise and (Hell) fire".

113-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Anas from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". In the narration of Jarir, there is no mention of (the phrase): "nor with finishing (the prayer with the end salutation)".

[26] It is forbidden to raise one's eyes to the sky in the prayer

117-(428) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The people should refrain from raising their sights to the sky in the prayer lest they (such sights) would not return to them once again (and they would become sightless)".

118-(429) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The people should refrain from raising their sights to the sky during their supplication in the prayer lest they (such sights) would be taken from them".

[27] The order to keep quiet in the prayer, and the forbiddance to point with the hand or raise it at salutation (in the prayer), and (the order to) complete and join together in the rows

119-(430) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to us (while we were standing for the prayer) and said: "Why am I seeing you raising your hands as if they were tails of headstrong horses? Be quiet in the prayer".

Once again, he came out to us, and saw us (sitting) in circles. He said addressing us: "Why am I seeing you as dispersed groups?" then, he came to us and said: "Shouldn't you align in rows as the angels align before their Lord?" we said: "O Messenger of Allah! How do the angels align before their Lord?" he replied: "They complete the first row (and then the next to it), and they also join together in rows".

(...) The like of it was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters.

120-(431) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated: Whenever we offered the prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" we would finish it with the end salutation: "Peace and Allah's mercy be upon you", "Peace and Allah's mercy be upon you", pointing with the hand on both sides. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Why do you wave with your hands as if they were tails of headstrong horses? It is very enough for anyone of you to put his hand on his thigh and then salute his (praying) brother on his right and then that one on his left".

121-(...) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated: I offered the prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Whenever we uttered the end salutation, we would say (pointing) with our hands: "Peace be upon you", "Peace be upon you". Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked at us and said: "What is the matter with you? You point with your hands as if they were tails of headstrong horses. Indeed, if anyone of you uttered the end salutation, he should turn his face towards his brother (on his right and left) and should not point with the hand".

[28] Straightening and establishing the rows, and the superiority of the first row, and then the subsequent rows, and competing with others for the first one, and presenting ahead and making the people of good qualities closer to the imam

122-(432) Abu Mas'ud narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to wipe over our shoulders in the prayer and say: "Straighten yourselves, and do not be at variance (with one another), with the result that your hearts might dissent. Let those of deliberateness and good reasons be closer to me, followed by those who succeed them and then those who succeed them (in superiority of mind)". Abu Mas'ud commented: But today, you are more different (from one another than you were during the lifetime of The Prophet).

[31] Reciting in a middle course in the (obligatory) loud prayers, in case something doubtful might happen because of a loud recitation

145-(446) Ibn Abbas narrated, concerning Allah's saying: "Neither speak thy prayer aloud, nor speak it in a low tone, but seek a middle course between". (Al-Isra 110): This verse was revealed just as The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was hidden from unbelievers in Mecca. The more The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed with his companions, the more he raised his voice as reciting The Holy Quran. The more the unbelievers heard it (The Holy Quran), the more they abused The Holy Quran, who sent it down, and who came with it. In this way, Allah said to him: "Neither speak thy prayer aloud (by reciting the Holy Quran loudly lest the pagans might abuse it), nor speak it in a low tone, (for fear that it might be unheard by your companions, but let them listen to it clearly) but seek a middle course between" (i.e. between the loud recitation and the recitation in a low tone).

146-(447) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from A'isha that she said concerning Allah's saying: "Neither speak thy prayer aloud, nor speak it in a low tone, but seek a middle course between". (Al-Isra 110): "It has been revealed in connection with one's supplication".

So Allah revealed the Verses: "Move not thy tongue concerning the Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated: Ibn Abbas said, concerning Allah's saying: "Move not thy tongue concerning the (Quran) to make haste therewith" (The Resurrection "Al-Qiyama" 16): The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to suffer from a hard condition because of the Divine revelation. He used to move his lips (quickly) during its revealing. (Ibn Abbas said to me: "I would move my lips in the same way as The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to move his lips". Sa'id said: "I would move my lips in the same way as Ibn Abbas moved them". Then, he moved his lips.) So Allah revealed: "Move not thy tongue concerning the (Quran) to make haste therewith. It is for us to collect it and to promulgate it" i.e. to collect it in your chest and make you recite it. "But when we have promulgated it" i.e. revealed it to you. "follow thou its recital (as promulgated): i.e. listen to it quietly. Then it is for us (Allah) to make you able to recite it. So, whenever Gabriel came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he would listen to him; and whenever he (Gabriel) went out, he (The Prophet) would recite it in the same way he taught him to recite.

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was leading his Companions in the Morning Prayer in (the place of) Nakhla, they proceeded towards the Ukaz market. When they (the Jinns) heard the Quran, they paid attention to it and said: "It is this which obstructed us from getting news from the heaven". They went back to their people and said: "O our people! We heard a strange Quran which directs us to the right path; so we affirm our faith in it and we would never associate anyone with our Lord ". Allah, "Exalted and glorified be He" revealed to His Messenger Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" :"Say: It has been revealed to me that a group of Jinn listened to it " (The Jinn 1).

150-(450) Amer narrated: I asked Alqama: "Did Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud attend with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the night of the Jinns?" he (Ibn Mas'ud) said: "No. but, one night, we were in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when we missed him. We searched for him in the valleys and mountain passes, and we did not find him. We said (to ourselves): "Perhaps, he (The Prophet) might be taken up (by the Jinns) or assassinated". As a result, we stayed the worst night people could ever stay (during their lives).

In the morning, he (The Prophet) came from the direction of (the cave of) Hira. We said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! We missed you, so we searched for you but we did not find you. So, we stayed the worst night people could ever stay (during their lives)". Upon this, he (The Prophet) said: "The caller of the Jinn came to me, with whom I went, and recited The Holy Quran to them". He (The Prophet) went with us, and showed us their traces and the remaining of their fires. They (the Jinns) asked him about the (lawful) food. He said: "You can have the bones (of the slaughtered animals) upon which the name of Allah was mentioned. (The time you will have it) it would be covered with flesh. You can also have the dung (of camels) as fodder for your animals". For this reason, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Don't clean your privates with those (things) since they are the food of your brothers (of Jinns)"".

(...) It was narrated on the authority of Dawood, with the same chain of transmitters, to his saying: "and the traces of their fires".

(...) Ash'sha'bi said (resuming the narration): They (the Jinns) asked him about the provisions, and they were from the Jinns of the Peninsula. (to the end of the narration in details, transmitted from that of Abdullah).

151-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Dawood from Ash'sha'bi from Alqama from Abdullah from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to his saying: "and the traces of their fires". But he did not mention what is next to it.

152-(...) Alqama narrated that Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) said: "I was not with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at the night (when he met) the Jinns, though I wished I had been with him".

153-(...) Ma'n narrated: I heard my father saying: I asked Masruq: "Who did inform The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of (the presence of) the Jinns at the night when they heard the Quran?" He said: "Your father, Ibn Mas'ud narrated to me that a tree informed him of that".

[34] The recitation in both Dhuhr and Asr prayers

154-(451) Abu Quatada narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the Prayer and recited in the first two Rak'as of the Noon (Dhuhr) and Afternoon (Asr) Prayers the Sura of Al-Fatiha and two (other) Suras. Sometimes, he would recite loud so enough that we could hear the Verses. He would prolong the first rak'a more than the second. He did the same in the Morning (Fajr) Prayer.

155-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abu Quatada narrated from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the first two Rak'as of the Noon (Dhuhr) and Afternoon (Asr) Prayers the Sura of Al-Fatiha and two (other) Suras. Sometimes, he would recite loud so enough that we could hear the Verses. In the last two Rak'as he would recite only the Sura of Al-Fatiha.

156-(452) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: We used to guess (the time of) the standing of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in both the Noon (Dhuhr) and Afternoon (Asr) prayers. We guessed (the time of) his standing in the first two Rak'as in the Noon (Dhuhr) prayer as long as it takes to recite: "A. L. M. (This is) the revelation of the Book in which there is no doubt, from the Lord of the Worlds".... (The Prostration "As-Sajda"). As for (the time of) his standing in the last two Rak'as, it was equal to the half of that. We guessed (the time of) his standing in the first two Rak'as of the Asr prayer as equal to his standing in the last two Rak'as of the Dhuhr prayer, and (his standing in) the last two Rak'as of Asr prayer as equal to the half of that.

However, Abu Bakr did not mention in his narration (Allah's saying): "A. L. M. (This is) the revelation of the Book in which there is no doubt, 157-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in each one of the two first Rak'as of the Dhuhr prayer as long as it takes to recite thirty Verses; and in each one of the last two Rak'as as long as it takes to recite fifteen Verses (or said half of what he recited in the first two Rak'as). He also used to recite in each one of the first two Rak'as of the Asr prayer as long as it takes to recite fifteen Verses, and in each one of the last two Rak'as what is equal to half of that.

158-(453) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated: The people of Kufa complained Sa'd to Umar Ibn Al-Khattab and alleged that he did not pray properly. He sent for him and mentioned to him their allegation that he did not pray properly. Upon this, he said: "Verily, I used to offer with them a prayer similar to that of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I never reduced anything of it. I used to prolong the first two Rak'as of the prayer and shorten the last two". Umar said: "O Abu Ishaq! this is what I thought about you".

(...) It was narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Umair, with the same chain of transmitters.

159-(...) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated: Umar said to Sa'd: "They (i.e. the people of Kufa) complained from you in everything you used to do, even in the prayer". Sa'd replied: "As for me, I used to prolong the first two Rak'as of the prayer and shorten the last two; and I never committed any deficiency in following the prayer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ". Umar said: "This is what I thought about you".

160-(...) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated the same, with the following addition: Sa'd said: "The Bedouins presume to teach me the prayer".

161-(454) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: The Dhuhr prayer would be established and one could go to Baqi and answer the call of nature, then perform ablution and return to find that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was still offering the first Rak'a, in view of the fact that he used to prolong it so much.

162-(...) Qaz'a narrated: I came to Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, who was surrounded by lots of people. When they dispersed, I asked him: "I would not ask you about what those people asked you, but I want to ask you about the prayer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abu Sa'id said: "You would have no good for you from this"

(because he would not be able to offer the same prayer in view of its so much length and devotion. In this way, he would seem as if he learnt the tradition of The Prophet, but did not follow it completely). But, I repeated my request. He said: "The Dhuhr prayer would be established and anyone of us could go to Baqi and answer the call of nature, then come to his family and perform ablution, and then return to the mosque, to find that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was still offering the first Rak'a".

[35] The recitation in the Morning (prayer)

163-(455) Abdullah Ibn As-Sa'ib narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the morning prayer in Mecca, and started reciting the Sura of The Believers. When he came to the mention of Moses and Aaron (Verse) or the mention of Jesus (Verse), a cough caught him, and he bowed. Abdullah Ibn As-Sa'ib was present there. According to the narration of Abd Ar-Razzaq: He shortened (the recitation) and then bowed.

164-(456) Amr Ibn Huwairith narrated that he had heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reciting in the Morning prayer: "And the Night as it dissipates". (Folding Up "At-Takwir" 17)

165-(457) Qutba Ibn Malik narrated: Once, I offered the prayer, led by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", in which he recited: "Qaf, and by the glorious Quran" (Qaf 1) until he came to: "And tall (and stately) palm trees" (Qaf 10). I start repeating it, but I could not follow what he had said.

166-(...) Qutba Ibn Malik narrated that he had heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reciting in the Fajr prayer: "And tall (and stately) palm trees, with shoots of fruit stalks, piled one over another" (Qaf 10)

167-(...) Ziyad Ibn Ilaqa narrated from his paternal uncle that he offered the Morning prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who recited in the first Rak'a: "And tall (and stately) palm trees, with shoots of fruit stalks, piled one over another". (or perhaps he (the narrator) said "Qaf").

168-(458) Jaber Ibn Samura narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the morning prayer: "Qaf. By the Glorious Quran". and his prayer afterward was shortened.

169-(...) Simak narrated: I asked Jaber Ibn Samura about the prayer of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: He (The Prophet) used to shorten the prayer and he did not pray like such people (as use to prolong the prayer exaggeratingly). He told me that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite" Qaf. By the (Glorious) Quran," and its like.

170-(459) Simak narrated from Jaber Ibn Samura that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the Dhuhr prayer: "By the Night as it conceals (the light)" (The Night 1), and the like of it in the Asr prayer, and longer than that in the Morning prayer.

171-(460) Simak narrated from Jaber Ibn Samura that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the Noon (Dhuhr) prayer: "Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High" (The Most High "Al-A'la" 1) and longer than that in the Morning prayer.

[36] Reciting in the Night "Isha" prayer

175-(464) Al-Bara narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on journey, when he recited in one of the Rak'as of the last Night "Isha" prayer: "By the fig, and the olive" (The Fig 1).

176-(...) Al-Bara Ibn Azib narrated: I offered the Night "Isha" prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", in which he recited: "By the fig and the olive".

177-(...) Adi Ibn Thabit narrated: I heard Al-Bara Ibn Azib saying: Once, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reciting in the Night "Isha" prayer: "By the fig and the olive". However, I have never heard any recitation of sweeter voice than his.

178-(465) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated: Mu'adh Ibn Jabal used to pray with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then go to lead his people in prayer. Once he led the Isha prayer and recited The Sura of The Heifer (Al-Baqara). Somebody turned his side and (finished the prayer with the end salutation and then) prayed alone and departed. The people said to him: "Have you become a hypocrite O so-and-so?" he said: "No, by Allah! Verily, I would come to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" tomorrow, and inform him".

The man went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! We look after camels for watering, and work by day. Mu'adh offered Isha prayer with you and then came and led us in the prayer, in which he recited the Sura of The Heifer".

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned to Mu'adh and said to him: "O Mu'adh! Are you putting the people (praying behind you) to trial? Recite (in the prayer) such-and-such a Sura, and such-and-such a Sura".

Sufyan said: I said to Amr that Abu Az-Zubair narrated to us from Jaber (that The Prophet said to Mu'adh): "Recite: "By the son and its (glorious) splendour", "By the (glorious) morning light", "By the night as it conceals (the light)", "Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High'"". Amr said: Like that.

179-(...) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated: Once, Mu'adh Ibn Jabal Al-Ansari led the Isha prayer with his people and prolonged it for them. Somebody among us left the (congregational) prayer and prayed alone. Being informed of him, Mu'adh said: "He is a hypocrite". When the man say: "He forgot (to fall down in prostration)"; and whenever he raised his head from prostration, he would remain in that position (of sitting for a long time) that one might say: "He forgot (to fall for the second prostration)"".

196-(473) Anas Ibn Malik reported: I have never prayed behind an imam, more brief and perfect in the prayer than The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The prayer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was proportionate, and so was the prayer of Abu Bakr. When Umar came, he prolonged the Fajr prayer. Furthermore, whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (raised from bowing and) said: "Allah listens to him, who praises Him", he would remain in that position so long that we would say: "He forgot (or left what follows that)". But, he would fall down in prostration, and then sit between the two prostrations so long that we would say: "He forgot (or left what is next to that)".

Then, they would fall in prostration after him.

198-(…) Abdullah Ibn Yazid narrated: Al-Bara told me –and he is not a liar- that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (raised his head from bowing and) said: "Allah listens to him who praises Him", none of us would bend his back (for prostration) until he (The Prophet) fell in prostration. Then, we would fall in prostration after him.

199-(…) Muharib Ibn Dithar narrated: I heard Abdullah Ibn Yazid talking upon the pulpit: Al-Bara told us that they used to pray with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Whenever he (The Prophet) bowed, they would bow (after him); "and whenever he raised his head (from bowing) and said: "Allah listens to him who praises Him", we would remain standing until we saw that he placed his forehead on the ground (in prostration); and then, we would follow him".

200-(…) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila narrated from Al-Bara: We were (praying) with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and none of us would bend his back until we saw that he fell in prostration. Zuhair said (in his narration): "Until we saw him prostrating".

To You be all the praises, as much as filling the heavens, filling the earth, and filling whatever thing You wished afterwards".

204-(…) Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say (in the prayer): "O Allah, our Lord! To You be all the praises, as much as filling the heavens, filling the earth, and filling whatever thing You wished afterwards. O Allah! Purify me with the snow, the (water of) hail and the cold water! O Allah! Cleanse me from sins and errors in the same way as the white garment is cleansed from dirt".

(…) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters. But, he said in the narration of Mu'adh: "As the white garment is washed from filth". And he said "from dirt" in the narration of Yazid.

[41] It is forbidden to recite Quran in bowing and prostration

207-(479) Ibn Abbas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uncovered the curtain (of his chamber) and (saw) people in rows (performing the prayer) behind Abu Bakr. Then, he said: "O people! Nothing remains of the glad tidings of the Prophethood, but good visions (in dreams), which a Muslim sees, or somebody is made to see for him. You should know that I have been forbidden to recite the Quran in the state of bowing and prostration. So, as for bowing, you should glorify Allah The Great, and as for prostration, be earnest in supplication, for it is entitled to be responded to".

208-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abbas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uncovered the curtain (of his chamber) and his head was bandaged during his fatal illness. Then he said: "O Allah! Is it not that I have reported (Your message)? (He said it thrice) Nothing remains of the glad tidings of the Prophethood, but good visions (in dreams) which a pious slave sees or somebody is made to see for him". (Then, he mentioned the same Hadith of Sufyan).

212-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated from Ali Ibn Abu Talib: My beloved one (i.e. The Prophet) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade me to recite (Quran) while being in the state of bowing or prostration.

213-(...) Ali Ibn Abu Talib narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade me to recite (Quran) while being in the state of bowing. (But, none of the transmitters mentioned such a forbiddance in the state of prostration), as mentioned by Az-Zuhri, Zaid Ibn Aslam, Al-Walid Ibn Kathir, and Dawood Ibn Qais

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ali, in which there is no mention of (such a forbiddance) in the state of prostration.

214-(481) Ibn Abbas narrated: I was forbidden (by The Prophet) to recite (Quran) while being in the state of bowing. (He did not mention Ali in the chain of transmission).

[42] What could be said in both bowing and prostration

215-(482) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The slave would be the nearest to (the mercy of) his Lord when he is in the state of prostration; so, supplicate (Allah) so much (while being in such a state)".

216-(483) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say in his prostration: "O Allah! Forgive me all of my sins: the minor and the major, the first and the last, and the secret and the open".

217-(484) Masruq narrated from A'isha: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say, in his bowing and prostration: "Glory be to You O Allah, with Your praise (I glorify You); for give me". In this way, he would comply to (the order of) The Quran.

218-(...) Masruq narrated from A'isha: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say frequently before his death: "Glory be to You, with Your praise I ask for Your forgiveness, and I turn in repentance to You". I asked him: "O Messenger of Allah! What are those words which I find you saying?" he replied: "there has been made a sign for me in my nation, and when I saw it, I uttered them. (It is): "When comes the Help of Allah, and Victory, And thou dost see the People enter Allah's Religion in crowds, Celebrate the Praises of thy Lord, and pray for His Forgiveness: for He is Oft-Returning (in Grace and Mercy)"".

219-(...) Masruq narrated from A'isha: I never saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", since it was revealed to

And, I saw it: "When comes the Help of Allah, and Victory (i.e. the conquest of Mecca), And thou dost see the People enter Allah's Religion in crowds, Celebrate the Praises of thy Lord, and pray for His Forgiveness: for He is Oft-Returning (in Grace and Mercy)"".

221-(485) Ibn Juraij narrated: I asked Ata: "What do you use to say in the state of bowing?" he said: "As for (the statement): "Glory be to You, with Your praise (I glorify You); there is no god but You", Ibn Abu Mulaika told me that A'isha said: One night, I missed The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and I thought he had gone to one of his wives. I looked for him. But, when I returned, I found him, in a state of bowing or prostration, saying: "Glory be to You, with Your praise (I glorify You); there is no god but You". I said: "Let my father and my mother be sacrificed for you! I'm thinking in a state (of jealousy), while you are in another state (with your Lord)"".

222-(486) A'isha narrated: One night, I missed The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from the bed. I searched for him, and then my hand touched the soles of his feet, which were raised, as he was in the state of prostration, saying: "O Allah! I seek refuge with Your pleasure from Your anger, with Your forgiveness from Your punishment, and with (the mercy of) You from (the anger of) You. I cannot reckon Your praise, for You are as You applauded Yourself".

[43] The merit of the prostration, and the exhortation to offer it

225-(488) Ma'dan Ibn Abu Talha Al-Ya'muri narrated: I met Thawban, the freed slave of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", to whom I said: "Tell me of a (good) deed, by which Allah would admit me in Paradise (or tell me of the dearest deed to Allah)". He kept silent. I asked him once again, and he kept silent. I asked him for the third time, and he replied: "I asked about that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "Offer the prostration to Allah so much, for you never fall in prostration to Allah once, but that Allah would raise you by it a degree (in reward), and remove a sin from you"". Ma'dan resumed: "Later, I met Abu Ad-Darda, whom I asked (about this matter), and he said to me the same as Thawban had said".

226-(489) Rabie'a Ibn Ka'b Al-Aslami narrated: I was staying the night with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when I brought to him his (water of) ablution and other needs. He said to me: "Ask (me whatever you wanted)". I said: "I ask you (to be given the privilege of) accompanying you in Paradise". He said: "Ask for something besides". I said: "It is just that (which I wanted)". He said: "Then, support me to do that for you by offering so much prostrations (to Allah)".

[44] The limbs of prostration, and the forbiddance of folding the hair and clothes, as well as of plaiting the hair in the prayer

227-(490) Tawus narrated from Ibn Abbas: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has been ordered to prostrate on seven (bones), and not to fold his hair and clothes.

(This is the narration of Yahya, but, according to the narration of Abu Ar-Rabie: (He has been ordered to prostrate) on seven bones: the palms, the knees, the feet, and the forehead, and he has been forbidden to fold his hair and clothes).

Whenever he bowed, he would neither lift his head (to the sky), nor would he lower it so much, but he would keep it between the two extremes. Whenever he raised his head from bowing, he would not fall in prostration until he stood straightly. Whenever he raised his head from prostration, he would not prostrate (once again) until he sat straightly. He used to recite the testification "Tashahhud" following every two Rak'as. He also used to put his left foot flat (on the ground) and raise his right one. He forbade the Devil's (way of sitting on the) heels; and he also prohibited placing the arms flat like that of the beast. He used to finish the prayer with the end salutation "Taslim".

puts in front of him such thing as the back of a saddle, he should pray, no matter who would pass in front of it".

242-(...) Musa Ibn Talha narrated from his father: We used to offer the prayer, and the animals would pass in front of us. We mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "If anyone of you puts in front of him such a thing as the back of a saddle, then, (he should pray and) whatever passes in front of it would not harm him".

243-(500) Urwa narrated from A'isha: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the thing the praying man takes in front of him to pray towards it. He said: "(He could take) such a thing as the back of a saddle".

244-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked during the holy battle of Tabuk about the thing the praying man takes in front of him to pray towards it. He said: "(He could take) such a thing as the back of a saddle".

245-(501) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar: "Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out on the (Id) day of (Muslim) festivity, he would order that a spear should be fixed in front of him, towards which he would perform the Prayer, with the people behind him. He used to do so on journey". That is why the rulers took it.

246-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to fix a short spear (or stick) towards which he would offer the prayer. Ibn Abu Shaiba added: Ubaidullah said: It is the spear.

247-(502) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to place his mount (between him and the Qibla), towards which he would offer the prayer.

248-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to pray towards (the direction of) his mount. Ibn Numair said that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the prayer towards a camel (which he placed between him and the Qibla).

249-(503) Awn Ibn Abu Juhaifa narrated from his father: I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in Mecca and he was at (a place of) Al-Abtah in a red leather tent. Bilal stepped out with ablution water for him, the remaining of which some of them (the companions) got and rubbed the others with. Then the Messenger of Allah

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out wearing a red garment on him, as if I was looking at the whiteness of his shanks.

He (the Prophet) performed the ablution, and Bilal pronounced the call (for the prayer). I followed his mouth (turning) this side and that as he said on the right and the left: "Come to the Prayer, come to success". Then, a short spear (or stick) was planted for him (on the ground). He stepped forward and performed two Rak'as of Dhuhr, while there passed in front of the spear a donkey and a dog, which were not prevented. Then, he performed two Rak'as for the Asr Prayer. He kept performing two Rak'as (for Dhuhr and Asr) until he came back to Medina.

250-(...) Awn Ibn Abu Juhaifa narrated that his father saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a red leather tent. (Abu Juhaifa resumed): I saw Bilal bringing out ablution (water for The Prophet), from which I saw the people hurrying to get: Whoever could get from it, would rub his body with it, and whoever could not get from it, would take from the wet hand of his friend. Then, I saw Bilal bringing out a short spear (or stick), which he fixed (in the ground). Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out, wearing a red garment, which he raised up to the half of his shanks. Then, he led the people in a two-Rak'a prayer, facing that short spear. However, I saw both people and animals passing in front of the short spear (or stick).

251-(...) The like of the Hadith of Sufyan and Umar Ibn Abu Za'ida was narrated on the authority of Awn Ibn Abu Juhaifa from his father from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", each of whom adding something. According to the Hadith of Malik Ibn Mighwal: When it was the very hot midday, Bilal came out and called for the prayer.

252-(...) Al-Hakam narrated: I heard Abu Juhaifa saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out at the very hot midday to Al-Batha, where he offered ablution. Then, he offered two Rak'as for the Noon "Dhuhr" prayer and two Rak'as for the Afternoon "Asr" prayer; and there was a short spear (or stick) in front of him. Shu'ba told: Awn added from his father Abu Juhaifa: A woman and a donkey passed from behind it.

253-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, depending upon the two chains of transmitters, and according to the narration of Al-Hakam, he (the narrator) said: Then, the people started to take from the remaining of his ablution water.

254-(504) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah narrated from Ibn Abbas: Once I came riding a she-ass when I had (just) attained the age of puberty. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was leading the people in the prayer at Mina. I passed in front of the row (of the praying people while they were offering their prayer). I dismounted and let loose the she-ass to graze and entered the row, but nobody objected to that.

255-(...) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utba narrated that Abdullah Ibn Abbas told him that once he came riding a donkey, while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was standing for the prayer at Mina in the Farewell Pilgrimage. He was leading the people in the prayer. Then, the donkey passed in front of some (people) of the row. He dismounted and joined the row (of the praying people).

256-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters, and he said here that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was performing the prayer at Arafat.

257-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters, with no mention of Mina or Arafat, but he said: In the Farewell Pilgrimage, or on the day of Conquest.

[48] Preventing anyone to pass in front of the praying man

258-(505) Abu Sa'id narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anybody amongst you is praying (behind something to hide him from people), he should not let anyone pass in front of him, and he should repulse him. If he refuses, he should use force against him for he is a Satan".

259-(...) Humaid Ibn Hilal narrated: While I and one of my companions were studying a certain tradition, Abu Salih As-Samman said: Let me tell you what I heard and saw from Abu Sa'id: While I was with Abu Sa'id who was offering the prayer on Friday, behind something to hide him from people, a young man from Abu Mu'ait's sons wanted to pass in front of him, but Abu Sa'id repulsed him with a push on his chest. Finding no alternative he again tried to pass but Abu Sa'id pushed him with a greater force. The young man abused Abu Sa'id and went to Marwan and complained of Abu Sa'id who followed the young man to Marwan. Marwan asked him: "O Abu Sa'id! What has happened between you and the son of your brother?" Abu Sa'id said to him: "I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If anybody amongst you is praying behind something to hide him from the people, and somebody

260-(506) Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anybody amongst you is praying, he should not let anyone pass in front of him. If he refuses, he should use force against him for he then has a devil with him".

(...) Ibn Umar narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same.

261-(507) Busr Ibn Sa'id reported that Zaid Ibn Khalid had sent him to Abu Juhaim to know what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said concerning the sin of him, who passed in front of the praying man. Abu Juhaim narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the person who passed in front of another in prayer knew the magnitude of his sin, he would prefer to wait for 40 rather than to pass in front of him". The sub narrator Abu An-Nadr said: "I do not remember exactly whether he said 40 days, months or years".

(...) Busr Ibn Sa'id narrated that Khalid Ibn Zaid Al-Juhani had sent to Abu Juhaim Al-Ansari to know what he heard from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and the remaining is like Malik's Hadith).

262-(508) Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi narrated: Between the praying place of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the wall, there was a (distance enough for a) goat to pass.

263-(509) Yazid Ibn Abu Ubaid reported: Salama Ibn Al-Akwa used to seek for the place where the Mus'haf (manuscript of The Holy Quran) was kept in order to (offer the supererogatory prayers and) glorify Allah there. He mentioned that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to seek for that place, and there was, between the pulpit and the Qibla, a (distance enough for a) goat to pass.

264-(...) Yazid Ibn Abu Ubaid reported: Salama Ibn Al-Akwa used to pray behind the pillar, which was near the place where the Mus'haf (manuscript of The Holy Quran) was kept. I said: "O Abu Muslim! I see you always seeking to pray behind this pillar". He replied: "I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" always seeking to pray near that pillar".

265-(510) Abdullah Ibn As-Samit narrated that Abu Dharr told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If any one of you stands for prayer, there should be (at least) a thing in front of him equal to the back of a saddle so as to cover him. But, in case there is nothing in front of him, equal to the back of a saddle, his prayer would be interrupted by (the passage of) an ass, a woman, and a black dog". I (the sub-narrator) said: "O Abu Dharr! What does distinguish the black dog from the red dog and the yellow dog"? He said: "O my brother's son! I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as you ask me, and he said: "The black dog is (likely equal to) a Satan"".

(...) The same was narrated by Humaid Ibn Hilal depending upon the transmission of Yunus.

266-(511) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The prayer would be interrupted by (the passage of) an ass, a woman and a dog, unless (one takes a thing in front of him even) like the back of a saddle to cover him".

[51] One's lying in front of the praying person

267-(512) A'isha narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used (sometimes) to offer the prayers at night, while I was lying across (in front of him) between him and the Qibla.

268-(...) A'isha narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used (sometimes) to offer all of his prayers at night, while I was lying (in front of him) between him and the Qibla. Whenever he wanted me to offer the Witr, he would awaken me, and I would offer it.

269-(...) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated: A'isha asked: "What does annul the prayer?" we said: "A (passing of a) woman or a donkey (in front of the praying person)". A'isha commented: "Then, a woman would be (equal to) an evil animal. I used to lie across in front of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was offering prayer".

270-(...) Masruq reported that the things which annul the prayers were mentioned before A'isha: i.e. a dog, a donkey and a woman (in state of their passing in front of the praying people). A'isha said: "You have made us (women) equal to donkeys and dogs. By Allah! I saw the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praying while I used to lie in my bed between him and the Qibla. Whenever I was in need of something, I would dislike to sit (facing him) lest I would trouble The Messenger of

278-(517) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that Umar Ibn Abu Salama had told him: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praying in a single garment, putting its ends upon his shoulders, in the house of Umm Salama, crossing its two ends. (i.e. taking the right end from underneath his left arm, and the left end from underneath his right arm, and tying both on his chest).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwa, with the same chain of transmitters.

279-(...) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that Umar Ibn Abu Salama had told him: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praying in the house of Umm Salama, in a single garment, with its ends crossing each other.

280-(...) Umar Ibn Abu Salama narrated: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praying, in a single garment, with its ends crossing each other. (Isa Ibn Hammad, a sub-narrator, added: upon his shoulders).

281-(518) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated: I saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praying in a single garment, crossing its two ends (taking the end he put upon his right shoulder from under his left arm, and the end he put upon his left shoulder from under his right arm, and tying both on his chest).

282-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sufyan, with the same chain of transmitters. In the Hadith of Ibn Numair, he (the narrator) said: I entered into The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him.

283-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he saw Jaber praying in a single garment, with its two ends crossing each other (i.e. taking the end he put upon his right shoulder from under his left arm, and the end he put upon his left shoulder from under his right arm, and tying both on his chest), though he had many garments. He (Jaber) said that he had seen The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" doing the same.

284-(519) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: Once, I entered into The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and found him offering the prayer on a (straw) mat. I also saw him offering the prayer in a single garment, with its two ends crossing each other.

285-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Abu Kuraib, he said (that The Prophet was) putting its ends upon his shoulders. But, in the narration of both Abu Bakr and Suwaid: with its two ends crossing each other.

(5) The Book Of Mosques And Places Of Prayer

1-(520) Ibrahim At-Taimi narrated from his father: Abu Dharr told: I asked (The Prophet): "O Messenger of Allah! Which mosque was constructed first on the earth?" he (The Messenger) answered: "It was The Sacred Mosque (of Mecca)". I asked: "Then, which was next?" he said: "It was the furthest mosque (of Jerusalem)". I asked again: "How long was the period between (constructing) them?" he said: "Forty years; and wherever (you are and) the time of the prayer came upon you, then you should offer the prayer, for it (wherever you are) would be regarded as a place of prayer".

2-(...) Ibrahim Ibn Yazid At-Taimi narrated: I used to recite The Holy Quran to my father while we were in the area surrounding the mosque. Whenever I recited a certain Verse of prostration, he would fall in prostration. I asked him: O my father! Do you prostrate on the way? he replied: I heard Abu Dharr saying: I asked (The Prophet): "O Messenger of Allah! Which mosque was constructed first on the earth?" he (The Messenger) answered: "It was The Sacred Mosque (of Mecca)". I asked: "Then, which was next?" he said: "It was the furthest mosque (of Jerusalem)". I asked again: "How long was the period between (constructing) them?" he said: "Forty years; and all of the earth is considered as place of prayer for you. So, wherever (you are and)the time of the prayer came upon you, then you should offer the prayer".

3-(521) Jaber Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I have been given five (things) which were not given to anyone before me: Every Prophet was sent to his own people in particular, and I have been sent to all people, red and black; the war booty has been made lawful for me, and it was never made lawful for anyone before me; the earth has been made sacred, pure and place of prayer for me, so whenever the time of the Prayer comes upon anyone of you, he should pray wherever he is; I have been given victory by terror, (cast in the hearts of the enemy) from a distance (as long as covered in) a month; and I have been given intercession (in the hereafter)".

(...) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: (the same previous narration).

4-(522) Hudhaifa narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We have been given preference over all of the people by three characteristics: Our rows (in the prayer) have been made to be as those of the angels; all of the land has been made as (pure as to be a) place of prayer for us (to offer the prayer wherever we might be);

[1] Building the mosque of The Prophet "Peace be upon him"

9-(524) Anas narrated: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Medina he dismounted at the heights of Medina amongst a tribe called Banu Amr Ibn Awf. He stayed there for fourteen nights. Then he sent for Banu An-Najjar and they came, armed with their swords; as if I am looking (just now) at The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", sitting on his Mount with Abu Bakr riding behind him and all Banu An-Najjar around him till he dismounted at the courtyard of Abu Aiyub's house. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would pray wherever he was even if he was at sheepfolds, whenever the time for prayer was due.

Later on he ordered that a mosque should be built. He sent for some people of Banu An-Najjar and said: "O Banu An-Najjar! Suggest to me the price of this (walled) piece of land of yours". They replied: "No! By Allah! We do not demand its price except from Allah". Anas added: In it, there was what I'm telling you: there were some date-palm trees and some graves of pagans, and some of it was unleveled.

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that the date-palm trees be cut down, the graves of the pagans be dug out, and the unleveled land be leveled. They aligned these cut date-palm trees towards the Qibla of the mosque (as a wall) and they also built two stone sidewalls (of the mosque). They (his companions brought the stones while they) were reciting some poetic verses, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was with them. They kept on saying: "There is no goodness except that of the Hereafter, O Allah! So please support the Ansar and the emigrants".

10-(...) Anas narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to pray at the sheepfolds (whenever the time of the prayer was due) before the mosque was constructed.

(...) Anas narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...(and he mentioned the same previous narration).

[2] Changing the Qibla from Jerusalem to Ka'ba

11-(525) Al-Bara Ibn Azib reported: I prayed with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" facing Jerusalem for sixteen months, until Allah revealed the holy Verse of the Sura of Heifer: " Turn then thy face in the direction of the Sacred Mosque: wherever ye are, turn your faces in that direction". (The Heifer "Al-Baqara" 144) it was revealed just after The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had offered the prayer. A man from the people went out and passed by some of the Ansar who were performing the prayer (with their faces towards Jerusalem). he talked to them (about that Verse). So, they turned their faces towards Ka'ba.

12-(...) Al-Bara narrated: We have been offering the prayers with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" facing Jerusalem for sixteen or seventeen months, when we were ordered to turn our faces towards Ka'ba.

13-(526) Ibn Umar reported: While people were performing the Morning (Fajr) prayer at the mosque of Quba, somebody came to them and said: "Tonight, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was revealed (through a divine verse) that faces must be turned towards Ka'ba in prayer. So, you must face it". They were praying with their faces towards Jerusalem. They turned towards Ka'ba.

15-(527) Thabit narrated from Anas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used (at first) to offer the prayers facing Jerusalem. Then Allah revealed: "We see the turning of thy face (for guidance) to the heavens: now shall We turn thee to a Qibla that shall please thee. Turn then thy face in the direction of the Sacred Mosque" (The Heifer "Al-Baqara" 144).

A man from Banu Salama passed (by some people) and they were bowing, performing the Fajr prayer. However, they just had offered the first Rak'a when he said addressing them: "Verily! The Qibla has been turned (from Jerusalem to Ka'ba)". They turned their faces while they were in their state in the prayer to the direction of the Qibla (of Ka'ba).

[4] The merit of constructing mosques, and the exhortation to do it

24-(533) Ubaidullah Al-Khawlani narrated that he heard Uthman Ibn Affan saying, when the people talked about him, after he intended to extend the mosque of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": You have talked so much (concerning this matter). However, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who built a mosque for the sake of Allah Almighty, (Bukair said: I thought he said: "Aiming at the pleasure of Allah Almighty"), then, Allah would build for him a house in Paradise (or, according to the narration of Isa, the like of it in Paradise)".

25-(...) Mahmud Ibn Labid narrated: When Uthman intended to extend the mosque (of The Prophet), the people disliked that, and wished that he would leave it as it was. Upon this, he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who constructed a mosque for the sake of Allah, then Allah would build for him the like of it in Paradise".

[5] Putting the hands on the knees in bowing, and the abrogation of intertwining the fingers

26-(534) Both of Al-Aswad and Alqama narrated: We came to Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud in his house, and he said: "Did those behind you offer the prayer?" we answered in the negative. He said: "Stand and offer the prayer". He did not tell us to announce call or proclaim establishment for the prayer. We got up to stand behind him, but he took hold of our hands, and made one of us on his right and the other on his left.

When he bowed, we (bowed after him and) put our hands on our knees. He struck our hands, intertwined (the fingers of) his two palms and put them together between his thighs. After he had finished the prayer he said: "There will come some rulers over you, who will delay the prayer from its fixed stated time, in such a way as to be offered a little time before sunset. So when you see them doing so, offer the prayer in its fixed stated time and then perform the prayer with them with the intention of regarding it as voluntary (in your sight). 27-(...) Al-A'mash narrated, through another chain of narrators from Ibrahim that both Al-Aswad and Alqama entered into Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud, and mentioned a Hadith like that of Abu Mu'awiya). He said, according to the narration of Ibn Muzhir and Jarir: I feel as if I am seeing the gap between the fingers of Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was bowing.

28-(...) Ibrahim narrated that both Alqama and Al-Aswad entered into Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) who said: "Did those behind you offer the prayer?" they answered in the affirmative. He stood between them, making one of them on his right, and the other on his left. (The narrator resumed): We bowed, and put our hands upon our knees. He struck our hands. Then, he intertwined (the fingers of) his palms and placed them between his thighs. When he finished the prayer, he said: "So did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"".

29-(535) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd (Ibn Abu Waqqas) narrated: I performed the Prayer by the side of my father. When I bowed, I put my palms together between my knees. But, my father said to me: "Put your palms upon your knees". I did the same once again. He (my father) struck my hands and said: "We were forbidden to do that. Instead, we were ordered to put the palms on the knees".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Ya'fur, with the same chain of transmitters, to his saying: "We were forbidden to do so" and he did not mention what is next.

30-(...) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd narrated: Once, I bowed (while being in the prayer) and made my hands as such (meant that he intertwined (the fingers of) his palms together and put them between his thighs). Upon this, my father said: "We were ordered to do that at first; but later, we were ordered to put our palms on our knees".

31-(...) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd (Ibn Abu Waqqas) narrated: I performed the Prayer by the side of my father. When I bowed, I intertwined my fingers and put them between my knees. But, he struck my hands. When he finished the prayer, he said: "We used to do that at first. But later, we were ordered to put the palms on the knees".

[6] It is permissible to sit on one's buttocks (in prayer)

32-(536) Tawus narrated: We asked Ibn Abbas about sitting on one's buttocks (in prayer). He said: "It is the (followed) tradition". We said to him: "We see it a (kind of) cruelty to the foot". Ibn Abbas said: "It is the tradition of your Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"".

[7] It is forbidden to talk during the prayer, and the abrogation of the previous permission

33-(537) Mu'awiya Ibn Al-Hakam As-Sulami reported: I was praying behind The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man sneezed. I said: "Allah's mercy be upon you!" The people stared at me disapprovingly. I said: "Let my Mother be bereaved of me! What is the matter?" They started striking their hands on their thighs. Saw them urging me to keep silent I said nothing (though I got angry).

When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer, he, by Allah, did neither scold, beat, nor berate me, -let my father and mother be sacrificed for him, neither before nor after whom, I have seen a tutor who used to give instructions better than him- but he said: "Talking to persons is not permissible during the prayer, for it consists of glorifying and magnifying Allah, and reciting The Quran" or as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said.

I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Until recently, I was a pagan, but Allah has brought Islam to us. From among us, there are men who use to have recourse to priests. (What about them?)" He said: "Do not have recourse to them". I said: "There are men who use to believe in omens". He said: "That is something in their breasts, but let it not keep them off (from what is right)". I said: "From among us, there are men who use to draw lines". He said: "There was a prophet who used to draw lines. If they do it as he did, that is permissible".

I am, anyway, a man from the sons of Adam. I felt sorry as they (people) feel sorry. So I slapped her. I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Felt (what I had done) as something of seriousness, I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would I not emancipate her?" He said: "Bring her to me". I brought her to him. He asked her: "Where is Allah?" day I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sitting on it. I said to him: O Abu Abbas! Tell us (about that).

He said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent for a woman, saying: "Allow your slave, a carpenter, to make some wood sticks (from which he would prepare a pulpit) so that I should talk to the people (while sitting on it)". (Abu Hazim said: He (Sahl) named (this woman) on that day). He (the carpenter) made (the pulpit) with those three steps. Then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that it should be put here (as it is lying now). It was made of the wood of Al-Ghaba (a place near the heights of Medina).

I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" standing upon it and glorifying Allah and then the people glorified Allah after him, while he was on the pulpit. Then, he raised (his head from prostration) and stepped back (on his heels) till he prostrated at the base of the pulpit. Then, he returned (to the place where he was, and he kept moving one or two steps) until the Prayer was complete. He then turned towards the people and said: "O people, I have done so in order that you should follow me and learn my (way of) Prayer".

[16] It is undesirable to pray in the presence of the food, one would eat at the time (of the prayer); and it is unfavorable to pray while motivated by the two evil things (brought by the call of nature)

64-(557) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the supper was served, and the prayer was established at the same time, you should start with having the supper".

(…) Anas Ibn Malik narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the supper was brought, and then the time of the prayer became due, start with having it before offering the Maghrib prayer, and do not be hasty in having your supper".

65-(558) Hisham narrated from his father from A'isha from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same Hadith narrated by Ibn Uyaina from Az-Zuhri from Anas.

66-(559) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the supper of anyone of you was served, and then the prayer was established, then start with having the supper, and do not be hasty (to the prayer) before finishing from it".

However, Al-Qasim's pronunciation used to contain many errors. He was a son of a freed slave-woman. A'isha asked him: "Why did not you relate narration as this son of my brother use to relate? Indeed, I know the reason for which you have been afflicted (by such a defect). This was brought up by his mother, and you were brought up by your mother".

Upon this, he became angry and displeased with her (A'isha). When the meal of A'isha was served, he stood up (in order to leave). She asked him: "Where are you going?" he said: "I'm going to pray". She said: "Sit down!" he said: "Verily, I should go to offer the prayer". She said: "Sit down, O disloyal! He ordered that it should be brought in front of one of his companions (who was present with him). when he (The Prophet) saw him having disliked to eat from it (in view of the fact that The Prophet himself disliked eating from it), he said to him: "Eat, for (what prevented me from eating of it is that) I speak privately (the angels) whom you do not speak".

forbid what Allah has made lawful to me. But, it (i.e. garlic) is a plant, whose (offensive) smell I dislike".

77-(566) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated that once The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions passed by (a piece of) land cultivated with onion. Some of them descended and ate from it, and the others did not eat. When we returned to him, he called to him those who did not eat (onion) and relegated the others who ate from it until their (offensive) smell went away.

78-(567) Ma'dan Ibn Abu Talha narrated that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab once delivered a Friday sermon, in which he mentioned The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Abu Bakr. Then he said: "I saw (in a dream) as if two cocks clicked me thrice, and I interpreted it as nothing but the time of my death. However, some people told me to appoint a successor to me, and Allah is not to waste His religion, His succession, or that, with which He sent His Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". If the matter (of death) hurried to come to me, then, (choosing) a successor should be put to consultation, (and be restricted) in those six men, with whom The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was pleased when he died. Therefore, I learnt that some people criticized this matter, whom I struck with those hands of mine in order to believe in Islam. If they kept doing so, they would be the perverse unbelieving enemies of Allah.

I never leave anything after me more important than the (matter of) the deceased person, who left neither ascendants nor descendants. I never turned towards the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for guidance) more often than this deceased who left neither ascendants nor descendants; and he (the Prophet) was not annoyed with me on anything more than he was on this, to the extent that he struck his fingers on my chest and said to me: "O Umar! Does this verse, at the end of The Sura of Women, revealed in the summer not suffice you"? If I live longer I would decide this (problem so clearly) that one who recites, or does not recite the Quran, would be able to take (correct) decisions (on the light of it)".

He (Umar) added: "O Allah! I make You witness on these governors of lands, whom I sent (to the people) in order to administer justice among them, teach them their religion in addition to the Sunna of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and distribute among them the war booty, and refer to me whatever they find difficult to perform. O people, you eat these two (offensive) plants and these are onion and garlic, which I find nothing but vicious, in view of the fact that I saw that when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt the (offensive) smell of these two from a person in the mosque, he would order him to go to Baqi. So, he, who eats them, should cause (their odor) to die by cooking them well".

[18] It is forbidden to cry out for finding one's lost thing in the mosque, and what one, who hears such a crier, would say

79-(568) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who hears one crying for finding his lost thing in the mosque, should reply to him, saying: May Allah not bring it back to you! Mosques have not been built for that".

(...) Abu Huraira narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying (the same).

80-(569) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father that a man cried out in the mosque saying: "Who did (find and) call (me) out for the red camel (which is my lost thing)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "May it not be brought back to you! Verily, mosques have been built only for what they have been built" (i.e. for mentioning Allah, praying, reciting and studying Quran and so on).

81-(...) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father that after The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had offered the prayer (with the people), a man stood up and cried out in the mosque saying: "Who did (find and) call (me) out for the red camel (which is my lost thing)?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "May you not find it! Verily, the mosques have been built only for what they have been built" (i.e. for mentioning Allah, praying, reciting and studying Quran and so on).

(...) Ibn Buraida narrated from his father that once, after The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had offered the Fajr prayer (with the people), a Bedouin came and entered his head through the gate of the mosque, (and the rest is like the previous narration). (Muslim said that he (the Bedouin) was Shaiba Ibn Na'ama Abu Na'ama).

83-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the Adhan is pronounced Satan turns on his heels and passes wind with noise during his flight in order not to hear the Adhan. When the Adhan reaches its end he comes back and again turns on his heels when the prayer establishment (Iqama) is pronounced. After its completion he returns again till he whispers into the heart of the person (to divert his attention from his prayer) saying to him: "Remember such-and-such a thing, and such-and-such a thing", making him remember things, which he has not recalled to his mind before the prayer to the extent that he would forget how much he has prayed. So, if anyone of you did not know (in view of his forgetfulness) how much he prayed, he should offer two prostrations while sitting (after reciting Tashahhud)".

(Then he mentioned the same, with this addition: "He (Satan) causes him to think of pleasant things and of things he might wish for, and reminds him of such needs which he had forgotten").

85-(570) Abdullah Ibn Buhaina narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in a two-Rak'a prayer. Then, he stood up and did not sit down; and the people stood with him. When he finished from the prayer, we expected for his end salutation. But he magnified Allah and offered two prostrations while he was sitting, before the end salutation. Then, he said the end salutation.

Abdullah Ibn Buhaina Al-Asadi, an ally of the sons of Abd Al-Muttalib, narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up in the Noon prayer, though he had to sit (after the second Rak'a). When he completed the prayer, he offered two prostrations saying in each: "Allah is Greater", while he was sitting before uttering the end salutation, and the people offered the two prostrations with him, in compensation for the sitting he had forgotten (after the second Rak'a).

offered one Rak'a, uttered the salutation, offered two prostrations, and then said salutation once again.

102-(...) Imran Ibn Husain narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said the end salutation after three Rak'as of Asr prayer (instead of four). Then, he (left the mosque and) entered into his chamber. A long-handed man stood up and said to him: "Has the prayer been reduced, O Messenger of Allah?" upon this, he went out angrily, offered the Rak'a which he forgot, and uttered salutation. Then, he offered the two prostrations of forgetfulness and said salutation.

[20] The prostration of reciting (The Quran)

103-(575) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite The Quran, and whenever he recited a Sura containing a prostration (Verse), he would fall in prostration, and we would fall in prostration with him, (and it might become so much crowded) to the extent that some of us could find no place for his forehead (to prostrate).

104-(...) Nafi narrated that Ibn Umar said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite The Quran and whenever he passed by a prostration (Verse), he would prostrate, and we would follow him until it would so much crowded with us to the extent that there would be no place for some of us to prostrate, and that was not in the prayer.

105-(576) Al-Aswad narrated that Abdullah said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited The Sura of Star (at Mecca) and prostrated while reciting it. There was none (of those who were with him) except that he prostrated. But an old man took a handful of small stones or earth and lifted it to his forehead and said: "This is sufficient for me". Later on, I saw him killed as a non-believer.

106-(577) Ata Ibn Yasar narrated that he asked Zaid Ibn Thabit about the recitation with the imam (during the prayer). He told him that there would be no recitation (obligatory) with the imam, and told that he (Zaid) recited the Sura of Star before The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he did not prostrate.

107-(578) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that once, Abu Huraira recited (while leading the prayer the Sura): "When the Sky is rent asunder", and then he prostrated in it. After he had finished (from the prayer), he told them that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prostrated in it.

[23] Celebrating (the praises of Allah) after the prayer

120-(583) Ibn Abbas narrated: We used to know the finishing of the prayer of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" by (hearing his) magnifications (of Allah).

121-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated: We did not know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer except by (hearing his) magnifications (of Allah). (Amr, a sub-narrator, said: I mentioned that to Abu Ma'bad (who narrated it to me), but he denied it and said: "I did not relate that to you". Amr resumed: However, he had narrated it to me earlier.

122-(...) Amr Ibn Dinar narrated from Abu Ma'bad, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas that Ibn Abbas told him that raising one's voice with celebrating (the praises of Allah) after finishing from the obligatory (prayers) was prevalent during the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (Abu Ma'bad) told that Ibn Abbas said: "I used to know by this that he had finished (from the prayer) whenever I heard him".

[24] It is better to seek refuge (with Allah) from the grave torture

123-(584) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that A'isha had told: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into me, while a woman from the Jews was with me. She said: "Do you know that you would be put to trial in the graves?" upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" trembled and said: "Verily! It is the Jews who would be put to trial (in the graves)".

A'isha resumed: Many nights had elapsed when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Do you know that I have been Divinely revealed that "You (Muslims) would be put to trial in the graves"?" A'isha said: From that time, I used to hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seeking refuge (with Allah) from the grave torture.

124-(585) Abu Huraira narrated: I used to hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" after that (event) seeking refuge (with Allah) from the grave torture.

125-(586) Masruq narrated from A'isha: Once, two old women of the Jews of Medina entered into me and said: "Verily, the inhabitants of the graves are punished in their graves". But, I made lie of, and disliked to believe them. Then, they came out, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into me, to whom I said: "O

Messenger of Allah! Two old women of the Jews of Medina entered into me and alleged that the inhabitants of the graves are tortured in their graves". He said: "They have told the truth. Indeed, they are tortured so much violently that the beasts could hear it". From that time, I never saw him offering a prayer except that he would seek refuge (with Allah) from the grave torture.

126-(...) Masruq narrated from A'isha the same, and here she said: From that time on, he never offered a prayer but that I heard him seeking refuge (with Allah) from the grave punishment.

127-(587) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that A'isha said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seeking refuge (with Allah) in the prayer from the affliction of Ad-Dajjal.

128-(588) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you uttered the testification "Tashahhud" (in the prayer), he should seek refuge from four (things): he should say: O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the torture of Hell, from the torture of the grave, from the afflictions of both life and death, and from the evil of the affliction of Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal".

129-(589) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair reported: A'isha, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", told: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to invoke Allah in the prayer saying: " O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the punishment of the grave, from the afflictions of The Charlatan (Ad-Dajjal), and from the afflictions of life and death. O Allah, I seek refuge with you from sins and from (being in) debt". Somebody said to him: "Why do you so frequently seek refuge with Allah from being in debt?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "A debtor tells lies whenever he speaks, and breaks promises whenever he makes them".

130-(588) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you finished from reciting the last testification "Tashahhud" (in the prayer), he should seek refuge with Allah from four (things): from the torture of Hell, from the torture of the grave, from the afflictions of both life and death, and from the evil of (the affliction of) Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal".

It was narrated on the authority of Al-Awza'i, with the same chain of transmitters, and said: "If anyone of you finished from the testification "Tashahhud""...and did not mention "the last".

134-(590) Tawus narrated from Ibn Abbas that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to instruct them the following supplication as he used to teach them a Sura from The Quran. He said: "Say: O Allah! We seek refuge with You from the torture of the Hell, we seek with You from the grave torture, we seek refuge with You from the affliction of Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal, and we seek with You from the afflictions of both life and death".

Muslim Ibn Al-Hajjaj said: I was informed that Tawus asked his son: "Did you invoke with it in your prayer?" he answered in the negative. He said to him: "Then, repeat your prayer (and invoke with it)", for indeed, Tawus narrated it from three or four (or as he said in similar words).

[26] It is desirable to celebrate (Allah) after the prayer

135-(591) Thawban narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished from the prayer, he would ask for Allah's forgiveness thrice, and say: "O Allah! You are the (source of) Peace, and from You peace is (hoped for)! Exalted be You, O (Allah Who is worthy) of Magnificence and Glory".

136-(592) A'isha narrated: Whenever The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uttered the end salutation (of the prayer), he would not sit except as long as it takes him to say: "O Allah! You are the (source

Those of great wealth obtained the highest ranks and ever-lasting bliss...(and the rest is like that narrated by Qutaiba from Al-Laith), but he caught up in the narration of Abu Huraira the saying of Abu Salih: then, the poor persons from amongst the Emigrants returned...to the end of the Hadith. It was also mentioned that Suhail said: "(Glorify Allah) eleven times (praise Him) eleven times (and so on) until the total from all of that becomes thirty-three times".

144-(596) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila narrated from Ka'b Ibn Ujra: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are certain ejaculations, the reciter (or performer) of which after every obligatory prayer should never be disappointed: i.e. thirty-three glorifications (Glory be to Allah), thirty-three praises (Praise be to Allah), and thirty-four magnifications (Allah is greater)".

[29] When could people stand for the prayer

156-(604) Abdullah Ibn Abu Quatada narrated from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the prayer was established (or if it was called for the prayer, according to Ibn Hatim), you should not stand until you see me".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Abu Kathir, from Abdullah Ibn Abu Quatada from his father from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through different chain of transmitters. Ishaq added in his narration: "Until you see me coming out".

157-(605) Abu Huraira narrated: Once, the prayer was established and the rows were straightened before the coming of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out (and proceeded) until he stood in his praying place. But, before magnifying Allah (for assuming the prayer), he mentioned (that he was in a state of ceremonial impurity because of sexual intercourse). He turned away and addressed us saying: "Keep standing in your places". We kept standing, waiting him, until he came out to us once again, after taking a bath, with his head dribbling water. He magnified Allah (for assuming the prayer) and led us in the prayer.

158-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: Once, the prayer was established and the rows were straightened. then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out. When he stood in his praying place, he pointed to the people to keep standing in their places. (A while later) he came out once again, after taking a bath, with his head dribbling water. Then, he led the people in the prayer.

159-(...) Abu Huraira narrated that the prayer used to be established for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the people would take their places in the rows before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would stand in his (leading) position.

183-(...) Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated: This is what Abu Huraira reported to us from the traditions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (He mentioned many traditions, including the following): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Delay the (Noon) prayer until the extreme heat passes away. indeed, the intensity of heat is from the exhalation of Hell".

184-(616) Abu Dharr narrated: The caller for the prayer of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called for the Noon Prayer. Upon this the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let it cool down, let it cool down", or he said: "Wait, wait, for the intensity of heat is from the exhalation of Hell. When it is very hot, delay the Prayer till it becomes cooler". Abu Dharr commented: (He delayed it so much) until we saw (the shadow of) the mounds.

185-(617) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Fire (of Hell) complained to the Lord saying: "O Lord! 195-(622) Al-Ala narrated: Once, we came to the house of Anas Ibn Malik in Basra after performing the Noon Prayer. His (Anas's) house was situated by the side of the mosque. He asked us: "Have you performed the Afternoon (Asr) Prayer?" We said: "Just a few minutes earlier, we finished the Noon (Dhuhr) Prayer". He said: "Then, perform the Afternoon (Asr) Prayer". We stood up and performed our Prayer. When we finished from it, he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "This is the (way of the) prayer of a hypocrite: i.e. he sits watching the sun, and when it lies between the horns of Satan, he rises and strikes the ground four times (hastily), during which, he never mentions Allah but a little".

196-(623) Abu Umama narrated: we prayed The Dhuhr behind Umar Ibn Abd Al-Aziz. When we got out, we left for Anas Ibn Malik and found him praying The Asr. I asked him: "O uncle! What is this prayer you offered?" he said: "This is The Asr prayer; and that is (its due time) fixed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", (in which) we used to offer with him".

197-(624) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the Afternoon (Asr) prayer. After he had finished, a man from Banu Salama came and said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! We intended to butcher a camel of us, and we wished that you would be present (with us)". He (The Prophet) answered in the affirmative. Then, he set out, and we set out with him. (When we arrived there) we found that the camel had not yet been butchered. It was butchered, cut (to parts) and cooked, and from which we ate (and all of that was) before the sun disappeared.

middle prayer, i.e. the Asr prayer. Might Allah fill their houses and graves with fire". Then, he performed it (in the period) between the Evening (Maghrib) prayer and the Night (Isha) prayer.

206-(628) Abdullah narrated: (On the day of the holy battle of the Confederates) the unbelievers detained The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from offering the Afternoon (Asr) prayer, until the sun turned red (or pale). Upon this, he (The Prophet) commented: "They occupied us from offering the middle prayer, i.e. the Afternoon (Asr) prayer. Might Allah fill (or stuff) their bellies and graves with fire".

207-(629) Abu Yunus, the freed slave of A'isha said: A'isha ordered me to transcribe a copy of the Quran for her and said: When you reach this verse: "Guard strictly the prayers and (particularly) the middle prayer" (The Heifer "Al-Baqara" 238), inform me. When I reached it, I informed her and she dictated to me (the following): "Guard strictly the prayers and (particularly) the middle prayer and the Afternoon (Asr) prayer, and stand up devoutly obedient to Allah". A'isha said: No doubt, I heard that from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

208-(630) Al-Bara Ibn Azib narrated: (At first) the following Verse was revealed: "Guard strictly the prayers, and (particularly) the Afternoon (Asr) prayer", which we recited as much as Allah willed. Then it was annulled by Allah in this way: "Guard strictly the prayers and (particularly) the middle prayer". (A man, who was present with Shaqiq, asked: "Is it then the Asr prayer?" Al-Bara said: "I told you how it was revealed (at first), and how it was annulled (by Allah), and Allah knows best").

Muslim said: Al-Ashja'i narrated it from Sufyan Ath-Thawri, from Al-Aswad Ibn Qais, from Shaqiq Ibn Uqba, from Al-Bara Ibn Azib, who said: We recited it (the previous Verse) for a long time with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (before being annulled).

209-(631) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab had been cursing the pagans of Quraish on the day of the (holy Battle of the) Trench. He came (to the Prophet) and said: "O Messenger of Allah! By Allah, I could not perform the Afternoon (Asr) Prayer till the sun set". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Allah, I, too, have not offered it yet". So we went to (the valley of) But'han. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed ablution and we too performed ablution. Then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed the Afternoon (Asr) Prayer after the sun had set, and then performed the Evening (Maghrib) Prayer after it.

Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the (Morning) prayer when it was still dark just after the appearance of dawn.

232-(...) A'isha narrated: Verily, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the Morning prayer and the women (who attended the prayer with him) would return, wrapped in their mantles, and no one would (be able to) recognize them because he (The Prophet) used to offer the (Morning) prayer when it was still dark just after the appearance of dawn.

233-(646) Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Hasan Ibn Ali narrated: When Al-Hajjaj arrived in Medina (as a governor appointed by Abd Al-Malik Ibn Marwan), (he used to delay offering the prayers from its due times. So) we asked Jaber Ibn Abdullah (about the exact times of offering the obligatory Prayers). He said that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to perform the Noon (Dhuhr) Prayer in the midday heat, the Afternoon (Asr) Prayer when the sun was bright, the Evening (Maghrib) Prayer when the sun had just set, and he sometimes delayed and sometimes offered the Night (Isha) Prayer at earlier hours. Whenever he found them (his Companions) gathering (at earlier hours) he would offer the prayer early, and whenever he found them coming late, he would delay the Prayer. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the Morning Prayer when it was still dark, just after the appearance of dawn.

[42] The superiority of the congregational prayer, and the great punishment of the one, who fails to attend it

245-(649) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The congregational prayer is twenty-five times greater than the prayer offered by anyone of you alone".

246-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The (reward of the) prayer in congregation is twenty-five times better than (that of) the prayer performed by a person alone. The angels of the night and the angels of the day gather at the time of Fajr prayer". Abu Huraira then added: "Recite (from the Holy Book) if you wish: "And the morning prayer and reading: for the prayer and reading in the morning carry their testimony". (The Night Journey "Al-Isra" 78)

(...) Both of Sa'id (Ibn Al-Musaiyyab) and Abu Salama narrated that Abu Huraira said: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying (a Hadith like that narrated by Abd Al-A'la Ibn Ma'mar).

247-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The congregational prayer is equal to twenty-five prayers offered by an individual alone".

248-(...) Ibn Juraij narrated: Umar Ibn Ata Ibn Abu Al-Khuwar told him that while he was sitting with Nafi Ibn Jubair Ibn Mut'im, Abu Abdullah, the son-in-law of Zaid Ibn Zabban, the freed slave of Al-Juhani, passed by them. Nafi invited him and said: I heard Abu Huraira saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One's (congregational) prayer with the imam is better than twenty-five prayers offered by him alone".

249-(650) Ibn Umar narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The reward of) one's prayer in congregation is twenty-seven times greater than (the reward of) one's prayer which he performs alone".

250-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A man's prayer in congregation is twenty-seven times greater than his prayer he offers alone".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Ubaid, with the same chain of transmitters. But, in the narration of Ibn Numair from his father, he (The Prophet) said: "Over than twenty (times greater)". Abu Bakr mentioned in his narration: "(It is superior to the prayer one offers alone by) twenty-seven degrees".

Allah) gave him such a license. But, when he (the blind man) turned away (in order to leave) he (The Messenger of Allah) called him and asked: "Do you hear the call for prayer?" the man answered in the affirmative. He (The Prophet) said: "Then, respond (to it by going and praying in the mosque)".

256-(654) Abdullah narrated: I witnessed the time when no one failed to attend the (congregational) prayer except a hypocrite, whose hypocrisy was clear, or a sick man, though a sick man, who could walk between two persons (as being supported by them) would come to prayer. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" taught us the ways of right guidance, from amongst which is prayer in the mosque in which the call for prayer is pronounced.

257-(...) Abdullah narrated: He, who likes to meet Allah tomorrow as Muslim, should keep on offering those (obligatory congregational) prayers, when a call for prayer is pronounced for them. That is because Allah has laid down for your Prophet the ways of right guidance, from amongst which are those (prayers). If you prayed in your houses as this man who fails to attend (the congregational prayer in the mosque and) prays in his house, you would give up the tradition of your Prophet; and if you gave up the tradition of your Prophet, you would go astray. No man, purifies himself (by performing ablution) perfectly, then aims at one of those mosques except that Allah would record a good deed in his favour for every step he takes, raise him a degree, and efface a sin from him because of it. I witnessed the time when no one failed to attend it, except a hypocrite, who was famous for his hypocrisy. Therefore, a (sick) man would be brought with the help of two men till he was set up in a row.

[45] It is forbidden to get out of the mosque if the Mu'adhdhin called (for the prayer)

258-(655) Abu Ash-Sha'tha narrated: Once, we were sitting with Abu Huraira in the mosque when the Mu'adhdhin called (for the prayer). Then, a man stood up and walked out of the mosque, with Abu Huraira's eyes following him, until he got out of the mosque. Upon this, Abu Huraira said: "As for this man, he disobeyed Abu Al-Qasim (The Messenger of Allah) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"".

259-(...) Abu Ash-Sha'tha narrated: I heard Abu Huraira saying, when he saw a man getting out of the mosque after the Mu'adhdhin had called for the prayer: "As for this man, he disobeyed Abu Al-Qasim (The Messenger of Allah) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"".

260-(656) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Amra narrated: Once, Uthman Ibn Affan entered the mosque after offering the Evening (Maghrib) prayer. He sat alone, and I sat with him. He said to me: "O son of my brother! No doubt, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who offered the Isha prayer in congregation, would get a reward equal to the one who stood for half the night in prayer, and he, who offered the Fajr prayer in congregation, would get a reward equal to the one who stood for all the night in prayer".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Uthman Ibn Hakim, with the same chain of transmitters.

261-(657) Anas Ibn Sirin narrated: I heard Jundub Ibn Abdullah saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who offered the Morning prayer (in congregation), would be under the safety (granted to him by) Allah; and Allah never demands anything from you (by which one committed deficiency) concerning His safety except that He would get it (for reckoning), with the result that He would throw him in the fire of Hell".

262-(...) Anas Ibn Sirin narrated: I heard Jundub Al-Qasri saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who offered the morning prayer (in congregation), would be under the protection of Allah; and Allah never demands anything from you concerning His protection. That is because Allah never demands anything concerning (one's deficiency in) His protection except that He would get it, with the result that he would throw him in the fire of Hell".

(...) This Hadith has been narrated by Jundub Ibn Sufyan from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with the same chain of transmitters, but he did not mention: "He would throw him in the fire of Hell"

[47] The license of not attending the congregational prayer (in the mosque) for a certain excuse

263-(33) Mahmud Ibn Ar-Rabie narrated: Itban Ibn Malik, who was one of the companions of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and one of the Ansar who took part in the battle of Badr, told: I came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have weak eyesight and I lead my people in prayers. When it rains the water flows in the valley between my people and me so I cannot go to their mosque to lead them in prayer. O Allah's Apostle! you would come to my house and pray in it so that I could take that part as a place of prayer". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I shall do, Allah willing".

Next day after the sun rose high, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Abu Bakr came and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked for permission to enter. I gave him permission and he did not sit on entering the house but said to me: "Where do you like me to pray?" I pointed to a certain place in my house. So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood there and said: "Allah is greater", and we all got up and aligned behind him. We offered a two-Rak'a prayer, and ended it with the end salutation.

We requested him (The Prophet) to stay for a meat curry, which we had prepared for him. Some members of our district gathered around us until there assembled in the house many of them, one of whom said: "Where is Malik Ibn Ad-Dukhshun?" One of them replied: "He is a hypocrite and does not love Allah and His Messenger". Hearing that, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not say so. Haven't you seen that he said: "There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah" just for Allah's sake only?" He said: "Allah and His Apostle know better. We have seen him helping and advising hypocrites". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has forbidden the (Hell) fire from those who say: "There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah" just for Allah's sake". Ibn Shihab said: Later, I asked Al-Husain Ibn Muhammad Al-Ansari, one of Banu Salim's chiefs, about this Hadith narrated by Mahmud Ibn Ar-Rabie, and he confirmed it.

Az-Zuhri narrated from Mahmud Ibn Ar-Rabie that Once, Itban Ibn Malik came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...(and mentioned a Hadith like that narrated by Yunus, but here he mentioned that one of them (the men present in the house) asked: "Where is Malik Ibn Ad-Dukhshun or Ibn Ad-Dukhaishin?" He further added in this narration: Mahmud Ibn Ar-Rabie told: I narrated this Hadith to some men, including Abu Aiyub Al-Ansari, who said: "I do not think that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said what you had said". I swore that if I returned to Itban, I would ask him (about it). Then, I returned and found that Itban had grown an old man, who lost his eyesight, and he was the imam of his people. I sat by his side and asked him about that narration. He narrated it to me in the same way he had narrated it to me for the first time).

Az-Zuhri commented: Then many other obligatory acts and commands were revealed which we see having been completed. So he, who is able not to be deceived, should not be deceived.

265-(...) Mahmud Ibn Ar-Rabie narrated: I well remember the ejection (of water) made by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from a bucket of our house. Mahmud further said: Itban Ibn Malik reported that he had said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have lost my eyesight..." and the remaining of the Hadith is the same up to this statement: "He led us in a two-Rak'a prayer and we requested The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to stay for the pudding we prepared for him" and there is no mention of what is next according to the addition made by Yunus and Ma'mar.

[48] It is permissible to offer the supererogatory prayers in congregation and it is permissible to pray on a mat, carpet, mantle or whatever pure things

266-(658) Anas Ibn Malik reported: My grandmother Mulaika invited Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for a meal which she herself had prepared. He ate from it and said: "Get up! I will lead you in the prayer". Anas added: "I took a (straw) mat of us, which I washed with water for it had become dark because of long use, on which, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood. The orphan (Damir Ibn Sa'd) and I aligned behind him and the old lady (Mulaika) stood behind us. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in a two Rak'a-prayer and then left".

267-(659) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was the best of all in character. Occasionally, the time of the Prayer would come while he was in our house. He would order that the mat lying under him, should be cleaned, with water sprinkled over it. Then he would start the Prayer and we would align behind him. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would lead us in the Prayer. The mat was made of leafstalks of date palms.

268-(660) Thabit narrated from Anas: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to us and there was none in our house but my mother, my aunt Umm Haram and I. He (the Prophet) said: "Stand up in order that I would lead you in the prayer"; and it was not a time of any (obligatory) Prayer. He led us in the Prayer. A person asked Thabit: "Where did he (The Prophet) make Anas stand with him?" He replied: "He

272-(649) Abu Huraira narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The reward of) one's prayer in congregation is over twenty times greater than (that of) the prayer offered in his home or in the market (alone). This is because if he performs ablution perfectly and then proceeds to the mosque prompted by nothing except for the prayer, i.e. having the sole intention of prayer, then for every step he takes towards the mosque, he is upgraded one degree in reward and one sin is taken off (erased) from his accounts (of deeds) until he enters the mosque. When he enters the mosque, he would be regarded in prayer, as long as he is detained by (nothing but) the prayer. The angels keep asking Allah's Blessings for him as long as he is in his praying place. They say: "O Allah! Bestow Your blessings upon him, be Merciful to him, and accept his repentance", as long as he does not do harm in it, and as long as his ablution is not broken in it".

٢٧٨ ـ (٦٦٣) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْثَرٌ، عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ التَّيْمِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ النَّهْدِيِّ، عَنْ أُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ؛ قَالَ: كَانَ رَجُلٌ، لا أَعْلَمُ رَجُلاً أَبْعَدَ مِنَ الْمَسْجِدِ مِنْهُ، وَكَانَ لا تُخْطِئُهُ صَلاةٌ. قَالَ: فَقِيلَ لَهُ، أَوْ قُلْتُ لَهُ: لَوِ اشْتَرَيْتَ حِمَاراً تَرْكَبُهُ فِي الظَّلْمَاءِ وَفِي الرَّمْضَاءِ. قَالَ: مَا يَسُرُّنِي أَنَّ مَنْزِلِي إِلَى جَنْبِ الْمَسْجِدِ، إِنِّي أُرِيدُ أَنْ يُكْتَبَ لِي steps to the mosque (to perform the prayer), and back (from the mosque) to my family, would be recorded for me". Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has gathered (the reward of) all of that for you".

(...) Ubai Ibn Ka'b narrated: There was a man from amongst the Ansar whose house was at the farthest end of Medina, but he never missed a (congregational) prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Sympathized him, we said to him: "O so-and-so! If you bought a donkey, it would save you from the burning sand and the reptiles of the earth". He said: "Listen by Allah! I do not like my house to be beside (The Messenger) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"". I felt (those words of his) hard and came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whom I told (of those words). He (The Prophet) invited him and he (the man) said likely the same (as he had said to Ubai Ibn Ka'b), and told him that he wanted a reward for his steps. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The reward which you expect (from Allah) would be given to you".

279-(664) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated: Our houses were far away from the mosque, and we wanted to sell them in order to (buy nearer houses and) become closer to the mosque. But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us and said: "You would have a degree (of reward) by every step (you walk from your houses to the mosque for congregational prayer)".

280-(665) Jaber Ibn Abdullah reported: There were some vacant places around the mosque. Banu Salama decided to turn themselves (towards this land) and come closer to the mosque. This (news) reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to them: "I learnt that you have the intention to turn yourselves near the mosque". They said: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah, we intended to do so". Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "O Banu Salama! Stay in your houses, for your steps are recorded (as good deeds for you); stay in your houses, for your steps are recorded (as good deeds for you)".

[51] By one's walking to (perform) the prayer (in the mosque), sins would be erased, and degrees (of reward) would be raised

282-(666) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who purified himself in his house, and then walked to one of the houses of Allah for performing one of the obligatory acts of Allah, his steps would be as one to obliterate a sin of his, and the other to raise him a degree (of reward)".

283-(667) Abu Huraira reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (or, according to the narration of Bakra, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying): "Just see! If there were a river at the door of anyone of you in which he would wash himself five times daily, would anything of his filthiness remain (on his body)?" They said: "Nothing of his filthiness would remain (on his body)". He said: "That is like the five Prayers by which Allah erases sins".

284-(668) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The example of the (daily obligatory) five prayers is like an overflowing river, running at the door of anyone of you in which he washes himself five times a day". Hasan said: "No filth would remain on him".

285-(669) Ata Ibn Yasar narrated from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who went to the mosque in the morning or in the evening, Allah would arrange a feast for him in Paradise whenever he went in the morning or in the evening".

291-(...) Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "The most perfect and earliest in (knowing, learning and) reciting Allah's Book (i.e. The Holy Quran) should lead the people in the prayer. If they are all equal in (the competence of) the recitation (of Allah's Book), then, the earliest from amongst them in emigration (should lead them). If they are all equal in (their time of) emigration, then the oldest of them (should lead them). Moreover, you should not lead another in his (the latter's) house or in his authority, nor should you sit on his place of honour in his home unless he gives you permission (or without his permission)".

292-(674) Malik Ibn Al-Huwairith narrated: I came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with some men from my tribe. We were all young, of nearly equal ages. We stayed with him for twenty nights. He was kind and merciful to us. When he realized our longing for our families, he asked us about those we left behind. when we told him, he said to us: "Go back and stay with your families to teach them the religion, and order them (to do good). When the time of the prayer comes, one of you should pronounce the call (Adhan) for the prayer, as well as the oldest one amongst you should lead the prayer".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hammad from Aiyub, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...)Malik Ibn Al-Huwairith narrated: I came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with some men from my tribe. We were all young, of nearly equal ages...(and mentioned the whole narration, which is like that transmitted by Ibn Ulaiyya).

293-(...) Malik Ibn Al-Huwairith narrated: I came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with one of my companions. When we intended to (be given permission by The Prophet to) return from him, he said to us: "When the time of the prayer comes, (let one of you) pronounce the call for the prayer, and (let one of you) announce the prayer establishment. But, let the older one of you lead you (in the prayer)".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Khalid Al-Hadhdha, with the same chain of narrators, and he added: They were nearly equal in (the competence of) the recitation (of The Holy Quran).

[54] It is desirable to apply Qunut (invoking Allah after rising from bowing) in all prayers, particularly if Muslims suffered from calamity

294-(675) Both of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab and Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated: Abu Huraira said: "In the Dawn (Fajr) prayer, whenever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished from recitation, then magnified Allah (and bowed), and then raised his head (from bowing), he used to say: "Allah hears him who praises Him, O, our Lord! To You be all praises". Then, he would invoke Allah while standing: "O Allah! Save Al-Walid Ibn Al-Walid, Salama Ibn Hisham, Aiyyash Ibn Abu Rabie'a, and the weak and the helpless people among the faithful believers. O Allah! Be hard on the tribe of Mudar and let them suffer from years of famine like that of the time of Joseph. O Allah! Send Your curse upon (the tribes of) Lihyan, Ra'l, Dhakwan and Usaiyya, which disobeyed Allah and His Messenger".

But we were informed that he, later, left it (i.e. invoking evil upon the unbelievers) particularly when it was revealed: "Not for thee, (but for Allah), is the decision: whether he turn in mercy to them, or punish them; for they are indeed wrongdoers". (Al Imran 128)

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to his saying: "and let them suffer from years of famine like that of the time of Joseph". He did not mention what is next to that.

295-(...) Abu Salama narrated that Abu Huraira had told him: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked Allah for a month after (raising his head from) bowing. he used to invoke, after his saying: "Allah hears him who praises Him": "O Allah! Save Al-Walid Ibn Al-Walid, Salama Ibn Hisham, Aiyyash Ibn Abu Rabie'a, and the weak and the helpless people among the faithful believers. O Allah! Be hard on (the tribe of) Mudar and let them suffer from years of famine like that of the time of Joseph". Abu Huraira resumed: Later, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left such an invocation. I said: "I saw that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left invoking good upon them". It was said to me: "Do not you see that they (for whom The Prophet invoked Allah) had been saved?"

(...) Abu Salama narrated that Abu Huraira had told him that while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering the Night (Isha) prayer, he said (after rising from bowing): "Allah hears him, who praises Him". then he said before he prostrated (invoking): "O Allah! Save Aiyyash Ibn Abu Rabie'a..." (and mentioned a Hadith like that transmitted by Al-Awza'i, to his saying "like that of the time of Joseph", and did not mention what follows that).

296-(676) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that he heard Abu Huraira saying: "By Allah! I would make The Prophet's prayer much closer to you". Then, he used to stand for Qunut (invoking Allah before prostration after saying: "Allah hears him who praises Him"), in the Dhuhr, Isha and Morning prayers. He used to invoke good upon believers and curse upon unbelievers.

297-(677) Anas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked Allah to curse the pagans who killed those (Muslims) of Bir-Ma'oona for thirty mornings. He invoked Allah against the tribes of Ra'l, Dhakwan, Lihyan and Usaiyya who disobeyed Allah and his Messenger. Anas added: On those who were killed at Bir-Ma'oona a Quranic verse was revealed which we recited and which was annulled: "Inform our people that we met our lord who got pleased with us and made us pleased".

298-(...) Muhammad reported: I asked Anas: "Did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offer Qunut in the dawn prayer?" He said: "Yes, (he did) after bowing, for a short time".

299-(...) Anas narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" practiced Qunut for a month in the Morning prayer, after rising from bowing, invoking evil against both (the tribes of) Ra'l and Dhakwan, and saying (concerning the tribe of Usaiyya): "(And let Your curse be upon) Usaiyya which disobeyed Allah and His Messenger".

300-(...) Anas Ibn Sirin narrated from Anas Ibn Malik that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed Qunut for a month after (rising from) bowing in the Dawn (Fajr) prayer, invoking evil against (the tribe of) Banu Usaiyya.

301-(...) Asim narrated: I asked Anas whether the Qunut should be performed before or after bowing. He said: "(It should be done) before bowing". I said: "But, some people pretend that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed Qunut after bowing". He said: "No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed Qunut for a month, invoking evil against many people, who killed some of his companions, known as the Reciters".

302-(...) Asim narrated: I heard Anas Ibn Malik saying: I have never seen The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" much more grieved for (the loss of) a (Muslim) detachment than he was for the seventy men, who were killed on the day of (the event of) Bir-Ma'oona; and they were known as the Reciters. He kept for a month, invoking evil against their murderers.

Then he raised his head (from bowing) and said: "As for (the tribe of) Ghifar, Allah has forgiven it, and as for (the tribe of) Aslam, Allah has (saved it and) granted peace to it. As for (the tribe of) Usaiyya, it disobeyed Allah and His Messenger. O Allah! Send Your curse upon (the tribes of) Banu Lihyan, Ra'l and Dhakwan". Then, he fell in prostration. Khufaf said: for that, invoking curse against the unbelievers has been authorized.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Khufaf Ibn Ima, but without the statement: for that, invoking curse against the unbelievers has been authorized.

[55] Performing the missed (obligatory) prayer, and the desirability of hastening to offer it

309-(680) Abu Huraira narrated: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned from the holy battle of Khaibar, he travelled for one night. Then, when he intended to (take rest for) sleep, he descended (at some place) and said to Bilal: "Keep on guard at night for us (to tell us when the time of Fajr prayer comes)".

Bilal prayed as much as he was doomed to do, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions fell asleep. When the time of the dawn approached, Bilal reclined against the back of his mount, facing the (direction from which the) dawn (would rise). He was overwhelmed by sleep while leaning against the back of his camel. Neither The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", nor Bilal nor anyone of his companions got up until the sun rose upon them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was the first of them to get up.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was shocked and he said: "O Bilal! (What has happened?)" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! I was taken up by the same, which took up you". He (The Prophet) ordered them to drive (their mounts). They drove their mounts to some distance. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered ablution (followed by his companions), and ordered Bilal to pronounce the prayer establishment, and he led the Morning prayer with them.

When he finished the prayer he said: "Whoever forgot a certain (obligatory) prayer should offered it immediately if he remembered it, for Allah says: "and establish regulate prayer for celebrating my praise"". (Ta Ha 14) (Yunus said that Ibn Shihab recited it: "for remembrance").

310-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: Once, we descended (at some place for rest) with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". We (slept and) did not get up until the sun rose. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "Let everybody of you take hold of his camel's nose string (in order to go away from this place). However, it is a place where Satan visited us". We did so. He called for water, performed ablution and offered two prostrations. Ya'qub said that he prayed two prostrations. then the prayer establishment was pronounced and he led the Morning prayer.

فَلَمَّا قَضَى الصَّلاةَ قَالَ: «مَنْ نَسِيَ الصَّلاةَ فَلْيُصَلِّهَا إِذَا ذَكَرَهَا. فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ قَالَ: أَقِمِ الصَّلاةَ لِذِكْرِي».

311-(681) Abu Quatada narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said addressing us: "You would travel in the evening and the night until (Allah willing) you would come to a place of water in the morning". So the people traveled, paying no attention to one another. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" also traveled till it was midnight. I was by his side. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" began to be overwhelmed by slumber and he leaned (to one side) of his camel. I came and supported him without awaking him till he sat poised on his mount. He went on traveling till a major part of the night was over and (he again) leaned (to one side) of his camel. I supported him without awaking him till he sat poised on his mount. Then, he traveled till the time of dawn approached. He (for the third time) leaned, and this time, he was more leaning than the two earlier times and he was about to fall down.

I came and supported him and he raised his head and asked: "Who is this?" I said: "This is Abu Quatada". He asked: "How long have you been traveling along with me as such?" I said: "I have been traveling as such since the night started". He said: "May Allah save you, as you saved His Prophet (from falling down)". Then, he asked: "Do you see that we are hidden from the people?" He asked once again: "Do you see anyone?" I said: "Here is a rider". I said once again: "Here is another rider". (I kept saying so) until we gathered together and we were seven riders.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stepped aside of the highway and placed his head (for sleep) and said: "Keep on guard of our Prayer for us". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was the first to get up while the rays of sun were falling on his back. We got up in a state of shock. He (the Prophet) said: "Ride on". We rode on till the sun had risen high. Then, he came down from his camel and called for a jug of water, which I had with me, in which, there was little water. He performed ablution with that which was less than his usual ablutions and some water of that had been left.

He said to Abu Quatada: "Keep with you your jug of water, for it would have a great condition (out of miracle)". Then, Bilal pronounced the Prayer establishment, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered two Rak'as and then performed the Morning Prayer as he used to do everyday. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode on and we rode with him. Some of us whispered to the others saying: "How would the expiation be for our negligence in our Prayers?" Upon this he (the Prophet) asked: "Isn't there in me a good pattern for you? There is no negligence in sleeping, the (true) negligence accounts for the fact that one would not perform the Prayer (intentionally) till the time of the next Prayer comes. He who did so (i.e. neglected the Prayer because of sleep or other unavoidable circumstances) should perform the Prayer when he remembers it, and on the next day he should offer it at its prescribed time".

He (the Prophet) asked: "What do you think the people would have done (at this hour)? In the morning, they would have found their Prophet missing from among them and then Abu Bakr and Umar would have told them that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" must be behind you, for he cannot leave you behind (him), but the people said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is ahead of you. So, if you had obeyed Abu Bakr and Umar, you would have been on the right path".

We proceeded on till we came up to the people (behind whom we had been). (Sometime later) the day rose enough, and everything became hot. They (the Companions) said: "O Messenger of Allah! We are dying of thirst". Upon this he said: "No destruction could befall you". He said once again: "Bring that small cup of mine". Then, he asked for the jug of water to be brought to him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started to pour water (in that small cup) and Abu Quatada would present to them to drink. When the people saw that there was (a little) water in the jug, they fell upon it. Upon this the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behave well! The water is (sufficient) to satisfy all of you".

Then they (the Companions) began to get (their shares of) water quietly, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" began to fill (the cup), and I began to serve them till no one was left except for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I. He filled (the cup) with water and said to me: "Drink it". I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I am not to drink till you do". he said: "The server of the people is the last to drink". I drank and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" also drank, and the people came to the place of water very happy and satisfied.

Abdullah Ibn Rabah said: I was narrating this Hadith in the great mosque, when Imran Ibn Husain said: "O young man! pay attention to what you are telling, for I was also one of the riders on that night". I said: "It is for this reason that you must know this Hadith well". He asked: "Who are you?" I said: "I am one of the Ansar". He said: "You should narrate (it), for you know your Hadith better". I narrated it to the people. Imran said: "I also attended that night, but I do not know anyone else who kept it so well as you have kept it".

312-(682) Imran Ibn Husain narrated: I was with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a journey. We traveled along the whole night, and when it was about to dawn, we got down for rest, and we were overpowered (by sleep) till the sun rose. Abu Bakr was the first to wake among us, and we used not to awake the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from his sleep, in order to give him the opportunity to wake up (according to his own will). Then, Umar woke up. He stood by the side of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and recited Takbir loudly till the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" woke up.

When he rose up his head, he saw that the sun shone. He said: "Proceed on". He traveled along with us till the sun became bright. He dismounted and led us in the Morning Prayer. A person, however, remained away from the people and did not perform the Prayer along with us. After having completed the Prayer, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "O so-and-so! What did prevent you from offering the Prayer with us?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah! I am in a state of ceremonial impurity (after a wet dream)". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to perform Tayammum with dust and offer the Prayer.

He ordered me to go ahead immediately along with other riders to find out water, for we were very thirsty. We were traveling when we came across a woman who was sitting (on a camel) with her legs hanging over two leather water skins. We asked her: "How far could water be found?" She said: "Far, very far, very far. You cannot get water". We asked: "How long is the distance between (the houses of) your family and water?" She said: "It is (as long as covered in) a day and night". We said to her: "You should go to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"". She asked: "Who is the Messenger of Allah?" However, we could be able to bring her to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who asked her (about water), and she informed him the same as she had told us and added that she was a widow having orphan children.

He ordered that her camel should be made to kneel down and he gargled in the openings (of her leather water skins). The camel was then raised up and we all, forty thirsty men, drank water till we were completely satisfied. We filled all leather water skins we had with us and we washed our companion (who was in a state of ceremonial impurity), but we made no camel drink, and they (the leather water skins) were about to burst (because of excessive water). Then, he said: "Bring whatever you have with you". So we collected the fragments (of food) and dates, which we packed up in a bundle, and said to her: "Take it away. This is for your children, and you should know that we decreased nothing from your water".

فَجَعَلَ يُكَبِّرُ وَيَرْفَعُ صَوْتَهُ بِالتَّكْبِيرِ. حَتَّى اسْتَيْقَظَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَلَمَّا رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ وَرَأَى الشَّمْسَ قَدْ بَزَغَتْ قَالَ: «ارْتَحِلُوا» فَسَارَ بِنَا. حَتَّى إِذَا ابْيَضَّتِ الشَّمْسُ نَزَلَ فَصَلَّى بِنَا الْغَدَاةَ، فَاعْتَزَلَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ لَمْ يُصَلِّ مَعَنَا، فَلَمَّا انْصَرَفَ قَالَ لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «يَا فُلاَنُ، مَا مَنَعَكَ أَنْ تُصَلِّيَ مَعَنَا؟» قَالَ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ، أَصَابَتْنِي جَنَابَةٌ، فَأَمَرَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَتَيَمَّمَ بِالصَّعِيدِ، فَصَلَّى.

When she returned to her family, she said: "No doubt, I have met the greatest magician from amongst the human beings, or (it must be that) he is a Prophet, as he claims to be". Then, she related (to them) what had happened and Allah guided those people (to the right path) through that woman. She embraced Islam, and so did the people.

(...)Imran Ibn Husain narrated: Once, we were in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a journey. We travelled throughout the night until there came the end of the night, a short while before dawn, we lay down (to take rest), in such a way as nothing is sweeter for a traveller than it. Nothing awakened us but the heat of the sun. (Then, he narrated the whole Hadith, which is like the same previous narration. But here he added): When Umar Ibn Al-Khattab woke up, he saw what had happened to the people. And he was a big-bellied and strong-built man. He recited Takbir loudly till The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" woke up by the loudness of his voice in Takbir. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up, the people complained to him what had happened. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no harm; you'd better proceed on". (and he narrated the (remaining of the) Hadith).

313-(683) Abu Quatada narrated that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in a journey and dismounted for rest at night, he would lie down on his right side, and whenever he lay down for rest before the dawn, he would stretch his forearm and place his head over his palm.

314-(684) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who forgets a certain (obligatory) prayer, should offer it immediately when he remembers it, and there is no compensation for it except that (performing)". Quatada commented (quoting Allah's saying): "And establish the regulate prayers for celebrating My praises".

(6) The Book Of Travellers' Prayer And Shortening It

[1] The prayer of the travellers and shortening it

1-(685) A'isha narrated: When the prayer was enjoined, it was of two Rak'as only (in every prayer) whether in residence or on journey. Then the prayers offered on journey remained the same, but the Rak'as of the prayers in residence (for non-travellers) were increased.

2-(...) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that A'isha, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: When Allah enjoined the prayer, it was of two Rak'as. Then, He completed it in residence, and the prayer on journey remained as it was enjoined at first.

3-(...) Urwa narrated that A'isha told that when the prayer was enjoined at first, it was of two Rak'as. The prayer on journey remained the same, while the prayer in residence was completed. Az-Zuhri said: I asked Urwa: "Then, why did A'isha use to complete the prayer on journey?" he said: "She interpreted the matter as Uthman did".

4-(686) Ya'li Ibn Umaiyya narrated: I said to Umar Ibn Al-Khattab: "(Allah said): "When ye travel through the earth, there is no blame on you if ye shorten your prayers, for fear the Unbelievers may attack you: for the Unbelievers are unto you open enemies". (Women 101) and now the people became safe". He said: "Indeed, I considered that which you consider, about which I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "It is a charity, which Allah has bestowed upon you; and you should accept His charity"".

(...) Ya'li Ibn Umaiyya narrated: I said to Umar Ibn Al-Khattab...(and mentioned a Hadith like that transmitted by Ibn Idris).

5-(687) Ibn Abbas narrated: Allah has enjoined the prayer through the tongue of your Prophet as four Rak'as in residence, two Rak'as on journey, and one Rak'a in the state of fear.

6-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated: Allah has enjoined the prayer through the tongue of your Prophet as two Rak'as for the traveller, four Rak'as for the resident, and one Rak'a in the state of fear.

7-(688) Quatada narrated from Musa Ibn Salama Al-Hudhali: I asked Ibn Abbas: "How much would I pray if I am in Mecca, in case I do not pray with the imam?" he said: "Two Rak'as, according to the tradition of Abu Al-Qasim (The Prophet) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"".

8-(689) Isa Ibn Hafs Ibn Asim Ibn Umar Ibn Al-Khattab narrated from his father: I accompanied Ibn Umar on the way to Mecca and he led us in a two-Rak'a prayer for the noon (Dhuhr) prayer. Then, he went forward and we too went with him to a place where he dismounted and sat and we sat with him. He cast a glance over the side where he offered prayer and saw people standing. He asked: "What are they doing?" I said: "They are glorifying Allah (i.e. offering the Sunna prayer)". He said: "Had I done so, I would have rather completed my (obligatory) prayer. O my nephew! I accompanied the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on a journey, and he made no addition to two Rak'as, until Allah caused him to die. Then, I accompanied Abu Bakr who added nothing to two Rak'as until Allah caused him to die. Then, I accompanied Umar who added nothing to two Rak'as until Allah caused him to die. Then, I accompanied Uthman who added nothing to two Rak'as until Allah caused him to die. Indeed, Allah said: " Verily in the Messenger of Allah you have a good pattern"". (The Confederates "Al-Ahzab" 21)

9-(...) Hafs Ibn Asim narrated: Once, I became ill, and Ibn Umar came to visit me (and inquire about my health). I asked him about glorifying Allah (i.e. offering the Sunna prayers) on journey. He said: "I accompanied The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey, and I did not see him glorifying (i.e. offering such Sunna prayers). Had I glorified (i.e. performed the Sunna prayers), I would have rather completed (my obligatory prayers which I shorten on journey). No doubt, Allah has said: "In The Messenger of Allah, you have a good pattern"".

23-(...) Nafi narrated that once Ibn Umar announced the call for prayer on a cold, windy night. He said at the end of his call: "Pray in your houses. Pray in your houses". He further said: "Whenever it was a cold, rainy night, while being on journey, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would order the Mu'adhdhin to say: "Pray in your houses"".

24-(...) Nafi narrated that Once Ibn Umar announced the call for the prayer in (the place of) Dajnan...(and mentioned the same previous narration, and said: "Pray in your houses", and he did not repeat the words of Ibn Umar: "Pray in your houses").

25-(698) Jaber narrated: Once, we set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on a certain journey, and it rained. Upon this, he (The Prophet) said: "Let anyone of you pray in his dwelling place, if he wanted".

26-(699) Ibn Abbas was reported to have told the Mu'adhdhin that after saying the statement: "I testify that there is no god but Allah, I testify that Muhammad is Allah's Messenger" he would not say: "Come for the prayer" but he should say: "Pray at your homes. " The people began to look at each other (surprisingly). Ibn Abbas said: "Are you surprised by that? It was done by one (i.e. The Prophet) who was much better than me. It (Friday prayer) is really obligatory, but, I disliked to trouble you (and force you) to get out and walk in mud and slippery ground".

44-(...) Salim narrated from his father: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" combining both Maghrib and Isha prayers, whenever he wanted to hasten in proceeding.

45-(...) Salim Ibn Abdullah narrated: my father told me: I saw that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wanted to hasten in proceeding while being on journey, he would delay offering Maghrib prayer, and then perform it along with Isha prayer.

46-(704) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out on a journey before the sun declined, he would delay offering the Noon (Dhuhr) prayer to the time of the Afternoon (Asr) prayer, when he would dismount and perform both of them together. But, if the sun declined before his departure, he would offer the Noon prayer before setting out.

47-(...) Az-Zuhri narrated from Anas: If The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to combine two (obligatory) prayers on journey, he would delay (offering) the Noon prayer to the commencement of the time of the Afternoon (Asr) prayer, when he would pray both of them together.

48-(...) Anas narrated: If The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wanted to hasten in proceeding on journey, he would delay (offering) the Noon (Dhuhr) prayer to the first hour of the time of Asr prayer, and he would combine both of them. He would also delay (offering) the Evening (Maghrib) prayer to perform it along with the Night (Isha) prayer after the disappearance of the twilight.

[6] Combining two (obligatory) prayers in residence

49-(705) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated that Ibn Abbas said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" combined both the Noon (Dhuhr) and the Afternoon (Asr) prayers, and offered both the Evening (Maghrib) and the Night (Isha) prayers together, when there was neither fear, nor was he on journey.

50-(...) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated from Ibn Abbas that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" combined both Dhuhr and Asr prayers in Medina, when there was no fear, and he was not on journey. I (the sub-narrator) said: I asked: "What did cause him to do so?" it was said: "He did not want to trouble his nation".

54-(705) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated that Ibn Abbas said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" combined both the Noon (Dhuhr) and the Afternoon (Asr) prayers, and offered both the Evening (Maghrib) and the Night (Isha) prayers together in Medina, when there was neither fear, nor was it rainy. I (Sa'id, according to the narration of Waki) said to Ibn Abbas: "What did lead him to do so?" he said: "He wanted not to trouble his nation". It was said to Ibn Abbas (according to the narration of Abu Mu'awiya): "What did he want from that?" he said: "He wanted not to trouble his nation".

55-(...) Jaber Ibn Zaid narrated that Ibn Abbas said: I offered with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" eight (Rak'as for both Dhuhr and Asr prayers) together, and seven (Rak'as for both Maghrib and Isha prayers) together. I (the sub-narrator) said: "O Abu Ash-Sha'tha! I think he delayed Dhuhr and prayed Asr early, as well as he delayed Maghrib and prayed Isha early". He replied: "So do I".

56-(...) Jaber Ibn Zaid narrated from Ibn Abbas that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed in Medina seven (Rak'as) and eight (Rak'as) for Dhuhr, Asr, Maghrib and Isha.

57-(...) Abdullah Ibn Shaqiq narrated: Once, Ibn Abbas delivered a sermon after Asr until the sun set and the stars appeared, and the people started to say: "The prayer! The prayer!" then, a man from (the tribe of) Banu Tamim came straightly, without slackening or turning away (and

[9] The undesirability to start offering a supererogatory prayer when the Mu'adhdhin begins the call for the prayer (establishment)

63-(710) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the prayer was established, then there should be no prayer (to be performed) except for the obligatory one".

It was narrated by Warqa, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Zakariyya Ibn Ishaq, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...) Hammad Ibn Zaid narrated the same from Aiyub from Amr Ibn Dinar from Ata Ibn Yasar from Abu Huraira from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Hammad said: Later, I met Amr, who narrated it to me, without attributing it (to The Prophet).

65-(711) Abdullah Ibn Malik Ibn Buhaina narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed by a man, who was offering prayer, when the Morning prayer was established. He said something to him, which we could not apprehend. When we finished (the prayer) we surrounded him and asked him: "What did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" say to you?" He told: "He (The Prophet) said to me: "Some of you are about to offer four (Rak'as instead of two) for the Morning prayer"".

66-(...) Ibn Buhaina narrated: Once, the Morning prayer was established, while a man was offering prayer. Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Are you offering four (Rak'as instead of two) for the Morning prayer?"

67-(712) Abdullah Ibn Sarjis reported: A person entered the mosque, while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was leading the dawn prayer. He offered two Rak'as in a corner of the mosque, and then joined The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in prayer. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said the end salutations, he said: "O so-and-so! Which one of these two prayers did you regard (as your obligatory prayer): The one that you offered alone or the prayer that you performed with us?"

now?" I said: "Yes". He said: "Then, let your camel and enter (the mosque) and offer two Rak'as". I entered and prayed, and then I returned.

74-(716) Ka'b Ibn Malik narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never returned from his journeys except by day, particularly at forenoon. Whenever he returned, he would start by (going to) the mosque, wherein he would offer two Rak'as, and then sit.

[13] It is desirable to offer the Forenoon "Duha" prayer, the minimum of which is two Rak'as, the maximum of which is eight, and the average is to offer four, and the exhortation to pray it

75-(717) Abdullah Ibn Shaqiq narrated: I asked A'isha: "Did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" use to offer the Forenoon prayer?" she replied: "No, except that if he returned from a journey".

he had come into her home on the day of the Conquest of Mecca, and offered eight Rak'as, lighter than which "I have never seen him praying, but he performed both bowings and prostrations perfectly".

81-(...) Abdullah Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Nawfal reported: I investigated, and I was eager to find anyone, who could tell me that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the supererogatory Forenoon (prayer). However, I found no one to tell me about that, but Umm Hani, daughter of Abu Talib told me that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, after the day rose, on the day of the Conquest of Mecca. A garment was brought to him, with which he was screened, and he took a bath, after which he got up and offered eight Rak'as. I do not know, whether his standing, bowing or prostration was longer (than the others) for they were proportionate. She said: "I have never seen him offering such a supererogatory prayer, whether before or after it". Al-Muradi narrated from Yunus and did not mention that "he told me".

Abu Murra, the freed slave of Umm Hani, daughter of Abu Talib, narrated: I heard Umm Hani saying: On the day of the Conquest (of Mecca), I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and found him bathing, and his daughter Fatima was screening him with a mantle. I greeted him. He asked: "Who is she?" I replied: "I am Umm Hani Bint Abu Talib". He said: "Welcome! O Umm Hani". After he had finished his bath he stood up and prayed eight Rak'as, while wearing a single garment wrapped round his body.

When he came to the end I said: "O Allah's Apostle! My brother Ali Ibn Abu Talib told me that he will kill a person whom I gave shelter and that person is so and so the son of Hubaira". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We shelter the person whom you have sheltered O Umm Hani". Umm Hani further said: "And that was at forenoon".

[17] The (supererogatory) night prayer, and how many Rak'as did The Prophet use to pray at night, and the Witr is a single Rak'a, and a single Rak'a is regarded as a valid prayer

121-(736) A'isha narrated: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to pray eleven Rak'as at night, offering a single Rak'a for the Witr. Whenever he finished them, he would lie down on his right side, until the Mu'adhdhin came to him. Then, he (the Prophet) would offer two light Rak'as (before obligatory Dawn prayer).

122-(...) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that A'isha, the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to pray (in the period) between his finishing from Isha prayer, which the people call Darkness, and the Fajr prayer, eleven Rak'as, and he used to utter the end salutations between every two Rak'as. He used to offer a single Rak'a for the Witr. Whenever the Mu'adhdhin became silent (after finishing the call for prayer), and the dawn appeared to him, and the Mu'adhdhin came to him, he would get up and pray two Rak'as, after which he would lie down on his right side until the Mu'adhdhin came to pronounce the prayer establishment.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab, with the same chain of transmitters. Harmala narrated the same Hadith, without mentioning "and the dawn appeared to him, and the Mu'adhdhin came to him" and without mentioning "the prayer establishment", and the remaining of the Hadith is the same as that of Amr.

123-(737) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that A'isha said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer thirteen Rak'as (for the supererogatory prayer) at night, including five Rak'as for the Witr, and he never sat except at the end of them.

She said: His prayer at night, either in Ramadan or in any month else, consisted of thirteen Rak'as, including the two Rak'as of the dawn.

128-(...) A'isha narrated: The (supererogatory) prayer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at night was ten Rak'as. Then, he would offer a single Rak'a (for the Witr prayer). Then, he would offer the two Rak'as of the dawn. The total was then thirteen Rak'as.

129-(739) Abu Ishaq narrated: I asked Al-Aswad about what A'isha told him concerning the (Night supererogatory) Prayer of The Messenger of Allah" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". She said: "He used to sleep in the first portion of the night, and wake up in the latter portion. If he had a desire of having sexual relation with his wife, he would satisfy his desire, and then go to bed. whenever the first call for the Prayer was pronounced, he would jump". (By Allah! She did not say that he would stand up, and pour water over him. By Allah! She did not say that he would take a bath but I know what she meant). "If he did not have a sexual 139-(746) Quatada narrated from Zurara that Sa'd Ibn Hisham Ibn Amer decided to participate in a holy battle in the cause of Allah. When he came to Medina, he intended to sell a house of his there, by whose price he would buy arms and horses and fight against the Romans until death. When he came to Medina, he met some of its people. They dissuaded him from doing such a thing ,and informed him that a group of six men had decided to do so during the lifetime of the Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade them to do it, and asked: "Is there not in me a good pattern for you?""

When they narrated this to him, he returned his wife, whom he had divorced and made (people) witnesses of her return. Then, he came to Ibn Abbas and asked him about the Witr of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Ibn Abbas asked: "Wouldn't I guide you to one who knows best from amongst the people of the world about the Witr of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" He asked: "Who is it?" He said: "It is A'isha. Go to her and ask her (about that) and then come and inform me about her reply to you".

I came to Hakim Ibn Aflah and requested him to take me to her. He said: "I would not go to her, for I forbade her to speak anything (about the dispute) between the two factions, but she refused (my advice) and went on (taking part in that dispute)". I took an oath that he should guide me to her.

We went to A'isha and asked her permission to enter into her. She granted us permission and we entered. She asked: "Are you Hakim?" She recognized him. He replied in the affirmative. She asked: "Who is that person with you?" He said: "He is Sa'd Ibn Hisham". She asked: "Which Hisham (do you mean)?" He said: "Hisham Ibn Amer". She invoked mercy (from Allah) upon him (Amer) and spoke good of him. (Quatada said that he died as a martyr in (the holy battle of) Uhud).

I said: "O Mother of the Believers! Tell me about the character of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"". She asked: "Do you not read The Quran?" I said: "Yes (I read it)". She said: "The character of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was (taken from) The Quran". It seemed to me to get up and not to ask anything (more than that) till I die. But I changed my mind and said: "Tell me about the standing of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for the supererogatory Night prayer)". She asked: "Did you not recite (Allah's saying): "O thou wrapped up"?" I answered in the affirmative. She said: "Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" enjoined the Night Prayer at the beginning of this Sura. So the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions offered this (Night Prayer) for one year. Allah held back the conclusion of this Sura for twelve months in the heaven, after which He revealed the concluding Verses of this Sura, which lightened (the burden of that Prayer). The result was that the Night Prayer became supererogatory after being obligatory".

I said: "O Mother of the Believers! Tell me about the Witr of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"". She said: "We used to bring the teeth cleanser for him, water for his ablution, and Allah would awaken him whenever He wished during the night. He would use the teeth cleanser, perform ablution, and offer nine Rak'as, and would not sit except in the eighth of them. He would celebrate Allah, praise and supplicate Him. Then he would get up without uttering the salutation and pray the ninth Rak'a. Then, he would sit, celebrate Allah, praise and supplicate Him, and then utter the salutation so loud that we would hear it. Then, he would pray two Rak'as in a sitting position, after uttering the salutation. The total then was eleven Rak'as.

O my son! when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" grew old and put on flesh, he offered seven (Rak'as instead of nine) for the Witr, doing in the two Rak'as the same as he had done early. In this way, the total became nine. O my son! Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Prayer, he liked to be regular on offering it. Whenever he was overpowered by sleep or pain and he failed to offer the Prayer at night, he would offer twelve Rak'as by day. I never knew that Allah's Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited the whole Quran in a single night, or kept praying through the night till morning, or observed fast for a complete month except (the month of) Ramadan".

فَلَمَّا أَسَنَّ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ، وَأَخَذَهُ اللَّحْمُ، أَوْتَرَ بِسَبْعٍ. وَصَنَعَ فِي الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ مِثْلَ صَنِيعِهِ الأَوَّلِ. فَتِلْكَ تِسْعٌ يَا بُنَيَّ.

Then, I went to Ibn Abbas to whom I narrated that Hadith. He said: "She has told the truth. Had I gone to her and got into her presence, I would have listened to it orally from her". He said: "Had I known that you do not go to her, I would not have related her narration to you".

"O Messenger of Allah! How should I make the (supererogatory) Night prayer an odd number (of Rak'as)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever offered (the supererogatory Night) prayer should perform it in pairs, but if he felt the approach of the morning, he should offer one single Rak'a so as to make his prayer an odd number (of Rak'as)". (This was narrated by Abu Kuraib who mentioned Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah and not Ibn Umar).

157-(...) Anas Ibn Sirin narrated: I asked Ibn Umar saying: "What is your opinion concerning the two Rak'as before dawn: Should I prolong the recitation in them?" he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the (supererogatory) Night prayer as two Rak'as followed by two and so on, and then pray one single Rak'a to make his prayer an odd number (of Rak'as)". I said to him: "I did not ask you about that". He said to me: "What a huge man you are! (In reference to his stupidity and little patience) do you not let me narrate to you the Hadith completely? The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the (supererogatory) Night prayer as two Rak'as, followed by two, and so on, and then make his prayer an odd number (of Rak'as) by offering one single Rak'a. Then, he would pray two Rak'as before dawn, (so much short and light in relation to all of his prayers) as if he was hearing the Adhan (for the prayer establishment)". Khalaf (a sub-narrator) said: "Did you see (him offering) the two Rak'as before dawn?" he did not mention "prayer".

158-(...) Anas Ibn Sirin narrated: I asked Ibn Umar...(and mentioned the same previous narration) and he added: "And he (The Prophet) used to make Witr the end of the (supererogatory) Night prayer by offering one single Rak'a". He also added: "Stop! Stop! What a huge you are!"

159-(...) Ibn Umar narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The (supererogatory) Night prayer is to be offered as pairs (of Rak'as), and if you feel the approach of dawn, you should make it an odd number (of Rak'as) by offering one single Rak'a". It was said to Ibn Umar: "What does the (word) pair mean?" He said: "(It means) that the end salutation should be uttered after every two Rak'as".

160-(754) Abu Sa'id (Al-Khudri) narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Pray Witr before the (time of the) morning comes". Abu Sa'id narrated that they (The Companions) asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about Witr. He (The Prophet) replied: "Pray Witr before it is morning".

[21] He, who is afraid that he might not be able to stand for Tahajjud prayer at the end of the night, should pray Witr at its beginning

162-(755) Jaber narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who is afraid that he might not be able to get up (for Tahajjud prayer) at the end of the night, should pray Witr at its beginning; and he, who had a desire to get up at the end of the night should pray Witr at the end of the night. However, the prayer at the end of the night is witnessed (or attended by the angels), and that is preferable".

[25] Exhortation to stand for (supererogatory) Night prayer in Ramadan, known as At-Tarawih

173-(759) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever establishes (supererogatory) prayers during the nights of Ramadan faithfully out of sincere belief, hoping to attain Allah's rewards (not for showing off), all his past sins will be forgiven".

174-(...) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to encourage the people to stand for the (supererogatory) Night prayer in (the month of) Ramadan, without ordering them to offer it obligatorily. He said: "Whoever establishes (supererogatory) prayers during the nights of Ramadan faithfully out of sincere belief, hoping to attain Allah's rewards (not for showing off), all his past sins will be forgiven". Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, and the matter was as such (i.e. exhortation not obligation). It remained so during the caliphate of Abu Bakr, and the early part of the caliphate of Umar.

175-(760) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever observes fasts during (the month of) Ramadan faithfully out of sincere belief, hoping to attain Allah's rewards (not for showing off), all his past sins will be forgiven; and whoever stands for prayer during the Night of Power "Qadr" faithfully out of sincere belief, hoping to attain Allah's rewards (not for showing off), all his past sins will be forgiven".

176-(...) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "whoever stands for prayer during the Night of Power "Qadr", and it happened that it was really (the Night of Power), (I saw that he said) faithfully out of sincere belief, hoping to attain Allah's rewards (not for showing off), all his past sins will be forgiven".

177-(761) A'isha narrated: Once Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out (at night) and prayed in the mosque and some men prayed with him. In the second night he prayed and more people prayed behind him. But in the third or fourth night, when they assembled

(in the mosque) The Prophet did not come to them. In the morning he said to them: "Verily I learnt what you had done, but nothing prevented me from coming to you except that I was afraid that this (Tahajjud) prayer might be made obligatory". This was in Ramadan.

178-(...) A'isha narrated: Once at midnight Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out and prayed in the mosque and some men prayed with him. The next morning the people spoke about that and so more people gathered and prayed with him (in the second night). They circulated the news in the morning, and so, on the third night the number of people increased greatly. Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out and they prayed behind him. On the fourth night the mosque was overwhelmed by the people till it could not accommodate them.

But, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not come out and some people shouted: "The prayer! The prayer!" however, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out only for the Fajr prayer. After he had finished the prayer, he faced the people and recited : "I testify that There is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is His Messenger". Then he said: "And then: Verily your presence (in the mosque at night) was not hidden from me, but I was afraid that this (supererogatory) prayer might be made obligatory; and you might fail to perform it".

179-(762) Ubai Ibn Ka'b reported a statement which he attributed to Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud, in which he said: "He who stands for (supererogatory) prayer (every night) during the year, will happen to apprehend the Night of Power". Ubai said: "By Allah, but Whom there is no god, that was in (the month of) Ramadan. (He took an oath with restrictions) By Allah, I know the night; it is the night on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to pray. [26] The supplication in the (supererogatory) Night prayer

181-(763) Ibn Abbas narrated: I spent a night with my maternal aunt Maimuna. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up during the night and answered the call of nature, then washed his face and hands and went to sleep. He then got up again and came to the water skin and loosened its straps, then performed good ablution between the two extremes. He then stood up and offered the (supererogatory Night) Prayer. I stood up and stretched my body, for fear that he might feel that I was there to know (what he used to do at night). So I performed ablution and stood up to offer prayer. Because I stood on his left side, he took hold of my hand and turned me to (stand on) his right side.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered thirteen Rak'as for his (supererogatory) Night Prayer. Then, he lay down and slept and snored. However, he used to snore while being asleep. Then Bilal came and told him of the (coming of the time of the Fajr) Prayer. He (the Prophet) stood up for the Prayer without repeating ablution. His supplication was as follows: "O Allah! Place light in my heart, light in my sight, light in my hearing, light on my right, light on my left, light above me, light below me, light in front of me, light behind me, and enhance light for me".

Kuraib (a sub-narrator) said: There are (further) seven in my heart (which I forgot). Later, I met some of the descendants of Abbas who narrated them to me, including: "(And make light) in my sinew, in my flesh, in my blood, in my hair, in my skin", and mentioned further two.

182-(...) Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas narrated that Ibn Abbas told him that he stayed overnight in the house of Maimuna, The Mother of The Believers, who was his (Ibn Abbas's) maternal aunt. He added: I lay on the bed cushion transversally while Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his wife lay in the lengthwise direction of the cushion. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" slept till the middle of the night, either a bit before or a bit after it and then woke up, rubbing the traces of sleep off his face with his hands. Then, he recited the last ten verses of The Sura of Al Imran, got up and went to a hanging

He did not pour but a little water. Then, he awakened me and I stood up". The remaining of the narration is the same.

184-(...) Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas narrated: Ibn Abbas reported: Once I slept at Maimuna's home wherein The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was at this night. (When) The Messenger of Allah performed ablution and stood up for prayer, I got up and stood on his left side. But he drew me to his right side. Then he prayed thirteen Rak'as. Then, he slept till his breaths sound was heard. Whenever The Messenger of Allah slept his breaths sound was audible. Later, when the Mu'adhdhin came (to pronounce the call for the prayer) he got up and left for the prayer without repeating the ablution. Amr said: I transmitted it to Bukair Ibn Al-Ashajj who said: Kuraib narrated it to me.

185-(...) Makhrama Ibn Sulaiman narrated from Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas that Ibn Abbas said: Once, I stayed the night in the house of my maternal aunt Maimuna, daughter of Al-Harith, to whom I said: "If The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up, then you should awaken me". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up (and stood for prayer) and I got up (and stood) on his left side. But, he took hold of my hand and made me stand on his right side. Whenever I had a nap, he would take hold of my earlobe. He prayed eleven Rak'as. Then, he sat, with his legs close to his abdomen, and wrapped in his garment, and then he lay down to the extent that his breaths were heard by me while being asleep. When the dawn appeared to him, he got up and offered two light Rak'as.

186-(...) Amr Ibn Dinar narrated from Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas that Once, Ibn Abbas stayed the night in the house of his maternal aunt Maimuna. (later) at night, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and offered light (but perfect) ablution from a hanging water skin. (The sub-narrator said that he (the narrator) described how he (The Prophet) had offered ablution, illustrating how it was light (though perfect)). Ibn Abbas said: Then, I got up and did the same as The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had done. Then, I stood on his left side, but he drew me to his right side. He prayed (as much as Allah wished) and then lay down and slept to the extent that he snored. Then, Bilal came and informed him of (the time of) the prayer. He (got up and) went out and led the Morning prayer without repeating ablution. (Sufyan, a sub-narrator said: This was a unique characteristic granted to The Prophet, because we were informed that though the eyes of The Prophet sleep, his heart never sleeps).

Ibn Abbas narrated: I spent a night in the house of my maternal aunt Maimuna, and observed how The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the (supererogatory Night) prayer. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up during the night and answered the call of nature, then washed his face and hands and went to sleep. He then got up again and came to the water skin, loosened its straps, and poured some water in a bowl and inclined it with his hands (towards himself). Then he performed good ablution between the two extremes. He then stood up and offered the (supererogatory Night) Prayer. I came and stood on his left side, but he took hold of me and made me stand on his right side.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered thirteen Rak'as for his (supererogatory) Night Prayer. Then, he lay down and slept and snored. However, we used to know that he slept by his snoring. Then he went out and offered the (Fajr) prayer. His supplication in his prayer or prostration was as follows: "O Allah! Place light in my heart, light in my hearing, light in my sight, light on my right, light on my left, light in front of me, light behind me, light above me, light below me, and make light for me (or make me light)".

196-(766) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated: I was with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a journey when we reached a watering place. He asked: "O Jaber! Are you not going to enter it?" I answered in the affirmative. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got down and I entered it. Then, he went away to answer the call of nature, and I prepared water for ablution for him. He came back and performed ablution, and then stood and prayed in one garment, having its ends tied from the opposite sides. I stood behind him, but he caught hold of my ear and made me stand on his right side.

197-(767) A'isha narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (got up and) stood for the (supererogatory) Night prayer, he would commence his prayer with two light Rak'as.

198-(768) Abu Huraira narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you (got up and) stood for (supererogatory) prayer at night, he should commence his prayer with two light Rak'as".

199-(769) Ibn Abbas narrated: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up at night to offer (supererogatory) prayer, he would say: "O Allah! As for the narration of Ibn Juraij, it is the same as narrated by Malik, except in two words: He replaced the word "Supporter" with the word "Custodian", and said: "and what I did secretly". But the narration of Ibn Uyaina has some additions, and is different from that of Ibn Juraij and Malik.

[28] What was narrated (from The Prophet) concerning the one who sleeps the whole night until morning

205-(774) Abu Wa'il narrated from Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud): Once, it was mentioned before The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that a man slept the whole night until it was morning. Upon this, he said: "This is a man, in whose ears (or ear) Satan urinated".

206-(775) Ali Ibn Abu Talib narrated: One night Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me and (my wife) Fatima and asked: "Won't you offer (the night supererogatory) prayer?" I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Our souls are in the hands of Allah and if He wants us to get up He will make us get up". When I said that, he left us without saying a word. But I heard him, while turning away, striking his thigh and saying: " but man is, in most things, contentious". (The Cave "Al-Kahf" 54)

207-(776) Abu Huraira narrated: Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan puts three knots at the back of the head of any of you if he is asleep. On every knot he reads and exhales the following words: "The night is long, so stay asleep". When one wakes up and celebrates Allah, one knot is undone. When he performs ablution, the second knot is undone. When he prays the third knot is undone, and then, one would get up energetic with a good heart in the morning. Otherwise he would get up lazy and with a mischievous heart (if he does not stand for prayer at night with The Satan's knots remaining on his head's back)".

[29] It is preferable to offer the supererogatory prayer at one's home, though it is permissible to pray it in the mosque

[30] The merit of such regular acts as standing for Night prayer

215-(782) Abu Salama narrated that A'isha said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had a (piece of) mat, which he used to take as an apartment every night in order to offer (supererogatory) prayer in it. The people started to (come and) pray following his prayer (at night). He used to spread it by day. One night, they gathered (for prayer), and he said to them: "O people! You should do but those deeds, which you can do regularly. Verily, Allah never gets exhausted (of giving you rewards) even if you got exhausted (of doing good deeds). The deed, which is the dearest to Allah is that which is done regularly, no matter slight it might be. However, whenever the family of (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did anything, they would keep on doing it regularly".

216-(...) Abu Salama narrated from A'isha that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked: "Which act is the dearest to Allah?" he said: "It is that which is done regularly, no matter slight it might be".

217-(783) Alqama narrated: I asked A'isha saying: "O Mother of the Believers! How was the act of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? Did he use to fix certain days (for certain deeds)?" she said: "No! his act used to be (done by him) regularly; and who from amongst you could do what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do?"

218-(...) Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad narrated that A'isha told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The deed, which is the dearest to Allah Almighty is that, which is done permanently and regularly, no matter small it might be". He (the sub-narrator) said: Whenever A'isha did anything (of deeds), she would constantly keep on doing it regularly.

[31] If anyone dozed during the prayer, or was not able to recite The Quran or celebrate (Allah), he should lie down until such a state is over

219-(784) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the Mosque and saw a rope hanging in between its two pillars. He asked: "What is this rope?" The people said: "This rope is for Zainab. When she feels tired, she holds it to keep standing for the prayer". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Don't use it. Remove the rope. You should pray as long as you feel active, and when anyone of you gets tired, sit down" (or he should sit down" according to the narration of Zuhair).

220-(785) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that A'isha, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told him that once, Al-Hawla, daughter of Tuwait Ibn Habib Ibn Asad Ibn Abd Al-Uzza passed by her, while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was with her. I said to him: "This is Al-Hawla, daughter of Tuwait. They (the people) pretend that she (always stands for night supererogatory prayer and) never sleeps during the night". Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented disapprovingly: "She never sleeps during the night! Take (and do) from the deeds only what is in your capacity. By Allah! Allah never gets exhausted (from giving your rewards), even if you get exhausted (of doing deeds)".

221-(...) Hisham narrated: my father (Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair) told me that A'isha told: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into me and there was a woman sitting with me. He asked: "Who is she?" I replied: "She is a woman, who always stands for prayer (at night) and she never sleeps". He said: "You should do only the deeds which are within your capacity. Indeed, Allah never gets tired (of giving rewards) even if you get tired (of doing good deeds). However, the (act of) religion which is dearer to Allah is that, which one does regularly". She was a woman from Banu Asad, according to the Hadith of Abu Usama.

222-(786) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from A'isha that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you dozed during the prayer, he should lie down until the slumber is over. However, if anyone of you prayed while asleep, he would not know whether he asked forgiveness or insulted himself".

223-(787) Hammam Ibn Munabbih reported: This is what Abu Huraira narrated to us from (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (He mentioned many traditions, including the following): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you got up and stood for (supererogatory) prayer at night, and was not able to recite The Quran fluently and did not know what he was saying (because of slumber),, he should lie down (and continue sleeping)".

[32] The virtues of The Holy Quran

[33] The command of reciting The Quran constantly, and it is undesirable to say: I forgot such-and-such a Verse, but it is permissible to say: I was made to forget it

224-(788) Hisham narrated from his father (Urwa) that A'isha reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard a man reciting Quran at night, and he said: "May Allah bestow His Mercy upon him. No doubt, he made me remember such-and-such a Verse of such-and-such a Sura, which I dropped (from my memory)".

225-(...) Hisham narrated from his father that A'isha reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard a man reciting Quran in the Mosque, and he said: "May Allah bestow His Mercy upon him. No doubt, he made me remember such-and-such a Verse, which I dropped (from my memory)".

226-(789) Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The example of the person who keeps The Quran is like the example of the person who has (some) hobbled camels: If he was attentive (in taking care of them constantly), he would keep them, and if he loosened the rope, they would flee away".

227-(...) A Hadith like that narrated by Malik, was narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". In the narration of Musa Ibn Uqba, he (The Prophet) further said: "If The Quran holder stands (for supererogatory prayer) and recites it at night and by day, he surely will keep remembering it; and if he does not stand (for prayer and subsequently does not recite it), he surely will forget it".

228-(790) Abu Wa'il narrated from Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "How bad it is that anyone of them says: "I forgot such-and-such a Verse", (but he should rather say) "I was made to forget it". You should remember The Quran (by reciting it constantly), for it flees away from the breasts of men more than the camels flee away from their tying strings".

229-(...) Shaqiq narrated that Abdullah said: "Be constant on keeping those Mus'hafs (and perhaps he said The Quran), for it (The Quran) flees away from the breasts of men more than the camels escape from their hobbles". On the other hand, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let none of you say: "I forgot such-and-such a Verse", for he was made to forget".

[35] The Prophet's recitation of the Sura of Al-Fath on the day of Meccan Conquest

237-(794) Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal narrated: On the day of the Conquest of Mecca, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited the Sura of The Victory "Al-Fath" while proceeding on his mount, in a vibrant quivering tone.

238-(...) Mu'awiya Ibn Qurra narrated that Ibn Mughaffal said: "I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Meccan Conquest, riding his she-camel, reciting the Sura of Al-Fath". Ibn Mughaffal recited in a vibrant quivering tone (illustrating how The Prophet had recited it). Then Mu'awiya commented: "But for the people, I would have adopted what Ibn Mughaffal reported from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (concerning his recitation in a vibrant quivering tone)".

[36] The coming down of tranquility because of the recitation of Quran

240-(795) Al-Bara narrated: A man was reciting The Sura of The Cave while his horse was tied with two ropes beside him. A cloud came down and spread over that man. It kept on coming closer and closer to him until his horse started jumping (as if it got frightened by something). In the morning, the man came and told The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of that. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "That was the tranquility which came down as a result of (the recitation of) The Holy Quran".

241-(...) Al-Bara narrated: Once, a man was reciting (the Sura of) The Cave "Al-Kahf" while in the house, there was a horse, which got startled. He looked and found a cloud, which spread over him. (In the morning) he mentioned that to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "Keep on reciting O so-and-so! 242-(796) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated that Usaid Ibn Hudair told that while he was reciting (The Quran) at night in his enclosure, his horse suddenly started jumping. When he recited again, the horse jumped. He recited again and the horse jumped as it did before. He (Usaid) said: "I was afraid that the horse might trample on (my son) Yahya (who was beside it). I stood to it (and looked towards the sky), and I saw something like a cloud having what seemed to be lamps, which disappeared and became invisible.

In the morning, I went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! While I was reciting (The Quran) last night in my enclosure, my horse started jumping". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You must have continued reciting, O Ibn Hudair!" I said: "I recited, but it jumped once again". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You must have continued reciting, O Ibn Hudair!" I replied: "I got up (to see the matter), for my son Yahya was near the horse and I feared that it might trample on him. Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me while he was on the pulpit: "Recite (The Quran) before me".

248-(...) Ibrahim narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud: "Recite The Quran to me". He asked: "How would I recite it to you though on you it has been Divinely revealed?" he replied: "I wish to listen to it from anyone other than me". He recited from the beginning of the Sura of Women, until he came to Allah's saying: "How then if we brought from each people a witness, and we brought thee as a witness against these people" (Women 41), whereupon he (The Prophet) started weeping.

Mis'ar narrated: Ma'n told me from Ja'far Ibn Amr Ibn Huraith from his father from Ibn Mas'ud that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" also said: "(I have been) a witness to them as long as I lived among them (or I had been among them)". (Mis'ar doubted).

249-(801) Alqama narrated that Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) said: I was in Hims when somebody said to me: "Recite (The Quran) before us". I recited The Sura of Yusuf. A man objected: "It was not revealed as such". I replied: "I recited it as such before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who agreeably said: "It is well-done"." Then, while I was talking to him, I observed the smell of the wine in his mouth. I said: "Do you tell lies regarding Allah's Book, and, at the same time, drink the wine? Do not leave until you should be lashed". I lashed him according to the legal punishment required in this violation.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, and in the narration of Abu Mu'awiya, there is no mention of "He (The Prophet) said to me: "It is well-done"".

[41] The excellence of reciting The Quran in the prayer, and learning it

250-(802) Abu Salih narrated from Abu Huraira that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would anyone of you like, when he returns home, to find three huge fat pregnant she-camels?" we replied in the affirmative. Upon this, he said: "Then, three Verses (of The Quran) which one would recite in his prayer is better for him than three great fat pregnant she-camels".

251-(803) Uqba Ibn Amer narrated: While we were sitting at (the area of) Suffa (in the mosque), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out and asked us: "Who of you would like to go every morning to But'han or Aqiq (two valleys in Medina), and bring two she-camels of great humps, without committing any sin, or severing any

[42] The excellence of reciting The Quran and the Sura of Heifer

252-(804) Abu Umama Al-Bahili narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Recite The Quran, for it would come on The Day of Judgement as an interceder for its holders. Recite the two bright flourishing Suras, i.e. the Suras of the Heifer "Al-Baqara" and Al Imran, for they would come on The Day of Judgement as two clouds or shades, or as two flocks of birds in rows, (spreading their wings in the sky), pushing away from their reciters (both the Hell and its keepers). Recite the Sura of the Heifer "Al-Baqara", for reciting it is a (source of) blessing, and leaving it is a (source of) misery, and the magicians could not face it".

253-(805) An-Nawwas Ibn Sam'an narrated that he heard from his father that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "On the Day of Judgement, the Quran and those who were well aware of (and acted upon) it will be brought with the Suras of the Heifer "Al-Baqara" and Al Imran in the lead". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made a similitude between them and three elements, which I never forgot. He (The Prophet) likened them to two clouds, or two black shades with light between them, or two flocks of birds in rows, (spreading their wings in the sky), defending their reciter.

[43] The excellence of the Opening Sura of "Al-Fatiha", the concluding Verses of the Sura of the Heifer "Al-Baqara", and the exhortation to recite its last two Verses

254-(806) Ibn Abbas narrated that while Gabriel was sitting with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he heard a creaking sound above him. He raised his head and said: "This is a gate, opened in the heaven today which had never been opened before". Then an angel came down from it (that gate), whereupon he said: "This is an angel
